The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was but who having my prejudice without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial (if they know of it for themselves, and the best proof being occular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any person, and we direct them for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing establishment every day.

My hair is now its natural color and much improved in every other way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking. I am, yours respectfully, HENRY JENKINS.

Firm of Jenkins and Carroll Sts., Brooklyn.

LIVINGSTON, Ala., Feb. 14, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this place. Many use it. My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for two weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having tried all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, &c. S. W. MIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The first, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—was in fact BALD. I have used but 2 half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever, and, from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours, respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D.,
No. 464 Vine Street.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

Originally discovered and prescribed by him as a Specific Remedy for

CONSUMPTION!

The use of the Hypophosphites in CONSUMPTION, Scrofula, Nervous Debility, Consumptive Bronchitis, Dyspepsia, Female Complaints, and all other diseases depending upon a DEFICIENT VITALITY IN THE BLOOD, have proved the most DECIDED and VARIABLE EFFICACY in thousands of cases in Europe and America and established the claim of the discoverer, that they are a SUE PRESERVATIVE and a

SPECIFIC REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION.

Dr. Churchill says: "In no single instance have I found the remedy fail to produce everything that could be reasonably expected from it. In most instances the benefit derived from it has EXCEEDED what could at first have been hoped for, when taking into account the degree and extent of the injury sustained by the lungs previously to the use of the remedy." * * * * "Twenty or twenty-two cases in the third or last stage, treated at my Dispensary during the past year, EIGHT HAVE COMPLETELY RECOVERED, eight have died, and six are still under treatment. DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, cities and country, who are labouring under the small holds certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and prefer to live on and suffer rather than part of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the plain prescription of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with like and worthless remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 12 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in the world superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—12 Howard street, Boston.

The Dr. has rooms and accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. j2 dly

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington,
u . . . 11 57.
76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability, of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given are only those in MORE OF MY RESULTS AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MAGNIN,
Commissioner of Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

FROM Sept 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, Jan. 1, 1859. R. H. EDDY.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

A compound remedy in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will a complete cure must be of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it, has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIVE AND EXCLUSIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTIO , ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the uneasiness of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find it, whether it breaks out through the skin in pimples, eruptions or sores;—cleanse it when you find it is obstructed or sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been erroneously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or anything else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but other no curative properties whatever. Hence bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have grounds for believing it has accomplished a cure where all else, of the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence on which its claims are based, to have been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

These are the most perfect pills that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Price, 25 cents per box; five boxes for $1.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of these remedies, but our space here will not permit the insertion of them. The agent below named furnishes gratis our Ameritan Almanac, in which they are given; with also full descriptions of the above complaints, and the treatment that should be followed for their cure.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations they make more profit on—Demand AYER'S, and take no other. The sick wan the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

Oleine Diamond Oil.
GREATEST ILLUMINATOR OF THE AGE.

This Oil is entirely free from treachery, so that a lamp may be left burning any length of time desired, without filling a room with lamp-black or soot.

It burns in the common oil lamp, with or without a chimney.

The light is far more pleasant than gas, as it is free from the disagreeable flickering always attending a gas light, and is cheaper. We claim for this Oil:

1. That it is cheaper than any other artificial light.
2. That it has no odor.
3. That it will not smoke
4. That it will burn with or without a chimney, hence the cheapest.
5. That it will stand a lower degree of temperature than any other Oil.
6. That it is free from each of the objections that are brought against every other article heretofore or now being offered to the public for illuminating purposes.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, JULY 26, 1859.

☞ The Bath Times says, speaking of Mr. Douglas:—

We may as well express as to stifle the honest convictions of our own judgment, that he is the only democrat who can be elected, and if he, by fraud or folly, is set aside, the republican party will come into power. We are willing this prophesy should be remembered.

The Times also says:—

We heard a man who keeps a drinking place in the city complaining the other day of the style of Judge Drummond's speech. It was not refined enough to suit him.

The same paper gave a graphic account of the hubbub, double voting and cheating at the Bangor Convention, and now says:—"We relish a keen joke even when it hits us between the eyes. For this reason we give the following:"

One of the prominent speakers at the Democratic pow wow at Bangor said that he "expected to spend eternity in the company of Democrats!"—N. H. Statesman.

There is danger that he will unless he repent of his sins.—Louisville Journal (Prentice.)

☞ At the last accounts there was considerable gossip in Paris about the singular marriage of a celebrated ballet dancer:

Mdle. Paquita, a Spanish dancer from the Rue Montmartre, had attained to such excellence in her art that she could dance the cachuca on four flying steeds at once, and burst through the hoop at the end. She was so clever that she had obtained an engagement in the troupe of the brothers Loyal, well known all over France. Last year at the fete of Passy, an aged gentleman, with snow white hair, being in a frolicsome mood, went to the Loyal's tent, with other gay youths of his own age, in order to quiz and encourage the dancers. Towards the end of the peformance the charming Paquita appeared. She whirled around the ring—at the end she burst through the hoop just above his head—her foot slipped, and she fell plump into his bosom! Both were taken out senseless—Paquita carried to her garret in the inn, and the old boy to his blue satin bedchamber at his Chateau de Moulins, in the neighborhood; and yet, henceforth Paquita is to occupy the best place in the chateau and the warmest corner in the old boy's emblazoned carriage, bearing his name and title."

☞ A few days ago a farmer in Cummington, Hampshire county, went after his cows; one of them persisted in going the wrong way; after trying a while to bring her to his mind, he gave her up and let her have her own way, and followed. She led him to remote part of the pasture, where he found another cow, cast. Releasing the captive cow, the refractory one willingly return to the yard.

☞ The Lawrence Machine Shop was sold Thursday at auction, to Gen. James Dana, Mayor of Charlestown, for $73,000. The foundry was sold to the same for $14,500. It is said the purchase is for the United States Government for an armory.

Fifty brick dwelling houses, costing about $2,000 each, were sold at prices averaging about $1000. The agent's house, with 40,000 feet of land, was taken at $6000.—The property disposed of at this sale cost over $1,000,000; and though it only brought $163,950, the sellers were evidently quite well satisfied with the result.

THE STEAM FIRE ENGINE AMOSKEAG was exhibited in Manchester, to a Committee from Boston, on Saturday. In four minutes and twenty-five seconds after the match was touched to the kindlings, the machine commenced working with fifteen pounds of steam, and in five minutes twenty seconds it was throwing two streams and showed twenty pounds of steam. The wind was strong and unfavorable for perpendicular playing. It played horizontally 150 feet through 650 feet of hose, 1 1-4 inch pipe. The Committee expressed themselves highly pleased with the exhibition, one of them saying it was the best he had seen.—Mirror.

STEAM FIRE ENGINE.—We hope our citizens will have an opportunity to see the steam fire engine lately built at Manchester, operate. From all accounts it surpasses all others. Four minutes and a half is all the time that is required from the time of lighting the fire, before a stream of water is going most efficiently. It is attracting great attention in all quarters, and is designed to take the place of the common fire engines in the cities and large towns.—N. H. Telegraph.

☞ A letter writer says—"In Amsterdam I saw a queer-looking fellow around dressed in black, with a cocked hat on his head, from which crape dangled to his heels, with short breeches, knee buckles, and black stockings and a short black cloak, from the collar of which another roll of crape hung down to the ground. Upon inquiry, I discovered that he was a death announcer."

NEW HAMPSHIRE STATE LANDS.—There are 80,000 acres of rough forest land in the northern part of this commonwealth, that belong to the State. It is proposed to give titles to that which has been occupied for six months, to reserve 5000 acres for homesteads for settlers who will live upon the land a year and make certain improvements, and to sell the balance.

☞ The Montreal Field Artillery are to visit Portland on the 15th of August.

PEACE IN EUROPE.

By Steamer North Briton we have Liverpool dates to July 13, four days' later news.

The armistice was concluded on the 8th inst. On the 11th an interview between the emperors of France and Austria, was held at Villa Franca.

The result was a treaty of peace.

The basis of the treaty is as follows:—The Italian confederation will be under the honorary presidency of the Pope. The Emperor of Austria concedes his rights in Lombardy to the Emperor of France, and the latter transfers them to the King of Sardinia. Venitia is retained by the Emperor of Austria, but will form a part of the confederation.

The announcement of peace caused a rise of 2 1-2 per cent. on the Paris Bourse. The news did not reach London until the close of the regular stock sales, but then some sales of consols were made at a rise of 7-8 from the lowest point during the day.

It is reported that the typhus fever was raging in both armies in Italy.

A committee of scientific men has been appointed to advise the Atlantic Telegraph Company in regard to their new cable.

News from Calcutta is to June 3, and Hong Kong to May 21.

The North Briton reports an unusually large quantity of ice in the Atlantic. At one time 56 icebergs were in sight.

We give below, the comments of two or three leading London papers, on the peace.

The Daily News affirms that the past hopes and expectations of Italy are deceived. It adds: History will call the Emperor to strict account for having made war on false pretensions, and signed a mock and selfish peace—a peace that leaves Austria pregnably fortified in Northern Italy—that connects Central Italy to the patronage of the Pope, and to the constant menace of military intervention on the part of the Pope's patrons and protectors—that takes no account of the welfare of the people, and substitutes for national independence a confederation under the lock and key of Austrian garrisons. The Emperor of France has sown the seeds of future wars, and the closer we examine the pretended pacification the more futile and iniquitous it appears.

The Morning Post contends that the soul of the treaty agreed upon is the nationality guarantied under every variety of local government in the confederation of Italian States. The Emperor of Austria is to be King of Venitia solely, as an internal member of the Confederation. He will rule less than 3,000,000 Italians, and will be controlled by a Confederation ruling not less than 26,000,000. The Pope is shorn virtually of his temporary supremacy—he is deprived of the substance, but keeps the shadow.

The Times says that Venice must hope that her independence will not be a mere name, and that the influence of France and Austria united will not be more unbearable than that of Austria singly. The Romans must hope that the Italian Confederacy, under the honorary Presidency of the Pope, will be nothing like any government they have hitherto known. The Papal States are left as they were, but with a master somewhat greater than before. He is honorary President of the Italian Confederation, and Gen. Guyon holds the sword at his side. The King of Naples is made a member of the Confederation, and has to learn the worth of that honor and its import.

Europe has to welcome a new power—the Italian Confederation. Older in dignity, if not in time, England has nothing to do but look on. Austria is somewhat troubled, but relieved of a difficulty. Sardinia is aggrandized with a province that mistrusts her, and a neighbor that has earned an imperishable and inexhaustible claim to her gratitude. The Grand Dukes, we suppose are once more to be reinstated in their throne.

France has now the game in her own hands. She has Europe before her. She can raise all Italy and half the Austrian Empire against those Germans whom she has so often beaten;—yet, on the very summit of her ambition, she renounces. France has spent 50,000,000 sterling, and 50,000 men, only to give Milan a Piedmontese instead of an Austrian master, and to establish the Pope in a temporal dignity, even beyond his imagination, and capable of extension? Is this all real? The Emperor's game must be a very long one.

☞ Bayard Taylor goes out to California in the steamer of the 5th of August, under engagement with the San Francisco Mercantile Library Society to deliver four lectures in the metropolis of the Pacific.—He will be absent about three months, and will probably lecture in Sacramento and the principal towns in the mining region.

STATE FAIR IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.—The annual fair of the New Hampshire State Agricultural Society will this year be held at Dover, on the spacious grounds occupied for the same purpose last year. The Fair will commence on the morning of the 5th of October, and will continue open three days.

☞ A simple and effective plan of making boots whereby the upper is in one piece, instead of being divided and sewed up, as is usual, has lately been introduced in Philadelphia. That is, we suppose, a revival of the old fashioned back strap boot, of fifty years ago.

☞ In Italy, a lover places two fingers on his mouth, which signifies to a lady, "You are very handsome, and I wish to speak to you." If she touches her cheek with her fan, and lets it gently drop, that signifies, "I consent;" but if she turns her head, it is a denial.

REGATTA AT NAHANT.—A spirited and closely contested yacht race came off in Massachusetts Bay Friday, under the auspices of the Proprietors of the Nahant House, this being the first of a series of regattas which Messrs. Rand & Sons have projected for the diversion of their numerous guests the present season.

There was a large fleet of sailing craft in and about the harbor of Nahant, which at one time numbered one hundred and fifty sail.

The Nahant House, under the skillful hand of Col. Beals, wore a gala appearance, and the Lynn Cornet Band were in attendance at the hotel and on the rocks, discoursing music to the delight of the crowd of spectators who lined the shore of the promontory.

There were two matches, the first for vessels of over twenty tons, the second open to all vessels of twenty tons and under.—The prizes for the first class boats were, for the first, a silver pitcher valued at $50, or money; second, a silver goblet valued at $35. The first race was a distance of ten miles and return; the second race, six miles and return.

In the first race the first prize was won by the "Surprise," the second prize by the "Young America." In the second race the first prize was awarded to the "Whip," the second prize lying between the "Nettle" and the "Tornado."

Hon. C. L. Woodbury was one of the judges. The prizes were awarded at the Nahant House by Mr. Woodbury, who addressed each of the recipients in a few felicitous remarks.

The success attending the regatta has induced its projectors to proceed at once to arrange the preliminaries for a grand regatta to come off during the month of August, for a purse of $500 or a service of silver of that value.

HE RETIRES.—The following is an extract from the valedictory of a disgusted editor:—

"The undersigned retires from the editorial chair with a complete conviction that all is vanity. From the hour that he started his paper to the present time, he has been solicited to lie upon every given subject, and can't remember ever having told a wholesome truth without diminishing his subscription list or making an enemy.—Under these circumstances of trial, and having a thorough contempt of himself, he retires—in order to recruit his moral constitution."

A GOOD HUMORED REBUKE.—A certain good-natured old farmer preserved his constant good nature, let what would turn up. One day while the black tongue prevailed, he was told that one of his red oxen was dead.

"Is he?" said the old man; "well, he was always a breechy old fellow. Take off his hide and take it down to Fletcher's; it will bring the cash."

In an hour or two the man came back again with the news that "Line-back and his mate were both dead."

"Are they?" said the old man; well, I took them from B——, to save a bad debt I never expected to get. Take the hides down to Fletcher's; they will be as good as cash."

In about an hour the man came back to inform him that the nigh brindle was dead.

"Is he?" said the old man; well, he was a very old ox. Take off the hide and take it down to Fletcher's; it is worth more than any of the others."

Hereupon his wife, taking upon her the office of Eliphaz, reprimanded her husband severely, and asked him if he was not aware that his loss was a judgment from Heaven for his wickedness.

"Is it?" said the old man; "well, if they take judgment in cattle, it's the easiest way I can pay them.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

OPPRESSION AFTER EATING.—Many persons, after an ordinary meal, feel a sense of weight and discomfort in the region of the stomach, the sure sign of an imperfect digestion, and probably the forerunner of a settled dyspepsia. Nothing will relieve this oppression like the PERUVIAN SYRUP, by the stimulus it gives to the digestive powers.

Common Sense rules the mass of the people, whatever the misnamed and misanthrope philosophers may say to the contrary. Show them a good thing: let its merits be clearly demonstrated, and they will not hesitate to give it their most cordial patronage. The masses have already ratified the judgment of a physician, concerning the virtues of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, as may be seen in the immense quantities of this medicine that are annually sold in every section of the land. It is now recognized as greatly superior to all other remedies yet devised for diseases of the digestive organs, such as dyspepsia, dysentery, dyspepsia, and for the various fevers that arise from derangement of those portions of the system. Hostetter's name is rapidly becoming a household word, from Maine to Texas; from the shores of the Atlantic to the Pacific. Try the article and be satisfied.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Dyspepsia.

Considering the various forms in which this disease developes itself, it may well be called hydra-headed. In its train follow Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, Heartburn, Water Brash, Costiveness, Piles, Acidity, Oppression after Eating, Jaundice, Flatulency, Torpor of the Liver, Dizziness, Debility, Female Complaints, &c. Some of the first men in our land have given their written certificates relative to the cures effected in their own persons by the OXYGENATED BITTERS; while testimonials from other sources, editorial opinions and voluntary expressions from persons averse to see their names in print, are perfectly overwhelming.

EAST TAUNTON, MASS., Feb. 9, '58.

To the Editor of the Portland Mirror:—Sir:—

OXYGENATED BITTERS—For more than twenty five years I have been a sufferer from the dyspepsia. Besides trying the patients of my family physicians in the almost useless trial of their various prescriptions, I have tried a great variety of patent medicines with a similar result. Through the kindness of my physician, I received, last March, half a dozen bottles of the OXYGENATED BITTERS. I began to use them without any hope of derived benefit from them. Being determined to give them a fair trial, I continued their use, but without any perceptible benefit till June.

Since then I have gradually improved in health, till I am entirely free from acidity of the stomach, and from the consequent flatulency, and the awful and almost distracting sick headache, which often, for days together, has wholly unfitted me for study and for all other ministerial duties, and rendered life burdensome.

I feel that I owe it, as an expression of gratitude to Messrs. Fowle & Co., and also a duty to the public, to recommend their Oxygenated Bitters, as, in my estimation, a sure remedy for that most trying, most vexing, and cruel of all diseases, to which poor human flesh is heir, the dyspepsia. Having suffered so long and tried so many different remedies with no good result, I can recommend the Oxygenated Bitters with a confidence few others can. If any of the readers of the Mirror are suffering, I beg of them to make trial of these Bitters without delay.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

This Gin, distilled from pure grain, sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable medicinal properties of the Juniper, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft, and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so odious.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, GALLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES OF THE URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

GROVER & BAKER

SEWING MACHINE COMPANY,

No. 18 Summer Street, Boston,

MACHINES FROM $50 TO $125,

HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

TESTIMONIALS.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

Several months have now elapsed since one of these machines was first introduced for our family use. For several weeks those who attempted to operate it having had no instruction, it was regarded as of little value, although some work could be done. But no sooner had one of experience taken hold of it, giving the proper tension to the cotton, proper oiling, &c. to the machinery, than it worked admirably—and now for months it goes on like clock work, doing handsomely all the work submitted to it, and accomplishing as much work in an hour as could be done by hand in a long summer's day. These machines are decidedly popular. We have never heard of one being sold to procure another from a different maker,—while we have known others to be laid aside to give place to Grover & Baker's. Any one can operate them after an hour's instruction from an experienced hand.

CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

We have seen one of Grover & Baker's $100 Sewing Machines used to do the Sewing of two families, for the past year or more, to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned—without once getting out of order, or requiring the least repair. We would as soon try to dispense with a Cooking Stove in a family, as to attempt to get along without a Sewing Machine. Money invested in a good Machine pays much more than legal dividend, in actual cash savings—to say nothing of the higher consideration, of comfort and convenience, nay, even luxury, it affords to the ladies of a household. Whatever may be the experience with other Machines, we never knew a Grover & Baker to be discarded or found wanting.

FRANK W. MILLER.
JOHN SISE.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others.

GEN. SHIELDS ON BARRELS.—A short time since General Shields, landing at Hastings, on the Mississippi, compared his freight and bill of lading, one item calling for seven barrels. Strange to say, however, the General could only find on the landing six of his barrels! He was heard to count them over several times with the same unsatisfactory result each time. Moving the index finger of the right hand up and down in a pointed manner at each barrel, thus he soliloquized aloud, with deliberate military emphasis: "One—two—three—four—five six!" And shaking his head with dignified gravity saying, "Something wrong here," he recommenced his count. "One—two—three—four—five—six; where the —— is the other barrel?" Full of wrath, he was proceeding to demand the production of the missing cask from the officers of the boat, when, lo! on his getting up for that purpose from where he was surveying, with characteristic dignity and gravity, his goods and sundries, it was discovered, to his infinite amusement and that of the bystanders, that he had been sitting on the missing seventh barrel!

Some "Black Republicans" of Maine and Massachusetts, three in number, have been selling slaves, whom they inherited by the decease of a relative in Missouri. This shows how admirable is the solemn petition of the Lord's Prayer, "Leave us not unto temptation"—for that we believe is the correct translation of the devine words devinely addressed. Man is a selfish animal, and when slaves are left to some of his breed in this Northern world they sell them—in families. The scamps ought themselves to be exported to Africa, and sold on the Guinea Coast. But he would have a hard bargain who should buy them.—Traveller.

MURDER IN NEW YORK. — A murder occurred in New York Saturday afternoon, at the corner of Broadway and Canal streets. A man named Robert McDonnell shot a woman named Virginia Stuart through the head. After firing the shot, McDonald attempted to shoot himself, but was prevented by the police and bystanders, and taken to the station house. He states that the reason he shot her was that she was unfaithful to him. McDonald is a native of Mobile, Ala., and is about 40 years old. Miss Stewart is a native of Massachusetts, about 30 years of age. They became acquainted in New Orleans about seven years ago, during which acquaintance she kept a house of ill fame. They had two children, both of whom died eight or ten days ago. On being convinced of her treachery, he formed the resolution to kill her and himself, watching her until he succeeded in partially effecting his object. The woman was alive at midnight, but can not live.

HOW BRANDY IS MADE—A glass of "brandy" now-a-days makes a man drunk, and three of them are good for an attack of delirium tremens. Three-fourths of the brandy sold in this city is nothing but alcohol drugged with poison. Oil of cognac, the article most generally used for this purpose, commands a very high price. Joseph Hughf went to Philip Black, of Second Avenue, on Saturday, with what he represented as a pound of this oil, from which four hundred gallons of brandy might be made, and readily induced him to give $40 for it. Black subsequently discovered that he had bought only cognac ether, worth $1.

The cork of the bottle was scented with the genuine article, and the packages so made up as to favor fraud. Hughf was arrested and committed by Justice Brennan.—N. Y. Tribune.

☞ On Sunday P. M. in Portland, a scandalous row took place in a building facing on Middle street, as the public were returning from church. The attention of those passing was first attracted by the smashing of glass and the noise of people engaged in a fight. A crowd gathered around the building; the police were soon on hand, and found the disturbance to proceed from the attic, in which were assembled a number of young men engaged in card playing. Some dispute arose about the cards, and being excited by liquor, a general knock down ensued. The offenders were taken to the marshal's office.

COMING HOME "WITH A RUSH."—The steamers Golden Gate and Cortez, from San Francisco 6th, we see are represented to have nine hundred passengers, all for New York. This wholesale reflux in the tide of emigration would seem to indicate that California is not all that the fancies of some people had painted it. A key to this seeming stampede from California is given in the market news, which tells us that "Business was depressed in San Francisco;" "two large failures reported;" "prices of leading goods tending downward," etc. etc.—N. Y. Express.

Barque Julia Castner, of Philadelphia, had capsized in San Francisco bay, and was a total loss.

A fire at Aroville had destroyed $20,000 worth of property.

The heat continued intense throughout the State. In many places the mercury ranged from 110 to 118. At Santa Barbara, during the sirocco, before reported, the mercury rose to 133 in the wind.

☞ A serious accident happened to a Mrs. Messenger in Lowell. She was a person of intemperate habits, and was intoxicated at the time she fell, breaking the nose, and right arm above the wrist. She was properly cared for by the authorities, and was carried home to Tewksbury. The woman, it is said, weighs over three hundred pounds.

MRS. PARTINGTON'S WORK. — Brown, Taggard & Chase have been compelled to defer the publication of Mrs. Partington's "Knitting Work" until August 3. This course has been rendered necessary by the unexpectedly numerous and large orders that have been received.

Seven Octave Piano --- New Scale.

The Subscriber having just received a superior SEVEN OCTAVE PIANO-FORTE, made according to his order by the celebrated firm of HALLET, DAVIS & CO., would offer it for the inspection of persons desirous of purchasing. H. D. & Co. have recently made great improvements in the manufacture of Pianos, the most important of which is the New Scale, which, while obviating the weakness which has hitherto been found in the upper part of Square Seven Octave Pianos, gives it a power of tone nearly equal to that of the Parlor Grand.

Having been for several years Agent for the sale of Pianos of the above make, Mr. P. is prepared to state that the instruments which they are now making, far excel any of their former manufacture.

Purchasers will find it greatly to their advantage to call and examine the above mentioned Piano, as it is the only one in Portsmouth which contains the NEW SCALE

and as a Beverage it has no superior in the world. It is manufactured by the proprietor, at Schiedam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use, by a process peculiar to his own Factory. It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spiritous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, Bladder and Kidney Complaints, &c. &c.

Put up in quart and pint bottles, in Cases of one dozen quarts, and two dozen pints, with the proprietor's name on the bottle, cork and label. For sale by all the respectable Country Merchants and Druggists. Look out for counterfeits and imitations, as the whole country is flooded with them

TO THE PUBLIC.

I beg leave to call the attention of the American Public to the following Certificate from the Government Chemist for the Island of Cuba and the Spanish West Indies, and who is known to the Scientific men of London, Paris, Madrid, Cuba and America to be the first Chemist in the world.
UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHEMICAL TESTIMONY.

D. Jose Luis Casaseca, Corresponding Member of the Royal Academies of Madrid and Munich, a Graduate in Sciences of the Faculty of Paris, formerly Professor of Chemistry, as applied to the Arts, of the Royal Conservatorio of Madrid, and of Physical and Chemistry, as applied to the Industry and Agriculture of the country, in the Royal University of this Island, at present H. M.'s Director of the Institute of Chemical Investigation, &c., &c.

Do hereby certify, that at the request of the house of Gottig & Will, of this place, I have made an analytical examination of U. Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, with the object of ascertaining if it contained any substance noxious to health, and to inform them as to its true composition and relative quality with the other gins that are offered in the market, and the results of my observations and experiments are as follows:—

Udolpho Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps is a spirituous liquid, of a very agreeable aromatic odor, completely transparent and almost colorless, having only a very slight tint of yellowish gray: its flavor is strong and very agreeable to the palate. It marks 20 degrees by Cartier's alcohol weigher or 52 degrees by Lauridth in Gay Lussac's alcohometer, by the distillation in a balsinum maria, with an apparatus consisting of a glass retort and a recipient surrounded with ice, I have collected in this recipient an alcoholic liquid with a very agreeable aroma completely colorless and transparent, which marked 90 degrees in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, or 70 degrees 5 hundredth on Gay Lussac's alcohometre; and which represented as a whole 57 per cent. of aromatic Schiedam sennapps subject to distillation in the retort. This liquid did not soil the transparency of the distilled water in mixing it with the same, and its agreeable aroma is doubtless due to a very trifling amount of an essential oil inseparable from alcohol.

From the remainder of the distillation which was left in the retort, I have obtained, through evaporation in a vapor bath, a substance of a yellowish brown color, clear, and having a bitter taste, which is not disagreeable, and which afterwards becomes aromatic and leaves the mouth perfumed with that fragrance peculiar to the vanilla. I am inclined to believe that to this bitter and aromatic extractive substance, soluble in water and alcohol, the medicinal properties which are attributed to this gin are due. I have not found in Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps any mineral or organic substance other than the extractive one already named and the aromatic one obtained by distillation. Finally, Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps consists simply of an aromatic alcohol of 20 degrees of graduation in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, and of an extractive bitter aromatic substance, which perhaps, is medicinal; and, on account of its not containing any greater ingredients to the health, as well as for its odor and good flavor—a fact which no doubt arises from the choice substances employed in its manufacture and from the peculiar manner of its distillation, it should in my opinion, be preferred to all the Holland, Belgic and German gins which are found in this island which it has been my business to examine. These gins as I have often proved it, exhale a disagreeable odor, and have a more or less disagreeable flavor, some of them having left as was the case with the superior gin from the distillery of Mr. Henry Deetjen (of Bremen,) as residuum after evaporation by steam, a substance almost insipid and very trifling aromatic, with flavor of vanilla, but in no wise with the delicious bitter and aromatic flavor of that of Udolpho Wolfe; and others, such as that labelled "Genuine Samaritan," "Extra Superior," Messrs. Tracner have furnished me with a very small quantity of a greenish substance, of harsh metallic taste and very disagreeable, which extractive organic matter was mixed with a salt of copper, with signs of iron, owing perhaps, to a bad system of distillation.

I certify that all that is here stated is the truth and agrees with the experiments I have made with the greatest care, and I authorize the house of Gottig & Will, of this city, to give publicity to this certificate, in Spanish and in foreign languages, in all countries where it may suit their interest to do so. JOSE LUIS CASASECA.

DR. SWETT'S
CORDIAL OF DANDELION,
SPIKENARD & BONESET,

A remedy unsurpassed for Liver Complaints, such as Costiveness, Dizziness and Pain in the Head, Stomach and Side, Universal Debility, and the whole family of Consumptive Complaints.

Hundreds of testimonials might be added, proving the many cures of this pleasant and efficacious medicine, especially of people advanced in life, whose debilitated constitutions have been greatly recruited by it. A trial of it is warranted to well pay the aged and dyspeptic. Price 75 cents.

[From Mrs. Daniel H. Williams.]

DR. SWETT—Dear Sir:—I presume you recollect that when I saw you, about a year since, I was very low, and had been for a long time, with dyspeptic complaints, being very weak, with no appetite, and pain in my head, stomach and side; but now my health is comparatively good, and I consider the great deliverance attributable, mainly, to the two bottles of your "Compound Cordial of Dandelion," which you left for me. I consider this the best medicine I ever found for the complaints for which you recommend it on the labels.

MARY E. WILLIAMS.

Concord, N. H., May 28, 1858.

EPSYELD, Sept. 8, 1859.

Last spring and Summer I was troubled with the Liver Complaint, which caused my food to distress me badly; and I do not know what cured me, but one thing I do know, and that is, I took one bottle of Dr. S. Swett's Cordial of Dandelion, and the disease left me, and has not returned.

A. K. CURRIER.

THE ONLY ARTICLE

UNRIVALLED IN THE MARKET,

WITH IMMENSE

HOME AND EUROPEAN DEMAND.

The reason why, is that by Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, itching, and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headaches, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair. It will never fail or become rancid, remains soft, glossy, healthy and beautiful, and if used by the young two or three times a year, will never fall or become gray; then, reader, read the following and judge for yourselves:

NEW YORK, Jan. 8, 1858.

MESSRS. O. J. WOOD & CO.,

Gentlemen: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I was induced to give it a trial, in the prejudices which I, in common with a great many persons, had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who are in my gray as I was but who having my prejudice without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have proof their proof, and the best proof being occular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may if you think such, and also direct them to me for further proof. I am in and out office of the N. Y. Wire Railing establishment every day.

My hair is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking. I am, yours respectfully, HENRY JENKINS.

Cor. Columbia and Carroll Sts., Brooklyn.

LIVINGSTON, Ala., Feb. 14, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country. My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, &c. S. W. MIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving very beneficial to me. The hair is growing, also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—was in fact BALD. I have used but 2 half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well stocked with a promising growth of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours, respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D.,
No. 464 Vine Street.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and sells for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, or forty per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

CONSUMPTION IS CURABLE!

BY THE USE OF

Winchester's Genuine Preparation of Dr. J. F. Churchill's Compound of the

HYPOPHOSPHITES

OF LIME, SODA AND POTASH,

Originally discovered and prescribed by him as a Specific Remedy for

CONSUMPTION!

The use of the Hypophosphites in CONSUMPTION, Scrofula, Nervous Debility, Asthma, Bronchitis, Dyspepsia, Female Complaints, and all diseases depending upon a DEFICIENT VITALITY IN THE ELEMENTS OF THE BLOOD, have proved their EXTRAORDINARY EFFICACY in thousands of cases in Europe and America and established the claim of the discoverer, that they are a SUE PREVENTATIVE, and a

SPECIFIC REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION.

Dr. Churchill says: "In no single instance have I found the remedy fail to produce everything that could be reasonably expected from it. In most instances the benefit derived from it has FAR EXCEEDED what could at first have been hoped for, when taking into account the degree and extent of the injury sustained by the lungs previously to the use of the remedy. * * * * Out of twenty-two cases in the third or last stage, treated at my Dispensary during the past year, EIGHT HAVE COMPLETELY RECOVERED, eight have died, and six are still under treatment. SUCH A RESULT IS ALTOGETHER UNPARALLELED IN THE ANNALS OF MEDICINE."

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of that most fearful and fatal of all maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directions as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empirics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of sacrificing what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are universal in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and they afford prompt relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicine.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, since 1837.
78 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Research made into American or Foreign patents, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but from its location possesses advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
BOSTON, February 9, 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.
JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twenty rejected applications, SIXTEEN ALLOWANCES, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, Jan. 1, 1859. R. H. EDDY.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

A compound remedy in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will a complish their cure must be of immense service to this large class of our afflicted. How far this offshoot from the Universal tree will do it, has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, TUMORS, ULCERS, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, ERYSIPELAS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR DO DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud.—Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the encumrance of foul eruptions and dangerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions or sores;—cleanse it when you find it is obstructed or sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, you enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no healthy health, sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has long and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or, if any, of a worthless kind.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Such bitter and drastic ingredients have followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which hood the market, until the name itself is justly suspected, and has become synonymous with imposition and humbug. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall excuse the name from further abuse of obloquy which it has long been the subject of. And we think we have grounds for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of throat and Lung Complaints that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtue, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Neuralgia, as a dinner Pill, and for Purifying the blood.

They are sugar-coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Price, 25 cents per box; five boxes for $1.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen and eminent personages, have lent their names to recommend the unequaled excellence of these remedies, but our space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agent below named furnishes gratis our American Almanac, in which they are given; with also full descriptions of the above complaints, and the treatment that should be followed for their cure.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations they make more profit on.—Demand AYER's, and take no other. The sick wan the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

THE SLAVE TRADE.

There seems to be little doubt now, that the same set of men who repealed the Missouri restriction on slavery, who did what they could and all they could to make Kansas a slave State, and who cry amen to the Taney dicta on Dred Scott's case,—are about to legalize the slave trade,—if they can—with horns, hoofs and tail. It is also highly probable that the repeal of the acts against it, will be urged at Charleston, as a part of the National Democratic platform.

To show that this is not mere talk, we make a few extracts from different sources.

The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Commercial says:—

It is probably true that the Mississippi State Convention have instructed their delegates to the Charleston Convention to withdraw unless they succeed in engrafting upon the platform the repeal of all laws against the African slave trade, and the enactment by Congress of laws for the protection of slave property in the Territories.—The South Carolina delegation will follow them. The next movement in the programme is to call a Convention of disaffected Southern States to meet on the 10th of November, to declare the dissolution of the Union, and to induce as many States as will co-operate, to withdraw from it. These madcaps are in earnest now, but will probably be again foiled in their designs.

A Washington dispatch of the 25th says:

From information received recently in this city, it appears that some of the Southern Representatives, while claiming to be opposed to re-opening the African slave trade, are pledging themselves to introduce into Congress a bill repealing all the statutes upon the subject, leaving it, as they profess to desire, to the regulation of the several States. But, as the Constitution confers on Congress the power to prohibit the trade, and as death seems to be regarded as too severe a penalty for a violation of what some consider merely a law regulating commerce, it is thought that others who are opposed to the slave trade will agree upon a measure with a view to make the prohibition and abolition more effective by the certainty of punishment otherwise than capital, and thus they think that good will result from the present agitation of the question.

The Portsmouth, Virginia Transcript tells us:—

It is said that Jefferson Davis is preparing a bill to bring forward during the next session of Congress, to repeal the laws against the slave trade.

☞ James Doyle, a blacksmith by trade, died in Chicago last week, under these circumstances, as detailed by the Times of that city:—"He was extremely athletic in appearance, and was considered by his fellow-workmen as possessing a remarkable degree of strength and bodily vigor. On Thursday he worked in the shop as usual until six o'clock, when he went to supper in as good health as usual. After supper he complained of extreme heat, and continued to complain until 12 o'clock, when he went to bed. At 3 o'clock in the morning his room-mate awoke and found him breathing his last. A post-mortem examination revealed no unusual appearance of the body, except a remarkable and unusual quantity of adipose matter. By over-work and the heat of the day he was literally melted down. Thd Coroner's jury found this to be the cause of his death.

HOT WEATHER AT THE SOUTH.—A heated term has recently been experienced in North and South Carolina and Georgia. At Columbia, S. C., on the 10th, the mercury rose to 102°; at Winnsboro' to 97°; at Marion to 105°, and at Cheraw, 99° to 102°. The planters on the line of the South Carolina Railroad, from Branchville to Columbia, a distance of sixty miles, withdrew their hands from the field on the 18th, owing to the prevalence of excessive heat. The Charlotte (N. C.) Bulletin of the 19th says that the weather had been very oppressive for several days, the mercury ranging from 90 to 99. At Salisbury, N. C., it rose to 102°. Similar reports come from Georgia.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On the 20th, the express train on the Boston and Worcester railroad ran over and instantly killed a man who was walking upon the track on the Back Bay. Every exertion was made by the employees on the train to warn the the man of his danger, but he, being drunk, either could not or would not leave the track, and he was mangled in the most shocking manner. The man was unknown, and there was nothing about his person by which he could be identified. He had with him a jug of rum tied up in a shirt.

☞ The woman who robbed a planter at a hotel in Wheeling, Va., recently, was not Miss Wayt, Home Lecturer, as reported, but a Bell Winter, who had previously stolen a trunk belonging to Miss Wayt, and thus became possessed of some of her cards and handbills.

☞ The ginseng excitement has nearly died out in Minnesota and the adjacent States. Prices have depreciated, the trade is declining, diggers are returning, and the buyers are winding up business.

How General Moulton got a Gore of Land.—New Hampton was incorporated Nov. 27, 1777, and then contained what is now known as Center Harbor. In 1763, Gen. Jonathan Moulton, of Hampton, Rockingham county, having an ox weighing 1400 pounds, hoisted a flag upon his horns, and drove him to Portsmouth, as a present to Gov. Wentworth. He declined compensation, but would like to have granted to him a charter of a small gore of land he had discovered, adjoining the town of Moultonborough, of which he was one of the proprietors. His request was granted, and he named the small gore New Hampton, which is some seven miles long and in some places not above three wide, which name it retains to this day.

☞ At Newport, Ky., last week, a party of young fellows gave a newly married couple a charivari, consisting of an overture played on tin-pans, stove-pipes, and other unmusical instruments, which took them a couple of hours to execute. At the end of the overture the bride appeared among them in her marital robes, very much incensed at the impromptu serenade. So much was she incensed that she caught one of the smaller members of the band and doused him into a wash-tub full of soap-suds, where she held him until he was nearly drowned. He was finally rescued from the infuriated bride, and the party fled, satisfied to get out of the clutches of such a determined vixen; one who gave evidence that she would flay them all if they did not get out of her way.

MEXICAN NEWS.—New Orleans papers of Tuesday of last week are to hand. The steamship Tennessee brought from Gen. Garza of Tamaulipas, a request for, or invitation to, 3000 Americans, to pursue the civil war in Mexico, but it is not understood that he acts under the authority of the Constitutional government. The expedition is to be fitted out at Tampico, where Gen. Degollado now is, and is to organize under the State authority.

The Picayune is assured, on the best authority, that the report that Minister McLane has succeeded in effecting a definite treaty arrangement with the Juarez government, is wholly without foundation. He has, however, forwarded certain projects or propositions for the consideration of our government. The most favorable he has thus been able to obtain from Juarez are by no means to his own mind, nor do they give promise of a speedy and honorable armament.

Gen. Lerdo left New Orleans on Monday for New York. During his sojourn in the former city, his propositions to effect a loan did not, as was expected, meet with much favor.

SHOULD CLERGYMEN USE HAIR DYE? A clergyman in a communication to the Christian Watchman, expresses the opinion that clergymen should be allowed to use hair dye—"until our churches make sufficient advances in godliness, to be willing to tolerate gray hairs in a pastor."

Amen! says Uncle Toby; or wear wigs, if they choose; but neither wigs nor hair dye will keep away the wrinkles of old age, or the sallowness of dyspepsy. Ministers should not be coxcombs, when young or when old; and if any are such in advanced years, it may well be doubted whether they are more pitiable or more contemptible.

BOSTON BOOK TRADE SALE.—On Tuesday of next week, August 2d, the booksellers of Boston will hold a trade sale of books, stereotype plates and stationery in that city, which offers great inducements for the trade to be present. The catalogue, 396 pages, contains invoices from 127 publishing houses, ten or twelve stationers, and three lots of stereotype plates. New York and Philadelphia contribute largely to the sale.

☞ The Springfield, Ill., State Journal says that some of the wheat hoarded in view of the coming crop, is now brought out for sale, but the millers and merchants, expecting a better article from the new crop, do not care to go down into Egypt to buy the old corn, even at fifty cents per bushel.—The Egyptians had better sold long ago at one dollar.

NOT A DEAD LETTER.—At Concord, Mass., on Monday, the following liquor cases were disposed of.

James Trainer, appellant. Common seller, verdict guilty.

Edward Rearden, common seller, verdict guilty.

Mary Sciffington, common seller, verdict guilty.

——— Willibram, common seller, verdict guilty.

Thomas Mahoney, single sale, verdict guilty.

☞ Lake Michigan is making sad encroachments upon the city of Racine. Main street is in danger, the beautiful colleges and grounds are in a like condition, and the cemetery will fall a prey to the same resistless foe.

☞ At Port Huron, N. Y., the fire brigades of London and Port Samia, Candia, took part in the celebration of our National Independence.

☞ The London papers brought by the Africa announce, in a brief telegram, the fact that King Oscar, of Sweden, died at Stockholm on Friday, the 8th of June.—Joseph Francis Oscar I, King of Sweden and Norway, of the Goths and Wends, was born on the 4th of July, 1799, and in 1844 succeeded to the throne. The late King was not of royal descent. His father, the famous Marshal Bernadotte, afterwards Charles the XIV, married Desire Clery, daughter of a merchant of Marseilles, and Joseph Oscar was the only issue of the marriage. In person he was prepossessing, while his manners were courteous and affable. His son, the new king, is now about thirty-three years of age. His education is purely Swedish, and his intellectual acquirements are said to be considerable.

THE UNDERPINNING TAKEN OUT.—Southern Christians have quieted their own consciences, and gained much sympathy among their brethren at the north, by the plea that slavery is a real blessing to the colored race, and elevates them to civilization and Christianity. The assertion is a plausible one. It seems natural that the blacks, transported from the ignorance and heathenism of Africa, surrounded by Christian institutions, and brought in daily contact with a superior civilization, should improve in knowledge and capacity, as well as in morals and religion. But facts have not uniformly sustained the theory. The western coast of Africa, desolated by the slave trade, has been generally appealed to, and its wretched and degraded tribes represented as sunk far below the worst specimens of slavery on the sugar plantations of the South.

But travellers in the interior of Africa—Barth, Livingstone, Bowen, and others, have found other tribes more advanced in civilization, of simple manners and pure morality. Lying and thieving, vices unfortunately too common even among Christian slaves, are reported to be rare among these tribes, removed from the corrupting influences of commerce and the slave trade.

But stronger and more direct testimony is now given upon the point by President Benson, of Liberia, whose long experience and cautious observation give authority to his opinion. He avers, without qualification, that the best citizens of the new Commonwealth are by no means the manumitted slaves of America, or even the emigrant freemen of our Northern States. He says:

"I have only to state, what is pretty generally known in Liberia, that there are thousands of natives living within the jurisdiction of this Republic, who are intellectually in advance of at least one-half of the immigrants that arrive here annually from the United States."

What will our Southern friends, who really believe that bondage is the best state for the negro, say to such testimony? What will northern defenders of slavery, like Dr. Adams, and the divines of the Old School Presbyterian church say to it? It has been a favorite theory with them, that slavery is a providential institution for the civilization and Christianizing of Africa. But if the Christianized blacks of the South cannot keep pace with the aborigines of Africa, this interpretation of providential purposes must be abandoned. We commend Pres. Benson's significant words to the thoughtful consideration of such apologists for slavery as find it convenient to cover up human sins by the broad shield of the Divine purposes. The President says farther:

"My fears and anxieties for the last five or six years have been that the moral, intellectual and industrial training of a majority of the immigrants who may arrive here from the United States, as well as that of our posterity, born and born in this country, will not keep pace with the advancement of the aborigines in those elements of individual and national greatness.—Watchman & Reflector.

☞ A ROLAND FOR AN OLIVER.—Some few days since, Judge Whitley was subpenaed as a witness in the Forrest case.—His old acquaintance, Prince John Van Buren, was the examining counsel. The Judge, who now and then aims at the facetious, was asked by the Prince what his occupation was.

"Oh," said he, "I'm a painter, poet, politician, justice of the peace, editor—in a word, a Jack of all trades."

"Put that down," said the Prince. "Jack of all trades."

"Excuse me," replied the Judge, "that was a mere pleasantry. I protest against your putting that down."

"I insist," retorted the pertinacious Prince; and it was duly entered that Thomas W. Whitley confessed to being a Jack of all trades.

In a few minutes afterwards the facetious Jack of all trades had his revenge on the princely Jack of all parties; for, upon his asking how it was that Whitley was so sure he was in Buffalo in 1848, the sarcastic Jersey justice said, in a most emphatic manner:

"Because I had then the pleasure of hearing Mr. John Van Buren make his famous free soil speech."

A laugh from the spectators greeted the retort, while the Prince groaned inwardly.—Frank Leslie's News.

SUNDAY TRAVEL.—In the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, on Saturday, a decision was given on the habeas corpus case connected with the Sunday travel question.—The Court sustains the action of the Mayor in stopping the Sunday passenger cars.

☞ The Leavenworth Times says that the republican majority on the popular vote for members of the Constitutional Convention of Kansas, ranges between 3000 and 5000.

☞ At Norwich, Conn., on the 4th, a party of juveniles paraded the streets with a banner, on which was inscribed the following words: "Give us liberty, or give us confectionery."

From the New York Saturday Press.

GO IT WHILE YOU'RE YOUNG.

'Tis pleasant on a summer eve,
To join the social throng,
And laugh ha! ha! our cares away,
And sing a merry song:
Youth cannot always last, you know,
As many a hard hath sung;
Then laugh ha! ha! your cares away,
And go it while you're young.

The world may scoff at boyhood's bliss,
And rail at ranting mirth,
If joy admits no outward sign,
Then what is pleasure worth?
The flowers of youth fall soon will fade,
As many a hard hath sung;
Then laugh ha! ha! your cares away,
And go it while you're young!

Old age will soon with feeble step,
Come tottering o'er life's way,
And silvery hair and furrowed brow,
Will tell the heart's decay;
Then catch at pleasure as it flies,
Nor heed the bigot's tongue;
And laugh ha! ha! your cares away,
And go it while you're young!

FOR THE SKIN.—The preparation for the skin made by Joseph Burnett & Co., of Boston, and known as Kalliston, by all lovers of elegant toilet appliances and those who prize a fine complexion, has many points of merit that make it almost an article of necessity; especially in summer, when the winds are dry and the sun burning, the Kalliston removes tan the most decisively and effectually of anything made for this purpose, and its cooling, soothing influence after exposure of the face and neck to the sun and wind, is most grateful and refreshing. It is also valuable as a protective against these effects, and acts as a preventive. It induces a healthy action of the skin, and thus promotes a blooming and cleanly appearance in the most pleasant manner: softening the texture and imparting sensations of comfort and healthy condition.

The now famous Cocoaine, likewise made by Burnett, is a very superior as well as economical dressing for the hair.

"A wee bit of a boy" astonished his mother a few evenings since. She had occasion to chastize him slightly for some offence he had committed. Charley sat very quietly in his chair for some time afterwards, no doubt thinking profoundly.—At last he spoke out thus: "Muzzer, I wish pa'd get anuzzer housekeeper; I've got tired seeing you round."

SPECIAL NOTICES.

OPPRESSION AFTER EATING.—Many persons, after an ordinary meal, feel a sense of weight and discomfort in the region of the stomach, the sure sign of an imperfect digestion, and probably the forerunner of a settled dyspepsia. Nothing will relieve this oppression like the PERUVIAN SYRUP, by the stimulus it gives to the digestive powers.

Common Sense rules the mass of the people, whatever the misnamed and misanthrope philosophers may say to the contrary. Show them a good thing: let its merits be clearly demonstrated, and they will not hesitate to give it their most cordial patronage. The message have already rattled the judgment of a physician, concerning the virtues of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, as may be seen in the immense quantities of this medicine that are annually sold in every section of the land. It is now recognized as greatly superior to all other remedies yet devised for diseases of the digestive organs, such as diarrhœa, dysentery, dyspepsia, and for the various forms of fever arise from derangement of those portions of the system. Hostetter's name is rapidly becoming a household word, from Maine to Texas; from the shores of the Atlantic to the Pacific. Try the article and be satisfied.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Dyspepsia.

Considering the various forms in which this disease developes itself, it may well be called hydra-headed. In its train follow Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, Heartburn, Water Brash, Costiveness, Piles, Acidity, Oppression after Eating, Jaundice, Flatulency, Torpor of the Liver, Dizziness, Debility, Female Complaints, &c.

Great numbers have given their written certificates relative to the cures effected in their own persons by the OXYGENATED BITTERS; while testimonials from other sources, editorial and other, and voluntary expressions from persons averse to see their names in print, are perfectly overwhelming.

EAST TAUNTON, Mass., Feb. 9, '58.

To the Editor of the Portland Mirror.—Sir:—

OXYGENATED BITTERS.—For more than twenty five years I have been a sufferer from the dyspepsia. Besides trying the patience of my family physicians in the almost useless trial of their various prescriptions, I have tried a great variety of patent medicines with a similar result. Through the kindness of my physician, I received last March half a dozen bottles of the OXYGENATED BITTERS. I began to use them without any hope of deriving help from them. Being determined to give them a fair trial, I persisted in their use, but without any perceptible benefit till June.

Since then I have gradually improved in health till I am entirely free from acidity of the stomach, and from the consequent flatulency, and the awful and almost distracting sick headache, which often, for days together, made life a burden, fed me for study and for all other ministerial duties, and rendered life a burden.

I feel that I owe it, as an expression of gratitude to Messrs. Fowle & Co., and also a duty to the public, to recommend their Oxygenated Bitters, as, in my estimation, a sure remedy for that most trying, most vexious, and cruel of all diseases, to which poor human flesh is heir, the dyspepsia. Having suffered so long, and tried so many different remedies with so little benefit, I can recommend the Oxygenated Bitters with a confidence few others can. If any of the readers of the Mirror are suffering, I beg of them to make trial of these Bitters without delay.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

This Gin, distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the medical profession, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES OF THE URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS & DEBILITY &c. &c. Persons who have sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Antoine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

GROVER & BAKER
SEWING MACHINE COMPANY,
No. 18 Summer Street, Boston,
MACHINES FROM $50 TO $125,
HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

TESTIMONIALS.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

Several months have now elapsed since one of these machines was first introduced for our family use. For several weeks those who attempted to operate it having had no instruction, it was regarded as of little value, although some work could be done. But no sooner had one of experience taken hold of it, giving the proper tension to the cotton, proper oiling, &c. to the machinery, than it worked admirably—and now for months it goes on like clock work, doing handsomely all the work submitted to it, and accomplishing as much work in an hour as could be done by hand in a long summer's day. These machines are decidedly popular. We have never heard of one being sold to procure another from a different maker,—while we have known others to be laid aside to give place to Grover & Baker's. Any one can operate them after an hour's instruction from an experienced hand.

CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

We have seen one of Grover & Baker's $100 Sewing Machines used to do the Sewing of two families, for the past year or more, to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned—without once getting out of order, or requiring the least repair.—We would as soon try to dispense with a Cooking Stove in a family, as to attempt to get along without a Sewing Machine. Money invested in a good Machine pays much more than legal dividend, in actual cash savings—to say nothing of the higher consideration, of comfort and convenience, may, even luxury, it affords to the ladies of a household. Whatever may be the experience with other Machines, we never knew a Grover & Baker to be discarded or found wanting.

FRANK W. MILLER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others.

LOCAL.

☞All good citizens who are fond of hydraulic adventures, should have been out in that glorious shower which the Lord sent down upon the just and the unjust of our city on Tuesday afternoon. It did rain, not only beautifully, but bountifully, from half past two till three o'clock, and at the latter point of time Vaughan and Hanover streets, at their junction, were "a sight to behold."

The City Fathers, with a large troop of their children, and a few of "our foreign relations," as Mrs. Partington calls them, have been quite busy for some weeks in making a large underground drain or sewer, in the westerly part of Hanover street, which was designed and expected to carry off the surplus rain water, first into the mill-pond, and finally into the ocean.

They finished this drain, in Vaughan street, with a large mouth, which they fondly supposed would swallow up the flood of waters when they came: and so it would, if they only came in an orderly and conservative manner, without undue excitement.

But when they come with a rush like a popular tumult, or a mass convention, three times as fast as the bridge can carry them, as a natural consequence they run over, and as another natural consequence they make a channel to suit themselves, taking up the dirt where it is wanted, and carrying it where it is a drug in the market.

Just so it did on Tuesday—and besides it washed out a thousand stones, (not gold stones, but stones of the street,)—and these, with ten thousand more, which the shower washed bare all over the city, should be picked up and carted somewhere to fill up holes.

The drain in Hanover street, below ground, is a good thing, of its size, and will now stand some years—but beside this, Hanover Street should be paved through the centre, for a water course above ground, to Bridge Street. And by the way, an appropriation of $1000 to $2000 per year for the extension of paved streets in this city would be good economy.

☞There are three ships on the stocks at this port, at present. Tobey & Littlefield, Noble's Island, have a ship of 1000 tons nearly completed, for sale; Marcy & Pettigrew, at the South End, have a ship also in a good state of advancement; and at the old Badger yard on the Kittery side of the river, Mr. John Neal and others have just raised the frame for a ship to be built to order, for parties out of the city we understand.

☞We were glad to notice, while at the South End a few days since, that Mr. Drake is rebuilding his iron foundry, which was recently destroyed by fire. He is a tasteful and enterprising mechanic, and his establishment has been a benefit to the whole city, and especially to that part where it is located.

☞The Catholics of this city have purchased for a cemetery, the fine level field opposite the farm of Mr. Charles Hayes, at the Plains, two miles from the city—the first on the right, above the Eastern railroad bridge. The ground has recently been consecrated by the Bishop of the diocese; a neat wooden gate has been erected at the entrance; and the whole divided into lots, one or two of which are already fenced and occupied.

SICKLES AND THE TAMMANY HALL COMMITTEE.—At a meeting of the General Committee at Tammany Hall a resolution was offered declaring that the seat of Dan E. Sickles, who has not attended any of the meetings of the committee this year, is vacant; but as the meeting was called for a special purpose, the resolution was laid over till the next regular meeting, when it will be acted upon. It was intimated that Mr. Sickles would probably in the meantime resign.—N. Y. Post.

NEW YORK, July 26.—It is stated that a memorial requesting Mr. Sickles to resign his seat in Congress, has received the signatures of 1400 of his constituents, and that in the Eighth Ward a public meeting is to be held to make the request openly.

A discussion arose in a hotel parlor as to the citizenship of a gentleman at the other end of the room. "He's an Englishman," said one, "I know by his head." "He's a Scotchman," said another, "I know by his complexion." "He's a German," said another, "I know by his board." The ladies thought he looked like a Spaniard. Here the conversation rested, but soon one of them spoke: "I have it," said he, "he's an American; he's got his legs on the table."

A young French soldier writes to his mother from Castiglione:—"Dear mother, I am yet living, and lively; but I am not quite complete. The surgeon of the regiment has cut off one of my legs. I have been used to having the leg by me, and the parting was cruel. Do not weep, dear mother, but rejoice, rather, for I will rejoin you, now, not to leave you again. I will always be, now, a part of your little card party, thanks to the wooden leg."

NAVAL.—Commander Klitz has been ordered to the command of the naval rendezvous at Baltimore, vice commander Dove, who has been ordered to the command of the U. S. storeship Release.

NAVAL.—Philadelphia, July 26.—The frigate Lancaster sailed this morning for the Pacific.

☞The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Press repeats the statement that Mr. Douglas is preparing a still more elaborate argument on the subject of popular sovereignty in the Territories. He adds: "Judge Douglas has almost completed a paper on this great question, which will soon be published."

☞The Tribune's Washington correspondent says the Administration will not accept the overtures of Juarez for transits, as it has no money to throw away, and would gain no eclat by such an arrangement. All other experiments will fail, and Mr. McLane must come home sooner or later.

SAD.—Mrs. Harriet, wife of Dr. Tibbetts, died in Manchester last Friday. On the same day, Mrs Adeline, wife of Thomas Healey of Raymond, died. They were sisters, and daughters of Benjamin Mitchell, Esq., of Manchester.

Mr. Buchanan has been nominated for re-election by the Post, a leading democratic journal of Pittsburg, Pa. Gen. Pierce's "claims" to the nomination are also urged. The opposition would be abundantly satisfied with the nomination of either gentleman by the democracy. Both on the same ticket would be perfection.—Traveller.

☞John J. Eckell, of Cunningham-Burdell celebrity, has been thrown out of business by the burning of a tallow factory in New York, of which he was the superintendent.

A little girl, showing her little cousin, about four years old, a star, said, "That star you see up there is bigger than this world." "No it ain't," said he. "Yes, it is." "Then, why don't it keep the rain off?"

A fire is like a pretty woman—neglect it in the least, and your reliance upon it is gone.

Seven Octave Piano --- New Scale.
The Subscriber having just received a superior SEVEN OCTAVE PIANO-FORTE, made according to his order by the celebrated firm of HALLET, DAVIS & CO., would offer it for the inspection of persons desirous of purchasing. H. D. & Co. have recently made great improvements in the manufacture of Pianos, the most important of which is the New Scale, which, while obviating the weakness which has hitherto been found in the upper part of Square Seven Octave Pianos, gives it a power of tone nearly equal to that of the Parlor Grand.
Having been for several years Agent for the sale of Pianos of the above make, Mr. F. is prepared to state that the instruments which they are now making, far excel any of their former manufacture.
Purchasers will find it greatly to their advantage to call and examine the above mentioned Piano, as it is the only one in Portsmouth which contains the NEW SCALE.

It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spiritous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, Bladder and Kidney Complaints, &c. &c.
Put up in quart and pint bottles, in Cases of one dozen quarts, and two dozen pints, with the proprietor's name on the bottle, cork and label. For sale by all the respectable Country Merchants and Druggists. Look out for counterfeits and imitations, as the whole country is flooded with them.
UDOLPHO WOLFE,
SOLE MANUFACTURER AND IMPORTER,
DEPOT 22 BEAVER STREET, NEW YORK.
TO THE PUBLIC.
I beg leave to call the attention of the American Public to the following Certificate from the Government Chemist for the Island of Cuba and the Spanish West Indies, and who is known to the Scientific men of London, Paris, Madrid, Cuba and America to be the first Chemist in the world.
UDOLPHO WOLFE.
CHEMICAL TESTIMONY.
D. Jose Luis Casaseca, Corresponding Member of the Royal Academies of Madrid and Munich, a Graduate in Sciences of the Faculty of Paris, formerly Professor of Chemistry, as applied to the Arts, of the Royal Conservatorio of Madrid, and of Physics and Chemistry, as applied to the Industry and Agriculture of the country, to the Royal University of this Island, at present H. M.'s Director of the Institute of Chemical Investigation, &c., &c.
Do hereby certify, that at the request of the house of Gottig & Will, of this place, I have made an analytical examination of U. Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, with the object of ascertaining if it contained any substance noxious to health, and to inform them as to its true composition and relative quality with the other gins that are offered in the market, and the results of my observations and experiments are as follows:—
Udolpho Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps is a spirituous liquid, of a very agreeable aromatic odor, completely transparent and almost colorless, having only a very slight tint of yellowish gray; its flavor is strong and very agreeable to the palate. It marks 20 degrees in Cartier's alcohol weigher or 52 degrees 5 hundredth in Gay Lussac's alcohometre. By the distillation in a balnium maria, with an apparatus consisting of a glass retort and a recipient surrounded with ice, I have collected in this recipient an alcoholic liquid with a very agreeable aroma completely colorless and transparent, which marked 90 degrees in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, or 70 degrees 5 hundredth on Gay Lussac's alcohometre; and which represented as a whole 57 per cent. of aromatic Schiedam schnapps subject to distillation in the retort. This liquid did not soil the transparency of the distilled water in mixing it with the same, and its agreeable aroma is doubtless due to a very trifling amount of an essential oil inseparable from alcohol.
From the remainder of the distillation which was left in the retort, I have obtained, through evaporation in a vapor bath, a substance of a yellowish brown color, clear, and having a bitter taste, which is not disagreeable, and which afterwards becomes aromatic and leaves the mouth perfumed with that fragrance peculiar to the vanilla. I am inclined to believe that to this bitter and aromatic extractive substance, soluble in water and alcohol, the medicinal properties which are attributed to this gin are due. I have not found in Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps any mineral or organic substance other than the extractive one already named and the aromatic one obtained by distillation. Finally, Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps consists simply of an aromatic alcohol of 20 degrees of graduation in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, and of an extractive bitter aromatic substance, which perhaps, is medicinal, and, on account of its not containing any matter injurious to the health, as well as for its odor and good flavor—a fact which no doubt arises from the choice substances employed in its manufacture, and from the peculiar manner of its distillation, it should in my opinion, be preferred to all the Holland, Belgic and German gins which are found in this Island which it has been my business to examine. These gins as I have often proved it, exhale a disagreeable odor, and have a more or less disagreeable flavor, some of them having left as was the case with the superior gin from the distillery of Mr. Henry Detjen (of Bremen,) as residum after evaporation by steam, a substance almost insipid and very trifingly aromatic, with flavor of vanilla, but in no wise with the delicious bitter and aromatic flavor of that of Udolpho Wolfe; and others, such as that labelled "Genuine Samaritan," "Extra Superior." Messrs. Tracner have furnished me with a very small quantity of a greenish substance, of harsh metallic taste and very disagreeable, which extractive organic matter was mixed with a salt of copper, with signs of iron, owing perhaps, to a bad system of distillation.
I certify that all that is here stated is the truth and agrees with the experiments I have made with the greatest care, and I authorize the house of Gottig & Will, of this city, to give publicity to this certificate, in Spanish and in foreign languages, in all countries where it may suit their interest to do so. DR. SWETT'S

CORDIAL OF DANDELION,

SPIKENARD & BONESET,

A remedy unsurpassed for Liver Complaints, such as Costiveness, Dizziness and Pain in the Head, Stomach and Side, Universal Debility, and the whole family of Chronic or Complicate Complaints.

Hundreds of testimonials might be added, proving the many cures by this pleasant and effectual medicine, especially of people advanced in life, whose debilitated constitutions have been greatly recruited by it. A trial of it is warranted to well pay the aged and dyspeptic. Price 75 cents.

[FROM Mrs. Daniel H. Williams.]

DR. SWETT—Dear Sir:—I presume you recollect that when I saw you about a year since, I was very low, and had been for a long time, with dyspeptic complaints, being very weak, with no appetite, and pain in my head, stomach and side; but now my health is comparatively good, and I consider this great deliverance attributable, mainly, to the two bottles of your "Compound Cordial of Dandelion," which you left for me. I consider this the best medicine I ever found for the complaints for which you recommend it on the labels.

Yours, &c., ANN E. WILLIAMS.

Concord, N. H., May 28, 1858.

ENFIELD, Sept. 8, 1859.

Last spring and Summer I was troubled with the Liver Complaint, which caused my food to distress me badly; and I do not know what cured me, but one thing I do know, and that is, I took one bottle of Dr. S. Swett's Cordial of Dandelion, and the disease left me, and has not returned.

A. K. CURRIER.

This unequalled medicine, together with others carefully prepared by Dr. SIMEON SWETT, from innocent but effectual vegetables, are for sale by him at No. 12 CABOT ST., Portsmouth, N. H.

MRS. WINSLOW,

SOOTHING SYRUP,

For Children Teething.

Which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay all PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for ten years, and can say of it, what we can not of any other medicine, FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE when used according to the directions, nor do we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who is acquainted with its operations, and who commenced its use, when the child was in a healthy state. Nor do we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who has used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in the highest terms of its virtues. We speak, in this matter, what we know to be from long experience, and the fulfilment of what we declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, a single application of this medicine will relieve the child from pain, but in fifteen or twenty minutes after they rub it on the gums, the child will be in a sound sleep, and will remain so for two or three hours, when it will awake, perfectly refreshed and in a state of health, and will continue so for two or three hours more, when we find it necessary to give them another dose. We do not hesitate to say to the mothers of children, that this is the prescription of one of the MOST SKILLFUL NURSES in New England and has been used with THOUSANDS of cases, and we can say, we never have seen the child or children in pain, but we have seen the child suffering from the effects of griping in the bowels, wind colic, or some other painful disease, which, if not relieved, would in a few minutes, or hours, terminate in death. We believe it the BEST and SUREST REMEDY IN THE WORLD IN ALL CASES OF DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints, Do not let your own prejudices, or the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE to follow the use of this medicine, if timely and judiciously administered. This medicine, if timely and judiciously administered, will almost instantly relieve the poor little sufferer from griping in the bowels, wind colic, and diarrhœa, which, if not relieved, would in a few hours, terminate in death. We believe it the BEST and SUREST REMEDY IN THE WORLD IN ALL CASES OF DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. This unequalled medicine is prepared by one of the most SKILLFUL NURSES in New England and has been used with THOUSANDS of cases, never failing in one instance to effect a cure, when the directions accompanying each bottle are followed.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and vigor to the whole system. HOME AND EUROPEAN DEMAND.

The reason why, is that by Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all humor, druff, itching, and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headaches; and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will not soil, nor make it from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy and beautiful, and if used by the young two or three times a week it will never fall on becoming gray; then, render, read the following and judge for yourselves:

NEW YORK, Jan. 8, 1858.

MESSRS. O. J. WOOD & CO.,

Gentlemen: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite thin, I made up my mind to overcome the prejudices which I, in common with a great many persons, had against all manner of patent nostrums, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of those who may be doubtful as I was but who having my prejudice without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have some proof, and the best proof being occular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing establishment every day.

My hair is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking. I am, yours respectfully, HENRY JENKINS.

Cor. Columbia and Carroll Sts., Brooklyn.

LIVINGSTON, Ala., Feb. 14, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country. My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to try your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, &c. S. W. MADDOX.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The hair on my face, also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—was in fact BALD. I have used but 2 half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising growth of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours, respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D.,
No. 464 Vine Street.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, full five cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

BY THE USE OF

Winchester's Genuine Preparation of Dr. J. F. Churchill's Compound of the

HYPOPHOSPHITES

OF LIME, SODA AND POTASH,

Originally discovered and prescribed by him as a Specific Remedy for

CONSUMPTION!

The use of the Hypophosphites in CONSUMPTION, Scrofula, Nervous Debility, Asthma, Bronchitis, Dyspepsia, Female Complaints, and all other diseases depending upon a DEFICIENT VITALITY IN THE ELEMENTS OF THE BLOOD, have proved their INVARIABLE EFFICACY in thousands of cases in Europe and America and established the claim of the discoverer, that they are a SUPERVENTANEOUS and a

SPECIFIC REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION.

Dr. Churchill says: "In no single instance have I found the remedy fail to produce everything that could be reasonably expected from it. In most instances the benefit derived from it has FAR EXCEEDED what could at first have been hoped for, when taking into account the degree and extent of the injury sustained by the lungs previously to the use of the remedy. * * * * Of my own family, two cases in the third or last stage, treated at my Dispensary during the past year, RIGHT HAVE COMPLETELY RECOVERED, eight have died, and six are still under treatment. SUCH A RESULT IS ALTOGETHER UNPARALLELED IN THE ANNALS OF MEDICINE."

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, suffering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still shrink from the reluctance to make known their complaints and consult a physician, he would state that any of his numbers will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and inclosed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter, by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of health, that is the great pillar of life; a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by unscrupulous practitioners who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine and purely placed in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington,
MONTH OF 14-37.
76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any other which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other place of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure a patent on early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber was engaged in large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, Jan. 1, 1859. R. H. EDDY.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA.

A compound remedy in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective substitute for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will a complish their cure must be of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it, has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, SORES, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud.—Multitudes can by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the encurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions or sores;—cleanse it when you find it is obstructed or sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this fabulous fluid disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by compositions of it, purporting to be the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or anything else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative property whatever. Acuce bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly epised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend it to imply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have grounds for believing it has virtues in the cure of disease which the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

DR. J. C. AYER & CO.,

MEXICAN MATTERS.

The latest news from Mexico, if it can be depended upon, says the Boston Post, still further complicates the affairs of that Republic. The statement now is that Miramon has made a complete change in his policy, that he has published an amnesty for political offences, has given liberty to the press, and moreover, that he has followed the example of Juarez, at least to a certain extent, in a partial confiscation of the property of the Church. The Church, however, is said to have found a new champion in Gen. Marquez, who had been sent by Miramon against the Constitutionalists at Guadalajara at the head of some 2000 men. He is reported to have robbed a conducta on the way from Guanajuato to San Blas, of $600,000, and to have pronounced, one account says for himself and the Church, and the other, for Santa Anna. This news, which comes by telegraph from New Orleans, reached that city via Minatitlan, brought by the W. H. Webb, which left that port on the 18th. The Tennessee's news, which left Vera Cruz on the 13th, speaks of a reported pronunciamento by Marquez, but makes no mention of any change of policy on the part of Miramon. Instead of a confiscation of a part of the Church property, they ascribe to him an attempt to raise the wind by an issue of paper money, it is said to the amount of eighteen millions of dollars. The same accounts refer also to a new forced loan, in sums of from nine to five hundred dollars. The decree issued by the Constitutional Government, at Vera Cruz, declared the property of the Church transferred to the nation.

The decree, after reciting, that the present civil war is made by the clergy, to place themselves above law; that the clergy elsewhere subsist on what their parishes pay, and that they can do so in Mexico,—declares that, all the property which the secular and regular clergy has under various titles administered, whether it be in the form of lands, claims or securities, and whatever the name or application, is the property of the State; that all religions shall be protected, and all be equal—and that a certain amount, $500 shall be paid to each priest, as a final payment from the State,—and $3000 to each old priest, who is past his labor.

The value of the property thus effected is said to be enormous. In 1856 it was estimated that of the five thousand buildings of all kinds which make up the City of Mexico, one-half, valued at forty millions of dollars, belonged to the clerical body. In the same year the income of the same body throughout the Republic derived from all sources, was computed at twenty millions of dollars, or six millions more than the whole annual expenses of the Federal Government.

This immense church establishment has been and is still, the burden and the curse of Mexico,—and the intrigues of the priesthood have kept her in a constant ferment.

Among recent decrees of the Juarez Government is one declaring the late Baron Von Humboldt benemerito of the Republic, and providing for a marble statue of him to be executed in Italy, and erected in the College of Mines in the City of Mexico.

☞ The Bath Times learns from a reliable source that Capt. John A. Holmes, now confined in Wiscasset jail, is very ill, and that Friday evening two physicians were in constant attendance upon him. He has dwindled down to a skeleton; and the indications are that his physical energies cannot long hold out against the sure approaches of death. His crime was murder; his defence insanity. The homicide was clearly proved, and was shockingly barbarous.—It is a great mercy to have him die by disease in prison, if he were insane,—and in this case the most ardent supporters of the gallows must approve of imprisonment rather than hanging.

☞ Thirteen ladies from New York City, on their way to the White Mountains in New Hampshire, arrived at the Bardell House, Rutland, on Thursday evening, on horseback. They were accompanied by half-a-dozen men servants as a body-guard. They left the next morning.

POISONED BY HOOPS.—A couple of females at Cayuga, Canada West, went into the forest to cut material for hoops, being resolved to keep up with the prevailing fashion. They selected the stem of the "poison ivy," and after wearing the hoops a few days were so dangerously affected as to require medical treatment.

☞ An exchange says there now before the public sixty different mowing machines, and the proprietors of each claim that it is superior to all others.

☞ It is probable that Americans spend three millions a year in Italy, and ten millions in Europe.

TORNADO IN RYE.

RYE, July 27, 1859.

Messrs. Editors:—During the shower of yesterday afternoon, at about 5 o'clock, a perfect tornado passed across the extreme southern section of our town, uprooting and blowing down corn, fences, &c., and blowing "great guns" generally. The vein of wind was but a few rods in width, and passed nearly from WSW to ENE. It tore up several trees in the edge of North Hampton, and one directly in front of the residence of Joseph Batchelder. A cart belonging to Moses C. Philbrick, was taken up and carried several feet, and made a total wreck. Ten large apple trees near his house were torn up in less time than it takes to write about it. Some of the trees were one and two feet in diameter; one in particular was broken nearly a foot below the the level of the ground.

J. C. Philbrick, Esq., of the Atlantic House had five nice trees entirely dismasted, and a part of the conductors around the roof of his house shared the same fate.—Large limbs were twisted off in the twinkling of an eye, and shingles flew in all directions. A boat belonging to the fishermen was out when the squall was coming up, but reached shore about twenty seconds befor it struck.

SOUTH END.

JUSTICE.—While there is little difference between law in the United States and in Great Britain, no one has failed to observe that there are more defects of law here than in Great Britain—that juries and courts here do not sustain the laws. They are kept sacred and powerful in the old country by the habits of the people, who apply the law to the cases submitted to their decision. Corruption has had little influence in undermining the administration of justice there.

Many causes for the maladministration of justice are visible in the United States.—The members of the legal profession, as a class, do not rank high, as too many of them will undertake to free the most hardened criminals, though the most that they should do is to watch the interests of guilty persons, and to guard them against prejudice and undue punishment. The exceptions in the profession are too few to give dignity to the law, or to those who are members of it. Many grave and important trials have been carried on here, in which intellectual men have made themselves notorious throughout the world by setting up the most absurd theories to enable their guilty clients to escape. Every man is familiar with histories of the kind. Hence it is that society is called upon to suffer to the extent it now does.—Pennsylvania Enquirer.

A WOMAN ON THE SICKLES CASE.—The North Iowa Times contains a letter from a lady commenting upon an editorial in that paper in relation to the killing of Key, in which it was said that "Sickles could not have lived had he not taken vengeance on the wily scoundrel who had robbed him of his position and disgraced his name." His correspondent had "supposed that a man's virtue was inherent, a part of his nature, and not simply a reflection of the virtue of his wife." But she infers from the editorial alluded to, that "when Mr. Sickles went to Congress, his position, his honor, depended upon the chaste behavior of Mrs. Sickles, his wife, and she an Italian at that! The beautiful woman captivated by the graces of a handsomer man than her husband, sins, is discovered, and exposed—and Mr. S., the only innocent person in the affair, shoots Mr. Key, not for betraying his wife, but for dishonoring him!" This she pronounces "egregious selfishness," and continues as follows:—

It is strange how differently our sexes are constituted. Women survive these disagreeable developments every day. If Mr. Sickels had hired this assignation house, and met Mrs. Swizzles, do you think Mrs. Sickles would have gone out to shoot the faithless crinoline who had stolen her husband? No, Sir! Women do no such foolish things; and why? Because if we are virtuous we have confidence in our virtue, and we feel that no dereliction of the husband can or ought to affect the virtue of the wife. But suppose on some fine Sabbath morning all the women in Washington who suspect their truant lords, should sally out, swords and pistols by their sides, to chastise the dear creatures who had stolen their affections,—would not this mark an interesting epoch in history?"

☞ A marble shaft recently erected over the remains of Aaron Burr, in the graveyard in Princeton, New Jersey, has been mutilated and broken by some persons unknown. The shaft was erected by stealth, no one knowing who put it there.

☞ A correspondent of the Machias Republican charges that the loss of the ship Bolton, of Bath, with fifteen human lives, was the result of the gross neglect of the Light Keeper on Libby's Island to ring the fog bell.

☞ The biggest mule ever produced, it is supposed, is now in Wayne county, Ind., owned by Chas. Frost. The weight is given as 1835 pounds, and height 19 1-2 hands, which is 6 1-2 feet.

☞ The Boston Evening Transcript has just dressed itself in new type.—It was so well printed before, however, that most readers would not notice the difference, unless they were told of it.

☞ Rev. George H. Shepard, son of Professor Shepard, of Bangor, Me., was found dead in his bed on Sunday morning last, at Winthrop, Me., whither he had gone with the intention of preaching on that day.

Fashionable circles were never so numerous as they are now. Almost every lady that appears in the streets is the centre of one.—N. Y. Ledger.

☞ The Union Democrat, printed at Manchester, is an able paper of the democratic party, and the only one of the party in the State which speaks out against Douglas, except the Democratic Standard.—Speaking of the late valedictory in the Gazette, the Union Democrat says:—

We are sorry that Mr. Alexander finds it necessary to sever his connection with the press. He is a genial friend and a very able writer; and better than all, a true-blue Democrat. We don't think he can be anything else; at the same time, we have felt bound to dissent from the course he has lately taken. In the issue between the President and Douglas, we have never doubted that he was as honest as we claim to be; but his admiration of a man whose mad ambition has more than once brought the Democracy of New Hampshire down into the valley of humiliation, is a sentiment in which we have no sympathy.

Our readers may remember that the N. H. Patriot spoke of the "course of the Administration" as the wet blanket which brought the party down into the aforesaid valley.

The Union Democrat says, in another article:—

We shall not quarrel with friends upon the negro question. We desire to be as nearly right as we can, and shall feel gratified if the whole Democratic party shall concur in the same view; at the same time, we can act with and vote for men who entertain different opinions, for we know it is but an idle abstraction which divides us, after all * * whatever platform parties may adopt, whatever man they may have for President, and whatever action Congress may take. It is not, therefore, with a view to the present or future condition of slavery, that we allude to this matter; but to the influence the question is likely to have upon the ensuing presidential election.

In the same article an item is copied from the New York News, saying—

We cannot think the great Democratic party of this country is to be dashed to pieces on any hair-splitting theory which, from its very nature, cannot become a practical question during the coming Administration. "Sufficient for the day is the evil thereof."

And the Union Democrat then remarks:

The truth is, the slavery question is not necessarily associated with national politics at all. The non-intervention theory is fully established, and will be adhered to by every future Congress. The people of all organized Territories will exercise their own discretion, and Courts or Congresses will never have occasion to intervene; or if they should, they would do so to no purpose.

Yet the Union Democrat will discuss slavery every week from this time till November, 1860—the new Congress will discuss it—and the Charleston Convention will hardly do anything else.

GAS.—The Emperor Napoleon has his own way of dealing with difficulties, whether social, municipal, or international,—as may be seen by his treatment of the gas companies of his capital. Finding, four or five years ago, that the Parisians complained of the character and price of the gas which was served to them, he caused some gasworks to be built in the grounds of the palace at St. Cloud, and fitted with the necessary apparatus for the manufacture of that important article. Then, under his own superintendence, assisted by several eminent chemists and scientific men, he caused experiments in the manufacture of gas from all the various materials, from the cheapest to the dearest, to be made. When he had tried the different kinds in the palace, and had figured up the cost to his satisfaction, he invited the directors of the Parisian gas companies to visit St. Cloud, and inspect the result of his experiments. The effect in Paris was the most satisfactory. The people have now no cause to complain of their gas, which costs them but about one-half what it did when the imperial Jack at all trades commenced gas-making. There are other cities, we apprehend, where a similar experiment might well be tried.—Traveller.

OLD FOLKS' "QUILTING" IN SUTTON.—One of these interesting gatherings, peculiar to the old times, took place in South Sutton one day last week. The "quilting" was done at the house of widow Joshua Lackey, and was attended by sixteen ladies, whose united ages amounted to ten hundred and fifty-four years! The oldest, Mrs. Joshua Hicks, is 83 years of age, and the youngest, Mrs. Amos Burdon, is 50. Three are upwards of 80; four between 70 and 80; six between 60 and 70; three between 50 and 60. They quilted a quilt of nearly two thousand pieces, the largest less than four inches square, put together by Mrs. Lackey, who is upwards of eighty years of age. The "quilting" commenced with an appropriate prayer by Mrs. Burdon, and concluded with the singing of the hymn commencing—

When shall we meet again,
Meet ne'er to part,
When shall peace wreath her chain
Round us forever?
Our hearts will ne'er repose,
Safe from each blast that blows,
In this dark vale of woes,
Never, no, never!

With a single exception, the ladies have lived neighbors from their youth, within a radius of a mile and a half, containing thirty years ago less than 200 souls.—Worcester Spy.

FORTUNE AND HER WHEEL.

Turn, Fortune, turn thy wheel and lower the proud;
Turn thy wild wheel through sunshine, storm and cloud;
Thy wheel and thee we neither love nor hate.

Turn, Fortune, turn thy wheel with smile or frown;
With that wild wheel we go not up or down;
Our hoard is little, but our hearts are great.

Smile and we smile, the lords of many lands;
Frown and we smile, the lords of our own hands;
For man is man and master of his fate.

Turn, turn the wheel above the staring crowd;
Thy wheel and thou are shadows in the cloud;
Thy wheel and thee we neither love nor hate.

DR. DAY RESCUED FROM JAIL.—Leavenworth, July 25th.—Dr. Day, under sentence in St. Joseph Jail, for an alleged kidnapping, was rescued on Sunday morning during a violent storm, and is still at large. Great excitement prevailed at St. Joseph on the announcement of his escape, and a pursuit was attempted, but without success.

A POLICEMAN ON HIS "LIP."—The new General Superintendent of the New York police, a night or two since, found a policeman sitting on a hydrant and smoking a cigar. The General watched him for a few moments, and then bade him good evening. The salutation was gruffly returned. "You are taking it coolly," said the General.—"That's none of your —— business," returned patrolman. "Probably not," was the reply, "but do not the rules and regulations of the department require you to keep moving? Possibly I am mistaken, but I think so." "Now look here," said the officer, "you had better move on, or I will arrest you and lock you up. Do you hear?" "I beg pardon for interfering, but excuse me. Please take my card." The General moved on, and since that time the policeman is said to be considering the propriety of resigning. The above is said to be literally true.

SIXTY THOUSAND DOLLARS IN ONE DAY!—Much has been said for and against the Lotteries authorized for various purposes by the Legislature of Georgia, and many have been the cautions thrown out to the credulous public against the Georgia State Lottery, McKinney & Co., Managers, whose head-quarters are at Savannah. An ancient maxim requires us to "give the devil, even, his due;" and without compromitting ourselves in the matter at all, we are free to record (what is known to every body, almost, in Savannah,) that in the Lottery advertised by us to be drawn in Masonic Hall buildings, last Saturday noon, it was ascertained that the numbers "16,724," entitled to the capital prize of sixty thousand dollars, were upon two half tickets—one of which was in the office here, and one sent to H. T. Peters, Charleston, S. C.—Savannah News, July 18.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

OPPRESSION AFTER EATING.—Many persons, after an ordinary meal, feel a sense of weight and discomfort in the region of the stomach, the sure sign of an imperfect digestion, and probably the forerunner of a settled dyspepsia. Nothing will relieve this oppression like the PERUVIAN SYRUP, by the stimulus it gives to the digestive powers.

Common Sense rules the mass of the people, whatever the misnamed and misanthrope philosophers may say to the contrary. Show them a good thing: let its merits be clearly demonstrated, and they will not hesitate to give it their most cordial patronage. The masses have already rattled the judgment of a physician, from overmuch praise of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, as may be seen in the immense quantities of this medicine that are annually sold in every section of the land. It is now recognized as greatly superior to all other remedies yet devised for diseases of the digestive organs, such as diarrhœa, dysentery, dyspepsia, and for the various fevers that arise from derangement of those portions of the system. Hostetter's name is rapidly becoming a household word, from Maine to Texas; from the shores of the Atlantic to the Pacific. Try the article and be satisfied.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Dyspepsia.

Considering the various forms in which this disease developes itself, it may well be called hydra-headed. In its train follow Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, Heartburn, Water Brash, Costiveness, Piles, Acidity, Oppression after Eating, Jaundice, Flatulency, Torpor of the Liver, Dizziness, Debility, Female Complaints, &c. Some of the first items in our land have given their written testimonials relative to the cures effected in their own persons by the OXYGENATED BITTERS; while testimonials from other sources, editorial opinions and voluntary expressions from persons averse to see their names in print, are perfectly overwhelming.

EAST TAUNTON, Mass., Feb. 9, '58.

To the Editor of the Portland Mirror.—Sir:—

OXYGENATED BITTERS—For more than twenty five years I have been a sufferer from the dyspepsia. Besides trying the patience of my family physicians in the almost useless trial of their various prescriptions, I have tried a great variety of patent medicines with a similar result. Through the kindness of my physician, I received last March half a dozen bottles of the OXYGENATED BITTERS. I began to use them without any hope of deriving help from them. Being determined to give them a fair trial, I continued their use, but without any perceptible benefit till June.

Since then I have gradually improved in health till I am entirely free from soleness of the stomach, and from the consequent flatulency, and the awful and almost distracting sick headache, which often, for days together, has wholly unfitted me for study and for all other ministerial duties, and rendered life a burden.

I feel that I owe it, as an expression of gratitude to Messrs. Fox & Co., and also a duty to the public, to recommend their Oxygenated Bitters, as, in my estimation, a sure remedy for that most terrible, most wearing, and out-of-all-patience, to which poor human flesh is heir, the dyspepsia. Having suffered so long, and tried so many different remedies with no permanent relief, I can recommend the Oxygenated Bitters with a confidence few others can. If any of the readers of the Mirror are suffering, I beg of them to make trial of these Bitters without delay.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

This Gin, distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant of distilled liquors.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

It is not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find it a speedy and sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

GROVER & BAKER

SEWING MACHINE COMPANY,

No. 18 Summer Street, Boston,

MACHINES FROM $50 TO $125.

HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

TESTIMONIALS.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

Several months have now elapsed since one of these machines was first introduced for our family use. For several weeks those who attempted to operate it having had no instruction, it was regarded as of little value, although some work could be done. But no sooner had one of experience taken hold of it, giving the proper tension to the cotton, proper oiling, &c. to the machinery, than it worked admirably—and now for months it goes on like clock work, doing handsomely all the work submitted to it, and accomplishing as much work in an hour as could be done by hand in a long summer's day. These machines are decidedly popular. We have never heard of one being sold to procure another from a different maker,—while we have known others to be laid aside to give place to Grover & Baker's. Any one can operate them after an hour's instruction from an experienced hand.

CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

We have seen one of Grover & Baker's $100 Sewing Machines used to do the Sewing of two families, for the past year or more, to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned—without once getting out of order, or requiring the least repair.—We would as soon try to dispense with a Cooking Stove in a family, as to attempt to get along without a Sewing Machine. Money invested in a good Machine pays much more than legal dividend, in actual cash savings—to say nothing of the higher consideration, of comfort and convenience, nay, even luxury, it affords to the ladies of a household. Whatever may be the experience with other Machines, we never knew a Grover & Baker to be discarded or found wanting.

FRANK W. MILLER.
ALLEN & PAINE.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others.

LOCAL.

☞ Early on Wednesday morning, the ticket office at the Eastern Railroad Depot in this city, was broken open, and the safe blown up with gunpowder. It was then rifled of what money it contained, probably $100.

The safe was very much shattered by the explosion, and the clock in the room was stopped, at 5 minutes past 2 o'clock, thus marking the exact moment of the robbery.

The watchman of the establishment was at that time in the engine house,—engaged in duties there.

Several families in the neighborhood were startled by the report, which must have been produced by a heavy charge.

The frequenters of a certain den of thieves doubtless know all about it,—but the difficulty of fixing the act on any one of them is considerable. The secret may leak out, perhaps. It has been rather a hard time of late, here, with that class, and cash is rather scarce with them.

Their plans for the robbery were well laid, and nicely executed. A small ladder from a neighboring garden, furnished the means of climbing a high fence, and then was pulled over into a little yard behind the telegraph office and ticket office, where they did most of their work, completely hidden. One window was opened, and one or two doors forced to get at the safe; the lock of which was heavily charged with powder;—then a fuse from the key-hole led out of the window into the little back yard, where the fireman of the concern touched off the preparation.

The explosion took off the door of the safe entirely, and its force as it went broke a stud in the door frame of the ticket office. The glass in the office also was shattered by the explosion.

☞ At the Chapel Royal, during the thunder storm on a recent Sunday, several frightened ladies, fearing the effects of lightning upon certain steel circumference, which fashion had girded about them, actually detached these dangerous appendages and walked away, leaving their hoops in their pews.

FREE LECTURE ON ITALY—Illustrated with Maps—By Dr. Joseph P. Thompson, of New York City.—Dr. Thompson, in passing through our city, has kindly consented to deliver his "Lecture on Italy" at the Temple this evening, at 8 o'clock. It is a subject full of interest to all Christendom at this time, and we trust he will have an appreciative audience.

PIC-NICS.—The two Methodist Societies in this city held a joint pic-nic, in the grove near Newmarket Junction, on Wednesday.

The Christian Society have a similar social gathering at a grove near the Greenland station of the P. & C. Railroad, to-day.

This is a very agreeable and economical way of ruralizing for a day—and one which every religious society might well indulge in once or twice a year.

☞ The thunder showers of Tuesday afternoon, gave everything a copious wetting down, in this city. A dweller near Market Square observed one flash of lightning pass down the rod on the North Church. We do not learn that any harm was done by lightning in this city. At North Hampton, we understand a barn was burnt, with a cow, both belonging to Mr. Simon Fogg.

☞ With the close of the present week, terminates the seventh year of the publication of the Daily Chronicle. On Monday next we begin a new volume — the fifteenth—which affords a good opportunity for new subscribers to commence. For terms, see fourth page.

HARPER FOR AUGUST. — The August number of this invaluable, inimitable Monthly Magazine, is received from A. Williams & Co., special agents for the sale of the Harper's publications in Boston. For sale by J. H. Foster in this city.

☞ Speaking of the New York Asylum for the inebriate, a paper says there are already twenty-eight hundred applications for admission at Binghampton, and the building not yet completed. Twenty-eight of these are clergymen and four hundred and ten are women. There are in the Empire State, at this hour, drunken women enough to fill ten just such institutions as that now in progress. There are not less than one hundred thousand of both sexes in that State who should be placed at once in the asylum if it shall prove an effective remedy.

☞ Dr. Winterbottom, father of the medical profession in England, his name being first in the new Medical Register, died at Westoe, near South Shields, July 8, in the 95th year of his age. Dr. Winterbottom was also probably the oldest Anti-Slavery advocate alive, having been connected with the great movement for the emancipation of the African race from bondage from early life. He lived some years in Sierra Leone, and wrote a well known book among the profession, "Winterbottom on Hot Climate," as the result of his experience in that deadly climate.

☞ A lady in Buffalo, in attempting to throw something out of a window, somehow managed to drop herself at the same moment. Down she went, a distance of eighteen feet, to the pavement; but not with any ungraceful keeling over or heavy blow in striking. She sailed down, parachute fashion, presenting the graceful form of an old fashioned decanter—her life was saved by the buoyancy of her hoop skirt.

☞ A few days since, a Mrs. Jackson, a resident of Cincinnati, wishing to get rid of a troublesome dog, strewed around the yard of her dwelling several bits of meat, sprinkled with strychnine. Her little daughter, unfortunately, picked up a piece and ate it, when she was instantly attacked by terrible spasms, which after four or five days terminated in death.

☞ Mary Zecher, daughter of Jacob Zecher, Esq., of Lancaster, Pa., died on Monday evening last, of lock-jaw. Some ten days before her death she trod upon a nail which penetrated her foot, causing considerable pain and soreness. The wound continued to inflame and grow worse until lock-jaw supervened and caused death. Miss Zecher was in the 18th year of her age.

☞ The official returns of the earthquake at Erzeroum, Turkey, on the 2d of June, report the number of dead at 380, of wounded at 200, and of missing at 60. Of the 6000 houses, or thereabouts, of which Erzeroum consisted, 2000 have been totally destroyed, 1500 seriously damaged, and nearly 1000 of the remainder more or less injured.

☞ The Washington Arkansian of the 2d inst., says:—In Benton county, a few days ago, during a thunder storm, three ladies were struck by lightning and two of them killed. The prevailing fashion of female dress is a first-rate conductor, and in times of severe thunder storms is dangerous apparel.

☞ Delos E. Sill, editor of the Cattaraugus Freeman, lately made a funny report of a trial for breach of promise, in which Miss Shaw, of Albany, obtained a verdict of $1000 from Van Campen, the fickle swain. The defendant has sued and recovered $1000 damage for the libel, just balancing the sum mulcted for the lacerated feelings of the lady.

☞ By the steamer Europa we have Liverpool dates to July 16.

Letters from Paris assert that much discontent prevailed there in regard to the terms of the peace and the small results of the war, although peace itself gave general satisfaction.

The Siecle (organ of the French Liberals) is dissatisfied, and says France will have everything to begin again in a few years, if the minutest Austrian influence is suffered in Italy. It calls for the expulsion of the petty Italian princes, confederates of Austria.

Napoleon had quitted the seat of war, and was en route for France.

The King of Sardinia, Victor Emmanuel endorses the peace, but Count Cavour and colleagues condemn it, and resign their places.

It was said that Garibaldi was about to issue a proclamation. It was thought doubtful if he would readily lay down his arms.

Up to the 11th the formation of the Hungarian Legion had proceeded favorably, 5000 men having joined.

A letter from Rome says the Pope has sent an autograph letter to Napoleon, stating his determination to demand from the Catholic powers armed intervention.

In the British House of Commons, on the 14th, the bill abolishing church rates was passed to a second reading by a vote of 263 to 193, amidst loud cheering.

NEW YORK, July 27.—The steamship Moses Taylor arrived this morning from Aspinwall, with $2,145,000 in specie.

The frigate Roanoke was at Aspinwall.

There was much excitement on the Isthmus on account of the discovery of large quantities of golden images, etc., in the Indian graves in the Chiriqui district. Many hundreds of persons have gone there, and already several thousand dollars worth had been sent to Panama.

The bark Messenger Bird has turned up at Tahiti, whence she had gone from Valparaiso, after clearing for San Francisco.—Capt. Delee sold at Tahiti 1200 bags of coffee, which was transhipped to San Francisco on ship William. He then cleared ostensibly for Sydney, N. S. W., May 17. It is estimated that he must have $40,000, feloniously obtained, besides 2400 more bags coffee of the stolen cargo.

The papers are indulging in speculations respecting the yield of the wheat crop the present year. All the figuring in the world is but approximative when it relates to wheat, no really accurate statistics being in existence. The production of wheat in the several States for 1857 and 1858 may be stated thus: 1857, 180,000,000 bushels; 1858, 158,500,000 bushels. The crop of 1859 is variously estimated, but it is safe to place it at 200,000,000 bushels. — Boston Post.

Seven Octave Piano --- New Scale.

The Subscriber having just received a superior SEVEN OCTAVE PIANO-FORTE, made according to his order by the celebrated firm of HALLET, DAVIS & CO., would offer it for the inspection of persons desirous of purchasing. H. D. & Co. have recently made great improvements in the manufacture of Pianos, the most important of which is the New Scale, which, while obviating the weakness which has hitherto been found in the upper part of Square Seven Octave Pianos, gives it a power of tone nearly equal to that of the Parlor Grand.

Having been for several years Agent for the sale of Pianos of the above make, Mr. P. is prepared to state that the instruments which they are now making, far excel any of their former manufacture.

Purchasers will find it greatly to their advantage to call and examine the above mentioned Piano, as it is the only one in Portsmouth which contains the NEW SCALE.

and as a Beverage it has no superior in the world. It is manufactured by the proprietor, at Schiedam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use, by a process peculiar to his own Factory. It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spiritous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, Bladder and Kidney Complaints, &c. &c.

Put up in quart and pint bottles, in Cases of one dozen quarts, and two dozen pints, with the proprietor's name on the bottle, cork and label. For sale by all the respectable Country Merchants and Druggists. Look out for counterfeits and imitations, as the whole country is flooded with them

TO THE PUBLIC.

I beg leave to call the attention of the American Public to the following Certificate from the Government Chemist for the Island of Cuba and the Spanish West Indies, and who is known to the Scientific men of London, Paris, Madrid, Cuba and America to be the first Chemist in the world.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHEMICAL TESTIMONY.

D. Jose Luis Casaseca, Corresponding Member of the Royal Academies of Madrid and Munich, a Graduate in Sciences of the Faculty of Paris, formerly Professor of Chemistry, as applied to the Arts, of the Royal Conservatorio of Madrid, and of Pharmacy and Chemistry, as applied to the Industry and Agriculture of the country, in the Royal University of this Island, at present H. M's Director of the Institute of Havana, Havanagation, &c., &c.

Do hereby certify, that at the request of the house of Gottig & Will, of this place, I have made an analytical examination of U. Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, with the object of ascertaining if it contained any substance noxious to health, and to inform them as to its true composition and relative quality with the other gins that are offered in the market, and the results of my observations and experiments are as follows:—

Udolpho Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps is a spirituous liquid, of a very agreeable aromatic odor, completely transparent and almost colorless, having only a very slight tint of yellowish gray; its flavor is strong and very agreeable to the palate. It marks 20 degrees in Cartier's alcohol weigher or 52 degrees 5 hundredth in Gay Lussac's alcohometre. By the distillation in a balnium maria, with an apparatus consisting of a glass retort and a recipient surrounded with ice, I have collected in this recipient an alcoholic liquid with a very agreeable aroma completely colorless and transparent, which marked 90 degrees in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, or 70 degrees 5 hundredth on Gay Lussac's alcohometre; and which represented as a whole 57 per cent. of aromatic Schiedam schnapps subject to distillation in the retort. This liquid did not soil the transparency of the distilled water in mixing it with the same, and its agreeable aroma is doubtless due to a very trifling amount of an essential oil inseparable from alcohol.

From the remainder of the distillation which was left in the retort, I have obtained, through evaporation in a vapor bath, a substance of a yellowish brown color, oily, and having a bitter taste, which is not disagreeable, and which afterwards becomes aromatic and leaves the mouth perfumed with that fragrance peculiar to the vanilla. I am inclined to believe that to this bitter and aromatic extractive substance, soluble in water and alcohol, the medicinal properties which are attributed to the gin are due. I have not found in Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps any mineral or organic substance other than the extractive one already named and the aromatic one obtained by distillation. Finally, Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps consists simply of an aromatic alcohol of 20 degrees of graduation in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, and of an extractive bitter aromatic substance, which perhaps, is medicinal; and, on account of its not containing any matter injurious to the health, as well as for its odor and good flavor—a fact which no doubt arises from the choice substances employed in its manufacture, and the peculiar manner of its distillation, it should in my opinion, be preferred to all the Holland, Belgic and German gins which are found in this Island which I have been my business to examine. These gins as I have often proved it, exhale a disagreeable odor, and have a more or less disagreeable taste; some of them having left as we have seen with the superior gin from the distillery of Mr. Henry Deetjen (of Bremen,) as residum after evaporation by steam, a substance almost insipid and very trifingly aromatic, with flavor of vanilla, but in no wise with the delicious bitter and aromatic flavor of that of Udolpho Wolfe; and others, such as that labelled "Genuine Samaritan," "Extra Superior." Messrs. Tracner have furnished me with a very small quantity of a greenish substance, of hard consistence and very disagreeable, which extractive organic matter was mixed with a salt of copper, with signs of iron, owing perhaps, to a bad system of distillation.

I certify that all that is here stated is the truth and agrees with the experiments I have made with the greatest care, and I authorize the house of Gottig & Will, of this city, to give publicity to this certificate, in Spanish and in foreign languages, in all countries where it may suit their interest to do so. JOSE LUIS CASASECA.

DR. SWETT'S
CORDIAL OF DANDELION,
SPIKENARD & BONESET,
A remedy unsurpassed for Liver Complaints, such as Costiveness, Dizziness and Pain in the Head, Stomach and Side, Universal Debility, and the whole family of Consumptive Complaints.
Hundreds of testimonials might be added, proving the many cures by this pleasant and effectual medicine, especially of people advanced in life, whose debilitated constitutions have been greatly recruited by it. A trial of it is warranted to well pay the aged and dyspeptic. Price 75 cents.

[From Mrs. Daniel H. Williams.]
DR. SWETT—Dear Sir:—I presume you recollect that I called on you, about a year since. I was very low, and had been for a long time, with dyspeptic complaints, being very weak, with no appetite, pain in my head, stomach and side, but now my health is comparatively good, and I consider this great deliverance attributable, mainly, to the two bottles of your "Compound Cordial of Dandelion," which you left for me. I consider this the best medicine I ever found for the complaints for which you recommend it on the labels.
Yours, &c., MARY E. WILLIAMS.
Concord, N. H., May 28, 1858.

ENFIELD, Sept. 8, 1859.
Last spring and Summer I was troubled with the Liver Complaint, which caused my food to distress me badly; and I do not know what cured me, but one thing I do know, and that is, I took one bottle of Dr. S. Swett's Cordial of Dandelion, and the disease left me, and has not returned.
A. K. CURRIER.

This unequalled medicine, together with others carefully prepared by Dr. SIMEON SWETT, from innocent but effectual vegetables, are for sale by him at No. 12 CABOT ST., Portsmouth, N. H.

MRS. WINSLOW,
An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers, her
SOOTHING SYRUP,
For Children Teething.
Which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is
SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.
Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and
RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.
We have put up and sold this article for ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth, of it, what we have to say of any other medicine, NEVER HAS IT PROVED INJURIOUS, NEVER HAS IT FAILED IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when used, NEVER HAS IT BEEN the instance of dissatisfaction, or even a recommendation by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted to speak in terms of the highest commendation of its medicinal effects and medical virtues. We speak, in this matter, what we do know, after ten years experience, and what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, the fulfilment of what we have promised will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.
This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the MOST EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in England and has been used with EVER GREATEST SUCCESS, in never-failing success, in all cases, in relieving the child from pain, but also of the bowels, corrects, regulates and invigorates the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC, and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the best and surest remedy in the world in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHEA IN CHILDREN, EN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would earnestly recommend the mothers of children suffering from any of the foregoing complaints to give this article a trial. Do not let your own prejudices, or the prejudices of others, stand in the way of your child's relief, but between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, SURE to follow the use of this, if timely used. Full directions accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper. Sold by Druggists throughout the world. Principal Office, No. 13 Cedar st. New York.
Price only 25 cents per bottle.

THE ONLY ARTICLE
UNRIVALLED IN THE MARKET,
WITH IMMENSE
HOME AND EUROPEAN DEMAND.
The reason why, is that by Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, itching, and heat from the scalp, quicks and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headache, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop the hair from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy and beautiful, and if used by the young two or three times a week it will never fall or become gray; then, reader, read the following and judge for yourselves:
NEW YORK, Jan. 8, 1858.
MESSRS. O. J. WOOD & CO.,
Gentlemen: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair falling quite freely, I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudices which I, in common with a great many persons, had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself.
The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was but who having my prejudice without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Hair Restorative a trial till they see further proof, and the best proof being occular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing establishment every day.
My hair is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being much more and thicker and much more healthy looking. I am, yours respectfully, HENRY JENKINS.
Cor. Columbia and Carroll Sts., Brooklyn.
LIVINGSTON, Ala., Feb. 14, 1858.
PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country. My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known; to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.
You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, &c. S. W. MIDDLETON.
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.
PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The hair on the top also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—was in fact BALD. I have used but 2 half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any good whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours, respectfully,
D. R. THOMAS, M. D.,
No. 464 Vine Street.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

CONSUMPTION IS CURABLE!
BY THE USE OF
Winchester's Genuine Preparation of Dr. J. F. Churchill's Compound of the
HYPOPHOSPHITES
OF LIME, SODA AND POTASH,
Originally discovered and prescribed by him as a Specific Remedy for CONSUMPTION!
The use of the Hypophosphites in CONSUMPTION, Scrofula, Nervous Debility, Rickets, Rachitis, Dyspepsia, Female Complaints, and all other diseases depending upon a DEFICIENT VITALITY IS THE ELEMENTS OF THE BLOOD, have proved their EXTRAORDINARY EFFICACY in hundreds of cases in Europe and America and established the claim of the discoverer, that they are a SUR PREVENTATIVE, and a
SPECIFIC REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION.
Dr. Churchill says: "In no single instance have I found the remedy fail to produce everything that could be reasonably expected from it. In most instances the benefit derived from it has FAR EXCEEDED what could at first have been hoped for, when taking into account the degree and extent of the injury sustained by the lungs previously to the use of the remedy." * * *

Seven Octave Piano --- New Scale.
The Subscriber having just received a superior SEVEN OCTAVE PIANO-FORTE, made according to his order by the celebrated firm of HALLET, DAVIS & CO., would offer it for the inspection of persons desirous of purchasing. H. D. & Co. have recently made great improvements in the manufacture of Pianos, the most important of which is the New Scale, which, while obviating the weakness which has hitherto been found in the upper part of Square Seven Octave Pianos, gives it a power of tone nearly equal to that of the Parlor Grand.

Having been for several years Agent for the sale of Pianos of the above make, Mr. P. is prepared to state that the instruments which they are now making, far excel any of their former manufacture.

Purchasers will find it greatly to their advantage to call and examine the above mentioned Piano, as it is the only one in Portsmouth which contains the NEW SCALE.

FRIDAY, JULY 29, 1859.

A LAWYER'S FAME.

The Springfield Republican, in an article reviewing Mr. Choate's course as a lawyer, remarks:—

With great capacities for any life, and with occasional efforts in other spheres both comprehensive and marvellous, Mr. Choate devoted his days and his powers to the law. There he achieved his fame, won his triumphs, displayed his greatest genius, and exhibited his fatal fault.

No cause seemed so desperate or so bad, that he would not undertake its defense; no suggestions of law, no trick of forms, so shallow or puerile, that he would not press it into service for his purpose. So, in the trial of his cases, he would astonish judge, jury and lawyers, by his perversions of evidence, and his manipulations of the plainest matters of fact into strange, unnatural and untrue forms and theories. Every bar at which he has practiced will tell you of illustrations of these habits of his. They had ceased to excite surprise, or provoke displeasure, or even to prejudice his argument. They were heard with a similar wonder and curiosity to that with which men look upon any surprising and unnatural performance, and laughed at as good jokes are.

Something of these habits of this distinguished lawyer was the result of his enthusiastic, exuberant, imaginative nature, much was due to the ardor with which he followed his business, but very much, also, to a false and fatal principle of practice. The world was lenient to it in him, because of his many virtues and his much brilliancy; but it is not safe for any aspirant to his reputation, or to any greatness in the profession, to repeat his errors. He may be copied in his industry, which made amusement of classic study, which exhausted law and literature, and married them to immortal speech; in the simplicity and purity of his private life; in the abstemiousness of his eating and drinking, whereby he was enabled to pursue such an unwearied round of labor, and soar so high in intellectual performance;—but in the substitution of a lower moral standard for his professional life—from that recognized and observed by him as a citizen—in his disregard for the highest and purest purposes and duties of his profession,—never with honor or safety.

The world is more and more insisting that the law and its practice shall mean something besides trickery, perversion and injustice; that the lawyer shall be as responsible for his professional life, as he is for his private life; and the lawyers themselves ought to take a hint from the perpetual jibes of the public, and insist on removing the reproach which rests upon them as a class through the grievous errors of the few. They ought to rise to that point in which they will feel any stigma or sarcasm on their business as keenly as they would one on themselves personally.

The Atlas makes this reply:—

A Western exchange, in an article entitled, "Mr. Choate's Glory and Shame as a Lawyer," says that "no cause seemed so desperate or so bad, that he would not undertake its defense." That is a mistake.—We believe he peremptorily refused to act in the case of Dr. Webster. It was privately stated at the time that Dr. Webster declined to place the facts of his case, as ultimately confessed by him, in the confidence of Mr. Choate. We could cite other cases nearly as desperate, where he refused to act as counsel.

No doubt the Atlas is correct in these statements:—but it does not appear that Mr. Choate declined to defend Webster because his case was desperate, but rather because Webster was afraid to tell him how it was. Mr. C. undertook Tirrell's case, which was evidence that no case could be too bad for him to handle.

☞ The Republican Central Committee have issued an address to the people of Kansas, informing them that before they can be admitted into the Union as a State they will be called upon to participate in the most important election yet offered for their suffrages. Under the Constitution framed at Wyandotte are shortly to be elected, a Representative to Congress, Gubernatorial and other State officers, a judiciary for the State, and a Legislature, on whom will devolve the duty of electing two United States Senators. The Committee fear that the frauds in which the Territory was baptised will continue at the coming election, and they call upon every man to whom the liberty and prosperity of Kansas is dear, to labor for success in the election of men who on the floor of Congress will defend their rights.

CHRISTIAN DENOMINATION.—The denomination known as Christians at the present time throughout the country embraces about 1200 ministers, 1500 churches, and 150,000 communicants. Probably about 500,000 people have adopted their views and attend on their ministry. They have one college at Antioch, O., and are making arrangements to establish a literary and theological institution in New England.—They have four denominational weekly papers, of which the Herald of Gospel Liberty, at Newburyport, is the oldest.

☞ According to the official report, the Austrian loss at Solferino, was—killed, 91 officers, 2261 privates; wounded, 4 generals, 485 officers, and 10,160 privates; missing, 49 officers, and 2229 privates. Of those missing are to be deducted nine corps which subsequently returned to the different bodies to which they belonged.

☞ The General Association of Congregational and Presbyterian Ministers of New Hampshire, will hold their next meeting at Boscawen Plain, on the 4th Tuesday of August, at 10 o'clock A. M., when the concio will be delivered.

Afternoon.—Anniversary of the N. H. Educational Society; anniversary of the Sabbath School Society.

Evening.—Reports of Foreign Delegates.

Wednesday.—Addresses by Agents at 9 A. M.; anniversary of the N. H. Bible Society at 10 1-2 A. M.; Narrative of state of Religion; Sermon.

Evening.—Anniversary of the N. H. Missionary Society.

On Thursday, the 50th anniversary of the Association will be celebrated. In the forenoon, a Historical Discourse will be delivered by Rev. Nathaniel Bouton, D. D., of Concord. The time of the afternoon will be devoted to extemporaneous addresses.—On Thursday noon, the members of the Association and ministers of the gospel, present, will receive entertainment together, at some convenient place.

MURDER TRIAL.—Attempted Suicide of the Prisoner.—The trial of Loring Palmer of Little Compton, R. I., for the murder of Samuel B. Manchester of Westport, Mass., commenced at New Bedford Wednesday forenoon. While the Court was adjourned for dinner, Palmer was lodged in the station house. When the officers came to bring him again before the Court, it was found that he had attempted suicide by cutting his throat from ear to ear with a jack-knife.—Surgical attendance was immediately procured, and the wound was dressed. He was alive the next morning, but his recovery is doubtful. The murder for which Palmer was arraigned was committed on the 16th inst., while he was on a dsunken spree with Manchester.

HEATHEN ANTI-MISSIONARY PETITION FROM INDIA.—The following is an extract from a letter received from Rev. G. Hall, of Madras, dated April 11th:—

"Alas, what sights and sounds meet me! On Saturday evening last I passed a place where it is said ten thousand natives were assembled. And why do you think they had met? It was to adopt a memorial to Lord Stanley, the Secretary of State for India, praying that hindrances may be put in the way of propagating the gospel in this land. And while I write, the memorial is lying before me in the Tamil language.—Sad, indeed, is the state of matters here. There has not, for many years, been such a violent opposition to the gospel as there is at present. We have great reason to believe that it is the success of the gospel which has stirred up the present antipathy of the heathen.

THE FRENCH AND AUSTRIAN EMPERORS.—There is a passage in the proclamation Louis Napoleon to his soldiers, which is a key to the solution of the sudden peace agreed upon by the belligerents. This is where the Emperor says, we "only stopped because the contest was about to assume proportions no longer in keeping with the interests that France had in this formidable war." The proportions which the contest had assumed were doubtless the threatened Germanic interference, the anticipated Red Republican movements, the religious collision with the Pope, and probably also the Hungarian insurrection.

In like manner there is a passage in the order of the day issued by the Emperor of Austria, where he says, 'Austria commenced the war for the maintainance of sacred treaties, relying on the devotedness of the people, the bravery of the army, and her natural allies. Not having found allies, Austria yields to an unfavorable political situation." This undoubtedly means that Austria relied upon England and the German powers to sustain her, and had England and Prussia reasonably announced to her their determination to remain neutral, this war would not have occurred.—Trav.

A VENERABLE LADY AUTHOR.—The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Press, speaking of a new novel "Walter Thornly," just published by the Harper's says:—

"It witten by Mrs. Sedgwick, the Mother of Theodore Sedgwick, Esq., a distinguished lawyer and public man of this city. Mrs. Sedgwick is seventy year old, but as fresh and vigorous in her intellect as she was at thirty. I was shown her manuscript this morning, at Harpers', and I speak without romancing when I pronounce it the most faultlessly elegant specimen of caligraphy I ever beheld—the letters are as clearly and perfectly formed as if they had been cut by the hand of an engraver."

☞ An extraordinary circumstance took place at Oshawa, Canada, recently, a mare giving birth to three healthy foals. Strange to say, the mother took fright at the singular predicament in which she found herself placed, and ran off and left her offspring. After a little persuasion, however, she consented to own one of them, and gave it food, but would have nothing to do with the other two, one of which she kicked, so as to cause its death. The other forsaken one has been carefully nursed by hand, and is doing well.

☞ An ingenious rascal posted himself close by the railroad track at Moosup station when the Methodist excursion train was returning from Providence to Norwich, Ct., on Saturday, and as the ladies waved their handkerchiefs from the car windows, he reached up and caught a whole armful of them at once. He escaped with his plunder.

THE WEST.—A letter from a business man now travelling at the West, to a prominent firm in Boston, says:—

Buffalo I found in a torpid state, there not being enough business there at present, or money either, to keep the city in a state of business wakefulness.

Chicago is but a few degrees better, and is suffering from a severe and almost fatal attack of business inflation. The reaction, after so many years of distension, has left the place prostrate.

The magnificent blocks of iron front buildings which line many of the streets, built on Eastern credit (and consequently on Chicago debt,) and without reference to the legitimate requirements of their trade, seem now like monuments of the folly of those who sanctioned and carried out the work.

The crops are coming in finely, and in great abundance, but prices rule low, having fallen 17 cents per bushel in a week past. This causes a great depreciation, and is unfortunate for the West, as it is a heavy discount upon what is to be in reality an instalment on their debt.

It will require three years of good crops to work the West out of debt, and we cannot estimate on the accomplishment of that end in less than five years.

☞ An Ohio correspondent of the Boston Transcript says:—

The Oberlin and Wellington rescuers have achieved a triumph over their opponents and the advocates of slavery generally, by their liberation from the stone castle where confined many weeks. The result was brought about by the action of the United States Marshal, at the suggestion of the claimants of the slaves, and whom the Oberlin party arrested and caused to be confined as kidnappers. After remaining in jail sometime, they were very anxious to return to "old Kentucky," and expressed a willingness to have a nol pros in favor of the rescuers, provided they themselves would be allowed to return home in peace.

The demonstration at Oberlin to receive the liberated rescuers was most enthusiastic. An immense concourse of people received them at the jail yard, and with bands of music and streaming banners escorted them home. The population of Oberlin for several days seemed to be given up to festivity. Mr. Giddings was the principal orator on the occasion of the formal welcome, and did himself great credit.

Of all the features of this great demonstration, there was nothing of more interest than the singing by a vast and well trained choir. Persons who were present described it as the grandest and most glorious conception of choral harmony they ever heard. No language can express the beauty and sublimity of the execution of the 'Marseilles Hymn,' or the 'Gathering of the Free.'—This noted choir is one of the great features of Oberlin.

☞ About four o'clock on the morning of the 1st inst., some scoundrel ignited a keg of powder, which had previously been placed under the Court House at Port Gibson, Claiborne county, Miss., and about half the building was blown to atoms. The Sheriff's office adjoining was also destroyed, and his vault robbed of about $10,000.—The occupants of the building all escaped uninjured. The damage to the building is estimated at from $10,000 to $12,000.

☞ Forty-nine suits have been brought at Quebec by Mr. Andrew McCorkell, baker, against Mr. Wm. Brown, flour dealer and lessee of the Beauport Mills. Thirty of the suits are brought on the allegation that the defendant had sold the plaintiff flour, the branded weight of which was greater than the actual contents; and twenty-nine for false tares marked upon the barrels.

☞ A fire at Pepperell on Tuesday night destroyed the Orthodox meeting house, and also the tavern house and out-building belonging to Mr. Tarbell. The Unitarian church was on fire once, but was saved.—Mr. Tarbell's loss was about $7000 without insurance. The church, of which Rev. Mr. Smith was pastor, was valued at $6000, on which there was $3000 insurance.

☞ The "friends of railroad travel on Sunday" in Philadelphia are not disposed to acquiesce in the late decision against the legality thereof. They held a large meeting in Independence Square on Saturday evening, at which speeches were made and resolutions passed.

☞ The General Convention of Universalists in the United States of America, will hold its annual session in the city of Rochester, N. Y., on the third Tuesday and following Wednesday and Thursday in September, 1859.

☞ The Richmond (Va.) papers contradict the report of the death of Capt. Bayliss, who was sent to the State Prison for forty years, for kidnapping slaves, about a year ago. They say he is alive and well.

☞ Five State and Congressional elections are to be held in the month of August, viz., on the 1st in Alabama, Kentucky and Texas; on the 4th in Tennessee; on the 11th in North Carolina.

FREEPORT, Ill., July 27.—A German named Peter Arndt, living near Cedarville, in this county, killed three of his children with an axe yesterday afternoon, and wounded the fourth so badly that it is not expected to live. He made no resistance when arrested, and assigned no reasons for the murder.

☞ The members of a Methodist church in Illinois were recently very disagreeably affected by the use of antimonial wine, by mistake, in the administration of the sacrament.

THE PRIDE OF GENTILITY.—I heard a story of a young lady of the north of the island, who not long ago was married to a respectable farmer. Her husband took her for a wedding trip, and on their return introduced her to her future home, where was a table nicely laid for supper, and two excellent mould candles burning. She had no sooner entered the room than she burst into tears. Her husband, who was a very good fellow, was alarmed at her hysterical sobbing, and begged her to explain herself. At last, after sedatives had been administered to her, she gave vent to her agitated feelings, and, pumping up her words at intervals, said, "I didn't think, when I left a comfortable home and took you for my husband, that I had married into mutton fats." The fact was that the young lady, who probably was the daughter of a convict, was chagrined at finding mould candles, instead of wax or sperm, on the table.—Diary of a Working Clergyman.

A FATAL ACCIDENT IN BATH.—A correspondent writes from Bath N. H., that a young man 27 years old, a native of Plainfield, by the name of Charles Hill, who had been residing with one of his neighbors about two years, took a horse belonging to his employer, just before night on the 25th, and went to the river to train the horse by riding, &c. In his attempt to cross the river, as he could not swim he probably became frightened and drew the reins (which he ought not to have done) which prevented the horse from managing for himself as he would have done. Hill was soon in the river, and though there were men looking on, and had him out in perhaps fifteen or twenty minutes, he was dead.

Efforts were made on the bank of the river to bring him to life, for two hours or more, but to no purpose.—Concord Journal.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—A letter from D. Forney, Superintendent of Indian Affairs for Utah, states that the two children spared from the Mountain Meadow Massacre, have been detained by the United States District Attorney as witnesses against certain white men, who are strongly implicated in that crime. The other children will arrive at Leavenworth about the 10th of August, where Wm. C. Mitchell, whose two sons and their wives were among the murdered emigrants, will receive them and return them to their frrends in Arkansas.—The initiatory steps for their recovery were taken by Mr. Nix, the former Commissioner, and Commissioner Greenwood has zealously consummated that humane purpose.

CROSSING THE HUDSON IN WASH-TUBS.—We see by the papers that an exciting race for $25 a side, recently came off at the Poughkeepsie ferry dock, across to the Paltz Landing, in wash-tubs four feet in diameter, without oars; the vessels were paddled by hand. The river was smooth, and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon the contestants started. Both men struck out manfully until two-thirds of the distance had been passed, when one had to give up from exhaustion; the other, having more bottom, came in an easy winner in two hours and fifty-five minutes. The vanquished man was towed ashore.

INSPECTOR OF BOILERS.—The Lowell Committee on the Fire Department, to whom was referred the resolution to employ an Inspector of Steam Boilers and Engine, reported that it was inexpedient to continue the office. They believe that no test applied will provide against the pressure to which boilers are subjected when the water is low: that a competent and faithful engineer is the best protection; and the yearly examination of boilers is a useless expense for these reasons.

RYE BEACH.—We understand that the houses at the Beach are generally well filled. At the Surf House is Rev. Dr. E. H. Chapin, of New York, and family.

A young collegian, who spends his summers in New England, last week walked the distance from Cambridge to Rye Beach in a little over one day. He stopped over night in Newburyport. He reports it a most delightful walk.

CONCORD, N. H., July 27.—During the severe thunder-storm of yesterday afternoon the lightning struck a shed belonging to John Ewer, at Lovejoy's (now Ewer's) mills, so called, about six miles from this city, instantly killing his son, aged 21 years, who with three others had taken refuge therein. Only one of the others was injured in the least, and he has or will recover. The lightning entered at the side of the window, striking the son on the head, and passed off in the lower portion of his body (the left leg, I think,) leaving thereon a large bunch. The shed was used as a store-house for scythes, and other farming tools. It was one of the severest storms we have been visited with for a long time.—Boston Jour.

MEXICAN TREASURE SHIPMENT.—New York, July 28.—Advices from Mazatlan of July 5 state that the authorities had chartered the steamer Santa Cruz, and placed her under the command of an American named Norton, and dispatched her to San Blas to capture a conducta of four millions from Guadalajara, the object being to enforce the payment of the usual export duty. The British frigate Calypso was lying off San Blas, awaiting the arrival of the conducta, and a collision between her and Norton's forces was regarded as inevitable.

MEXICAN AFFAIRS.—Washington, July 27.—It is not true that Gen. Cass denies the reception of the convention concluded by Mr. McLane with President Juarez. The only point of difference at any time between the two governments was as to the cession of territory. Mr. Buchanan at first insisted upon having Lower California, but this demand was abandoned when the great opposition in Mexico to any cession of territory became apparent.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

OPPRESSION AFTER EATING.—Many persons, after an ordinary meal, feel a sense of weight and discomfort in the region of the stomach, the sure sign of an imperfect digestion, and probably the forerunner of a settled dyspepsia. Nothing will relieve this oppression like the PERUVIAN SYRUP, by the stimulus it gives to the digestive powers.

Common Sense rules the mass of the people, whatever the misanthropy and misanthrope philosophers may say to the contrary. Show them a good thing: let its merits be clearly demonstrated, and they will not believe it to give their most cordial patronage. The masses have already ratified the judgment of a physician, concerning the virtues of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, as may be seen in the immense quantities of this medicine that are annually sold in every section of the land. It is now recognized as greatly superior to all other remedies yet devised for diseases of the digestive organs, such as diarrhœa, dysentery, dyspepsia, and for the nervous fevers that arise from derangement of those portions of the system. Hostetter's name is rapidly becoming a household word, from Maine to Texas; from the shores of the Atlantic to the Pacific. Try the article and be satisfied.

Dyspepsia.

Considering the various forms in which this disease developes itself, it may well be called hydra-headed. In its train follow Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, Heartburn, Water Brash, Costiveness, Piles, Acidity, Oppression after Eating, Jaundice, Flatulency, Torpor of the Liver, Dizziness, Debility, Female Complaints, &c. Some of the first men in our land have given their written certificates relative to the cures effected in their own persons by the OXYGENATED BITTERS; while hundreds of others from other sources, editorial opinions and voluntary expressions from persons averse to see their names in print, are perfectly overwhelming.

EAST TAUNTON, Mass., Feb. 9, '58.

To the Editor of the Portland Mirror,—Sir:—

OXYGENATED BITTERS—for the last twenty five years I have been a sufferer from the dyspepsia. Besides trying the patience of my family physicians in the almost useless trial of their various prescriptions, I have tried a great variety of patent medicines with a similar result. Through the kindness of my physician, I received last March, half a dozen bottles of the OXYGENATED BITTERS. I began to use them without any hope of derriving help from them. Being determined to give them a fair trial, I continued their use, but without any perceptible benefit till June.

Since then I have gradually improved in health till I am entirely free from acidity of the stomach, and from the consequent flatulency, and the awful and almost distracting sick headache, which often, for days together, was wholly unfitted me for study and for all other ministerial duties, and rendered life a burden.

I feel that I owe it, as an expression of gratitude to Messrs. Fowle & Co., and also a duty to the public, to recommend their Oxygenated Bitters, as, in my estimation, a sure remedy for that most trying, most vexing, and direful of all diseases, to which poor human flesh is heir, the dyspepsia. Having suffered so long, and tried so many different remedies with no good result, I can recommend the Oxygenated Bitters with a confidence few others can. If any of the readers of the Mirror are suffering, I beg of them to make trial of these Bitters without delay.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

This Gin, distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with an infusion of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, DIFFICULTY OF MAKING WATER, AND AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES OF THE URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find its exceedingly grateful for those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

LOCAL.

MEND YOUR WAYS.

Messrs. Editors:—I am exceedingly glad you are calling the attention of the public to the roads; which are indeed in a shocking condition; and I would willingly vote for an appropriation which will do more towards lessening my expenses at the blacksmith's than anything else I know.

I was the possessor of a good strong wagon, until I jolted over the roads in my neighborhood, and the crossings in town, which have emptied my pocket of many a dollar.

But, my dear friends, while you are selfishly looking out for your own comfort and convenience, complaining of your streets, you are neglecting those of your neighbors. Will you please drive over the hill by the Creek Bridge.

Will you then give me your opinion of it, and if it is not too much trouble, could you just give the City Fathers a lift over also; and bear in mind at the time that we are paying city taxes. For the poor man, in fact there seems to be no redress. Ever since the breaking up of Spring that hill has been a disgrace to the town and its governmental officers.

I have heard efforts have been made to call their attention to it; please look with what success. My business takes me over this road two or three times a day, as well as several other of your citizens; and it is an outrage, this tax on our temper as well as our purse. An imposition like this, should not be permitted to go on, while there is liberty of speech and freedom of press to bring before the public our wrongs.

My voice, my vote, and all my energies shall be moved by this lever, and justice is the cry that shall ring through the first ward. Hostilities have now begun, and it is only when the workmen with their utensils are seen employed on that hill, that an armistice will be declared. VOTER.

LAWS OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

PASSED JUNE SESSION, 1859.

AN ACT in amendment of the charter of the city of Nashua.

SECTION 1.—After the present municipal year, the board of assessors for said city shall consist of four persons, who shall hereafter be chosen at the annual meeting in March, by the legal voters of said city, and by general ticket; and the votes therefor shall be received, sorted, counted and declared, and a record thereof made, delivered and examined, and the persons elected notified, in the same manner as is now required by law in the election of Mayor of said city; and in case of a failure to elect by majority on the first ballot, the same proceedings shall be had, and a plurality shall elect, as in the election of Mayor.

SEC. 2.—There shall be elected at the annual election in March, 1860, four assessors, two of whom shall hold their office for one year, and the other two for two years, and until some other person is chosen and qualified in the place of each; the term of office of each to be determined by lot, at their first meeting; and a record thereof to be made and filed with the city clerk, who shall record the same; and two such assessors shall be chosen annually thereafter, who shall hold their office for two years, or until others are chosen and qualified in their stead, and all vacancies shall be filled by the Mayor and Aldermen.

SEC. 3.—The city clerk shall receive the invoice and assessments, or a copy thereof, as is prescribed in the sixth section of the 43d chapter of the Revised Statutes, and keep the same open for inspection, but need not record the same.

SEC. 4.—This act shall take effect upon its passage; and all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

Approved June 27, 1859.

AN ACT in addition to an act entitled an act relating to the redemption of lands set off upon execution, passed June 27, 1857.

Be it enacted, &c.

SECTION 1.—That in all cases of the extent of execution already made or hereafter to be made upon real estate in this State, whenever the amount for which said real estate is set off is, by accident or mistake, and without any fraudulent purpose, either in computing the amount of the debt or damages, and costs and the interest thereon, or the officer's fees on said execution, greater than the amount actually due upon said execution, with the costs and officers' fees; the debtor or the person having his estate shall be entitled to redeem, in the manner and within the time pointed out in the act to which this is an addition, by payment or tender of the amount actually due upon such execution, and for which such extent was made, with the interest and officers' fees thereon, together with the taxes and expenses, and with the debt accruing on account of rents and profits, as provided in said act to which this is an addition.

SEC. 2.—That whenever land is so set off to an amount greater than the amount due on said execution, and the debtor or person having his estate, shall redeem, he shall be entitled to recover of such creditor the amount of the excess for which said extent was made, beyond the amount actually due as aforesaid.

SEC. 3.—That the provisions of section second of the act to which this is an addition, shall apply to all cases arising under the provisions of this act; and upon the discovery of an excess of the amount of land so set off beyond the amount actually due, as contemplated by this act, either party may by petition apply to the Supreme Judicial Court to have the amount of such excess determined; and the said Supreme Judicial Court shall, upon such application, setting forth the facts in the case, determine the amount of such excess, and decree that the same be paid; and, if necessary, issue execution therefor; and upon such decree and payment, the title to such real estate shall be and remain unaffected by the excess in the extent. Provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not affect the title to any such real estate in the hands of a bona fide grantee of such debtor.

SEC. 4.—All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 5.—This act shall take effect from and after the day of its passage.

SECTION 1.—It shall be the duty of every judge, police justice, justice of the peace, sheriff, coroner, constable, clerk of any court, attorney general, solicitor, or any other officer or person into whose hands may come money belonging to the State, or to any county, city or town in this State, to settle his account of such public money at least once in each year, and to pay over to the person by law entitled to receive the same all moneys theretofore received for or on account of the State, or of any county, city or town in the State.

SEC. 2.—If any officer or person, mentioned or included in the first section of this act, shall neglect or refuse, for the space of one year and three months, to settle his account of moneys belonging to the State, or any county, city or town in this State, the bond, if any, of such delinquent, may be at once put in suit, and a copy thereof, certified by the officers having the legal custody thereof, shall be evidence of the existence and execution of said bond, in such suit thereon; and if, on such delinquent has filed no bond, such neglect or refusal shall be held to be a misdemeanor, and as such may be prosecuted by indictment or information in the Supreme Judicial Court; and the party found guilty of such neglect or refusal shall be punished by a fine not less than the sum retained in his hands, or by imprisonment not less than thirty days nor more than one year, or by both of said punishments.

SEC. 2.—Section 15 of the charter of the city of Concord is hereby repealed.

SEC. 3.—This act shall take effect and be in force when adopted by the City Council of the City of Concord.

AN ACT in relation to suits against Insurance Companies.

SECTION 1.—In cases of any loss or damage by fire, happening to any person upon property insured in and with any company incorporated under any law or laws of this State, or any company doing business in this State, such person shall give notice thereof in writing to the directors, or some one of them, or to the secretary or agent of such company, within thirty days from the time such loss or damage may have happened; and the directors upon a view of the same, or in such other way as they may deem proper, shall have full power to determine the amount of said loss or damage, and notify the party suffering, or his authorized agent, in writing, of their determination; and if the party suffering is not satisfied with the determination of the directors, the question may be submitted to referees, or the said party may bring an action against said company for said loss or damage; and the writ shall be served upon said company within six months after notice as aforesaid of said determination; and if upon trial or suit in such action a greater sum shall be recovered than the amount determined upon by the directors, the party suffering shall have judgment therefor against said company, with interest from the time said loss or damage happened, and costs of suit; but if no more shall be recovered than the amount aforesaid, the plaintiff shall have judgment for the amount so recovered against said company, and the court may, in its discretion, allow the plaintiff interest thereon, and with or without costs, or may allow the defendant company costs, as the purposes of justice may require.—Provided, however, that execution shall not issue in any such judgment against said company, within the expiration of three months from the rendition thereof, unless the court in its discretion shall otherwise order.

SEC. 2.—Such notice shall in no case be a bar to the maintenance of any action, unless such company in said notice shall particularly call the attention of the insured to this provision, and expressly notify him that his right to maintain an action against the company will be for ever barred, unless said action shall be commenced and service of the writ made on said company within six months from the time of such notice.

SEC. 3.—So much of the charters of any insurance companies granted by the Legislature of this State, and all acts and parts of acts, as are inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 4.—This act shall take effect and be in force upon its passage.

Approved June 28, 1859.

MACHINES FROM $50 TO $125.

HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

TESTIMONIALS.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

Several months have now elapsed since one of these machines was first introduced for our family use. For several weeks those who attempted to operate it having had no instruction, it was regarded as of little value, although some work could be done. But no sooner had one of experience taken hold of it, giving the proper tension to the cotton, proper oiling, &c. to the machinery, than it worked admirably—and now for months it goes on like clock work, doing handsomely all the work submitted to it, and accomplishing as much work in an hour as could be done by hand in a long summer's day. These machines are decidedly popular. We have never heard of one being sold to procure another from a different maker,—while we have known others to be laid aside to give place to Grover & Baker's. Any one can operate them after an hour's instruction from an experienced hand.

CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

We have seen one of Grover & Baker's $100 Sewing Machines used to do the Sewing of two families, for the past year or more, to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned—without once getting out of order, or requiring the least repair.—We would as soon try to dispense with a Cooking Stove in a family, as to attempt to get along without a Sewing Machine. Money invested in a good Machine pays much more than legal dividend, in actual cash savings—to say nothing of the higher consideration, of comfort and convenience, nay, even luxury, it affords to the ladies of a household. Whatever may be the experience with other Machines, we never knew a Grover & Baker to be discarded or found wanting.

FRANK W. MILLER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

and as a Beverage it has no superior in the world. It is manufactured by the proprietor, at Schiedam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use, by a process peculiar to his own Factory. It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spiritous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, Bladder and Kidney Complaints, &c. &c.

Put up in quart and pint bottles, in Cases of one dozen quarts, and two dozen pints, with the proprietor's name on the bottle, cork and label. For sale by all the respectable Country Merchants and Druggists. Look out for counterfeits and imitations, as the whole country is flooded with them

UDOLPHO WOLFE,

SOLE MANUFACTURER AND IMPORTER,

DEPOT 22 BEAVER STREET, NEW YORK.

TO THE PUBLIC.

I beg leave to call the attention of the American Public to the following Certificate from the Government Chemist for the Island of Cuba and the Spanish West Indies, and who is known to the Scientific men of London, Paris, Madrid, Cuba and America to be the first Chemist in the world.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHEMICAL TESTIMONY.

D. Jose Luis Casaseca, Corresponding Member of the Royal Academies of Madrid and Munich, a Graduate in Sciences of the Faculty of Paris, formerly Professor of Chemistry, as applied to the Arts, of the Royal Conservatorio of Madrid, and of Pharmacy and Chemistry, as applied to the Industry and Agriculture of the country, in the Royal University of this Island, at present H. M's Director of the Institute of Chemical Investigation, &c., &c.

Do hereby certify, that at the request of the house of Gottig & Will, of this place, I have made an analytical examination of U. Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, with the object of ascertaining if it contained any substance noxious to health, and to inform them as to its true composition and relative quality with the other gins that are offered in the market, and the results of my observations and experiments are as follows:—

Udolpho Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps is a spirituous liquid, of a very agreeable aromatic odor, completely transparent and almost colorless, having only a very slight tint of yellowish gray; its flavor is strong and very agreeable to the palate. It marks 20 degrees in Cartier's alcohol weigher or 52 degrees 5 hundredth in Gay Lussac's alcohometre. By the distillation in a balnium maria, with an apparatus consisting of a glass retort and a recipient surrounded with ice, I have collected in this recipient an alcoholic liquid with a very agreeable aroma, completely colorless and transparent, which marked 90 degrees in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, or 70 degrees 5 hundredth on Gay Lussac's alcohometre; and which represented as a whole 57 per cent. of aromatic Schiedam schnapps subject to distillation in the retort. This liquid did not soil the transparency of the distilled water in mixing it with the same, and its agreeable aroma is doubtless due to a very trifling amount of an essential oil inseparable from alcohol.

From the remainder of the distillation which was left in the retort, I have obtained, through evaporation in a vapor bath, a substance of a yellowish brown color, clear, and having a bitter taste, which is not disagreeable, and which afterwards becomes aromatic and leaves the mouth perfumed with that fragrance peculiar to the vanilla. I am inclined to believe that to this bitter and aromatic extractive substance, soluble in water and alcohol, the medicinal properties which are attributed to this gin are due. I have not found in Udolpho Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam schnapps any mineral or organic substance other than the extractive one already named and the aromatic oil obtained by distillation. Finally, Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps consists simply of an aromatic alcohol of 20 degrees of graduation in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, and of an extractive aromatic substance, which perhaps, is medicinal; and, on account of its not containing any matter injurious to the health, as well as for its odor and good flavor—a fact which no doubt arises from the choice substances employed in its manufacture, and from the peculiar manner of its distillation. It should, in my opinion, be preferred to all the Holland, Belgic and German gins which are found in this Island which it has been my business to examine. These gins, as a rule, often contain a disagreeable odor, and have a more or less disagreeable flavor, some of them having left as was the case with the samples from the house of Mr. Mathew Deetjen (of Bremen,) as residuum after evaporation by steam, a substance almost insipid and very trifling aromatic, which, in the Schiedam, but in no wise with the delicious bitter and aromatic flavor of that of Udolpho Wolfe; and others, such as that labelled "Genuine Samaritan," "Extra Superior," that other bottle furnished me with a very small quantity of a greenish substance, of harsh metallic taste and very disagreeable, which extractive organic matter was mixed with a salt of copper, with signs of iron, owing perhaps, to a bad system of distillation.

I certify that all that is here stated is the truth and agrees with the experiments I have made with the greatest care, and I authorize the house of Gottig & Will, of this city, to give publicity to this certificate, in Spanish and in foreign languages, in all countries where it may suit their interest to do so. JOSE LUIS CASASECA.

CORDIAL OF DANDELION,
SPIKENARD & BONESET.
A remedy unsurpassed for Liver Complaints, such as Costiveness, Dizziness and Pain in the Head, Stomach and Side, Universal Debility, and the whole family of Consumptive Complaints.
Hundreds of testimonials might be added, proving the many cures by this pleasant and effectual medicine, especially of people advanced in life, whose debilitated constitutions have been greatly recruited by it. A trial of it is warranted to well pay the aged and dyspeptic. Price 75 cents.

[From Mrs. Daniel H. Williams.]
DR. SWETT—Dear Sir:—I presume you recollect that when I saw you, about a year since, I was very low, and had been for a long time, with dyspeptic complaints, being very weak, with no appetite, and pain in my head, stomach and side; but now my health is comparatively good, and I consider this great deliverance unmistakeable, mainly, to the two bottles of your "Compound Cordial of Dandelion," which you left for me. I consider this the best medicine I ever found for the complaints for which you recommend it on the labels.
MARY E. WILLIAMS.

ENFIELD, Sept. 8, 1859.
Last spring and Summer I was troubled with the Liver Complaint, which caused my food to distress me badly; and I do not know what cured me, but one thing I do know, and that is, I took one bottle of Dr. S. Swett's Cordial of Dandelion, and the disease left me, and has not returned.

THE ONLY ARTICLE
UNRIVALLED IN THE MARKET,
WITH IMMENSE
HOME AND EUROPEAN DEMAND.
The reason why, is that by Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluid, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff itching, and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headache, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy and beautiful; used by the young two or three times a week it will never fall or become gray; then, reader, read the following and judge for yourselves:
NEW YORK, Jan. 8, 1858.
MESSRS. O. J. WOOD & CO.,
Gentlemen: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudices which I, in common with a great many persons, had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself.
The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was but who having my prejudice without any reasonable ground for setting it aside, are willing to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof, and the best proof being occular demonstration, I herein send you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing establishment every day.
My hair is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking. I am, respectfully, HENRY ENEAS.
Cor. Columbia and Carroll Sts., Brooklyn.
LIVINGSTON, Ala., Feb. 14, 1858.
PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country. My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.
You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, &c. S. W. MIDDLETON.
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.
PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering,—was in fact bald. I have used half a dozen bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours, respectfully,
D. R. THOMAS, M. D.,
No. 464 Vine Street.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

CONSUMPTION IS CURABLE!
BY THE USE OF
Winchester's Genuine Preparation, of Dr. J. F. Churchill's Compound of the
HYPOPHOSPHITES
OF LIME, SODA AND POTASH,
Originally discovered and prescribed by him as a Specific Remedy for CONSUMPTION!
The use of the Hypophosphites in CONSUMPTION, Scrofula, Nervous Debility, Asthma, Bronchitis, Dyspepsia, Female Complaints, and all other diseases depending upon a DEFICIENT VITALITY IN THE ELEMENTS OF THE BODY, have proved their INVARIABLE EFFICACY in thousands of cases in Europe and America and established the claim of the discoverer, that they are a SUE PREVENTATIVE, and a
SPECIFIC REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION.
Dr. Churchill says: "In no single instance have I found the remedy fail to produce everything that could be reasonably expected from it. In most instances the benefit derived from it has EXCEEDED what could at first have been hoped for, when taking into account the degree and extent of the injury sustained by the lungs previously to the use of the remedy. * * * * * Out of twenty-two cases in the third or last stage, treated at my Dispensary during the past year, EIGHT HAVE CONSIDERABLY RECOVERED, eight have died, and six are still under treatment. SUCH A RESULT IS ALTOGETHER UNPARALLELED IN THE ANNALS OF MEDICINE."
BE SURE TO PURCHASE WINCHESTER'S GENUINE PREPARATION,
which is certified by Dr. James R. Chilton to be "Physically made and chemically pure. My fac simile signature is upon every bottle.
☞ Price $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5, with full directions for use. Write for Circulars, which will give HIGHLY RELIABLE TESTIMONY, and save from all possibility of deception. Sold wholesale, at the lowest discount for cash, at the Sole General Depot in the United States, by J. WINCHESTER, American and Foreign Agency, 49 John street, New York.
Also, of F. H. NILES, Nos. 3 Arch street, Boston, Mass., Agent for the States of Mass., N. H., and Vt., to whom all orders must be addressed.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,
Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from false reluctance to make known their complaints and consult a physician, he would state that none of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.
Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.
DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.
Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.
Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.
This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy as the most superior virtue in female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are tasteless and free from all smell.
The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article of some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.
All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.
These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.
P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. ja diy

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

A compound remedy in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, of combined with other substances of still greater alterative power and afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who have suffered the Strumous complaints, and that one which will complish their cure must be of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it, has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

SCROFULA, SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUMS, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many maladies will be prevented in the bud.—Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the encumrance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of impurities, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cause out the vitiated blood whenever you find it becoming fire burning through the skin in pimples, ruptions or sores;—cleanse it when you find it obstructed or sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt people enjoy better health and live live longer, by cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and health is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing the ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by Sarsaparillas. It purely because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it contain hardlite of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or anything so.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Abuse bitter and painful disappointment he followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name has fairly become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall remove the name from the pad of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have grounds for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the medicine should be judiciously taken according directions on the bottle.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under act 1837.
76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, drawn in the shortest time, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered on all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials now given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGE, I refer to WHAT IS WORK AND DOING. He will add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense patronage of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relating to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him also, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more capable and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has been for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part, leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on various rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, Jan. 1, 1859. R. H. EDDY.

SATURDAY, JULY 30, 1859.

LAWYER'S ETHICS.

An admirer and eulogist of the late Hon. Rufus Choate, has written and published an interesting letter in the Salem Register, giving several anecdotes of Mr. C.'s early success, in defending criminals in Essex county. He says,—

He had all the criminal defences, and if he did not clear all the rogues, none were convicted, under his surgery. While he remained in the county, no jury ever brought a verdict of guilty against any client defended by him! I believe the fact to be so. And I remember hearing Mr. C. say, not long before he left our bar, that no person defended by him here had then been convicted.

There was one famous case in the C. C. Pleas, of an indictment of one of his then townsmen for stealing a flock of turkeys.—We had this case, at every term of the Court, for a year or more, and the inquiry used to be, "when are the turkeys coming on?" The proofs accumulated on the part of the government at each successive trial. The County Attorney, a man of experience and ability, fortified himself on every point, and piled proof upon proof at each successive trial, but all without success.—The voice of the charmer was too powerful for his proofs, and at each trial, three or four in all, I forget which, there was one dissenting juror; and finally the prosecuting officer, in utter despa'r, after the third or fourth trial, entered a nolle prosequi, and thus the turkeys were turned or driven out of Court.

I have heard that this alleged turkey thief, years afterwards, called on Mr. Choate at his office in Boston. Mr. C. did not recollect him, which greatly surprised the old client, and he said, "Why, Mr. C., I am the man you plead so for in the turkey case, when they couldn't find anything agin me." There had been only forty-four good and true men against him, if there were four trials, and I believe there were, without including twenty-three more of the Grand Jury!

After Mr. Choate's admission to full practice in the S. J. Court, I recollect one term of the Court, he procured the actual acquittal of nearly the whole dock—of all, certainly, whom he defended. That was the week before Thanksgiving, and it was said they were all going home to spend Thanksgiving, instead of to the jails and penitentiaries. The old and venerable Attorney General said, pleasantly, at one of these trials, (it was in the old Salem Court House,) he believed the days of "the Salem witchcraft had returned again." He called him the "conjuror." I repeat what I believe to be the literal fact, that no man defended by Mr. Choate in the C. C. Pleas or in the S. J. Court, while he practiced in this county, was ever convicted by a verdict of the Jury. And he was the Criminal Attorney General from the first to the last of his being here.

Mr. Choate, while practising the law in his native country, had a truly noble name and fame, and it was all justly deserved.—No man was ever truer to his clients than he was. He always exerted himself to the utmost in every case, and that has been one secret of his great success. It made no difference to him what was the cause—what the tribunal, the party, or the fee, he went into it with his whole strength, and summoned to his aid all his vast resources of logic, wit, utterance, learning and knowledge of men (in which no man excels him) and contended for his very life for mastery and success.

We have a serious question or two to ask,—Is it a noble fame to be successful in defeating the ends of public justice? Is it noble, or even honest, for the lawyer who took an oath, when he was admitted to the bar, that in his practice he would do no falsehood, nor suffer it to be done without exposure—is it noble for him to resort to all manner of lying pleas and preposterous hypotheses, to get a rascal clear whom he knows is guilty and deserves to be in prison?

If a witness tells a lie, to get a comrade clear, it is perjury, and he is liable to go to the State Prison. If a lawyer tells a dozen or a hundred to get all the rascals clear, and clears them all—it is noble! is it?

Uncle Toby thinks it useless to argue such a case as this. He only presents it before the court of public opinion, with the remark, that no alterations in the forms or names of courts can possibly secure the public welfare, while the highest fees and the greatest honors are bestowed on the most successful rascality.

☞ By the explosion at the wire factory in Worcester, the boiler was thrown a distance of three-eighths of a mile, striking with the top downward, in the garden of Mr. J. M. C. Armsby, on Lincoln street, and driving itself into the earth to the depth of four feet; but it rebounded from the garden, and breaking of a portion of the top or rim, which it left buried there, finally spent its force in landing itself on the farther side of Lincoln street where it laid, extending diagonally across.

FAILURE OF CORDAGE MANUFACTURERS.—The N. Y. Journal of Commerce of Thursday evening says:—

"We regret to notice the assignment of Messrs. John Thursby's Sons of this city, the largest manufacturers of cordage in the United States, and the largest but one in the world. Their chief establishment was in Williamsburg, and gave employment directly or indirectly to nearly 150 people.—They suspended during the last financial crisis, and were not able to carry through the payment of their extended paper, and to meet the requirements of their business. Their liabilities are probably $300,000.

NEW YORK, July 28, 1859.

Dear Chronicle:—The approach of the dog-days with their usual concomitants of fogs at sunrise, sultriness at noon, and musketoes at evening, has had its customary effect in driving to more salubrious climes and cooler haunts that part of our population whom fortune has endowed with the means wherewith to make the mare go, and carry them on the drive aforesaid. A deep newspaper theorist has explained the cause of this annual migration thus:—"When the year turns its face upward to the sun and kindles in the glow its gaze has gained, men flee from the great accumulation of their kind."

The exodus this season commenced rather later than usual, and has continued unceasingly till the present week, notwithstanding that the scorching heat of the early part of July has latterly been supplanted by some days of easterly gales, produced, no doubt, by the late grand attempt of the merchants of Boston to raise a breeze through the bellows of a trade sale.

The majority of the wealthier class of summer pleasure seekers wend their way to the fashionable watering places, while a goodly number, annually becoming greater, shrinking from frivolous society, crowd and noise, and appreciating the rough attractions of varied natural scenery higher than the fascinating, luxurious excesses of Newport or Saratoga, seek recreation and health by a tour to the wild shores of the North Western lakes; the pictured Rocks of Superior, the Rapids of the Sault St. Marie; the forest crowned bluffs and tumbling cascades of the Canada shore, or the deep dark current of the Saguenay river, enlarging their acquaintance with the grandest and most characteristic scenery of our own land, and returning with ruddier faces, brighter eyes, and more vital recuperation than are acquired by those who revel amid the vicious influences which hover with baneful subtleness, in the atmosphere of the haunts where the votaries of fashion most do congregate.

Others of a no less rational class,—families, and persons of limited means to whom a tour is rendered inaccessible by circumstances, or unattractive by more quiet inclinations—find repose, health and enjoyment in a peaceful rural sojourn in the country village or the retired farmhouse.

Meanwhile, New York is left a great parching dusty desert. A finely dressed lady is a rarity on Broadway, and the slow, but refreshing street sprinkler takes the wonted place of the elegant carriage of wealth on the Fifth Avenue. The closed blinds, the dusty steps and empty paves of that aristocratic region impart an air of silent desertion, such as one sees on Sunday in a rural village during the hour when the inhabitants are—or ought to be—at church.

The poor are not deprived of a share in the enjoyments of the season. Every fine day, the innumerable steamers which ply on our beautiful bay and rivers are crowded with men women and children of this class, seeking change of air and refreshment in the breezes that sweep through the breathable atmosphere outside the close confinement of the city.

The reasonable compensation for which these boats convey excursionists a few miles out of the city induce large crowds daily to partake of these pleasures, so promotive of the health of our people. The happy faces which one may see crowding from these boats at their evening return are evidences of the beneficial effects of these judicious diversions. The hearts of the returning participants seem to be lightened in the same degree as their pic-nic baskets are relieved in weight.

Fort Lee, Staten Island, the High Bridge, and other places of popular resort, all receive their share of attention from the pleasure seekers. But the principal place of attraction this week is the grove known as Jones' Woods, on the banks of the East river a few miles above the city. Here are held, in the open air, Musical Festivals, conducted on the most gigantic scale, under the leadership of Max Martzek and other distinguished vocalists. The small sum of twenty-five cents procures, besides a passage in the steamer, which makes two trips hourly, a ticket of admission to the grounds, where the visitor may pass the whole day in rustic pleasures, with the enjoyment of the concert and numerous minor exhibitions, circuses and tent shows, all gratis, including the privilege of investing funds to an unlimited amount in lager beer and other temperate refreshments. This low price of admission serves to draw immense crowds and renders the institution a paying one. A sudden shower throws the grove into a theatre of ludicrous commotion.—Musicians and audience rush for shelter. Waiters hurry to and fro, gathering the empty and half filled glasses from the pine tables, and baskets are seized and handled alike, and skirts are inverted to shield bonnets, while the owners fly wildly in all directions to boats, tents and arbors, converting the former scene of joy into one of indescribable confusion. But pic-nic showers are proverbially brief, though heavy, afflictions, and the boats on their homeward trips carry a throng as joyous as if the sun had shined unceasingly upon their holiday.

News items are unusually scarce. Business, like society, is dull, and shows, as yet, but slight indications of the Fall revival.—The only visible effects of the peace in Europe have been a murmur of surprise on some sides, and a total bankruptcy of the juvenile pedlars of Maps of the Seat of War with which the city has been flooded for several months. Happy would it be for the world if the sanguinary contest just closed was to be last. ISLINGTON.

THE POPE OF ROME has addressed an encyclical letter dated June 18, to the patriarchs, primates, archbishops, and bishops, in communion with the Holy See, in which he attacks the Sardinian government with great bitterness. He speaks of the recent insurrections in Italy as "seditious movements which have recently broken out against the authority of legitimate Princes;" speaks of the Sardinian government as "one of the Italian governments which of late years has been the adversary of the Church, of its legitimate rights, and of its sacred ministers;" and declares publicly "that the temporal sovereignty, which the most perfidious enemies of the church of Christ are endeavoring to wrest from it, is necessary to the Holy See, in order that it may exercise without any obstacle its sacred power for the welfare of religion."

☞ There was a high time at Fort Pownal, on the Penobscot, in Maine, on Thursday, being the centennial anniversary of the English establishment there. In 1759, 333 men arrived on the 23d of July at the mouth of the Penobscot river, landing on the east side. Upon reconnoitering, a location was selected twenty-five rods from the water's edge and about the same distance from Fort Point Lighthouse, where a flagstaff was erected and the King's colors hoisted and saluted. Gov. Pownal's journal contains the entry that divine service was also held here, and "treated the troops with a barrel of rum!"

☞ At the Dartmouth Commencement, Tuesday, the oration was delivered by Mr. B. F. Hayes of Berwick, Me. His subject was "Thought," and the orator went on to show its connection with temporal success. The performance was very warmly received by the students, as it was in some degree a personal sacrifice on the part of the orator, who had left College on account of some trouble with the officers, and only returned to graduate, at the earnest solicitation of his classmates.

It was well written, and what is still rarer, it was well delivered. This was followed by a poem from Mr. D. W. Peabody of Gorham, N. H.

MINNESOTA.—The St. Anthony News, of Friday last, says:—

"On Saturday last the thermometer stood at 100° in the shade in many places; and in one shady place it was reported at 104°. The mercury has reached 90° to 95° almost every day during the last fortnight, and the burning sun and scorching air are almost intolerable. But don't the corn and wheat grow? A farmer informs us positively, that, on actual measurement, his corn grew four inches per day, for nine successive days. All vegetables and cereals are coming forward finely, and the promise is that the aggregate crop of Upper Minnesota will be at least twice as large as ever before. Wheat, corn, potatoes, rye, barley and oats surpass anything we have ever witnessed at this season of the year. At Greenwood, on Crow River, Mr. J. F. Powers has Dent corn more than eight feet in height."

"I have coolly and deliberately watched all the political ups and downs of Governor Wise, and I am, in honor, bound to say that he has no equal on this earth, and he is more justly entitled to the next Presidency than any other man now living. Where is the man in the United States that could have managed the Know Nothing party, and saved the State of Virginia and the Union as he did? If the people of the United States will not reward him by promoting him to the Presidency, as they should do, I trust to God that, after he has ended his career on earth, he may be transferred over to Heaven, and there remain for all time to come, and shine as bright as the brightest California gold. He is as deep as the deepest depths of the ocean, and perfectly fathomless."

☞ The "Zouaves," whose feats of daring and temerity in the Italian war excited the surprise of the civilized world, are Algerian French troops, named after one of the Kabyle tribes; and originally the Zouave regiments were composed in part of native Zouaves. It is esteemed a higher honor to serve in their ranks than to command in ordinary battalions.

☞ In Massachusetts, "the American and Republican parties have resolved to hold their State Convention on the 20th day of September, in the town of Fitchburg. They will then renominate Governor Banks, pass a series of resolutions in favor of freedom, a railway to the Pacific, and denunciatory of the Dred Scott decision; and go home."—says the Courier. No doubt they will; and elect their ticket by a large majority.

GOOD.—The corporation of Yale College have just voted to erect a gymnasium, 100 feet by 50, at a cost of $10,000. The game of bowling is not to be neglected, and orthodox Yale will allow eight ten-pin alleys in the new building. Even Harvard, in her new gymnasium, can boast of but two of these alleys. There is no doubt about it, the attention paid to physical culture in this country is increasing. It has indeed been sadly neglected. It will soon be one great advantage for many to go to college, simply on the score of physical improvement. We hope the time is not far off when the chief objection to a vacation in Portsmouth will be removed, viz., that one has no gymnasium for exercise at the leisure time which one has almost expressly for that object, during a release from store or college. H.

☞ The late Henry L. Lambert, of Salem, made a bequest of $500, to be expended during the summer succeeding his death, for evening promenade concerts on Salem Common. The money has been placed in the hands of the city government, and arrangements are making for carrying out the wishes of the testator.

☞ A barn belonging to the Peter Butler estate, in Oxford, and occupied by James Walker, was destroyed by fire on Tuesday evening, together with fifteen tons of hay, two or three cows, a horse and several hogs. No insurance.

Seven Octave Piano --- New Scale.

The Subscriber having just received a superior SEVEN OCTAVE PIANO-FORTE, made according to his order by the celebrated firm of HALLET, DAVIS & CO., would offer it for the inspection of persons desirous of purchasing. H. D. & Co. have recently made great improvements in the manufacture of Pianos, the most important of which is the New Scale, which, while obviating the weakness which has hitherto been found in the upper part of Square Seven Octave Pianos, gives it a power of tone nearly equal to that of the Parlor Grand.

Having been for several years Agent for the sale of Pianos of the above make, Mr. P. is prepared to state that the instruments which they are now making, far excel any of their former manufacture.

Purchasers will find it greatly to their advantage to call and examine the above mentioned Piano, as it is the only one in Portsmouth which contains the NEW SCALE.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

OPPRESSION AFTER EATING.—Many persons, after an ordinary meal, feel a sense of weight and discomfort in the region of the stomach, the sure sign of an imperfect digestion, and probably the forerunner of a settled dyspepsia. Nothing will relieve this oppression like the PERUVIAN SYRUP, by the stimulus it gives to the digestive powers.

Common Sense rules the mass of the people, whatever the misanthrope philosophers may say to the contrary. Show them a good thing: let its merits be clearly demonstrated, and they will not hesitate to give it their most cordial patronage. The masses have already ratified the judgment of a physician, concerning the virtues of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, as may be seen in the immense quantities of this medicine that are annually sold in every section of the land. It is now recognized as greatly superior to all other remedies yet devised for diseases of the digestive organs, such as diarrhœa, dysentery, dyspepsia, and for the various fevers that arise from derangement of those portions of the system. Hostetter's name is rapidly becoming a household word from Maine to Texas; from the shores of the Atlantic to the Pacific. Try the article and be satisfied.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Agent for Portsmouth, J. H. THACHER, cor. of State and Pleasantsts., and No. 12 Market Sq. Weeks & Potter, Boston, General Agents for the New England States.

Dyspepsia.

Considering the various forms in which this disease developes itself, it may well be called hydra-headed. In its trail follow Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, Heartburn, Water Brash, Costiveness, Piles, Acidity, Oppression after Eating, Jaundice, Flatulency, Torpor of the liver, Dizziness, Debility, Female Complaints, &c.—Some of the first men in our land have given their written certificates relative to the cures effected in their own persons by the OXYGENATED BITTERS; while testimonials from other sources, edited of opinions and voluntary expressions from persons averse to see their names in print, are perfectly overwhelming.

EAST TAUNTON, Mass., Feb. 9, '58.

To the Editor of the Portland Mirror.—Sir:—OXYGENATED BITTERS—for more than twenty five years I have been a sufferer from the dyspepsia. Besides trying the science of my family physicians in this almost useless trial of their various prescriptions, I have tried a great variety of patent medicines with a similar result. Through the kindness of my physician, I received last March, half a dozen bottles of the OXYGENATED BITTERS. I began to use them without any hope of deriving help from them. Being determined to give them a fair trial, I continued their use, but without any perceptible benefit till June.

Since then I have gradually improved in health till I am entirely free from difficulty of the stomach, and from the consequent flatulency, and the awful and almost distracting sick headache, which often, for days together, has wholly unfitted me for study and for all other ministerial duties, and rendered life a burden.

I feel that I owe it, as an expression of gratitude to Messrs. Fowle & Co. and also a duty to the public, to recommend this Oxygenated Bitters, as, in my estimation, a sure remedy for that most trying, most vexing, and most of all diseases, to which poor human flesh is heir, the dyspepsia. Having suffered so long, and tried so many different remedies without relief, I can recommend the Oxygenated Bitters with a confidence few others can. Many of the readers of the Mirror are sufferers like me of them to make trial of these Bitters without delay.

From North to South, their healing virtues lend,
And in these Bitters prove the people's friend.
They strengthen, warm, your bodies vigorous make,
Rouse drooping spirits and new blood create.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

This Gin, distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveiance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, MORBUS and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., and the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 31 Marshall st.; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; B. E. Pecker, 20 Elm st.; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 67 Blackstone st.; R. THE CHRONICLE.

On Monday, the second of August, 1852 —just seven years ago—was issued the first number of the Daily Morning Chronicle—which has been regularly printed ever since. Through the thorough canvassing of the present sole proprietor and publisher, the paper had (what is rare,) a good subscription list, and (what is still more rare, if not before unknown,) full advertising columns, at the start; and both our list-books and advertising columns have been continually filling up, from that time to this—so that we have twice enlarged our sheet to accommodate our advertising patronage.

It is no small gratification for us to look back on our successful course in business; or to look ahead, at our good prospects for the future. Ours is the only paper here, which never expected, asked, or received, any support from any political party; and ever endeavored to render service to any party, as such. We began "independent" of all outside influence; and when we can't continue so, shall be to lay down our pen and stop our press. We have ever aimed to speak "in praise of right—in blame of wrong," wherever found; and shall still endeavor to do so, so far as in us lies the ability to discern. But we do not pretend to infallibility; and so are willing to grant others the largest liberty of honest difference of opinion with us. The very fact that our course has not suited any party, but has been blamed by each and all in turn, convinces and satisfies us the more, that we are and have been, newspaperially at least, truly independent of party and sect.

At the time we commenced the Chronicle, the newspaper market here seemed already too full; and we or none deemed our success probable. But our business has constantly increased, and each succeeding quarterly settlement of our books, shows it wider, larger and stronger.

MUNICIPAL.

THURSDAY EVENING July 28.

In Common Council.—No quorum:—stands adjourned: Thursday evening next.

In Board of Aldermen.—The resolution from the Common Council, respecting the erection of a "one story school house" in Cabot street was laid on the table.

Voted, That the sewer from Summer street to Middle street be relaid.

The resolution from the Common Council, respecting the purchase of a Steam Fire Engine was laid on the table.

The subject of alteration of the Furnaces in the High School House was referred to the Committee on School Houses, to confer with the High School Committee, with power to act.

Sundry bills were offered. Adjourned to Tuesday evening next, to choose watchmen for the ensuing year, and to act on the subject of New School House.

☞ The new editor of the N. H. Gazette announces a change in tone, temper and sentiments,—viz:—that it will be hereafter, a "National Democratic journal,"—and that "it will render a proper and cordial support to the Administration of Mr. Buchanan, not only because it is a Democratic administration, but because all its essential acts and measures have been eminently just, wise and patriotic."

POLICE COURT.—Friday, July 29.—A young man, 16 years of age, was arraigned on a charge of assault on the person of a young woman residing at the south part of the city. The assault was alleged to have been committed on the evening of the 17th inst., near Madison street, on the outskirts of the city. Plea, not guilty. Another young man was implicated in the affair, who has not yet been arrested, having left town. Young guilty, but in consideration of extenuating circumstances, sentenced to pay a fine of $8 only, and costs. Appealed.

☞ Elder Edwin Burnham will preach in the Advent Chapel to-morrow. His friends are invited to attend.

PIKE'S PEAK—KANSAS CONVENTION.—St. Louis, July 29.—The Leavenworth Times has received private advices from Denver City up to the 20th inst. The mines continued to yield well. A good many miners had been compelled to quit work on account of the scarcity of water.

The Kansas Constitutional Convention had nearly completed its labors, and would probably adjourn to-morrow. The Constitution is anti-slavery, but does not extend suffrage to negroes. The State Legislature is to consist of 72 Representatives and 21 Senators. Topeka is selected temporarily as the capital, Lawrence being the competitor. The indications are that the ratification of the Convention will be vigorously opposed by the Democracy, as its strong measures of annexation of the Platte district, the exclusion of free negroes, the prohibition of bank issues, the preservation of the present western boundary, which includes the gold regions, have all been defeated.

WANTED IMMEDIATELY.

We want a MAN used to shears, to cut Capes and Raglans. Apply at No. 15 Market street.

ALLEN & PAINE.

GATHERED TO HIS FATHERS.—The Milford Republican says:—

Many of our readers were perhaps surprised seeing the cars pass through our village Sunday morning last. It was the weekly ilk train, which usually returns in the night but on this occasion was delayed in waiting to receive the remains of Capt. George Paige, late of the U. S. Army, stationed in Utah, to bear them to Nashua, his native place. His remains left the camp on the 17th of May last and arrived at Boston about 10 o'clock Sunday morning. Capt. P. received injuries on his way to the Territory, by his horse falling from a precipice, from which he never fully recovered. Much of the way through the dangerous passes the corpse was borne along suspended between two mules, the distance many days being to than three miles, under the scorching rays of a sun-lit sky. The body was conveyed under escort of U. S. troops between the Indian passes, where it was given in charge of Mr. C. Paige, formerly messenger of Morrill & Co.'s, Express, who accompanied it the entire length of its long and perilous journey.

TRUST NOT AT ALL, OR ALL IN ALL.

In Love, if Love be Love, if Love be ours,
Faith and Truth can ne'er be equal powers:
Unfaithful aught is want of faith in all.

It is the little rift within the lute,
That by and by will make the music mute,
And ever widening slowly silence all.

The little rift within the lover's lute,
Or little pitted speck in garnered fruit,
That rotting inward slowly moulders all:

It is not worth the keeping: let it go:
But shall I? answer, darling, answer no—
And trust me not at all, or all in all.

—Tennyson.

☞ A suit has been instituted in a Kentucky court for the recovery of over forty thousand acres of farm lands in Harrison, Bourbon, Nicholas, and other adjoining counties. The claim is made by some non-resident heirs, and covers land to the value of over a million of dollars.

☞ The papers tell the story of a swimming exhibition in Liverpool, where a London Professor, ate bread, drank wine and smoked a pipe while entirely under water. Not the least remarkable thing about it is that there are people ready to believe the story.

"Some weeks since the failure of a Boston merchant was announced, and a recent statement of the condition of his affairs shows his total debts to be in the neighborhood of three hundred and thirty thousand dollars, with assets to the extent of forty thousand dollars."

CAMBRIDGE POISONING CASE.—The inquest on the body of the colored child named Mary Louisa Blight, poisoned by her step-mother, Mary Blight, on the eighth day of July, has resulted in a verdict of murder.

THE VILE HACKMAN, in Boston, who basely betrayed a Canadian woman and exposed her to outrage, has been arrested. The name of the miscreant is Patrick Donnelly. His case deserves to be made an example of, for justice does not often overtake such scoundrels. He was arraigned in the Police Court and held in $5000 for examination. It appears that the woman in endeavoring to escape from the carriage was nearly killed.

PRAISEWORTHY ACT.—Col. Samuel Swett, of Boston, has purchased a fine original portrait of the late Rev. John Murray, of the First Presbyterian Church, Newburyport, and presented the picture to the Public Library of that city. A copy of the portrait was made a few years since by order of the same public spirited gentleman, and presented to the religious society of which Mr. Murray was pastor from 1780 to 1793. He baptized Col. Swett in infancy, hence his interest in the preacher. The similarity of name between the Calvinistic clergyman of Newburyport and the pioneer preacher of distinctive Universalism, who was once settled in Essex county—led to the popular appellation of "Salvation" John Murray, and "Damnation" John Murray.—Transcript.

SEWING MACHINE COMPANY,

No. 18 Summer Street, Boston,

MACHINES FROM $50 TO $125.

HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

TESTIMONIALS.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

Several months have now elapsed since one of these machines was first introduced for our family use. For several weeks those who attempted to operate it having had no instruction, it was regarded as of little value, although some work could be done. But no sooner had one of experience taken hold of it, giving the proper tension to the cotton, proper oiling, &c. to the machinery, than it worked admirably—and now for months it goes on like clock work, doing handsomely all the work submitted to it, and accomplishing as much work in an hour as could be done by hand in a long summer's day. These machines are decidedly popular. We have never heard of one being sold to procure another from a different maker,—while we have known others to be laid aside to give place to Grover & Baker's. Any one can operate them after an hour's instruction from an experienced hand.

CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

We have seen one of Grover & Baker's $100 Sewing Machines used to do the Sewing of two families, for the past year or more, to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned—without once getting out of order, or requiring the least repair.—We would as soon try to dispense with a Cooking Stove in a family, as to attempt to get along without a Sewing Machine. Money invested in a good Machine pays much more than legal dividend, in actual cash savings—to say nothing of the higher consideration, of comfort and convenience, not even luxury, it affords to the ladies of a household. Whatever may be the experience with other Machines, we never know a Grover & Baker to be discarded or found wanting.

FRANK W. MILLER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

and as a Beverage it has no superior in the world. It is manufactured by the proprietor, at Schiedam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use, by a process peculiar to his own Factory. It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spiritous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, Bladder and Kidney Complaints, &c. &c.

Put up in quart and pint bottles, in Cases of one dozen quarts, and two dozen pints, with the proprietor's name on the bottle, cork and label. For sale by all the respectable Country Merchants and Druggists. Look out for counterfeits and imitations, as the whole country is flooded with them

TO THE PUBLIC.

I beg leave to call the attention of the American Public to the following Certificate from the Government Chemist for the Island of Cuba and the Spanish West Indies, and who is known to the Scientific men of London, Paris, Madrid, Cuba and America to be the first Chemist in the world.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHEMICAL TESTIMONY.

D. Jose Luis Casabeca, Corresponding Member of the Royal Academies of Madrid and Munich, a Graduate in Sciences of the Faculty of Paris, formerly Professor of Chemistry, ec. applied to the Arts, of the Royal Conservatorio of Madrid, and of Physics and Chemistry, as applied to the Industry and Agriculture of the country, in the Royal University of this Island, at present H. M.'s Director of the Institute of Chemical Investigation, &c., &c.

Do hereby certify, that at the request of the house of Gottig & Will, of this place, I have made an analytical examination of U. Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, with the object of ascertaining if it contained any substance noxious to health, and to inform them as to its true composition and relative quality with the other gins that are offered in the market, and the results of my observations and experiments are as follows:—

Udolpho Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps is a spirituous liquid, of a very agreeable aromatic odor, completely transparent and almost colorless, having only a very slight tint of yellowish gray; its flavor is strong and very agreeable to the palate. It marks 20 degrees in Cartier's alcohol weigher or 52 degrees 5 hundredth in Gay Lussac's alcohometre. By the distillation in a balaium maria, with an apparatus consisting of a glass retort and a recipient surrounded with ice, I have collected in this recipient an alcoholic liquid with a very agreeable aroma completely colorless and transparent, which marked 90 degrees in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, or 70 degrees 5 hundredth on Gay Lussac's alcohometre; and which represented as a whole 57 per cent. of aromatic Schiedam schnapps subject to distillation in the retort. This liquid did not soil the transparency of the distilled water in mixing it with the same, and its agreeable aroma is doubtless due to a very trifling amount of an essential oil inseparable from alcohol.

From the remainder of the distillation which was left in the retort, I have obtained, through evaporation in a vapor bath, a substance of a yellowish brown color, clear, and having a bitter taste, which is not disagreeable, and which afterwards becomes aromatic and leaves the mouth perfumed with that fragrance peculiar to the vanilla. I am inclined to believe that to this bitter and aromatic extractive substance, soluble in water and alcohol, the medicinal properties which are attributed to this gin are due. I have not found in Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps any mineral or organic substance other than the extractive one already named and the aromatic one obtained by distillation. Finally, Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps consists simply of an aromatic alcohol of 20 degrees of evaporation in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, and of an extractive bitter aromatic substance, which perhaps, is medicinal; and, on account of its not containing any matter injurious to the health, as well as for its odor and good flavor—a fact which no doubt arises from the choice substances employed in its manufacture, and from the peculiar manner of its distillation, it should in my opinion, be preferred to all the Holland, Belgic and German gins which are found in this Island which it has been my business to examine. These gins as I have often proved it, exhale a disagreeable odor, and have a more or less disagreeable flavor, some of which are so much like those with the superior gin from the distillery of Mr. Henri Deetjen (of Bremen,) as residum after evaporation by steam, a substance almost insipid and very trifling aromatic, with flavor of vanilla, but in no wise with the delicious bitter and aromatic flavor of that of Udolpho Wolfe; and others, such as that labelled "Genuine Samaritan," "Extra Superior." Messrs. Tracher have furnished me with a very small quantity of a greenish substance, of harsh metallic taste and very disagreeable, which extractive organic matter was mixed with a salt of copper, with signs of iron, owing perhaps, to a bad system of distillation.

I certify that all that is here stated is the truth and agrees with the experiments I have made with the greatest care, and I authorize the house of Gottig & Will, of this city, to give publicity to this certificate, in Spanish and in foreign languages, in all countries where it may suit their interest to do so. JOSE LUIS CASASECA.

(From Mrs. Daniel H. Williams.)
DR. SWETT—Dear Sir:—I presume you recollect that when I saw you, about a year since, I was very low, and had been for a long time, with dyspeptic complaints, being very weak, with no appetite, and pain in my head, stomach and side: but now my health is comparatively good, and I consider this great deliverance attributable, mainly, to the two bottles of your "Compound Cordial of Dandelion," which you left for me. I consider this the best medicine I ever found for the complaints for which you recommended it on the labels.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

A compound remedy in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, of combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will a complish their cure must be of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it, has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIVE AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUMM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTIO , ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many ranking diseases are nipped in the bud.—Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the encurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions or sores;—cleanse it when you find it is obstructed or sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health and live live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting cealth. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or anything else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Acme Bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly d espised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have grounds for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more tean assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief ull it has ever been found to do.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act 1837.
76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials here given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made 62 TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, Jan. 1, 1859. R. H. EDDY.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, AUGUST 1, 1859.

☞ One of the oldest and most industrious booksellers in the land, Mr. Charles Whipple, died at Newburyport on the 28th July, aged 78. Mr. Whipple was a printer in the office of Isaiah Thomas, at Worcester, and settled in business at Newburyport more than half a century ago as a bookseller of the firm of Thomas & Whipple. Soon buying out his partner,—for about fifty years he has been a retail bookseller and stationer on his own account in Newburyport; and has earned in moderate profits, what would have been a large fortune, but has suffered largely by bad debts. For industry, prudence, and exactness in business, he was a model trader; And in his domestic and social relations he was exemplary, kind and faithful.

THE GREAT EASTERN.—The statement of an English correspondent of the Troy Whig, that the Great Eastern would not be ready for sea until next Spring, seems to be disputed by the following from the Liverpool Times of July 16th: "The progress which, during the last four weeks has been made in the fitting and equipping the Great Eastern steamship for sea, has been so rapid that within three weeks or a month, at the latest, her steam will be up, and she will be on her way across the Atlantic." The entire cost of this vessel ready for sea will be five million dollars.

THE DIFFERENCE.—The platforms of the parties in Maine—the difference:

The Republican—No interference with Liberty by the President, by Congress, or by Federal Courts.

The Portland Advertiser says "pages of demonstration and illustration could not more conspicuously present the vital difference between the two contending parties of the nation than do these few lines from the Bangor Whig.

BERKSHIRE ITEMS.—A family colt (only 34 years old) belonging to the Messrs. Crane of Dalton, ran away with some juveniles a few days ago, but no damage was done.

While seven men with a span of horses, were engaged in Savoy on the 10th inst., in reparing roads, a thunder shower passed over the place, and they sought shelter in a shed near by; all were suddenly prostrated and rendered senseless for a time by a thunder bolt. When they recovered search was made for the place where the lightning struck, but no trace of it could be found.

☞ Senator Bigler of Pennsylvania, has written a letter to the Tammany Society of New York, in which he advocates as a proper position for the Democratic party, the doctrine that the people of the territories must not legislate with regard to slavery while they continue in their territorial condition. The Washington Constitution pronounces the letter able and patriotic.

☞ Among the recent contributions to the Washington Monument is a block of carved marble, in which is inserted a curiously carved bead, with this inscription beneath: "This head was carved between two and three thousand years ago by the ancient Egyptians, for their temple erected in honor of Augustus, on the banks of the Nile.—Brought from there by J. F. Lenman."

☞ Mr. Samuel Bailey, a quiet, respectable Englishman, living in Harrison Township, New York, was assaulted by a rowdy on the 21st of June, who, after beating Mr. Bailey, bit a large piece from his cheek.—The injured man has been confined to his house since the occurrence, and within the last few days his face has swollen to an alarming extent, his eyes being entirely closed—and the physician says that he will probably die.

☞ Mr. Walworth, a wealthy planter from Arkansas, who is one of the old habitues of Saratoga, has made a will in which he bequeaths $50,000 to the State of New York towards founding a hospital for the blind; if that State should refuse to accept it, it is so go to the State of Michigan, and if not accepted by Michigan it is to go to Ohio. Mr. W. is himself blind.

☞ The Chicago Democrat avers that a Kentuckian resident in that city, recently won $28,000 at faro, in one night. The money was won from three bank clerks and four professional gamblers. Also that there are a dozen gambling rooms in the city doing a business like this every night, which the police have orders not to disturb.

☞ There are four churches in New York supported by the Welch, viz: one Baptist, one Congregationalist, one Wesleyan and one Methodist. There are two newspapers printed in Welch, with a circulation of ten thousand copies. They have also four benevolent associations.

NEW BOOKS.

ITALY and France in the 16th Century: or the Challenge of Barletta. The Struggles of an Italian against Foreign Invaders and Foreign Protectors. By Mazzino D'Azeglio. 12 mo. pp. 356. Phillips, Sampson & Company, Boston.

The dedication of this volume gives a key to its contents. It is dedicated to those true Americans who think justly of Italian virtue, who, alive to Italian misfortunes, do not expect Italian social regeneration from blood, stiletto or conspiracy; but from order, law, mutual respect, and from the revival of Italian wisdom and of Italian valor.

This work will derive much interest from the recent war—and the comparison of two eras (350 years apart) in manners and customs, will give a great zest to a good historic novel.

Mr. J. H. Foster has the book for sale in this city.

MILCH COWS, and Dairy Farming — Production of Milk, Butter, and Cheese—Dairy Husbandry—and Dairy Management.—By Charles L. Flint. Liberally Illustrated. 8 vo. pp. 416.—Boston: Phillips, Sampson & Co.

This will be a most useful volume for the farmer; for it is eminently a practical work. It comprises the breeds, breeding, and management, in health and disease, of dairy and other stock; the selection of milch cows, with a full explanation of Guenon's method; the culture of forage plants, and the production of milk, butter, and cheese: embodying the most recent improvements, and adapted to farming in the United States and British Provinces, with a treatise upon the Dairy Husbandry of Holland; to which is added Horsfall's System of Dairy Management.

This valuable book for farmers is for sale by Mr. J. H. Foster in this city.

☞ Phillips, Sampson & Co., Boston, have just published a new and valuable collection of Church Music, entitled "The Choral Harmony," by B. F. Baker and W. O. Perkins.

CENTRE HARBOR, Friday, July 29.

Messrs. Editors:—We took the Concord cars, or rather they took us for the pic-nic at Newmarket on Wednesday. We arrived there in due time; but decided to make a trip to the Lake. Being good pedestrians we walked as far as Rochester (22 miles.) then took the first train on the Cocheco road for Farmington, at which place we remained until the next morning.

In the meantime we were shown round the place by one of the "absent sons."—Farmington is a place of considerable business, and is noted for the enterprising spirit of its inhabitants. There are eleven shoe manufactories there, which employ over 2000 hands. The largest establishment in the place is conducted by Messrs. Kinnear & Curtis, two smart and enterprising young men; they employ about 250 hands, which make annually 120,000 dozen shoes, and pay out for labor $4000 a month.

From Farmington we went to Alton Bay; then took the steamer Dover and were carried over the most beautifully picturesque lake in New England. Felicitously applicable is the name the Indians gave it—"the Smile of the Great Spirit."

Early this morning they harnessed the 2:40 horse, and sent us on an expedition to Meredith, where we were highly impressed with its enterprising and flourishing appearance.

In company with some half-a-dozen gentlemen, the ascent of Red Hill was made yesterday afternoon. The scramble up the hill was tedious enough—the ladies rode horseback—but the view from the summit amply repaid the toil. To the westward can be seen the Franconia range, mingling with the clouds; to the east, Ossipee and Gilmanton mountains—their tops in clouds and mist. Lake Winnipiseogee lay at our feet almost, calm, glistening silvery in the sun, with its 365 islands reflected on its surface. Squam Lake, also smaller lakes, reflected the glimmer of the sun's rays as they strayed through the leafy surroundings. Every thing from the summit looks so beautiful and grand that one would almost desire to live upon it—and live, as friend T. said, "upon the views."

Since my sojourn here I have wandered; among rocks, through meadows, over hills sailed on the Lake when its waves glistened and sparkled in the bright sunlight; wandered over its little islands, picked blueberries, got scratched up beautifully, got nicely sunburnt, gained or lost six pounds in flesh, and hope I have renewed at least five years more of my lease of life.

To-morrow morning at 7 o'clock, we shall again introduce ourselves to Capt. Walker, of the steamer Dover, and sail over the placid bosom of the lovely Winnipiseogee, and in the afternoon be attending to our business in "the quiet city by the sea."

Yours, in haste, S. W. C.

☞ Gen. Tom Thumb has "consented to give two entertainments" to the public of Bridgeport, and the papers of that city publish the correspondence relative to the matter, and make much ado over it.

☞ In California, high up among the Sierra Nevada mountains, near the head of the Stanislaus river, last March, no living thing save the watch dog and snow birds having been seen for a month, the men at Murphy reservoir were surprised to see a long yellow continuous line of something moving through the air close to the snow, which was then fifteen feet deep. It was a flight of yellow butterflies. Whence they came or whither they rested, says the San Andreas Independent, are mysteries as unaccountable as the mission of the wind that sustained them. The flight continued for several hours. For a week preceding this phenomenon, the weather had been warm and pleasant.

☞ The Fourth of July at San Francisco was distinguished by a bull fight. Two of the bulls were fine animals, full of courage and ferocity, but the other two had evidently been cowed in capturing them. The matadores, picadores and banderilleros proved themselves to be experts. An immense concourse of native born Californians, Chilians and Peruvians gathered to see this combat.

☞ Think, says the New York Express, of the chivalrous, noble-souled Italian patriot Garibaldi, and his gallant compatriots, venturing their lives, their fortunes, their all, only to place their native land under "the Honorary Presidency of the Pope!"

☞ A San Francisco paper mentions a bunch of thirty large full-blown roses growing on one stem of seven or eight inches in length.

Having been for several years Agent for the sale of Pianos of the above male, Mr. P. is prepared to state that the instruments which they are now making, far excel any of their former manufacture.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

OPPRESSION AFTER EATING.—Many persons, after an ordinary meal, feel a sense of weight and discomfort in the region of the stomach, the sure sign of an imperfect digestion, and probably the forerunner of a settled dyspepsia. Nothing will relieve this oppression like the PERUVIAN SYRUP, by the stimulus it gives to the digestive powers.

Common Sense rules the mass of the people, whatever the misnamed and misanthrope philosophers may say to the contrary. Show them a good thing: let its merits be clearly demonstrated, and they will not hesitate to give it their most cordial patronage. The masses have already ratified the judgment of a physician, concerning the virtues of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, as may be seen in the immense quantities of this medicine that are annually sold in every section of the land. It is now recognized as greatly superior to all other remedies yet devised for diseases of the digestive organs, such as diarrhœa, dysentery, dyspepsia, and for the various fevers that arise from derangement of those portions of the system. Hostetter's name is rapidly becoming a household word, from Maine to Texas; from the shores of the Atlantic to the Pacific. Try the article and be satisfied.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Dyspepsia.

Considering the various forms in which this disease developes itself, it may well be called hydra-headed. In its train follow Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, Heartburn, Water Brash, Costiveness, Piles, Acidity, Oppression after Eating, Jaundice, Flatulency, Torpor of the Liver, Dizziness, Debility, Female Complaints, &c. Some of the first men in our land have given their written certificates relative to the cures effected in their own persons by the OXYGENATED BITTERS, while testimonials from other sources, editorial opinions and voluntary expressions from persons averse to see their names in print, are perfectly overwhelming.

EAST TAUNTON, Mass., Feb. 9, '53.

To the Editor of the Portland Mirror.—Sir—

OXYGENATED BITTERS—For more than twenty five years I have been a sufferer from the dyspepsia. Besides trying the patience of my family physicians in the almost useless trial of their various prescriptions, I have fried a great variety of patent medicines with a similar result. Through the kindness of my physician, I received last March, half a dozen bottles of the OXYGENATED BITTERS. I began to use them without any hope of deriving help from them. Being determined to give them a fair trial, I continued their use, but without any perceptible benefit till June.

Since then I have gradually improved in health till I am entirely free from acidity of the stomach, and from the consequent flatulency, and the awful and almost distracting sick headache, which often, for days together, has wholly unfitted me for study and for all other ministerial duties, and rendered life a burden.

I feel that I owe it, as an expression of gratitude to Messrs. Fowle & Co., and also a duty to the public, to recommend their Oxygenated Bitters, as, in my opinion, a sure remedy for that most trying, most vexing, and cruel of all diseases, to which poor human flesh is heir, the dyspepsia. Having suffered so long, and tried so many different remedies with no good result, I can recommend the Oxygenated Bitters with a confidence few others can. JAMES R. CUSHING.

Prepared by S. W. FOWLE & CO., BOSTON, and for sale by Wm. R. Preston, David Kimball, Nathan P. Thacher, J. H. Thacher, and B. Hutchins, Portsmouth; J. P. Packer, Greenland; and dealers everywhere. spnot 4wd&w

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

This Gin, distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and contains none of the most valuable properties of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER AND AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES OF THE URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing complaints to which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st.; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Pecker, 22 Blackstone st.; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. Smith, 20 Exchange st.; Gilbert, Abbott & Co., 1 Broad st.; Deland & Snow, 34 Elm st. and others. In Portland, Me., of H. H. Hay & Co., C. W. Atwell, and C. C. Mitchell & Son.

OUR ANNIVERSARY. — This is the seventh anniversary of the commencement of the Daily Chronicle,—and this morning, for the eighth time, we begin its publication for another year, without knowing whether our lives will be spared to complete it. This is, in a peculiar sense, our own anniversary,—for in it, culminated the long-entertained hopes of the senior editor of the Chronicle, and the well-matured plans of him who is now the sole proprietor and publisher. For years had both been desirous of engaging in this enterprise; and the result has proved that the scheme was not so visionary as many thought, and has demonstrated that some things can be done as well as others.

But while this anniversary is always a season of satisfaction and pleasure to us, yet it is not without its alloy—memory is always busy when it recurs, because it calls up so vividly the remembrance of the junior of its three, or rather four founders,

"He, the young and strong, who cherished
Noble longings for the strife,
By the road-side fell and perished,
Weary with the march of life,"

About three years ago—and yet to us but yesterday—he died. Comparatively few of those who mingled in the business of our community, ever knew him, and yet to us he is an every-day, living reality, and we can hardly think of him as dead.

It is chiefly these salient points, at the commencement of each year, that cause us to note how rapidly time passes; and to realize that the Chronicle, from being regarded as rather a doubtful experiment, has become one of the old established institutions of the city.

With renewed and unceasing gratitude, we again return our sincere thanks to all who have ever contributed material aid or good wishes to the welfare of the Chronicle; and we shall endeavor to conduct our (and their) little sheet in a manner to meet the approval of those whose approbation is of most real value.

If we have any regular readers who do not contribute their due share of support toward the paper they enjoy, we wish them enlarged liberality and increased honesty; and with an invitation to all who can afford it, to enrol themselves among our subscribers, we must bid you, kind readers, a cheerful "good morning," and hie to work to get out Volume 15 of our favorite newspaper. F.

☞ The Lecture on Italy, delivered on Friday evening at the Temple, by Rev. Joseph P. Thompson of New York, was a very valuable and timely production, and was favorably received by an intelligent audience. The orator's clear and distinct statement of facts, his calm and candid reasoning, and his happy mode of illustration, left little to be desired, as to the manner of the lecture. And as to the matter, every hearer of the lecture has his memory pleasantly refreshed, or his stock of knowledge enlarged, by this perspicuous lecture.

Mr. Thompson was not very complimentary to Louis Napoleon or the Pope, or to Austria,— while Garibaldi, Mazzini, the King of Sardinia, and the people of Rome, fared better in his hands.

Two of his best stories, were those of the Roman who compared the prices of maccaroni in the Republic and in the Papal restoration, and of the Pope who had been a fisherman. He was a very devout Catholic, and when he became a priest, he spread his old fishing net on the table, and thereon ate his dinner.

A very humble and holy man he was, said the people; by and by he had a better place; but still the old net did duty as a table cloth. A very holy, humble man.

Promoted for this humility to be a cardinal, his net held its place, and his humility was more loudly praised than ever.

He was raised to the papacy—and now his table is spread with fine linen, and he fares sumptuously every day. Somebody ventures the query, where is the net? O, replies he, nets are to catch fish in—the fish are all caught!

Some of the great men in the church,—and some rulers now in Europe, are saints and swindlers after the manner of this fisherman pope. The lecturer did ample justice to a number of them.

☞ The oldest inhabitant of this region must be Mr. Daniel Fernald of this city, who is stated to us to be one hundred and three years old. He is quite smart for an old gentleman, being in full possession of all his faculties, and usually in good health and spirits. He attended church but a couple of weeks since.

☞ The usual large number of visitors are rusticating in and around Portsmouth, at this time—returned sons and others who acknowledge the attractions and beauties of the old town. Among others, Hon. John Wentworth, late M. C. and Mayor of Chicago, has, with his family, taken summer quarters at the Rockingham House.

Rev. Moses Howe and family are also visiting friends here for a few days.

A CARD.—The subscriber would gratefully acknowledge the receipt of eight dollars from some unknown friend, through the Post Office, for the benefit of the poor.
Portsmouth, July 30. N. MEDBERY.

☞ We understand that arrangements have for some time been in progress, for a Lyceum in this city for the coming season. The programme will be announced shortly. Among the managers, is one of the gentlemen who projected the People's Lyceum, and gave us some of the most valuable and successful courses we ever had here.

We learn that Mr. George F. Towle has recently been elected County Surveyor in Bandera Co., Texas. Mr. Towle, formerly of this city, is experienced as a civil engineer, and we congratulate the people of Bandera County in having so early secured his services. To any person desiring information respecting that beautiful section of our country, or wishing to transact any land business, we cheerfully reccommend them to Mr. Towle as a reliable agent.—Journal.

☞ Foreign news to July 20, from Liverpool, informs us of the arrival of Napoleon at Paris, on the morning of Sunday the 17th.

The Empress, with the Imperial Prince and the ladies and officers of the Household, were in attendance to receive him. For more than an hour at the railway station the little Prince wore his Corporal's uniform, and had a laurel crown in his hand ready to give to his father upon his arrival.

As soon as the Emperor arrived he kissed the Empress, and then took the Imperial Prince in his arms and held him for some minutes. He afterwards gave his arm to the Empress and proceeded in a carriage to the chateau.

The London Post's Paris correspondent telegraphed on the 18th as follows:—

"A conference to settle the affairs of Italy has just been arranged at St. Cloud. The early part of next month is spoken of as the time at which representatives of the parties interested will assemble, but the place is not yet mentioned."

The same correspondent learns on very high authority that both Emperors are convinced that the bases for peace which they so hastily agreed upon, are in many respects impracticable.

The English journals continue to ridicule the terms of peace, and even the London Morning Post, (Palmerston organ) had suddenly commenced an attack on the proceedings at Villafranca.

The Paris correspondent of the Daily News, after careful enquiry, affirms that the terms of peace have not only occasioned a feeling of disappointment and even indignation among all those who took a sincere interest in the objects of the war, but have very seriously damaged and lowered the Emperor in the opinion of all classes of society.

Italy.—Strong indications of discontent at the terms of peace were visible in some parts of Italy.

At Florence great agitation prevailed, and the provisional government had issued a proclamation which describes the peace of Villafranca as betraying the finest hopes; that the Tuscan government participated in the sentiments of the Tuscan people on the subject, and declares that Tuscany will not be replaced under the yoke and influence of Austria, against her will and rights.

Sardinia.—The Times correspondent at Turin says the peace has produced the greatest exasperation and dejection in that capital. The Emperor Napoleon is accused of being a traitor to Italy. His portraits have been withdrawn to prevent shop windows from being broken. Two hundred French policemen were at Turin.

☞ United states reports give the number of Indians in California as about fifty thousand, whereas, says the Bulletin, there are not more than fifteen thousand, and probably not so many, most of those being in the Great Basin and the Colorado Desert. More than three-fourths of the red men living in 1849, in the State north of latitude 36°, have been killed off; many tribes have entirely disappeared.

☞ Wm. H. Hobson, Vice President of the Lowell Cricket Club, died on Friday, in consequence of lung fever, contracted by the excitement and exposure attending his participation in the playing of the late match between Massachusetts and New York, at Hoboken.

CINCINNATI, July 30.—The Hon. Cassius M. Clay addressed a large audience last evening at Covington, Ky., on the political topics of the day, with regard to the Gubernatorial election. He advocated neither side, but denounced both candidates, Bell and Magoffin, as political quacks. His speech was a straight out Republican manifesto, closing with an appeal to the nonslaveholders of Kentucky to make preparations to share next fall in the National triumph of the Republicans. There were no attempts at disturbance during the speech.

AMERICAN CLAIMS AGAINST CHINA.—Washington, July 30.—Information has been received at the Department of State to the effect that the proper steps had been taken by the Chinese Government to carry into effect the arrangements made by Ex-Minister Reed for the payment of the various claims of American citizens, amounting to about $700,000.

☞ Considerable amusement was created in Fall River on Sunday, by the appearance of an old codger from the rural districts, at the head of the North Pond, with a load of hay which, it was said, he had brought in for sale, in innocent forgetfulness of the day.

☞ In California the grasshoppers are superabundant in Yuba and Nevada counties, and the Indians are waxing fat upon them. They collect them in pits, singe them with fire, and pack them in bags for consumption at leisure.

GROVER & BAKER
SEWING MACHINE COMPANY,
No. 18 Summer Street, Boston,
MACHINES FROM $50 TO $125.
HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

TESTIMONIALS.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.
Several months have now elapsed since one of these machines was first introduced for our family use. For several weeks those who attempted to operate it having had no instruction, it was regarded as of little value, although some work could be done. But no sooner had one of experience taken hold of it, giving the proper tension to the cotton, proper oiling, &c. to the machinery, than it worked admirably—and now for months it goes on like clock work, doing handsomely all the work submitted to it, and accomplishing as much work in an hour as could be done by hand in a long summer's day. These machines are decidedly popular. We have never heard of one being sold to procure another from a different maker,—while we have known others to be laid aside to give place to Grover & Baker's. Any one can operate them after an hour's instruction from an experienced hand.
CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.
We have seen one of Grover & Baker's $100 Sewing Machines used to do the Sewing of two families, for the past year or more, to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned—without once getting out of order, or requiring the least repair.—We would as soon try to dispense with a Cooking Stove in a family, as to attempt to get along without a Sewing Machine. Money invested in a good Machine pays much more than legal dividend, in actual cash savings—to say nothing of the higher consideration, of comfort and convenience, nay, even luxury, it affords to the ladies of a household. Whatever may be the experience with other Machines, we never knew a Grover & Baker to be discarded or found wanting.
FRANK W. MILLER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859
Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, Bladder and Kidney Complaints, &c. &c.

Put up in quart and pint bottles, in Cases of one dozen quarts, and two dozen pints, with the proprietor's name on the bottle, cork and label. For sale by all the respectable Country Merchants and Druggists. Look out for counterfeits and imitations, as the whole country is floooded with them
UDOLPHO WOLFE,
SOLE MANUFACTURER AND IMPORTER,
DEPOT 22 BEAVER SREET, NEW YORK.

TO THE PUBLIC.
I beg leave to call the attention of the American Public to the following Certificate from the Government Chemist for the Island of Cuba and the Spanish West Indies, and who is known to the Scientific men of London, Paris, Madrid, Cuba and America to be the first Chemist in the world.
UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHEMICAL TESTIMONY.
D. Jose Luis Casaseca, Corresponding Member of the Royal Academies of Madrid and Munich, a Graduate in Sciences of the Faculty of Paris, formerly Professor of Chemistry, as applied to the Arts, of the Royal Conservatorio of Madrid, and of Physic and Chemistry, as applied to the Industry and Agriculture of the country, in the Royal University of this Island, at present H. M.'s Director of the Institute of Chemical Investigation, &c., &c.

Do hereby certify, that at the request of the house of Gottig & Will, of this place, I have made an analytical examination of U. Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, with the object of ascertaining if it contained any substance noxious to health, and to inform them as to its true composition and relative quality with the other gins that are offered in the market, and the results of my observations and experiments are as follows:—

Udolpho Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps is a spirituous liquid, of a very agreeable aromatic odor, completely transparent and almost colorless, having only a very slight tint of yellowish gray; its flavor is strong and very agreeable to the palate. It marks 20 degrees in Cartier's alcohol weigher or 52 degrees 5 hundredth in Gay Lussac's alcohometre. By the distillation in a balaium maria, with an apparatus consisting of a glass retort and a recipient surrounded with ice, I have collected in this recipient an alcoholic liquid with a very agreeable aroma completely colorless and transparent, which marked 90 degrees in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, or 70 degrees 5 hundredth on Gay Lussac's alcohometre; and which represented as a whole 57 per cent. of aromatic Schiedam schnapps subject to distillation in the retort. This liquid did not soil the transparency of the distilled water in mixing it with the same, and its agreeable aroma is doubtless due to a very trifling amount of an essential oil inseparable from alcohol.

From the remainder of the distillation which was left in the retort, I have obtained, through evaporation in a vapor bath, a substance of a yellowish brown color, clear, and having a bitter taste, which is not disagreeable, and which afterwards becomes aromatic and leaves the mouth perfumed with that fragrance peculiar to the vanilla. I am inclined to believe that to this bitter and aromatic extractive substance, soluble in water and alcohol, the medicinal properties which are attributed to this gin are due. I have not found in Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps any mineral or organic substance other than the extractive one already named and the aromatic one obtained by distillation. Finally, Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps consists simply of an aromatic alcohol of 20 degrees of graduation in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, and of an extractive bitter aromatic substance, which perhaps, is medicinal; and, on account of its not containing any matter injurious to the health, as well as for its odor and good flavor—a fact which no doubt arises from the choice substances employed in its manufacture, and from the peculiar manner of its distillation, it should in my opinion, be preferred to all the Holland, Belgic and German gins which are found in this Island which it has been my business to examine. These gins as I have often proved it, exhale a disagreeable odor, and have a more or less disagreeable flavor, some of them having left as was the case with the superior gin from the distillery of Mr. Henry Deetjen (of Bremen,) as residuum after evaporation by steam, a substance almost insipid and very trifingly aromatic, with flavor of vanilla, but in no wise with the delicious bitter and aromatic flavor of that of Udolpho Wolfe; and others, such as that labelled "Genuine Samaritan," "Extra Superior." Messrs. Tracner have furnished me with a very small quantity of a greenish substance, of harsh metallic taste and very disagreeable, which extractive organic matter was mixed with a salt of copper, with signs of iron, owing perhaps, to a bad system of distillation.

I certify that all that is here stated is the truth and agrees with the experiments I have made with the greatest care, and I authorize the house of Gottig & Will, of this city, to give publicity to this certificate, in Spanish and in foreign languages, in all countries where it may suit their interest to do so. From the N. H. Gazette.

The Future Course of the Gazette.

We announce this week a change in the proprietorship of the Gazette, and we hardly need say that the change of ownership will involve a change in the tone, temper and sentiments of the paper in its political department.

Hereafter the Gazette will be, as it has been most of the time in its long past, a National Democratic journal. It will sustain the usages and organization of the Democratic party. It will advocate the principles of Democracy as held to and promulgated by the Democratic fathers. It will defend the constitutional rights of all sections of the Union. It will render a proper and cordial support to the administration of Mr. Buchanan, not only because it is a Democratic administration, but because all its essential acts and measures have been eminently just, wise and patriotic, and promotive of the best interests of the country, and because the chief men composing it are veteran Democratic statesmen, whose public lives, great abilities and long and faithful public services in many important stations, render them deserving of the highest confidence and regard of the Democracy of the country. And it will constantly aim, without compromising principle, to conciliate personal differences and promote union and strength in the Democratic ranks.

At an ordinary time it would be unnecessary to say more than this to indicate what will be the future course of the Gazette; but circumstances connected with the management of this paper for a considerable period past, require an emphatic expression of our views in reference to an issue which has been forced into much prominence before the country at this time. Upon the Territorial question, then, or the question of Popular Sovereignty as connected therewith, the Gazette will adhere firmly to the Cincinnati Platform. In the language of the Cincinnati resolves, it will maintain the "right of the people of all the Territories, including Kansas and Nebraska, acting through the legally and fairly-expressed will of a majority of actual residents, and whenever the number of their inhabitants justifies it, to form a constitution with or without domestic slavery, and be admitted into the Union upon terms of perfect equality with the other States."

This we recognize to be sound doctrine—true and constitutional Popular Sovereignty. It is the doctrine upon which the administration was elected, and to which it has faithfully and steadily adhered. It is the position of the National Democracy, North and South. It was authoritatively promulgated by the representatives of the Democratic party assembled in National Convention, and we recognize the right of no individual member of the party either to abridge or interpolate it. We shall maintain it in its integrity with what ability we may be able to command.

But while the Gazette will sustain the doctrine of Popular Sovereignty as thus set forth, together with all the principles of the Cincinnati Platform, until that platform shall be formally and authoritatively altered, we would as emphatically declare that the heresy of squatter sovereignty, alias Mormon sovereignty, will receive no support from us. We utterly repudiate the idea that a clear and acknowledged constitutional right can be destroyed or infringed by any power. There is no difference of views among Democrats as to the constitutional rights of the South in the Territories. All admit that the citizens of all sections of the Union have an equal right under the Constitution to migrate to the Territories with their property; and this right conceded, it is rank absurdity to claim that there is power any where to rightfully violate or impair it. Congress has not this power, nor the Executive, nor the Judiciary, for it is the duty of each and all of these bodies to maintain and protect constitutional rights; and the Territorial Legislature certainly has it not, for that body is but the creature of Congress, deriving therefrom its powers and its very existence. Therefore, the doctrine that the first few hundreds or thousands of whatever color or nation who may locate in the Territories, may through a Territorial Legislature trample on the Constitution of the United States and destroy the property rights of one-half the Union in the Territories, will hereafter find no favor in the columns of this paper. It is but the rankest abolitionism in disguise—opposed alike to law, logic and common sense. With every constitutional right there exists the co-relative power and duty of maintaining it. Adequate protection of the rights conferred must be afforded, or the Constitution is a cheat and delusion, not worth the parchment it is written upon.

Such is our position—such, hastily sketched, are the principles and views which the Gazette will henceforward maintain. They will be enlarged upon from time to time, as circumstances may demand, always in respectful and temperate language, and it is confidently hoped and believed, that they will commend themselves to the cordial approval of all sound and true Democrats.

N. H. State Teachers' Association.—The sixth annual meeting of the Association will be held at Concord, on the 2d, 3d and 4th days of August. The first session will commence at 2 o'clock, P. M., Tuesday, August 2d. The following questions are proposed for consideration, viz:

1. Ought we to follow the English or the Continental system of Greek and Latin Orthoepy?
2. Is the Ollendorf method of instruction suited to the Ancient Languages?
3. Ought Catholic children to be expelled from school for refusing to read from the common English version of the Bible?
4. Is the present system of County Commissioners for Common Schools, preferable to State Superintendency?

The managers express the hope that all the teachers in the State, will make an effort to attend this meeting.

☞ The Wardens of St. John's Church are making extensive repairs, which amount to almost an entire rebuilding of the wall around the burying ground attached to that church. After the repairs are completed, we understand the wall is to be surmounted by an iron fence, presented to the Parish by J. Fisher Sheafe, Esq., of New York city.

☞ The South Congregational Society of Concord, whose meeting house was recently destroyed by fire, have purchased of D. G. Fuller, Esq., his house and land, corner of State and Pleasant Street, and will undoubtedly erect an elegant house of worship.

DR. SWETT'S
CORDIAL OF DANDELION,
SPIKENARD & BONESET,

A remedy unsurpassed for Liver Complaints, such as Costiveness, Giddiness and Pain in the Head, Stomach and Side, Universal Debility, and the whole family of Consumptive Complaints.

Hundreds of testimonials might be added, proving the many cures by this pleasant and effectual medicine, especially of people advanced in life, whose debilitated constitutions have been greatly recruited by it. A trial of it is warranted to well pay the aged and dyspeptic. Price 75 cents.

[From Mrs. Daniel M. Williams.]

Dr. Swett—Dear Sir:—I presume you recollect that when I saw you, about a year since, I was very low, and had been for a long time, with dyspeptic complaints, being very weak, with no appetite, and pain in my head, stomach and side; but now my health is comparatively good, and I do confidently believe your Compound Cordial of Dandelion, which you left for me. I consider the best medicine I ever found. I have the same plants for which you recommend it on the labels.

Mary E. Williams.

Concord, N. H., May 28, 1858.

Enfield, Sept. 8, 1858.

Last spring and Summer I was troubled with the Liver Complaint, which caused my food to distress me badly; and I do not know what cured me, but one thing I do know, and that is, I took one bottle of Dr. S. Swett's Cordial of Dandelion, and the disease left me, and has not returned.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

A compound remedy in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, of combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will a complish their cure must be of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it, has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUMM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud.—Multitudes can by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the encurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions or sores;—cleanse it when you find it is obstructed or sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting ealth. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or anything else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Aence bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justlyd espised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have grounds for believing it the virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act 1837.
76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions, and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such a remarkable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to employ him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.
JOHN TAGGART.

Sept 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber in the course of his large practice, made FIFTEEN rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPLICATIONS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

WHITES AND BLACKS.

The New York Express rebukes the eternal squabble of the politicians about slavery. It asks, are there no other subjects worthy the attention of the American people besides the black race? It demands to know if the interests of twenty-five millions of white men are always to be sacrificed to the interests of four millions of blacks?

Such a sacrifice would be senseless and ruinous, remarks the Richmond Despatch; but after all, it is not the interests of the black laborers, but of the white politicians, that causes this eternal turmoil. The most run mad Republican cares no more for the subject of Sambo, per se, than for the man in the moon. It is only as he affords a hobby, whereby white men can ride into place, that he occupies a prominent position in the politics of the country.

The Virginia Transcript says the real question is not, are the interests of twenty-five millions of whites to be sacrificed to four millions of black men? but are the interests of the twenty-five millions aforesaid to be sacrificed to the interests of twenty-five hundred mousing politicians and unprincipled demagogues? Are the interests of everybody in the whole country; is the republic itself—is liberty, self-government, union, to be victimized at the shrine of selfish, reckless and corrupt ambition?

In place of any comment of our own, we copy the following item, stating a fact about one southern politician. We take it from the Newburyport Herald.

Senator Iverson of Georgia, in a recent disunion speech, says—"Slavery must be maintained—in the Union, if possible—out of the Union, if necessary—peaceably, if we may—forcibly if we must." These are the men who charge that abolitionists are disunionists! There are hundreds of them—thousands of them in the South, with whom northern democrats are in full communion, and yet all the time charging that the Republican party and the anti-slavery men endanger the Union! One would almost think, to hear them talk, that God made this country only for nigger stealers and woman whippers. Somehow the idea is obtaining ground in this region that white men are of some consideration, and we have no idea of dissolving the Union for either black slaves or white slaveholders.

THE CENSUS.—The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Press suggest that, in the evident impossibility of collating the statistics of the country accurately, under the system that has prevailed, it would be better to abandon the attempt to accomplish anything more than a simple enumeration of the inhabitants. It is to be hoped that the account for the next census will be so drawn as to compel either a faithful collection of the statistics, or to abandon that part of the census altogether, and leave it for the States and cities.

☞ The Boston Saturday Evening Gazette states that "workmen are altering and adding to the building on the southerly corner of Winter and Tremont streets, for the accommodation of Messrs. Theodore S. Harris and George H. Chapman, druggists, who will open a store as soon as the work can be completed, which will probably be before winter. Messrs. Harris and Chapman are well known to the public, the former in association for nine years past with Orlando Tompkins. The stand will be an admirable one for the business contemplated, and we learn that the firm have secured the entire premises on a long lease."

INDIAN TROUBLES.—At Washington a letter from Superintendant Johnson has been received at the Indian Bureau, in which speaking of the difficulty between the Pawnee Indians and citizens of Nebraska, he says:—No white person was killed, but the whites have killed two Indians, and wounded one. The Indians made no resistance when approached by the citizens,who were more culpable in producing the difficulty than the Indians.

☞ A member of the North Carolina Legislature made a decidedly good "hit" a short time ago. A bill was pending which imposed a fine for selling liquor to free negroes, to which he objected, on the ground that "such a law would make them more decent than the whites."

☞ A dancing master was taken up in Natchez recently, for robbing a fellow boarder. He said he commenced by cheating a printer, and that after that everything rascally seemed to come easy to him.

☞ The shortest answer that can be given to the frequent inquiry, "What is the cause of the war?" is to say, that Austria has been covering more ground than she had a deed of.

"That's a fine strain," said one gentleman to another, alluding to the tones of a singer at a concert the other evening. "Yes," said a countryman who sat near, "but if he strains much more he'll split."

☞ Rev. Theodore Parker has gone to Switzerland, Charles Sumner to England, and Ex-President Pierce was at Geneva.

Messrs. Editors: — Having some little curiosity to know what kind of a platform the new editor of the Gazette would adopt, caused me to read his position as defined by himself in his "Future course of the Gazette."

I supposed the editor would favor the administration, and not openly repudiate Douglas. I was not prepared to believe he would defend and uphold the most ultra doctrines of the slave party; that he does, appears from his inaugural. Examine his position, which is, "that all admit that the citizens of all sections of the Union have an equal right under the Constitution to emigrate to the territories with their property, and that there is no power anywhere to rightfully violate or impair it; that it is the duty of Congress, the Executive, and the Judiciary to maintain and protect constitutional rights; that this is law, logic and common sense, and that the opposite of this is the rankest abolitionism in disguise; and that with every constitutional right there exists the correlative power and duty of maintaining it."

To show the absurdity of this position, we will suppose a case, and try it by the editor's law, &c.; premising first that slaves are property in the slave states, and that property in slaves in those states, are "property rights." The supposed case is this: Ex-President Tyler, of Virginia, migrates to Kansas, and takes with him ten of his slaves; arriving there he orders them to perform certain labor of a kind and similar to such as they have usually performed in the Old Dominion; they refuse to do it, preferring to range at large, and loaf about the country;—can Mr. Tyler compel them to labor there, against their wishes? Clearly not—and why? Because the territorial legislature has made no law sustaining slavery; and there are no laws to punish them into obedience; nor has the Constitution established it there; neither can Congress, nor the Executive, or the Judiciary, or all of these, "maintain or protect it" there. Slavery there has no constitutional rights; nor has Mr. Tyler, or any other slaveholder, "property rights" there, in slaves.

We grant, that any slave-holder has the right to take his slaves into the Territories, —but because we concede this right, it does not follow that there is any power to keep them there as slaves. If so, then the master can cause them to labor as slaves in the territories; and the editor will confer a favor upon us, and a greater one upon the slaveholder, by informing us of the means by which slaves in Virginia can be compelled to do labor against their wishes and as slaves in Kansas, or any other of our territories. And if he cannot so inform us, and as "with every constitutional right there exists a correlative power and duty to maintain it," it follows there exists no such right. Consequently, Mr. Tyler, or any other slave-holder owning slaves in a slave state, would forfeit all claim to them whenever he shall take them into the territories, having no territorial slave laws; and as Mr. Douglas says, "it would be their misfortune." W.

THE NOMINATION OF MR. SAXE.—The nomination of Mr. John G. Saxe for the office of Governor of Vermont, is thus celebrated in verse:

"Prince John of Vermont, being told, t'other day,
By an elderly friend, in a cavilling way,
That though his attainments were many and rare,
He was something too young, for the Governor's chair;
"No matter," quoth John, 'whatever the doubt,
It isn't a point worth disputing about;
For as to the chair, the incumbent may bet it,
I'll be old enough for't by the time that I get it."

☞ The emancipation of slavery in the British West Indies was celebrated at the Grove in North Abington, on Saturday, under the auspices of the Massachusetts Anti-Slavery Society. Some 4000 people were present, and the occasion passed off with much success. There were speeches from the platform and a variety of amusements in the Grove.

☞ At Lockford, Ill., a boy named Harris, 16 or 17 years old, hired a horse the other day to go six miles, but drove the poor beast seventy miles, and until he fell dead from exhaustion. The young barbarian was afterwards lynched by half a dozen young fellows, who flogged him so severely that his life is in danger.

☞ The Detroit postmaster has just been caught in sending false vouchers to Washington and black-mailing his own clerks; the collector of that port is also under scrutiny for admitting railroad iron duty free and receiving a $6000 bribe from the importers, and for other little official pleasantries of that sort.

☞ The following exquisite verse was forwarded to the Tribune by a correspondent. Was there ever a more beautiful expression of a mother's uselfish devotion? The original is in French, and the translation literal:

Oh! God! she faintly said upon her dying bed,
If I have followed thy Divine behest,
As my entire reward grant this request:
Make me the Guardian Angel of my babes, when dead.

The man who waited for an opportunity has gone on; and the man who was fired with indignation has been put out.

Seven Octave Piano---New Scale.

The Subscriber having just received a superior SEVEN OCTAVE PIANO-FORTE, made according to his order by the celebrated firm of HALLET, DAVIS & CO., would offer it for the inspection of persons desirous of purchasing. H. D. & Co. have recently made great improvements in the manufacture of Pianos, the most important of which is the New Scale, which, while obviating the weakness which has hitherto been found in the upper parts of Square Seven Octave Pianos, gives it a power of tone nearly equal to that of the Parlor Grand.

Having been for several years Agent for the sale of Pianos of the above make, Mr. P. is prepared to state that the instruments which they are now making, far excel any of their former manufacture.

Purchasers will find it greatly to their advantage to call and examine the above mentioned Piano, as it is the only one in Portsmouth which contains the NEW SCALE.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Jaundice.

This yellow coloration of the skin is characteristic of an increased secretion of bile, or of its passage into the blood, in consequence of some obstruction in the circulation of the liver. Being itself but a symptom, the cause must be attacked in the central diseased organ; and ample experience proves that the PERUVIAN SYRUP acts in a wonderful manner in stimulating the liver to the proper performance of its duty.

Common Sense rules the mass of the people, whatever the misnamed and misanthrope philosophers may say to the contrary. Show them a good thing: let its merits be clearly demonstrated, and they will not hesitate to give it their most cordial patronage. The masses have already ratified the judgment of a physician, concerning the virtues of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, as many be seen in the immense quantities of this medicine that are annually sold in every section of the land. It is now recognized as greatly superior to all other remedies yet devised for diseases of the digestive organs, such as diarrhœa, dysentery, dyspepsia, and for the various fevers that arise from derangement of those portions of the system. Hostetter's Bitters is rapidly becoming a household word, from Maine to Texas; from the shores of the Atlantic to the Pacific. Try the article and be satisfied.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Dyspepsia.

Considering the various forms in which this disease developes itself, it may well be called hydra-headed. In its train follow Indigestion, Pains in the Stomach, Heartburn, Water brash, Costiveness, Piles, Acidity, Oppression after Eating, Jaundice, Flatulency, Torpor of the Liver, Dizziness, Debility, Female Complaints, &c. Some of the first men in our land have given their testimonials relative to the cures effected in their own persons by the OXYGENATED BITTERS; while testimonials from other sources, unsolicited opinions and voluntary expressions from persons averse to see their names in print, are perfectly overwhelming.

EAST TAUNTON, Mass., Feb. 9, '58.

To the Editor of the Portland Mirror,—Sir:—

OXYGENATED BITTERS—For more than twenty five years I have been a sufferer from the dyspepsia. Besides trying the patience of my family physicians in the almost useless trial of their various prescriptions, I have tried a great variety of patent medicines with a similar result. Through the kindness of my physician, I received last March, half a dozen bottles of the OXYGENATED BITTERS, and I begin to see them without any hope of deriving help from them. Being determined to give them a fair trial, I continued their use, but without any perceptible benefit till June.

Since then I have gradually improved in health till, I am entirely free from acidity of the stomach, and from the consequent flatulency, and the awful and almost distracting sick headache, which often, for days together, has wholly unfitted me for study and for all other ministerial duties, and rendered life a burden.

I feel that I owe it, as an expression of gratitude to Messrs. Weeks & Co., and also a duty to the public, to recommend their Oxygenated Bitters, as, in my estimation, a sure remedy for that most trying, most vexing, and cruel of all diseases, to which poor human flesh is heir, the dyspepsia. Having suffered so long, and tried so many different remedies with no good result, I can recommend the Oxygenated Bitters with a confidence few others can. If any of the readers of the Mirror are suffering, I beg them to make trial of these Bitters without delay.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

This Gin, distilled in London, from stock Charley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, or a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, GOLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st.; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Packer, 20 Elm st.; J. Moran, 110 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. The building has been occupied for thirteen years for the manufacture of candles, and the inside was completely saturated with oil; and as the wood-work was of pitch pine, the flames spread rapidly, and rolled out in huge volumes, mingled with dense smoke; so intense was the heat that the strong walls crumbled and chimneys fell with terrible crashes.

An Assistant Engineer, named Dunbar, was badly burned by a sheet of flame that suddenly enveloped him while on a lader; and William T. Clarke, a fireman, fell into the street overcome by heat.

LAW SCHOOL OF THE UNIVERSITY
AT CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

The Instructors in this School are:

Hon. JOEL PARKER, LL. D., Royale Professor.
Hon. THEOPHILUS PARSONS, LL. D., Dane Prof.
Hon. EMORY WASHBURN, LL.D., University Prof.

THE COURSE OF INSTRUCTION embraces the various branches of the Common Law; and of Equity, Admiralty, Commercial, International, and Constitutional Law; and the Jurisprudence of the United States. The Law Library consists of about 14,000 volumes, and as new works appear they are added, and every effort is made to render it complete.

Instruction is given by oral lectures and expositions, (and by recitations and examinations in connection with them,) of which there are ten every week. Two Moot Courts are also holden in each week, at each of which a cause previously given out is argued by four students and an opinion delivered by the Presiding Instructor. Rooms and other facilities are also provided for the Club Courts; and an Assembly is held weekly for practice in debate, and acquiring a knowledge of parliamentary law and proceedings.

Students may enter the School in any stage of their professional studies or mercantile pursuits, and at the commencement of either term, or in the middle, or other part of the term.

They are at liberty to elect what studies they will pursue, according to their views of their own wants and attainments.

The Academical year, which commences on Thursday, six weeks after the third Wednesday in July, is divided into two terms of twenty weeks each, with a vacation of six weeks at the end of each term.

The exercises of the next term will commence on MONDAY, September 5th, 1859.

Applications for admission, or for catalogues, or any further information, may be made to either of the Professors at Cambridge.

SEWING MACHINE COMPANY,

MACHINES FROM $50 TO $125.
HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

TESTIMONIALS.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

Several months have now elapsed since one of these machines was first introduced for our family use. For several weeks those who attempted to operate it having had no instruction, it was regarded as of little value, although some work could be done. But no sooner had one of experience taken hold of it, giving the proper tension to the cotton, proper oiling, &c. to the machinery, than it worked admirably—and now for months it goes on like clock work, doing handsomely all the work submitted to it, and accomplishing as much work in an hour as could be done by hand in a long summer's day. These machines are decidedly popular. We have never heard of one being sold to procure another from a different maker,—while we have known others to be laid aside to give place to Grover & Baker's. Any one can operate them after an hour's instruction from an experienced hand.

If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whittemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.

CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

We have seen one of Grover & Baker's $100 Sewing Machines used to do the Sewing of two families, for the past year or more, to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned—without once getting out of order, or requiring the least repair.—We would as soon try to dispense with a Cooking Stove in a family, as to attempt to get along without a Sewing Machine. Money invested in a good Machine pays much more than legal dividend, in actual cash savings—to say nothing of the higher consideration, of comfort and convenience, nay, even luxury, it affords to the ladies of a household. Whatever may be the experience with other Machines, we never knew a Grover & Baker to be discarded or found wanting.

FRANK W. MILLER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spiritous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, Bladder and Kidney Complaints, &c. &c.

TO THE PUBLIC.

I beg leave to call the attention of the American Public to the following Certificate from the Government Chemist for the Island of Cuba and the Spanish West Indies, and who is known to the Scientific men of London, Paris, Madrid, Cuba and America to be the first Chemist in the world.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHEMICAL TESTIMONY.

D. Jose Luis Casabeca, Corresponding Member of the Royal Academies of Madrid and Munich, a Graduate in Sciences of the Faculty of Paris, formerly Professor of Chemistry, as applied to the Arts, of the Royal Conservatorio of Madrid, and of Physic and Chemistry, as applied to the Industry and Agriculture of the country, in the Royal University of this Island, at present H. M.'s Director of the Institute of Chemical Investigation, &c., &c.

Do hereby certify, that at the request of the house of Gottig & Will, of this place, I have made an analytical examination of U. Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, with the object of ascertaining if it contained any substance noxious to health, and to inform them as to its true composition and relative quality with the other gins that are offered in the market, and the results of my observations and experiments are as follows:—

Udolpho Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps is a spirituous liquid, of a very agreeable aromatic odor, completely transparent and almost colorless, having only a very slight tint of yellowish gray; its flavor is strong and very agreeable to the palate. It marks 20 degrees in Cartier's alcohol weigher or 52 degrees 5 hundredth in Gay Lussac's alcohometre. By the distillation in a balnium maria, with an apparatus consisting of a glass retort and a recipient surrounded with ice, I have collected in this recipient an alcoholic liquid with a very agreeable aroma completely colorless and transparent, which marked 90 degrees in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, or 70 degrees 5 hundredth on Gay Lussac's alcohometre; and which represented as a whole 57 per cent. of aromatic Schiedam schnapps subject to distillation in the retort. This liquid did not soil the transparency of the distilled water in mixing it with the same, and its agreeable aroma is doubtless due to a very trifling amount of an essential oil inseparable from alcohol.

From the remainder of the distillation which was left in the retort, I have obtained, through evaporation in a vapor bath, a substance of a yellowish brown color, clear, and having a bitter taste, which is not disagreeable, and which afterwards becomes aromatic and leaves the mouth perfumed with that fragrance peculiar to the vanilla. I am inclined to believe that to this bitter and aromatic extractive substance, soluble in water and alcohol, the medicinal properties which are attributed to this gin are due. I have not found in Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps any mineral or organic substance other than the extractive one already named and the aromatic one obtained by distillation. Finally, Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps consists simply of an aromatic alcohol of 20 degrees of graduation in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, and of an extractive bitter aromatic substance, which perhaps, is medicinal; and, on account of its not containing any matter injurious to the health, as well as for its odor and good flavor—a fact which no doubt arises from the choice substances employed in its manufacture, and from the peculiar manner of its distillation, it should in my opinion, be preferred to all the Holland, Belgic and German gins which are found in this Island which it has been my business to examine. These gins as I have often proved it, exhale a disagreeable odor, and have a more or less disagreeable flavor, some of them having left as was the case with the superior gin from the distillery of Mr. Henry Deetjen (of Bremen,) as residuum after evaporation by steam, a substance almost insipid and very trifilingly aromatic, with flavor of vanilla, but in no wise with the delicious bitter and aromatic flavor of that of Udolpho Wolfe; and others, such as that labelled "Genuine Samaritan," "Extra Superior." Messrs. Tracier have furnished me with a very small quantity of a greenish substance, of harsh metalic taste and very disagreeable, which extractive organic matter was mixed with a salt of copper, with signs of iron, owing perhaps, to a bad system of distillation.

I certify that all that is here stated is the truth and agrees with the experiments I have made with the greatest care, and I authorize the house of Gottig & Will, of this city, to give publicity to this certificate, in Spanish and in foreign languages, in all countries where it may suit their interest to do so. JOSE LUIS CASASECA.

Here it is, the last week in July, and politically Maine is as dead as Lot's wife after she went into the salt business. The only signs of life, the only movement or even pulsation that we have seen among our democratic friends since the Convention, have been put forth in Bath or Augusta, by those who are opposed to the successful candidate of the Bangor Convention.—Where are Messrs. [From Mrs. Daniel H. Williams.]

DR. SWETT—Dear Sir:—I presume you recollect that when I saw you, about a year since, I was very much troubled for a long time, with dyspeptic complaints, being very weak, with no appetite, and pain in my head, stomach and side; but now my health is comparatively good, and I consider this great blessing attributable, mainly, to the two bottles of your "Compound Cordial of Dandelion," which you left for me. I consider this best medicine I have found for the complaints for which you recommend it on the labels.

THE ONLY ARTICLE
UNRIVALLED IN THE MARKET,
WITH IMMENSE
HOME AND EUROPEAN DEMAND.

The reason why, is that by Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on the bald heads, cures all dandruff, itching, and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headache, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy and beautiful, and if used by the young two or three times a week it will never fall or become gray; then, reader, read the following and judge for yourselves:

NEW YORK, Jan. 8, 1858.

MESSRS. O. J. WOOD & CO.

Gentlemen: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to overcome all the prejudices which I, in common with a great many persons, had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was but who having my prejudice without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they see for their proof, and the best proof being occular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing establishment every day.

My hair is now of its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking. I am, yours respectfully, HENRY JENKINS.

Cor. Columbia and Carroll Sts., Brooklyn.

LIVINGSTON, Ala., Feb. 14, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done me good in this part of the country. My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, &c. S. W. MIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—was in fact BALD. I have used but 2 half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours, respectfully,

D. B. THOMAS, M. D.,
No. 464 Vine Street.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

CONSUMPTION IS CURABLE!
BY THE USE OF
Winchester's Genuine Preparation of Dr. J. F. Churchill's Compound of the
HYPOPHOSPHITES
OF LIME, SODA AND POTASH,
Originally discovered and prescribed by him as a Specific Remedy for

CONSUMPTION!

The use of the Hypophosphites in CONSUMPTION, NOTHING FALSE WRITE IT, Asthma, Bronchitis, Dyspepsia, Female Complaints, and all other diseases depending upon a DEFICIENT VITALITY IN THE BLOOD, have proved their INVARIABLE EFFICACY in thousands of cases in Europe and America and established the claim of this discoverer, that they are a SUE PREVENTATIVE, and a

SPECIFIC REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION.

Dr. Churchill says: "In no single instance have I found the remedy fail to produce everything that could be reasonably expected from it. In most instances the benefit derived from it has FAR EXCEEDED what could at first have been hoped for, when taking into account the degree and extent of the injury sustained by the lungs previously to the use of the remedy. * * * * Out of twenty-two cases in the third or last stage, treated at my Dispensary during the past year, EIGHT HAVE COMPLETELY RECOVERED, eight have died, and six are still under treatment. SUCH A RESULT IS ALTOGETHER UNPARALLELED IN THE ANNALS OF MEDICINE."

which is certified by Dr. James R. Chilton to be "properly made and chemically pure. My fac simile signature is upon every bottle.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to those who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secresy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year he has prescribed his medicines, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been properly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine may only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely worthless, and have got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

A compound remedy in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, of combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Scrofulous complaints, and that one which will a complish their cure must be of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it, has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

Scrofula and Scrofulous Complaints, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases, Ulcers, Pimples, Blotches, Tumors, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Syphilis and Syphilitic Affections, Mercurial Disease, Dropsy, Neuralgia or Tic Douloureux, Debility, Dyspepsia and Indigestion, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from Impurity of the Blood.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud.—Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the encurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions or sores;—cleanse it when you find it is obstructed or sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or anything else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarparilla for one dollar, Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Aence bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have grounds for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWEOR rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, Jan. 1, 1859. R. H. EDDY.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 3, 1859.

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

In the House of Representatives, of the New Hampshire Legislature, at their June session, 1859, Mr. Spalding of Portsmouth offered the following resolve, which was explained by Mr. Spalding and passed.

Resolved, &c., That our Senators and Representatives in Congress be requested to call the attention of the United States Senate and United States House of Reprentatives to the ease and facility of computing by a decimal currency; and of the further ease and facility of computation, if the pound avoirdupois was made the standard of all weight; and if the standard of weight, one pound, and of linear measure, one foot, were decimally divided; and of the convenience to the people of the United States, if the wine and beer gallons were abolished, and a new standard gallon should take the place of the measures abolished; also that the proper officers be required to notify our Senators and Representatives in Congress of the passage of this resolution.

Decimal System Weights and Measures proposed.

			Grains.
10	Minims	1 Scruple,	7
10	Scruples	1 Drachm,	70
10	Drachms	1 Ounce,	700
10	Ounces	1 lb.	7000
25	Lbs.	1 quarter,
100	Lbs.	1 cwt.
2000	Lbs.	1 ton.

Decimal System of Measurement,

10 Lines, 1 inch. 10 inches, 1 foot.

The proposed changes do not alter the pound or foot now in use, but only their subdivisions.

We make the following extracts from the speech of Mr. Spalding:

Having offered the resolution respecting weights and measures, permit me to say a few words in defence thereof.

The first part of the resolution relates to the ease of computing by a decimal currency. Little need be said of this, it being so manifestly superior to the old currency, in which seventy-two pence make a dollar, with its four-pence half-penny, ninepence, shilling, &c.

The resolution then recommends doing away with the pound troy, and its subdivisions of goldsmiths' and apothecaries' weight, and making the pound avoirdupois the standard of all weight. It calls attention to the facility of computation that would arise if the standard of weight, (one pound avoirdupois,) and of long measure, (one foot) were decimally divided.

By making ten ounces to the pound, one can add a column of ounces, carrying the tens to the pound column, and can more easily subtract, multiply and divide weights than by reckoning sixteen ounces to the pound; and you also preserve the same relative value between the pound and ounce that exists between the dollar and dime; and between pounds and hundredths as between dollars and cents. Thus if 1 lb. of tea cost 43 cents, 1 oz. will cost 4 cents 3 mills; whereas at present if you ask a man what an ounce of tea costs at 43 cts. a lb., he is unable to answer without going thro' a calculation. Under the decimal system the answer is apparent, and no calculation is required.

However important it is for us to have the pound decimally divided, by applying the same principle to the foot the benefit to society would be still greater, as is evident when we come to find the square or solid contents of bodies. Suppose a box measuring 2 ft. 5 in. by 3ft. 7in. by 4ft. 9in., required the solid contents. Now let anyone multiply together these three dimensions and note the difficulty and length of the operation, and compare it with the following method by the proposed decimal measure. 2.5 x 3.7=9.25; 9.25 x 4.9=45.325 feet.

In a word, multiplying feet and inches would become as simple as multiplying dollars and cents.

Our foot-rule is marked off into 96 parts; by the decimal division it would contain 100, and any person accustomed to taking accurate measurements will not fail to be struck with the great advantage to be derived from such a change. At present 144 square inches make a square foot; decimally, 100 square inches equal a square foot. So 1728 inches are a cubic foot, whereas, decimally, 1000 inches answer the same purpose. At present there is no easily ascertained money value between a square foot and square inch; but decimally, if a square foot cost one dollar, one inch costs one cent; and if a cubic foot costs one dollar, one inch costs one mill. That is, the dollar being already decimally divided, if the pound and foot were also decimally divided, there would be a corresponding relative money value—a fact of the greatest practical importance.

The United States Government require their custom house officials, in the admeasurement of ships, to find the tonnage in feet and tenths, with a view to the saving of time in calculation. Now if the United States have this easy method of measuring, why should not the people have the same?

Perhaps many may not be aware that we now have in use two kinds of pound, one weighing 7000 grains, and divided into 16 ounces of 437 1-2 grains each; the other weighing 5760 grains, and divided into 12 ounces of 480 grains each. This was originally purely accidental, and serves only to confuse children at school, and waste time in all calculations of business men, besides being in itself absurd and handed down to us from the middle ages.

The last subject alluded to in the resolution is the need of a standard gallon. We now have the beer gallon containing 282 cubic inches; the wine gallon 231 cubic inches; while four quarts dry measure contain 268 4-5 cubic inches: consequently there result three distinct quart measures having no defined relation to one another, leading to continual frauds in trade, and altogether forming so complicated a system as to be unintelligible to the greater part of the community. Some years since, England, from which we derived these three gallons, abolished them all, and introduced in their place one standard gallon to be used in all cases, in both dry and liquid measure.

The French, half a century since, relieved themselves of the burden of a confused system of weights and measures, and substituted a uniform system of decimal divisions, which was also extended to the currency.

(Here followed a detailed account of the French system, and the method employed to fix upon a standard.)

Hon. John Quincy Adams, when Secretary of State, in his able report on weights and measures, observes: "the French child has to learn twelve words to know all that he is required to know respecting the weights and measures of his country."—With us how different! Our children are compelled to learn a multitude of confused tables requiring months to be committed to memory, impeding their real progress in school, and remaining in their minds but a short time after their education is completed. It is discouraging to reflect on the vast amount of time spent by children in these United States (many of whom have leisure but for a few months schooling in the year,) in the acquisition of these unnecessary tables, and the compound multiplication, division, addition and subtraction, resulting from them—precious time, which might, were the decimal system adopted, be employed in acquiring higher branches of really useful knowledge.

Mr. Speaker, having made the explanation I intended, I hope the resolution will pass.

There is one cardinal error into which both northern and southern people seem to have fallen, in relation to labor and who should perform it. The southern people think it degrading for a white man to labor, and our northern people—a good many of them—think it too bad that the colored people should toil for a living.—Bath Times.

We never heard or saw the latter opinion expressed by any one,—and do not believe any such expression can be quoted from any quarter.

The Times adds:—

Our opinion is that no class will suffer, intellectually, morally or physically, from a reasonable amount of real, bone-and-muscle-trying hard work.

This is also our opinion—"if any man will not work, neither should he eat."

☞ Geo. Leith died near Montreal on the 20th inst., at the great age of 100 years and 6 months. He served forty years in the British navy, and was in the battle of Copenhagen. On the 5th inst., he walked to Montreal, three miles and a half, in one hour, to draw his pension, and on the day he died he was hoeing in his garden, apparently in perfect health. He died while sitting in his chair.

☞ The exports of specie from New are already over forty millions of dollars, for this year, which is twenty-six millions more than in the same time for 1858; fifteen millions more than in 1857; and twenty-two millions more than in 1856. These importations of goods and exportations of hard money cannot continue long, without seriously affecting manufacturing and all other branches of industry in the country.

SALE OF CUNARD PROPELLERS.—The British steam propellers, Andes, Alps, Lebanon, Taurus, and Teneriffe, all of the Cunard line, have been sold to the Spanish government. They will be replaced by five others of greater capacity and power. On the success of the Great Eastern depends the adoption of the propeller for the new steamer Scotia, now building by Messrs. McIvers.

COPPER COIN NOT A LEGAL TENDER. It has been supposed by many that copper coins are a legal tender to a certain amount, but the idea is erroneous. Hon. James Ross Snowden, director of the United States Mint at Philadelphia, says Congress has never made anything but gold and silver a legal tender.

☞ The new orthodox society in Haverhill, Mass., the North Congregational, have united with the church in calling Rev. A. H. Quint to be their pastor, and voted him a salary of $1500 a year—a pretty round salary for a country town.

☞ A loud call has come from Chicago to Rev. A. A. Miner, Universalist preacher of Boston, offering him a salary of $4,000.

THE SONG OF LOVE AND DEATH.

And sweet is death, who puts an end to pain;
I know not which is sweeter, no, not I.

Love, art thou sweet? then bitter death must be:
Love, thou art bitter; sweet is death to me.
O Love, if death be sweeter, let me die.

Sweet love, that seems not made to fade away;
Sweet death, that seems to make us loveless clay;
I know not which is sweeter, no, not I.

I fain would follow love, if that could be;
I needs must follow death, who calls for me;
Call and I follow, I follow!—let me die."

GOLD IMAGES.—The steamer Moses Taylor brought some very curious gold images to New York from the Isthmus. Some of the parties exploring in an Indian burial ground at David, Chiriqui, found an earthen pot at the left hand side of a grave. The pot contained several small images of gold, roughly cast, and about 20 carats fine.—Further explorations showed that a similar pot was placed at the left side of every grave, and in five days over $100,000 of gold images were taken from one huaco or tomb. The news spread like wildfire. A thousand person swere soon on the ground, and it is expected that millions of dollars will be dug out of these Indian burial places, as there are hundreds of huacos at Chiriqui.

The specimens of these images on exhibition at Ball & Black's, New York, are small, rude imitations of animals and birds, and probably were originally made for idols.—One is a human figure about three inches high, with the head of a monster: another a spread eagle; another a frog; and there are a variety of nondescripts that will make a highly interesting study for the lovers of Indian antiquities. Some of the images are of gold mixed with copper alloy; but the greater part are of 20 carat gold.

JERSEY HORSES FOR NAPOLEON III.—A correspondent of Porter's Spirit of the Times says that the handsome pair of jet black horses, lately owned by Mr. Sanderson of Somerville, N. J., which attracted so much attention at the State Fair in Boston, three years since, have been sold to the Emperor Napoleon. They were respectively of Black Hawk and Trustee blood, aged 15 and 20 years—were originally from New York State. For the last ten years they have taken all the prizes for carriage horses in the State of New Jersey; they also took the prize in the Springfield Horse Fair;—16 and a half hands high, getting themselves up handsomely, they are a fit subject for a painter. They were bought to match a team of bays bought in this country. They brought $4000 and sailed for France last week.

☞ The servants of the well known house of Bailey, Truab & Co., of Matanzas, Cuba, recently drew the first prize in the Havana lottery, of $100,000. Several of them intend to buy their freedom, while probably the larger number will reinvest in the lottery.

BALLOON ASCENSION.—Oswego, Aug. 1. Prof. Coe will make an aerial voyage in his balloon Excelsior, from this place on Wednesday next at 11 o'clock A. M., for the Atlantic coast.

☞ Virginia Stewart, the woman shot by McDonald in New York, still lives. The physicians are astonished at her existing; by their books she should have been comfortably buried some time since.

"Married couples resemble a pair of shears," says Sidney Smith, "so joined that they cannot be separated, often moving in opposite directions, yet always punishing any one who comes between them."

MACHINES FROM $50 TO $125.

HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

TESTIMONIALS.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

Several months have now elapsed since one of these machines was first introduced for our family use. For several weeks those who attempted to operate it having had no instruction, it was regarded as of little value, although some work could be done. But no sooner had one of experience taken hold of it, giving the proper tension to the cotton, proper oiling, &c. to the machinery, than it worked admirably—and now for months it goes on like clock work, doing handsomely all the work submitted to it, and accomplishing as much work in an hour as could be done by hand in a long summer's day. These machines are decidedly popular. We have never heard of one being sold to procure another from a different maker,—while we have known others to be laid aside to give place to Grover & Baker's. Any one can operate them after an hour's instruction from an experienced hand.

If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whittemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.

CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

We have seen one of Grover & Baker's $100 Sewing Machines used to do the Sewing of two families, for the past year or more, to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned—without once getting out of order, or requiring the least repair.—We would as soon try to dispense with a Cooking Stove in a family, as to attempt to get along without a Sewing Machine. Money invested in a good Machine pays much more than legal dividend, in actual cash savings—to say nothing of the higher consideration, of comfort and convenience, nay, even luxury, it affords to the ladies of a household. Whatever may be the experience with other Machines, we never knew a Grover & Baker to be discarded or found wanting.

FRANK W. MILLER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

R. R. R.

Wm. B. Oliver, Esq., P. M., of Drayton, Dade county, Ga., cured a girl, who had been a number of years afflicted with Scrofula. She was covered from head to foot with sores; there was not sound flesh enough on her whole body to fill a twenty-five cent piece on.

SHE FELT HER CONDITION IMPROVE ON THE SECOND DAY.

The fourth day she was much better. On the 5th of April, 1858, she commenced the Resolvent, and the 30th of May, twenty-one days after she commenced its use,

SHE WAS SOUND.

Not a sore or blemish was upon her skin—she was there any disease lingering in her system.

Mr. Oliver has cured many people in Dade of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Fever and Ague, Swellings, Stiffness and Pains of various kinds with Radway's Ready Relief; and many of his friends have been cured of Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Indigestion, &c., by Radway's Regulators.

Jaundice.

This yellow coloration of the skin is characteristic of an increased secretion of bile, or of a passage into the blood, in consequence of some obstruction in the circulation of the liver. Being itself but a symptom, the cause must be attacked in the central diseased organ; and ample experience proves that the PERUVIAN SYRUP acts a wonderful manner in stimulating the liver to the proper performance of its duty.

Common Sense rules the mass of the people, whatever the misnamed and misanthrope philosophers may say to the contrary. Show them a good thing: let its merits be clearly demonstrated, and they will not hesitate to give it the most cordial patronage. The masses have already ratified the judgment of a physician, concerning the virtues of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, as may be seen in the immense quantities of the medicine that are annually sold in every section of the land. It is now emphatically pronounced superior to all other remedies yet devised for diseases of the digestive organs, such as diarrhœa, dysentery, dyspepsia, and the fevers and fevers that arise from derangement of those portions of the system. Hostetter's name is rapidly becoming a household word, from Maine to Texas; from the shores of the Atlantic to the Pacific. Try the article and be satisfied.

Dyspepsia.

Considering the various forms in which this disease developes itself, it may well be called hydra-headed. In its train follow Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, Heartburn, Water Brash, Costiveness, Piles, Acidity, Oppression after Eating, Jaundice, Flatulency, Torpor of the Liver, Dizziness, Debility, Female Complaints and a host of other ills. Many men in our land have given their written certificates relative to the cures effected in their own persons by the OXYGENATED BITTERS; but independent from other sources, editorial opinions and voluntary expressions from persons averse to see their names in print, are perfectly overwhelming.

EAST TAUNTON, MASS., Feb. 9, '58.

To the Editor of the Portland Mirror,—Sir:—

OXYGENATED BITTERS—For more than twenty five years I have been a sufferer from the dyspepsia. Besides trying the patience of my family physicians in the almost useless trial of their various prescriptions, I have tried a great variety of patent medicines with a similar result. But through the kindness of my physician, I received last March, half a dozen bottles of the OXYGENATED BITTERS. I began to use them without any hope of deriving help from them. Having determined to give them a fair trial, I continued their use, but without any perceptible benefit till June.

Since then I have gradually improved in health till I am entirely free from acidity of the stomach, and from the consequent flatulency, and the awful and almost distracting sick headache, which often, for days together, has wholly unfitted me for study and for all other ministerial duties, and rendered life a burden.

I feel that I owe it, as an expression of gratitude to Messrs. Fowle & Co., and also a duty to the public, to recommend their Oxygenated Bitters, as, in my estimation, a sure remedy for that most trying, most vexing, and cruel of all diseases, to which poor human flesh is heir, the dyspepsia. Having suffered so long, and tried so many different remedies with no good result, I can recommend the Oxygenated Bitters with a confidence few others can. If any of the readers of the Mirror are suffering, I beg of them to make trial of these Bitters without delay.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

This Gin, distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable medicinal qualities of the vegetable kingdom, being in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, GALL, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES OF the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st.; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Pecker, 20 Elm st.; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. CITY COUNCIL.

TUESDAY EVE., Aug. 2.

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN.—Alderman Treadwell in the Chair.—The following persons were voted and chosen Watchmen: for the ensuing quarter;

Horatio G. Twombly; John S. Teal; Emery Ayers; Geo. A. Jackson; Henry Wallace; Thomas Glaizebrook; Jere. M. Teague; Nathaniel M. Rand; Abraham Holmes; Chas. H. Littlefield; Nathaniel L. Maloon; Geo. W. Bart; Ederson Carroll, Geo. E. Smart; John Atwell; John W. Brown; Samuel W. Walden; William Laskey.

Voted, That a two story building for a school house be erected on Cabot street, according to plans by William F. Currier, subject to such alterations as the Aldermen may direct.

Voted, That the plans and specifications for the above School House be referred to Committee on School Houses, to report such alterations as they may deem advisable.

Messrs. Editors:—An answer to the enquiry of "Retrenchment," is easy. The Alderman had nothing else to do, and belonging to "our party," must be taken care of; hence the job was given to him.

In the same way, we appointed twenty-three extra watchmen, and on Sunday, July 3d, they go forth to make a show of doing their duty. * * * And so it goes—we are made to pay taxes above our means—for what? simply to support a lot of party demagogues who are too lazy to work, and many of whom, even though they are members of the City Government and vote away our money, do not pay more than a poll tax; and these are the men whom we put in office to do our city business, simply because we are afraid of the party or its leaders. TAX PAYER.

☞ The fire alarm on Tuesday night was caused by a slight conflagration in the store of Gale & Dow, Christian Shore. An incendiary attempt, doubtless.

☞ It is reported that Ira Perley, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of New Hampshire, has resigned that position in order to resume the practice of the law at Concord.

☞ An appropriation of one thousand dollars was made by the last Congress, for a fog-bell, to be rung by machinery, at Whale's Back lighthouse.

HOUSE OF REFORMATION.—We have received a copy of the report of the Board of Trustees of the House of Reformation, for the year 1858-9, which shows that institution to be in a prosperous condition.—The whole number of offenders received into the institution for the year ending April 30, is 40. The offences for which they were committed are as follows: Horse stealing, 1, larceny, 25, shop breaking, 4, vagrancy, 9, common drunkard, 1. The Milford Republican says:—

We always were in favor of the institution, and in looking over the report, we are convinced that it is one of the best institutions in the State, and the money invested in erecting those buildings has not been spent in vain; the people will receive their money back with interest in due time. Let the institution but be as faithfully and economically conducted in the future as it has in the past, and not many years will elapse before New Hampshire may well be proud of it.

NATIONAL MONUMENT TO THE FOREFATHERS AT PLYMOUTH.—The ancient town of Plymouth, Mass., was on Tuesday thronged with descendants of the Pilgrims and others who went hither to participate in services attendant upon the laying of the corner-stone of a monumental canopy, to be a mark and a protection for Plymouth Rock, and the corner-stone of a Monument in commemoration of our noble Pilgrim Fathers.

☞ The Boston Trade Sale of Books commenced at Chapman Hall in that city at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. The attendance was quite large, and the sale commenced under favorable auspices.

KENTUCKY ELECTION.—Louisville, Aug. 1.—As far as heard from, the Ashland district, for Congress, is close. In the Fifth Congressional district, Brown, regular Democrat, is probably elected over Jewett, Independent.

Meager returns from the Second Congressional district, show a large opposition gain. Mallory, as far as heard from, has 900 majority over Holt.

ARRESTED FOR SWINDLING.—New York, Aug. 2.—Symmes Gardner, a Wall street broker, was yesterday arrested on a charge of false pretences, in selling to Abner Jones of Binghampton one hundred and thirty-three shares in the Trident Mutual Insurance Company of Providence, an insolvent corporation.

A letter from Kingston, Jamaica, announces the death at that place of Mr. Hopkins, the newly appointed American Consul.

As for the Democratic Standard, it is an able and spirited paper, a Southern Democrat, but it stands alone—it had better remove to the tobacco and cotton latitudes, where it will be appreciated.—Washington Citizen.

☞ We learn from the Great Falls Advertiser that "there will be a grand excursion over 'the Lake,' on Friday, Aug. 5, by the South Berwick Cornet Band, assisted by the Junior Conquerors, a volunteer fire company of Great Falls, Mary A. Harking, the distinguished vocalist, and the Granite State Glee Club. A promenade concert will be given at Alton Bay, before the steamer leaves her wharf.

An extra train will leave the depot of the B. & M. Railroad in Great Falls, at 7 o'clock Friday morning. Return same evening.

Tickets for the excursion from South Berwick and Great Falls, will be $1.25; they may be obtained at the depot of the B. & M. Railroad.

"With the above entertainment, and a ride over the most beautiful and picturesque part of New England, and at the low rate, (about one-third the usual fare,) it is presumed that all who can be absent for a day will avail themselves of the present opportunity to visit the Lake and the beautiful villages surrounding it. Nothing will be left undone by those having the management of the affair, to make this the most pleasant occasion of the season."

INDIAN AFFAIRS.—Advices from St. Josephs to the 30th ult. state that a band of Omaha Indians had been attacked on the Plains by a large body of Sioux, and seventeen killed and the same number wounded. The Omahas took five Sioux scalps. The fight took place on the night of the 23d, about one hundred miles from Decater, Nebraska territory.

Advices from Fort Smith, Texas, state that the Creek and Cherokee Indians are at open hostilities, in consequence of several murders committed by the former tribe. Four hundred Creeks were armed and awaiting the movements of the Cherokees.

THE REVENUE.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Courier and Enquirer writes:—

The amount of postage seems to be slowly increasing, which is a symptom of returning activity in business. It is a fact highly creditable to the government and the country that last year but $30 out of the whole annual revenue, exceeding $8,000,000, failed to reach the Treasury. Since it has been found practicable to make the collection of revenue passing through the hands of 25,000 persons, perfectly secure, it is natural to inquire why cannot a system be devised placing private remittances through the mail, equally beyond the chance of depredation and carelessness.

Mr. Seward is making a pleasant tour through England. He is winning golden opinions there, but we do not learn that he has gather any of that "British gold" with which, according to the administration organ, he is to purchase democratic votes, next year. He is very negligent. Perhaps he depends upon Pike's Peak, preferring the domestic article. Perhaps, too, this is the reason why Mr. Greeley went to the peak, and he may return with a few tons of gold after he has completed the conquest of Mexico.—Trav.

☞ The Governor of Alabama, Mr. Moore, is opposed to the opening of the slave trade, not because he is averse to the traffic, but because discussion of the subject may divide the South. The injustice of opening the trade does not at all trouble the worthy Governor.

Ministers sometimes take queer texts for sermons. Rev. Mr. Pope of Hyannis, on Sunday last preached from the text, "Is their any taste to the white of an egg?"—He not only shew that there was taste, but that it was the best part of the egg.—Boston Advertiser.

MARINE DISASTERS IN JULY.—The total number of American sea-going vessels reported during the past month as lost and missing, amounts to 19, viz.: 5 ships, 4 barques, and 10 schooners. Of these 2 were burnt, 12 wrecked, 3 abandoned, 1 sunk, and 1 missing.

"Never marry very young. Life is a feast: after you have enjoyed the substantials, let a wife come in as a dessert."

LAW SCHOOL OF THE UNIVERSITY
AT CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

The Instructors in this School are:
Hon. JOEL PARKER, LL. D., Royale Professor.
Hon. THEOPHILUS PARSONS, LL. D., Dane Prof.
Hon. EMORY WASHBURN, LL.D., University Prof.

THE COURSE OF INSTRUCTION embraces the various branches of the Common Law; and of Equity, Admiralty, Commercial, International, and Constitutional Law; and the Jurisprudence of the United States. The Law Library consists of about 14,000 volumes, and as new works appear they are added, and every effort is made to render it complete.

Instruction is given by oral lectures and expositions, (and by recitations and examinations in connection with them,) of which there are ten every week. Two Moot Courts are also holden in each week, at each of which a case previously given out is argued by four students and an opinion delivered by the Presiding Instructor. Rooms and other facilities are also provided for the Club Courts; and an Assembly is held weekly for practice in debate, and acquiring a knowledge of parliamentary law and proceedings.

Students may enter the School in any stage of their professional studies or mercantile pursuits, and at the commencement of either term, or in the middle, or other part of the term.

They are at liberty to elect what studies they will pursue, according to their views of their own wants and attainments.

The Academical year, which commences on Thursday, six weeks after the third Wednesday in July, is divided into two terms of twenty weeks each, with a vacation of six weeks at the end of each term.

The exercises of the next term will commence on MONDAY, September 5th, 1859.

Applications for admission, or for catalogues, or any further information, may be made to either of the Professors at Cambridge.

It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spiritous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, Bladder and Kidney Complaints, &c. &c.

TO THE PUBLIC.
I beg leave to call the attention of the American Public to the following Certificate from the Government Chemist for the Island of Cuba and the Spanish West Indies, and who is known to the Scientific men of London, Paris, Madrid, Cuba and America to be the first Chemist in the world.
UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHEMICAL TESTIMONY,
D. Jose Luis Casabeca, Corresponding Member of the Royal Academies of Madrid and Munich, a Graduate in Sciences of the Faculty of Paris, formerly Professor of Chemistry, as applied to the Arts, of the Royal Conservatorio of Madrid, and of Physics and Chemistry, as applied to the Industry and Agriculture of the country, in the Royal University of this Island, at present H. M's. Director of the Institute of Chemical Investigation, &c., &c.

Do hereby certify, that at the request of the house of Gottig & Will, of this place, I have made an analytical examination of U. Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, with the object of ascertaining if it contained any substance noxious to health, and to inform them as to its true composition and relative quality with the other gins that are offered in the market, and the results of my observations and experiments are as follows:—

Udolpho Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps is a spirituous liquid, of a very agreeable aromatic odor, completely transparent and almost colorless, having only a very slight tint of yellowish gray; its flavor is strong and very agreeable to the palate. It marks 20 degrees in Cartier's alcohol weigher or 52 degrees 5 hundredth in Gay Lussac's alcohometre. By the distillation in a balnium maria, with an apparatus consisting of a glass retort and a recipient surrounded with ice, I have collected in this recipient an alcoholic liquid with a very agreeable aroma completely colorless and transparent, which marked 90 degrees in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, or 70 degrees 5 hundredth on Gay Lussac's alcohometre; and which represented as a whole 57 per cent. of aromatic Schiedam schnapps subject to distillation in the retort. This liquid did not soil the transparency of the distilled water in mixing it with the same, and its agreeable aroma is doubtless due to a very trifling amount of an essential oil inseparable from alcohol.

From the remainder of the distillation which was left in the retort, I have obtained, through evaporation in a vapor bath, a substance of a yellowish brown color, clear, and having a bitter taste, which is not disagreeable, and which afterwards becomes aromatic and leaves the mouth perfumed with that fragrance peculiar to the vanilla. I am inclined to believe that to this bitter and aromatic extractive substance, soluble in water and alcohol, the medicinal properties which are attributed to this gin are due. I have not found in Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps any mineral or organic substance other than the extractive one already named and the aromatic one obtained by distillation. Finally, Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps consists simply of an aromatic alcohol of 20 degrees of graduation in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, and of an extractive bitter aromatic substance, which perhaps, is medicinal; and, on account of its not containing any matter injurious to the health, as well as for its odor and good flavor—a fact which no doubt arises from the choice substances employed in its manufacture, and from the peculiar manner of its distillation, it should in my opinion, be preferred to all the Holland, Belgic and German gins which are found in this Island which it has been my business to examine. These gins as I have often proved it, exhale a disagreeable odor, and have a more or less disagreeable flavor, some of them having left as was the case with the superior gin from the distillery of Mr. Henry Deetjen (of Bremen,) as residuum after evaporation by steam, a substance almost insipid and very lingly aromatic, with flavor of vanilla, but in no wise with the delicious bitter and aromatic flavor of that of Udolpho Wolfe's and others, such as that labelled "Genuine Samaritan," "Extra Superior." Messrs. Tracner have furnished me with a very small quantity of a greenish substance, of harsh metallic taste and very disagreeable, which extractive organic matter was mixed with a salt of copper, with signs of iron, owing perhaps, to a bad system of distillation.

I certify that all that is here stated is the truth and agrees with the experiments I have made with the greatest care, and I authorize the house of Gottig & Will, of this city, to give publicity to this certificate, in Spanish and in foreign languages, in all countries where it may suit their interest to do so. JOSE LUIS CASASECA.

Seven Octave Piano --- New Scale.
The Subscriber having just received a superior SEVEN OCTAVE PIANO-FORTE, made according to his order by the celebrated firm of HALLET, DAVIS & CO., would offer it for the inspection of persons desirous of purchasing. H. D. & Co. have recently made great improvements in the manufacture of Pianos, the most important of which is the New Scale, which, while obviating the weakness which has hitherto been found in the upper part of Square Seven Octave Pianos, gives it a power of tone nearly equal to that of the Parlor Grand.
Having been for several years Agent for the sale of Pianos of the above make, Mr. P. is prepared to state that the instruments which they are now making, far excel any of their former manufacture.
Purchasers will find it greatly to their advantage to call and examine the above mentioned Piano, as it is the only one in Portsmouth which contains the NEW SCALE.

Morning Chronicle.

MAINE ITEMS.—The Lewiston Falls Journal says that the Catholic priest in that village, who is zealous in his efforts to break up the liquor traffic among the Irish, on Thursday discovered a five gallon keg of brandy at the express office, directed to an Irishman named Doyle. He immediately went and brought Doyle to the express office, and demanded of the expressman to know whether he was the man. Doyle stood anxious, shaking his head for the expressman to answer in the negative; but he was pronounced the criminal. The Priest, after paying the express bill, seized the keg, and proceeding to the river, broke in the head and spilled the "precious stuff," while Doyle stood by, the picture of despair.

Mr. E. S. Fowler of Presque Isle, Me., has just discovered an inexhaustible supply of limestone rock, which furnishes lime of an excellent quality, on his premises.—The discovery is a fortunate one for the Aroostook county, as hitherto the article has been imported at four times its first cost.

The war on the hogs is the only matter of general remark just now. The upper part of the city is invested with squatters, hovels, piggeries and dogs. The nuisance has become intolerable. The new City Inspector has resolved to abate the evil. All this week armed men, with clubs, bludgeons and crowbars have been at work.—Thousands of hogs have been sent adrift, pens broken down, bone boiling concerns burned, amid the squealing of pigs, the crying women, and the swearing of men. But the air is pure now and the nuisances are abated.

☞ Miss Bates, the sister of the Hon. Edward Bates of St. Louis, recently emancipated the last of thirty-two slaves, who formed a part of her inheritance, and whom she has gradually set free as they became prepared to take charge of themselves in freedom. Judge Bates emancipated the last of his slaves several years since.

THE LOVER UP A TREE.

Well, here's a situation,
For a young man up a tree:
With a bull-dog standing under,
Looking lovingly at me!
Treed! by all the darts of Cupid!
Like a 'possum, or a 'coon!
What an aspect for a lover,
By the dim light of the moon!
Came to serenade my Julia!
Lightly climbed the garden wall:
Tuned my guitar 'neath her window,
Yonder where the shadows fall:
Got as far as "Sleep, my darling,"
When a deep base "bow! wow! wow!"
Out of tune and time, saluted me—
I hear its echo now.
And a snapping, close behind me,
Warn'd me a foe was near;
So I beat a quick retreat from there,
And found a lodgment here!
As I climb'd this smooth Alanthus,
I felt a something tear;
Let's see: yes, here's a rent behind;
I know how it came there.
Plague take the canine creature!
Wagging his stiff bob-tail,
As though he thought his narrative
Would finally prevail.
But such dogmatic arguments
Have no effect on me,
And such waggish illustrations
With my temper don't agree.
Yonder where the snowy curtain
In the mellow moonlight shines,
Unconscious of my sad mishap,
My Julia dear reclines.
I would not now, for all the world,
That she should see me here,
Dangling in this old Alanthus,
With a white flag in my rear!
Oh! for a bit of strychnine,
Or some poison of some sort!
I'd stop the wagging of that tail,
And all this canine sport!
'Tis midnight, and I hope if now
A ghost is on the jog,
He'll come this way, and frighten off
This most pugnacious dog:
If fairies in the moonlight dance,
I trust some light carouser
Will come and "play dog" for a while
With this infernal Bowser!
The merry stars seem laughing
In their places up afar,
But I am looking downward
On a dangerous dog-star:
When Acton look'd on Dian,
With her naked nymphs around,
The angry huntress changed the bold
Intruder to a hound:
Oh! for the power to change this dog
Into a strapping fellow!
I'd mount him in a minute,
And turn his bark to bellow:
Hark! what is that?—an old tom cat
Around the porch is crawling;
Poor Tom! I've a fellow feline
For your sad caterwauling!
Now Bowser hears him!—see, he turns;
Seek! catch him! bite him, Bowser!
Confound the twig! it's fastened in
The rent within my trowser!
He's gone! and dog and cat are seen
In mad and desperate chase:
'Tis a very proper time, I think,
For me to leave this place.
O Julia! sleep!—sleep sound, my love!
Oh! do not wake just yet,
To view the rent in my trowserloons,
Made by your canine pet;
And if you never wake until
My soft guitar you hear,
You'll slumber till old Gabriel's horn
Shall break your sleep, my dear!

DR. SWETT'S
CORDIAL OF DANDELION,
SPIKENARD & BONESET.

A remedy unsurpassed for Liver Complaints, such as Costiveness, Dizziness and Pain in the Head, Stomach and Side, Universal Debility, and the whole family of Consumptive Complaints.

Hundreds of testimonials might be added, proving the many cures by this pleasant and effectual medicine, especially of people advanced in life, whose debilitated constitutions have been greatly recruited by it. A trial of it is warranted to well pay the aged and dyspeptic. Price 75 cents.

[From Mrs. Daniel H. Williams.]

DR. SWETT—Dear Sir:—I presume you recollect that when I saw you, about a year since, I was very low, and had been for a long time, with dyspeptic complaints, being very weak, with no appetite, and pain in my head, stomach and side; but now my health is comparatively good, and I consider this great deliverance attributable, mainly, to the two bottles of your "Compound Cordial of Dandelion," which you left for me. I consider this the best medicine I ever found for the complaints for which you recommend it on the labels.

The reason why, is that by Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, itching, and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headaches, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy and beautiful. Instances by the young have taken place times a week' it will never fail or become gray; then, reader, read the following and judge for yourselves:

NEW YORK, Jan. 8, 1858.

MESSRS. O. J. WOOD & CO.,

Gentlemen: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudices which I, in common with a great many persons, had against all this number of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was but who having my prejudice without my reasons for acting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof, and the best proof being occular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing establishment every day.

My hair is now the natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking. I am, yours respectfully, HENRY ROLLINS.

Cor. Columbia and Carroll Sts., Brooklyn.

LIVINGSTON, Ala., Feb. 14, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country. My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, &c. S. W. MIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—was in fact BALD. I have used but half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours, respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D.,
No. 464 Vine Street.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inronds of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all parts of the country, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secresy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empirics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of which number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and inclosing $5 will oversee the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

In particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practised by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting what has been only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

A compound remedy in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, of combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will a complish their cure must be of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it, has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUMM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud.—Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the ennearance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alternative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions or sores;—cleanse it when you find it is obstructed or sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting ealth. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or anything else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Aence bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justlyd espised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall restore the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have grounds for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure the speedy eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

DR. J. C. AYER & CO.,
LOWELL, MASS.
PRICE, $1 PER BOTTLE; SIX BOTTLES FOR $5.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,
Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a dinner Pill, and for Purifying the blood.

They are sugar-coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Price, 25 cents per box; five boxes for $1.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of these remedies, but our space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agent below named furnishes gratis our American Almanac, in which they are given, with also full descriptions of the above complaints, and the treatment that should be followed for their cure.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations that make more profit on them. Demand AYER'S, and take no other. The sick can the best aid they is for them, and they should have it.

All our remedies are for sale by W. R. Preston, Portsmouth, and by all druggists and merchants in the civilized world. 6m—jel4

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY. Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act 11837.
76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given show that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast Collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MAGSON,
Commissioner of Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure them a patent, and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.
JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made TWIRE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 4, 1859.

A LIAR FOR A VOUCHER.—In one editorial column of the last Dover Gazette, it is stated that "the New York Herald has been taking extra pains for some months to belie and traduce Senator Douglas. It hesitates at no amount of duplicity, misrepresentation and falsehood, to lead astray the public mind, &c."

In the very next column, also editorial, the same Dover Gazette says:—

"The New York Herald recently made the statement that, within one year prior to last May, there had been between 60 and 70 cargoes of Africans landed in the seaboard States of the South, adding about 15,000 to the Southern slave population. It was very soon denied by one of the Washington papers. But the Herald stuck to it, with its usual pertinacity. Finally, Thurlow Weed, of the Albany Evening Journal, comes to the rescue, and says 'the statement is unquestionably well founded,' whereupon the Herald proceeds to let the 'cat out of the bag,' in the following style, and will vouch for the truth of its statement. The Herald says that 'Thurlow Weed knows the facts, because he has been behind the scenes. He is a partner in the business, and can therefore tell all about it.

The Herald proceeds as follows, to which we ask the attention of our readers:—"

The facts are these: A number of anti-slavery and black republican leaders in the North entered into a secret confederacy to embark in the slave trade, the object being two-fold; first, a mercantile speculation, by which plenty of money might be realized, while at the same time it would injure the hated slave-holders of the South by glutting the market, and thus reducing the price of negroes; second, a political scheme, to overthrow the democratic party in the next Presidential election by bringing the slave trade to light, and charging our government with connivance at it, while the conspirators took good care to cover up their own tracks.

And now we learn that a subscription is being secretly made among Republican partizans in this State (New York) and New England for the purpose of fitting out cruisers to go to the coast of Africa for slaves, and to land them in Southern ports during the next year, in order to make out a case on which to elect a President.

We should say, at the first view, that this story from the Herald is "very like a whale,"—but now that the Dover editor accuses the Herald of falsehood, duplicity and in lying in one column, and takes it for a voucher in the next, we don't know that it is needful for us to say any thing, but leave the reader to believe the stuff, if he can, on such testimony.

THE GLORY OF THE EMPIRE.—It is reported that Louis Napoleon has spent in his seven years' rule more than twice as much of the people's money as the governments which preceded him in thirty-seven years. Such a lavish expenditure must produce its effect in the end. For the time the people are amused. Immense sums have been lavished on national fetes, on the rebuilding of Paris, in a variety of ways to conciliate and propitiate the people. These things, however, must have an end.

The late war has overwhelmed France with a debt, and will increase the expenditures of coming years; each soldier wounded must be paid for his wounds, pensions must be paid to the families of the killed, the new Marshals must have several thousands a year for life, and the bill of extra expenses foots up as very large, France being beforehand in no condition to carry on war.

LORD DERBY'S OPINION OF THE PEACE. At a dinner given in London on the 16th ult., by the conservative party to their two parliamentary leaders, the Earl of Derby and Hon. B. Disraeli, the former employed the following language:—

"War has for the moment terminated, and every friend of humanity must rejoice in the cessation of the effusions of those torrents of human blood which have been poured forth so profusely and so recklessly at Magenta, at Solferino and other fields in Italy. It is too early to speak to you of the exact condition of this truce or peace. But I confess to you that, from the information we at present possess, I look to the state of affairs arising out of the peace, as more critical and dangerous than anything which existed before."

☞ The Antiquarians of Maine, and others, had a grand centennial celebration at Fort Point, on the Penobscot river, on Thursday of last week.

The orator of the day was Rev. Dr. Thurston of Searsport, who gave a great many facts about the hard life of the early settlers. He read a list of the prices current of the early times, despite of which ardent spirits were used in large quantities, and so absolute was deemed the necessity of the use of liquor, and so urgent were the demands of appetite, that they would run in debt for rum at two and three pence per half pint! This fact, he believed, explained much of the poverty of the early settlers.

Rev. Joshua Hall, the Chairman, who is hale and strong at the age of 91, called the audience to order.

DEATH OF HORACE MANN.—Cincinnati, Aug. 2.—Horace Mann, President of Antioch College, died at Yellow Springs, at half-past 4 this afternoon.

☞ Gen. Foote of Mississippi is about to take up his residence at Washington. He says the extreme southern democrats have laid their plans to secure the election of Mr. Seward as a means of breaking up the Union. He proposes a popular mass convention at Washington on the 22d of February, to consider the critical state of the Union, in consequence of the demoralization of the old national parties, and the substitution of sectional combinations in their stead, and to propose a basis for the organization of a new national and Union party.

☞ A chap writes from "out West" that the land is as cheap as dirt, and good enough; but the climate is rainy, blowy and sultry. The people die so fast there that every man has his third wife, and every woman is a widow! As for the people, they are perfect Christians. They fulfill the Scriptures to the letter, where it says: 'Let God be true, but every man a liar!'"

☞ The wag of the Bath Times, speaking of lightning rods, says he "knows nothing of the merits of the different rods, having never been struck with lightning, and never having had occasion to make the acquaintance of the rods since they have been manufactured of metal. In boyhood the lightning rods with which he was most familiar grew on birch trees! They lightened one's steps amazingly."

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DROWNING.—At Franklin, Mass., on Sunday afternoon, Mr. John L. Fairbanks of that town had a very narrow escape from death. He was driving a horse attached to a chaise, and stopped at the edge of a deep pond to give the horse a drink. When he attempted to back out, the horse took a contrary direction into the water, where it was from fifteen to twenty feet deep. Mr. Fairbanks, with a steady rein, brought the horse round in a circle, and drove him or swam him to the shore. At times the chaise was only from one and a half to two-feet in sight, and the head of Mr. Fairbanks was just visible, as was that of the horse.

☞ Nathaniel Washington, a colored boy, has been arrested in Providence, on a charge of having caused the death of two boys, named Edward Scott and Daniel Brassline, while in a boat on Duck Pond, on the evening of the 23d ult. It is said that he capsized the boat, knowing that the lads in it could not swim, and because he had a feeling of revenge against one of the boys to gratify.

☞ A correspondent of the Tribune mentions, as one of the things which disturbed the pleasure of Commencement at Harvard College, an unfortunate allusion by one of the boys, when he "spoke his piece," to the "contemptible articles in the New York Ledger," which youngster contrasted with the elegant literature of the Atlantic Monthly. Mr. Everett, who was on the platform, found it convenient to blow his nose about that time.

The war on the hogs is the only matter of general remark just now. The upper part of the city is invested with squatters, hovels, piggeries and dogs. The nuisance has become intolerable. The new City Inspector has resolved to abate the evil. All this week armed men, with clubs, bludgeons and crowbars have been at work.—Thousands of hogs have been sent adrift, pens broken down, bone boiling concerns burned, amid the squealing of pigs, crying of women, and the swearing of men. But the air is pure now and the nuisances are abated.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 2nd.—Incomplete returns of the county eldction yesterday, indicate success, by a large majority, of the Republican candidates.

In this county the Democrats have elected one member of the Legislature, two Commissioners, and one Clerk. The Republicans have elected the balance of the candidates. The Sunday Reform measure has been carried by a large majority.

KENTUCKY ELECTION.—Louisville, Aug. 2.—The returns indicate the election of Mr. Magoffin, the Democratic candidate for Governor.

The following Congressmen are elected: 1st District—Burnett, Democrat; 2d—Peyton, Democrat, probably; 3d—Bristow, opposition; 4th, Anderson, opposition; 5th, Brown, Democrat; 6th—Gerrard, Democrat, probably; 7th—Mallory, opposition; 8th—Simmons, Democrat, probably; 9th—Moon, Democrat, probably; 10th—Stevenson, Democrat.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 2.—The Americans are holding their primary elections to-night, to elect delegates to the city nominating convention. There is a great deal of rowdyism. The struggle is between the rowdy and respectable portion of the party, and the indications are that the former will be successful.

A LARGE ORDER.—Messrs. C. D. & W. B. Bigelow, the contracters for the boot and shoe works at the Rhode Island State Prison, have received a proposition from the French government for two hundred thousand pairs of brogans for the use of the army. It would take them about two years to fill the order.

YOUNG MEN.—In his recent charge to the grand jury in Washington, Judge Crawford addressed himself to a subject, paramount in importance, and made the following just remarks:—

If the young men who are to be the future men of the country, were brought up with a more decided home rule, and compelled, (when compulsion was necessary,) to devote themselves to the acquisition of skill in some useful and respectable vocation, there would be less occupation for courts and juries. The engagements and habits of the boy will cling to the man, and upon his training and education under the domestic roof will depend his standing and character, and his usefulness or the reverse in life.

A foolish story has been going through the papers, about a romantic and enthusiastic young lady who had been persuaded into a nunnery in Montreal, and detained there against her wishes, till she was found by her anxious father, who gained access to the convent, partly by accident and partly by stratagem, and then, after a most affecting interview, rescued her and bore her off in triumph. The facts out of which this sensation story was manufactured are, that a silly girl wished to go into the convent; that the Lady Superior did not want her, and only half yielded to her persuasions, and was very glad to be rid of her, when her father, who knew all the time where she was, came to take her away.

☞ A man named Joseph Luff, living near Sacket's Harbor, was gored to death by an infuriated bull, on the 25th ult. He had gone into the lot for the purpose of salting the animal, when from some cause he rushed upon the man, goring him so as to cause death almost instantly. Mr. Luff was about 70 years of age, and was an estimable and worthy citizen. The bull was afterwards shot.

A French writer has said that to dream gloriously, you must act gloriously while you are awake; and to bring angels down to converse with you in your sleep, you must labor in the cause of virtue during the day.

THE PULPIT AND THE MASSES.—The New York Christian Intelligencer asks if the pulpit of this day reaches the masses of people, and fears it does not; and says it it does not, the masses will reach and overturn the pulpit.

"You may be sure," mumbled an old woman to a young one, "that when a man is perpetually saying to his wife, 'You will wear my life out,' it is all stuff, my dear, and stuff, too, that lasts a precious time longer than we can buy for a petticoat or a gown."

☞ It is calculated that upwards of $800,000 worth of cotton has been lost by fires at sea within the past year, mostly occasioned by the use of oil in the cotton presses at New Orleans or on shipboard.

☞ Porter's Spirit says the fastest time ever made by a foot-runner for one mile, was Hospool's mile in England, in 4 min. 23 sec. The next best was Barlow's, in this country, in 4:36.

MACHINES FROM $50 TO $125.

HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

TESTIMONIALS.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

Several months have now elapsed since one of these machines was first introduced for our family use. For several weeks those who attempted to operate it having had no instruction, it was regarded as of little value, although some work could be done. But no sooner had one of experience taken hold of it, giving the proper tension to the cotton, proper oiling, &c. to the machinery, than it worked admirably—and now for months it goes on like clock work, doing handsomely all the work submitted to it, and accomplishing as much work in an hour as could be done by hand in a long summer's day. These machines are decidedly popular. We have never heard of one being sold to procure another from a different maker,—while we have known others to be laid aside to give place to Grover & Baker's. Any one can operate them after an hour's instruction from an experienced hand.

If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whittemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.

CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

We have seen one of Grover & Baker's $100 Sewing Machines used to do the Sewing of two families, for the past year or more, to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned—without once getting out of order, or requiring the least repair.—We would as soon try to dispense with a Cooking Stove in a family, as to attempt to get along without a Sewing Machine. Money invested in a good Machine pays much more than legal dividend, in actual cash savings—to say nothing of the higher consideration, of comfort and convenience, nay, even luxury, it affords to the ladies of a household. Whatever may be the experience with other Machines, we never knew a Grover & Baker to be discarded or found wanting.

FRANK W. MILLER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

R. R. R.

Wm. B. Oliver, Esq., P. M., of Drayton, Dodge county, Ga., cured a girl, who had been for a number of years afflicted with scrofula. She was covered from head to foot with sores; there was not sound flesh enough on her whole body to lay a twenty-five cent piece on.

SHE FELT HER CONDITION IMPROVE ON THE SECOND DAY.

The fourth day she was much better. On the 26th of April, 1853, she commenced the Resolvent; on the 27th of May, twenty-one days after she commenced its use,

SHE WAS SOUND.

Not a sore or blemish was upon her skin—nor was there any disease lingering in her system.

Mr. Oliver has cured many people in Drayton of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Fever and Ague, Swellings, Stiffness and Pains of various kinds, with Radway's Ready Relief; and many of the friends have been cured of Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Indigestion, &c., by Radway's Regulators.

R. R. Remedies are sold by Druggists generally.

Jaundice.

This yellow coloration of the skin is characteristic of an increased secretion of bile, or of a passage into the blood, in consequence of some obstruction in the circulation of the liver. Being itself but a symptom, the cause must be attacked in the central diseased organ; and ample experience proves that the PERUVIAN SYRUP acts in a wonderful manner in stimulating the liver to the proper performance of its duty.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

☞ Mrs. Winslow. an experienced nurse and female physician, has a Soothing Syrup for children teething, which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay all pain, and is sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants. Perfectly safe in all cases. See advertisement in another column.

Common Sense rules the mass of the people, whatever the misnamed and misanthrope philosophers may say to the contrary. Show them a good thing: let its merits be clearly demonstrated, and they will not hesitate to give it their most cordial patronage. The masses have already ratified the judgment of a physician, concerning the virtues of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, as may be seen in the immense quantities of this medicine that are annually sold in every section of the land. It is now recognized as greatly superior to all other remedies yet devised for diseases of the digestive organs, such as fever and ague, dysentery, dyspepsia, and for the various fevers that arise from derangement of those portions of the system. Hostetter's name is rapidly becoming a household word, from Maine to Texas; from the shores of the Atlantic to the Pacific. Try the article and be satisfied.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Dyspepsia.

Considering the various forms in which this disease developes itself, it may well be called hydra-headed. In its train follow Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, Heartburn, Water Brash, Costiveness, Piles, Acidity, Oppression after Eating, Jaundice, Flatulency, Torpor of the Liver, Dizziness, Debility, Female Complaints, &c. Some of the first men in our land have given their written testimonials relative to the cures effected in their own persons by the OXYGENATED BITTERS; while testimonials from other sources, editorial opinions and voluntary expressions from persons averse to see their names in print, are perhaps overwhelming.

EAST TAUNTON, Mass., Feb. 9, '58.

To the Editor of the Portland Mirror,—Sir:—

OXYGENATED BITTERS—For more than twenty five years I have been a sufferer from dyspepsia. Besides trying the patience of my family physicians in the almost useless trial of their various prescriptions, I have tried a great variety of patent medicines with a similar result. Through the kindness of my physician, I received last March, half a dozen bottles of the OXYGENATED BITTERS. I began to use them without any hope of deriving help from them. Being determined to give them a fair trial, I continued their use, but without any perceptible benefit till June.

Since then I have gradually improved in health till I am entirely free from acidity of the stomach, and from the consequent flatulence, and the awful and almost distracting sick headache, which often, for days together, has wholly unfitted me for study and for all other ministerial duties, and rendered life a burden.

I feel that I owe it, as an expression of gratitude to Messrs. Fowle & Co., and also a duty to the public, to recommend their Oxygenated Bitters, as, in my estimation, a sure remedy for that most trying, most vexing, and cruel of all diseases, to which poor human flesh is heir, the dyspepsia. Having suffered so long, and tried so many different remedies with no good result, I can recommend the Oxygenated Bitters with a confidence few others can. If any of the readers of the Mirror are suffering, I beg of them to make trial of these Bitters without delay.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

This Gin, distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and is one of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant of any other thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st.; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Packer, 20 Elm st.; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. LOCAL.

☞ The fire in the store of Gale & Dow, on Tuesday night, was doubtless the work of an incendiary. A hole was bored or cut through the outside boarding, and a fire kindled between the studs, which burned up fiercely to the roof, filling the store with smoke and flame, and threatening the whole with speedy destruction. A woman living near saw a man go up twice, close to the store; and the second time he only stopped a moment and retreated over a fence not long before the fire was discovered. By keeping the store closed till the firemen came, and by a liberal dose of water from the engines afterwards, the fire was soon quelled—but the building was much injured, and the groceries greatly damaged by smoke and water. Building insured for $400 in the Hartford office; goods for $600 in the Home.

☞ "Retrenchment" wants to know if we are to have two new schoolhouses in Cabot street. The Common Council have voted to build a one-story edifice, and the Aldermen have voted to build a two-story building. He also thinks some folks won't like the resolution passed by the Common Council, to build the schoolhouse (their one-story building, of course they mean) by contract—seeing it must needs "contract" the bills to be made in the job.

☞ A regular meeting of the Board of Engineers was held on Thursday evening last—Chief Engineer J. G. Hadley in the chair.

Certificates were granted to sundry persons as members of Engine Cos. Nos. 1, 2 and 6.

Complaint was made of a building in the rear of Market street, on a wharf; also of a building on Water street, and one on Long wharf, and one at the head of Long wharf, as being unsafe; whereupon the chief engineer and assistant engineers C. E. Main and J. E. Rider, were appointed a committee to examine the premises, with power to act. Sundry bills were approved.

☞ Capt. Clark, at his fruit and confectionary establishment, No. 67 State street, has his usual good assortment of native and foreign fruits, cake, confectionary, beer, mead, lemonade, &c. The Capt. keeps a thorough-going temperance (i. e. total abstinence) saloon, and thinks he is entitled to some particular consideration for this, from those who profess to regard temperance as preferable to drunkenness—and we think so too.

☞ Where are the berries? There have been but very few blackberries in this market as yet this season; currants are scarce at $2 a bushel and 10 cts. the quart; and blueberries are in demand at 10 and 12 cts. per quart.

☞ The Sunday School of the Universalist Church in this city, with parents and other friends, had a very fine day and a very pleasant excursion to the picnic and camp ground at South-New Market on Wednesday.

☞ We have got new carriers on our North and South lists this week. Any omissions or mistakes reported to us or them, will be made up or corrected.

☞ The latest news from Europe is by the Persia, from Liverpool July 23.

The Peace Conference would meet at Zurich in about a week. It was believed that Sardinia would not be represented.

The terms of the peace would be arranged by the representatives of Austria and France, and then the Sardinia representative would add or withold his approval. Between Austria and Sardinia, it is now said, no pacific agreement exists—they are yet nominally belligerents.

The ferment in Italy continues. The provisional government of Tuscany has published a decree for choosing representatives who shall decide the future government of the country. No less than 85 municipalities have resolved upon an armed resistance to the return of the old dynasty. It is said that Louis Napoleon does not desire such return. Nothing is known of Garibaldi's movements.

New rumors transpire as to the terms of the peace, such as; the people of the duchies will have a voice in their government; neither Austria nor France is hereafter to interfere in Italian affairs; and no provision requires the restoration of the late sovereigns of Tuscany, Parma and Modena.

Some discussion had taken place in Parliament as to the participation of Great Britain in the European Congress to ratify the settlement of the Italian question. Disraeli was opposed to it, and Lords John Russell and Palmerston in favor of it.

☞ A railway train, filled with passengers, broke through a bridge near Schagticoke, N. Y., on Tuesday evening. Nine dead bodies were taken out of the Creek that night. Several persons were wounded, among them Chas. Perry of Claremont, N.H.

GOING BACK TO FIRST PRINCIPLES.—An interesting Sunday school concert was recently held in Dr. Dimmick's church, Newburyport. Twenty-two of the scholars received a New Testament, and a set of Scripture maps, for committing by heart the whole of the Westminster Assembly's Shorter Catechism.

THE RESCUE OF DR. DOY.—The St. Louis Democrat has received the following account of the rescue of Dr. Doy from the St. Joseph jail by eight masked men:

On Sunday morning last, between 1 and 2 o'clock, during a hard rain storm, a party of eight men, all disguised, presented themselves at the jail building of St. Joseph, and after rousing the jailor by loud knocks and cries, demanded admission, saying they were from Missouri and had caught a horse thief, whom they desired to put in jail. The jailor, seeing the horse thief in their midst, all covered with mud and secured with ropes, suspected nothing, and at once proceeded to unlock his doors and let the party in.

As soon as they all were admitted, they at once exposed the sham they had practiced, and told the jailor that their real design was the liberation of Dr. John Doy, who had been convicted of negro stealing, and was confined in jail. The jailor remonstrated and threatened by turns, but the party drew their revolvers and demanded the keys of the prison. At length the jailor, seeing the hopelessness of his situation, agreed to give up the keys provided no other prisoners were liberated but Doy. This was promised, and Doy was immediately taken out of his cell, placed on a horse, and escorted to the river bank by a portion of the rescuers, while several remained with the jailor, to prevent him giving the alarm till the fugitives were well across the river. They then made a precipitate retreat, took skiffs and made their way without interruption into Kansas.

The alarm was soon raised by the jailor, and some few persons started in pursuit of the fugitives, but could not trace them at all. By daylight the whole city of St. Joseph was greatly excited about the matter. Mr. Lacey left St. Joseph on Sunday night, about 7 o'clock, and heard, just before his departure, that great fears were entertained that the excited populace would mob the office of the Free Democrat. The lawyer who defended Doy had also been charged with being instrumental in effecting his escape, and was threatened with the vengeance of the people.

THE PLYMOUTH SLAVE CASE.—The New Orleans Delta of the 21st inst., says of the slave woman who was recently taken to Boston and set free:

Dr. Holmes of this city—the presence of whose negro woman has kindled such an excitement among the abolitionists of Boston—desires us to say, that if her professing and sympathizing friends in that philantrophic city will give security that she will be as well treated there as here, she may have full liberty to continue with them. It is only to save her from the miserable lot that befalls all of the African race who are left to struggle for an existence against the fierce rivalry and hard selfishness of that society, that he desires to reclaim her."

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—The President arrived here this evening from Bedford Springs, and appears to be in excellent health and spirits.

An American belonging in Arizona, is in jail at Magdalena, for no offence, and fears are entertained that he will be murdered. It is utterly impossible for an American to travel now in Sonora, without being massacred or robbed of everything.

Lieut. Mowry will have no opposition for opposition for delegate to Congress from Arizona.

It is the intention of the government to establish posts on the frontier of the Apache country.

The "States" mentions the reception of important private despatches from Northern Mexico, stating that it is expected within the next ninety days that 3000 troops will organized on the Rio Grande, properly armed and equipped, for the purpose of marching upon the city of Mexico, and exterminating the whole Miramon faction.

TURN ABOUT.—A writer asks with much pertinency:—

"Now can't somebody build a passenger boat right end foremost? With the ladies cabin forward, and the engine, kitchen and smoking-room aft—the latter on the upper deck, quite over the rudder, so that all that nuisance might be carried off astern without offending anybody on board. Probably this matter of wrongendedness comes, in some degree, from building vessels to be driven by wind blowing from astern, and of course driving all such light matter as tobacco smoke or effluvia from the kitchen over the bows of the boat and out the way before the vessel could overtake it; but upon a vessel driven by an internal power rapidly right into the wind, or creating a breeze by its own motion, if none is blowing, the whole system should be changed—it is wrong end foremost. Who will right it?"

AT CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

The Instructors in this School are:

HON. JOEL PARKER, LL. D., Royale Professor.
HON. THEOPHILUS PARSONS, LL. D., Dane Prof.
HON. EMORY WASHBURN, LL. D., University Prof.

THE COURSE OF INSTRUCTION embraces the various branches of the Common Law; and of Equity, Admiralty, Commercial, International, and Constitutional Law; and the Jurisprudence of the United States. The Law Library consists of about 14,000 volumes, and as new works appear they are added, and every effort is made to render it complete.

Instruction is given by oral lectures and expositions, (and by recitations and examinations in connection with them,) of which there are ten every week. Two Moot Courts are also holden in each week, at each of which a cause previously given out is argued by four students and an opinion delivered by the Presiding Instructor. Rooms and other facilities are also provided for the Club Courts; and an Assembly is held weekly for practice in debate, and acquiring a knowledge of parliamentary law and proceedings.

Students may enter the School in any stage of their professional studies or mercantile pursuits, and at the commencement of either term, or in the middle, or other part of the term.

They are at liberty to elect what studies they will pursue, according to their views of their own wants and attainments.

The Academical year, which commences on Thursday, six weeks after the third Wednesday in July, is divided into two terms of twenty weeks each, with a vacation of six weeks at the end of each term.

The exercises of the next term will commence on MONDAY, September 5th, 1859.

Applications for admission, or for catalogues, or any further information, may be made to either of the Professors at Cambridge.

and as a Beverage it has no superior in the world. It is manufactured by the proprietor, at Schiedam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use, by a process peculiar to his own Factory. It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spiritous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, Bladder and Kidney Complaints, &c. &c.

TO THE PUBLIC.

I beg leave to call the attention of the American Public to the following Certificate from the Government Chemist for the Island of Cuba and the Spanish West Indies, and who is known to the Scientific men of London, Paris, Madrid, Cuba and America to be the first Chemist in the world.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHEMICAL TESTIMONY.

D. Jose Luis Casaseca, Corresponding Member of the Royal Academies of Madrid and Munich, a Graduate in Sciences of the Faculty of Paris, formerly Professor of Chemistry, as applied to the Arts, of the Royal Conservatorio of Madrid, and of Physic and Chemistry, as applied to the Industry and Agriculture of the country, in the Royal University of this Island, at present H. M.'s Director of the Institute of Chemical Investigation, &c., &c.

Do hereby certify, that at the request of the house of Gottig & Will, of this place, I have made an analytical examination of U. Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, with the object of ascertaining if it contained any substance noxious to health, and to inform them as to its true composition and relative quality with the other gins that are offered in the market, and the results of my observations and experiments are as follows:—

Udolpho Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps is a spirituous liquid, of a very agreeable aromatic odor, completely transparent and almost colorless, having only a very slight tint of yellowish gray; its flavor is strong and very agreeable to the palate. It marks 20 degrees in Cartier's alcohol weigher or 52 degrees 5 hundredth in Gay Lussac's alcohometre. By the distillation in a balaium maria, with an apparatus consisting of a glass retort and a recipient surrounded with ice, I have collected in this recipient an alcoholic liquid with a very agreeable aroma completely colorless and transparent, which marked 90 degrees in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, or 70 degrees 5 hundredth on Gay Lussac's alcohometre; and which represented as a whole 57 per cent. of aromatic Schiedam schnapps subject to distillation in the retort. This liquid did not soil the transparency of the distilled water in mixing it with the same, and its agreeable aroma is doubtless due to a very trifling amount of an essential oil inseparable from alcohol.

From the remainder of the distillation which was left in the retort, I have obtained, through evaporation in a vapor bath, a substance of a yellowish brown color, clear, and having a bitter taste, which is not disagreeable, and which afterwards becomes aromatic and leaves the mouth perfumed with that fragrance peculiar to the vanilla. I am inclined to believe that to this bitter and aromatic extractive substance, soluble in water and alcohol, the medicinal properties which are attributed to this gin are due. I have not found in Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps any mineral or organic substance other than the extractive one already named and the aromatic one obtained by distillation. Finally, Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps consists simply of an aromatic alcohol of 20 degrees of graduation in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, and of an extractive bitter aromatic substance, which perhaps, is medicinal; and, on account of its not containing any matter injurious to the health, as well as for its odor and good flavor—a fact which no doubt arises from the choice substances employed in its manufacture, and from the peculiar manner of its distillation, it should in my opinion, be preferred to all the Holland, Belgic and German gins which are found in this Island which it has been my business to examine. These gins as I have often proved it, exhale a disagreeable odor, and have a more or less disagreeable flavor, some of them having left as was the case with the superior gin from the distillery of Mr. Henry Deetjen (of Bremen,) as residum after evaporation by steam, a substance almost insipid and very trifingly aromatic, with flavor of vanilla, but in no wise with the delicious bitter and aromatic flavor of that of Udolpho Wolfe; and others, such as that labelled "Genuine Samaritan," "Extra Superior." Messrs. Traoner have furnished me with a very small quantity of a greenish substance, of harsh metalic taste and very disagreeable, which extractive organic matter was mixed with a salt of copper, with signs of iron, owing perhaps, to a bad system of distillation.

I certify that all that is here stated is the truth and agrees with the experiments I have made with the greatest care, and I authorize the house of Gottig & Will, of this city, to give publicity to this certificate, in Spanish and in foreign languages, in all countries where it may suit their interest to do so. JOSE LUIS CASASECA.

Seven Octave Piano --- New Scale.

The Subscriber having just received a superior SEVEN OCTAVE PIANO-FORTE, made according to his order by the celebrated firm of HALLET, DAVIS & CO., would offer it for the inspection of persons desirous of purchasing. H. D. & Co. have recently made great improvements in the manufacture of Pianos, the most important of which is the New Scale, which, while obviating the weakness which has hitherto been found in the upper part of Square Seven Octave Pianos, gives it a power of tone nearly equal to that of the Parlor Grand.

Having been for several years Agent for the sale of Pianos of the above make, Mr. P. is prepared to state that the instruments which they are now making, far excel any of their former manufacture.

Purchasers will find it greatly to their advantage to call and examine the above mentioned Piano, as it is the only one in Portsmouth which contains the NEW SCALE.

LENGTH OF LIFE INCREASING. — We are told in a work recently published by Fowler & Wells, New York, entitled "Hints towards Physical Perfection, or the Philosophy of Human Beauty," that the average length of human life is steadily increasing. The author says:—

Notwithstanding the lamentable premature mortality of the present day, statistics show that the length of life has been steadily increasing since the sixteenth century, when, according to Dr. Buchanan, its average was only eighteen years. It is now forty-three years.

In Geneva, Switzerland, of whose population, births and deaths, an accurate account has been kept for three centuries, the mean duration of life—

From 1500 to 1600	was	21 years	2 mos.
" 1600 to 1700	"	25 "	9 "
" 1700 to 1800	"	23 "	9 "
In 1830	"	40 "	5 "
In 1850	"	47 "	0 "

The mean duration of life among the ancient Romans, not including the servile classes, according to Ulpianus (as quoted by Dr. Southwood Smith,) was only thirteen years. Among the same class in Great Britain at the present time it is fifty years. For the whole population of Great Britain the average is forty-five; for France, forty-two; and for the United States, about forty-three.

KIND WORDS.—How little we think of a kind word or smile, given to the stranger at our door! It surely costs nothing—why not bestow it in kindness on the weary one within our gates? How heavily the sensitive heart feels the chilling repulse and forbidding frown, and in sadness turns away! Then speak kindly. No matter how poorly clad may be the beggar, beneath the tattered garments may beat a heart truly and fondly as your own—a heart chilled by disappointment and neglect, wearied by cares and trials, scorning the world, it may be, because of the contumely cast upon itself, and yet, inwardly, wearing the livery of God. Give the kind word. Many tears have been wiped away, and many a heart made glad, by a kind glance. Years may pass away, but the truly grateful soul will ne'er forget, and the helping hand, reached forth in the hour of need, will yet claim its reward. There is much in life truly beautiful and lovely, if we only see—why not show the beauty within us, by kind smiles? The weary spirit loses half its burden of sorrow and woe when met with love and a kind word.

HOPE.

☞ A letter from Mount Lebanon, published in the London news of the 12th inst. says:—"Education in these mountains is making considerable progress, owing to the energy and activity of the American missionaries. They have schools in nearly every district in Lebanon, and have done more for the cause among these mountaineers, during the twenty years they have been in the country, than all other sects—Catholic, Greek, Maronite, or Greek Catholic—with all their wealthy convents and possessing as they do fully one-third of the land on Lebanon, have done in the last three centuries."

The ladies—Heaven bless them—ladies in expansive crinoline and ample hoops, complain that on some of the streets, and particularly the cross streets, the side walks are invaded by an overgrowth of burdocks, so that they often find great inconvenience in locomotion, and acquire more buttons and catch-ups on the lower part of their dresses than are agreeable. We hope the mayor, who is decidedly a gallant man, will give directions to have the intrusive weeds mowed down. The dear creatures are willing with the bottoms of their costly silks to sweep the walks, to clean off the cigar stumps, the dust, the tobacco spit and other clean filth, but they have a decided aversion to such dirty nuisances as burdocks against the sides of their dresses.—Bath Times.

SAVING TIME.—A clergyman who enjoys the benefits of a fine farm in Massachusetts, was slightly taken down a few days ago, by his Irish plowman, who was setting at his plow, in a tobacco field, resting his horse. The Reverend gentleman being an economist, said with great seriousness—"John, wouldn't it be a good plan for you to have a stub scythe here and be hubbing a few bushes along the fence while the horse is resting?" John, with quite as serious a countenance as the divine wore himself, replied; "wouldn't it be well, sir, for you to have a tub o' potatoes in the pulpit, and when they are singing, to peel 'em awhile to be ready for the pot?" The reverend gentleman laughed heartily and left.

The Douglas denomination have triumphed in California, nominating their man, Mr. Latham, for Governor. Gov. Weller didn't even do well. Mr. Nugent, editor of the San Francisco Herald, was nowhere in the race, receiving but 20 votes; but as most of him has been shot away in duels, this may be considered a handsome support of what little there was left of him. He was the administration's favorite. He has been to Fraser river, and is now on his way to the Salt, which he now finds useful as a preservative of his remains.—True.

☞ Trimble County, Ky., it is supposed, furnishes more blackberries than any place of its size in the world. The picking and forwarding to Cincinnati market have been reduced to a system, and it found that the receipts of a season, which lasts about six weeks, are not less than $25,000. Pickers average from $1.20 to $2.50 per day.

DR. SWETT'S
CORDIAL OF DANDELION,
SPIKENARD & BONESET,

A remedy unsurpassed for Liver Complaints, such as Costiveness, Dizziness and Pain in the Head, Stomach and Side, Universal Debility, and the whole family of Consumptive Complaints!

Hundreds of testimonials might be added, proving the many cures by this pleasant and effectual medicine, especially of people advanced in life, whose debilitated constitutions have been greatly recruited by it. A trial of it is warranted to well pay the aged and dyspeptic. Price 75 cents.

(From Mrs. Daniel H. Williams.)

DR. SWETT—Dear Sir—I promised you recollect that when I saw you, about a year since, I was very low, and had been for a long time, with dyspeptic complaints, being very weak, with no appetite, and pain in my head, shoulders and side; but now my health is comparatively good, and I consider this great deliverance attributable, under God, to the wonderful virtues of your "Compound Cordial of Dandelion," which you left for me. I consider this the best medicine I ever found for the complaints for which you recommend it on the labels.

MARY E. WILLIAMS.

Concord, N. H., May 28, 1858.

EXETER, Sept. 8, 1859.

Last spring and Summer I was troubled with the Liver Complaint, which caused my food to distress me badly; and I do not know what cured me, but one thing I do know, and that is, I took one bottle of Dr. S. Swett's Cordial of Dandelion, and the disease left me, and has not returned.

MRS. WINSLOW,

An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers, her

SOOTHING SYRUP,

For Children Teething.

Which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for over 9 years, and can say of it, what we have of any other medicine, FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, nor did we know an attention by any one who tried it, to be delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of highest encomium of its marvellous virtues. We speak, in this matter, without fear, from long and ample experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, a few minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the MOST SKILLFUL NURSES in this country, and has been used with THOUSANDS OF CASES. It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives rest to the system. It will almost instantly relieve GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC, and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the BEST AND SURE REMEDY IN THE WORLD, in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would recommend every sufferer to try this soothing preparation, in the proper confidence that it will do all that is claimed for it, and that the relief that will be SURE — yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE — to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile signature of CURTIS & PERKINS, on the outside wrapper, is found on the wrapper. Manufactured only at 13 Cedar st. New York. Price only 25 cents per bottle.

Sold by all Druggists throughout the world.

THE ONLY ARTICLE

UNRIVALLED IN THE MARKET,

WITH IMMENSE

HOME AND EUROPEAN DEMAND.

The reason why, is that by Nature's own process it restores the natural hair wherever the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, itching, and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headaches, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy and beautiful, and if used by the young twice or three times a week will never fall or become gray; then, reader, read the following and judge for yourselves:

NEW YORK, Jan. 8, 1858.

MESSRS. O. J. WOOD & CO.,

Gentlemen: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudices which I, in common with a great many persons, had against all manner of patent medicines, and a few days ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was but who having my prejudice without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they see further proof, and the best proof being ocular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to call for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing establishment every day.

My hair is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking. I am, yours respectfully, HENRY JENKINS.

Cor. Columbia and Carroll Sts., Brooklyn.

LIVINGSTON, Ala., Feb. 14, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country. My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, &c. S. W. MIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The hair is now also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—was in fact BALD. I have used but 2 half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours, respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D.,
No. 464 Vine Street.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

CONSUMPTION IS CURABLE!

BY THE USE OF

Churchill's Compound of the

HYPOPHOSPHITES

OF LIME, SODA AND POTASH,

Originally discovered and prescribed by him as a Specific Remedy for

CONSUMPTION!

The use of the Hypophosphites in CONSUMPTION, Loss of Vitality, Nervous Debility, Asthma, Bronchitis, Dyspepsia, Female Complaints, and all other diseases depending upon a DEFICIENT VITALITY IN THE ELEMENTS OF THE BLOOD, have proved their INVARIABLE EFFICACY in thousands of cases in Europe and America and established the claim of the discoverer, that they are a SURE PREVENTATIVE and CURE.

SPECIFIC REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION.

Dr. Churchill says: "In no single instance have I found the remedy fail to produce everything that could be reasonably expected from it. In most instances the benefit derived from it has FAR EXCEEDED what could at first have been hoped for, when taking into account the degree and extent of the injury sustained by the lungs previously to the use of the remedy." * * * * In the last twenty-two cases in the third or last stage, treated at my Dispensary during the past year, EIGHT HAVE COMPLETELY RECOVERED, eight have died, and two are still under treatment. SUCH A RESULT IS ALTOGETHER UNPARALLELED IN THE ANNALS OF THE DISEASE."

BE SURE TO PURCHASE WINCHESTER'S GENUINE PREPARATION,

which is certified by Dr. James R. Chilton to be "PERFECTLY SAFE and chemically pure. My fac simile signature is upon every bottle."

☞ Price $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5, with full directions for use. Write for Circular, which will give the RELIABLE INFORMATION, and save from all possibility of deception. Sold wholesale, at the lowest discount for cash, at the Sole General Depot in the United States, by J. WINCHESTER, Druggist and Foreign Agency, 49 John street, New York.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may make application, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secresy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE REGULATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue for regulating female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who order in the pills, the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where they can be obtained.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

CORDIAL OF DANDELION,
SPIKENARD & BONESET,

A remedy unsurpassed for Liver Complaints, such as Costiveness, Dizziness and Pain in the Head, Stomach and Side, Universal Debility, and the whole family of Consumptive Complaints.

Hundreds of testimonials might be added, proving the many cures by this pleasant and effectual medicine, especially of people advanced in life, whose debilitated constitutions have been greatly recruited by it. A trial of it is warranted to well pay the aged and dyspeptic. Price 75 cents.

[From Mrs. Daniel H. Williams.]
DR. SWETT.—Dear Sir:—I presume you recollect that when I saw you, about a year since, I was very low, and had been for a long time, with dyspeptic complaints, being very weak, with no appetite, and pain in my head, stomach and side; but now my health is comparatively good, and I consider this great deliverance attributable, mainly, to the two bottles of your "Compound Cordial of Dandelion," which you left for me. I consider this the best medicine I ever found for the complaints for which you recommend it on the labels.

ENFIELD, Sept. 8, 1859.
Last spring and Summer I was troubled with the Liver Complaint, which caused me food to distress me badly; and I do not know what cured me, but one thing I do know, and that is, I took one bottle of Dr. S. Swett's Cordial of Dandelion, and the disease left me, and has not returned.

Seven Octave Piano --- New Scale.

The Subscriber having just received a superior SEVEN OCTAVE PIANO-FORTE, made according to his order by the celebrated firm of HALLET, DAVIS & CO., would offer it for the inspection of persons desirous of purchasing. H. D. & Co. have recently made great improvements in the manufacture of Pianos, the most important of which is the New Scale, which, while obviating the weakness which has hitherto been found in the upper part of Square Seven Octave Pianos, gives it a power of tone nearly equal to that of the Parlor Grand.

Having been for several years Agent for the sale of Pianos of the above make, Mr. P. is prepared to state that the instruments which they are now making, far excel any of their former manufacture.

Purchasers will find it greatly to their advantage to call and examine the above mentioned Piano, as it is the only one in Portsmouth which contains the NEW SCALE.

Oleine Diamond Oil.
GREATEST ILLUMINATOR OF THE AGE.

This Oil is entirely free from treachery, so that a lamp may be left burning any length of time desired, without filling a room with lamp-black or soot.

It burns in the common oil lamp, with or without a chimney.

The light is far more pleasant than gas, as it is free from the disagreeable flickerings always attending a gas light, and is cheaper. We claim for this Oil:

1. That it is cheaper than any other artificial light.
2. That it has no odor.
3. That it will not smoke
4. That it will burn with or without a chimney, hence it is portable.
5. That it will stand a lower degree of temperature than any other Oil.
6. That it is free from each of the objections that are brought against every other article heretofore or now being offered to the public for illuminating purposes.

Price $1.25 per gallon.

THE ONLY ARTICLE

UNRIVALLED IN THE MARKET,

WITH IMMENSE

HOME AND EUROPEAN DEMAND.

The reason why, is that by Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, itching, and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headache, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling off, makes it soft, glossy, healthy and beautiful, and if used by the young two or three times a week' it will never fall or become gray; then, reader, read the following and judge for yourselves:

NEW YORK, Jan. 8, 1858.

MESSRS. O. J. WOOD & CO.,

Gentlemen: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudices which I, in common with a great many persons, had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was but who having my prejudices, leave out my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof, and the best proof being ocular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing establishment every day.

My hair is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking. I am, yours respectfully, HENRY JENKINS.

Cor. Columbia and Carroll Sts., Brooklyn.

LIVINGSTON, Ala., Feb. 14, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country. My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, and I suppose, from a slight burn, when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, &c. S. W. MIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering, was in fact BALD. I have used but 2 half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours, respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D.,
No. 404 Vine Street.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $5 a bottle.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secresy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivaled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

This celebrated preparation has obtained an extensive and world-wide reputation for its GREAT CURATIVE PROPERTIES, and has been in use for years, of relieving so many sufferers, restoring them to health and usefulness, that the proprietors feel it a duty they owe to the public for their generous patronage bestowed upon the Salve, to make it accessible to rich and poor, that all afflicted may avail themselves of its healing qualities.

☞ "My Mother's Salve" is a Perfect Chemical Compound, prepared from Roots, Herbs and Gums, gathered from the forest, and possessing Healing, Soothing and Pain-Relieving Virtues never before combined in a Salve or Ointment.

☞ "My Mother's Salve" is a BURN or SCALD takes out the fire, soothes the irritating pain, and heals the wound more speedily and effectually than any other preparation.

☞ "My Mother's Salve" is worthy of confidence, and thousands having used it and recommended it to their friends is a test of its worth.

DR. SWETT'S
CORDIAL OF DANDELION,
SPIKENARD & BONESET,
A remedy unsurpassed for Liver Complaints, such as Costiveness, Dizziness and Pain in the Head, Stomach and Side, Universal Debility, and the whole family of Consumptive Complaints.
Hundreds of testimonials might be added, proving the many cures by this pleasant and effectual medicine, especially of people advanced in life, whose debilitated constitutions have been greatly recruited by it. A trial of it is warranted to well pay the aged and dyspeptic. Price 75 cents.
[From Mrs. Daniel H. Williams.]
DR. SWETT—Dear Sir:—I presume you recollect that when I saw you, about a year since, I was very low, and had been for a long time, with dyspeptic complaints, being very weak, with no appetite, and pain in my head, stomach and side; but now my health is comparatively good, and I consider this great deliverance attributable, mainly, to the two bottles of your "Compound Cordial of Dandelion," which you left for me. I consider this the best medicine I ever found for the complaints for which you recommend it on the labels.
MARY E. WILLIAMS.
Concord, N. H., May 28, 1858.
ENFIELD, Sept. 8, 1859.
Last spring and Summer I was troubled with the Liver Complaint, which caused my food to distress me badly; and I do not know what cured me, but one thing I do know, and that is, I took two bottle of Dr. S. Swett's Cordial of Dandelion, and the disease left me, and has not returned.
A. K. CURRIER.
This unequalled medicine, together with others carefully prepared by Dr. SIMEON SWETT, from innocent but effectual vegetables, are for sale by him at No. 12 CABOT ST., Portsmouth, N. H.

Seven Octave Piano --- New Scale.
The Subscriber having just received a superior SEVEN OCTAVE PIANO-FORTE, made according to his order by the celebrated firm of HALLET, DAVIS & CO., would offer it for the inspection of persons desirous of purchasing. H. P. & Co. have recently made great improvements in the manufacture of Pianos, the most important of which is the New Scale, which, while obviating the weakness which has hitherto been found in the upper part of Square Seven Octave Pianos, gives it a power of tone nearly equal to that of the Parlor Grand.
Having been for several years Agent for the sale of Pianos of the above make, Mr. P. is prepared to state that the instruments which they are now making, far excel any of their former manufacture.
Purchasers will find it greatly to their advantage to call and examine the above mentioned Piano, as it is the only one in Portsmouth which contains the NEW SCALE

SATURDAY, AUGUST 6, 1859.

EXPLANATIONS.—Under the head of "New Music from an Old Organ," the Manchester Union Democrat says of the N. H. Gazette, under its new management:

It is edited with ability, and gives a cordial and hearty support to the national administration. In this particular, its tone is radically changed, and we are glad of it. In some other respects, we are not so well pleased.

The Union Democrat then copies a paragraph from the Gazette, about territorial rights of the South, and says:—

Our friend will allow us to say that he speaks for more than he is entitled to, in this paragraph. The campaign of 1856 was fought upon the doctrine of popular sovereignty. The Cincinnati platform was understood to declare that the people of the Territories could establish or exclude slavery at any time. The interpretation now placed upon it—and we confess it is sustained by the text—gives them no power to do either until they come to be admitted to the Union. That is, when they frame their constitution for a state government, they may declare what their institutions shall be, when admitted, but as a Territory, they can do nothing about it. Well, then, to talk of popular sovereignty in connection with a Territory, is a swindle. We thought the Nebraska bill conferred upon them the prerogatives of self-government; but if this interpretation is correct, it simply says—when you become a state, you may have slavery or not, as you please—a privilege they could very well exercise without special permission.

We care very little for platforms. We care nothing about the negro question; for everything that may be said or done in regard to it, is all gammon, so far as the thing itself is concerned. We are chiefly solicitous to get a platform out of it which shall be substantially right, and at the same time give us a chance to win. We shall probably support the nominee of the Charleston Convention, without the slightest reference to the pedestal he may be perched upon. If it is declared that the people of an organized territory cannot exclude slavery at any time they please, while we support the candidate, we shall 'spit upon his platform.'

Yet the same Union Democrat says, in the next column:—

This paper was for Lecompton long before the President's views were known.

This is droll: he will spit on the new platform if the people cannot exclude slavery, and yet swallowed Lecompton, which would force it down the people's throats.

The reader will please to look carefully at the words we have printed in italics, and see how plainly the Union Democrat exposes the various swindles about popular sovereignty—and then how coolly it considers all platforms, and facts too, as mere tools to promote the success of a party, as in the following extract:

As the fact of slavery is so entirely independent of party platforms, Congressional legislation, judicial decisions, and all that, the best use we can make of it is that which will best promote the unity and success of the Democratic party.

In another part of the same Union Democrat, we are told,

As the time for that Convention [at Charleston] approaches, the impression becomes stronger that it will simply re-affirm the doctrines of the Cincinnati platform. If the South asks anything more, it will ask in vain.

From this last extract the reader will look back to that wherein the Union Democrat speaks of the campaign of '56, fought on the Cincinnati platform—which the editor then thought meant something about popular sovereignty, but which he calls a swindle as now interpreted! And then let the reader come back again to the last item where the Union Democrat supposes these doctrines [which the sovereignty? or the swindle?] will be simply reaffirmed.

Or does it mean that the sovereignty will be affirmed, and the swindle practiced? or what?

THE OGDENSBURG RAILROAD.—If the reports are correct in regard to this accident, the managers of the road ought to be indicted for manslaughter. They would be if the calamity had occurred in England; and they would be convicted and punished to the extent of the law. The New York Herald says—"The bridge that broke down had been pronounced insecure many months previous. It was of light timbers, tressilated, but too weak to sustain a train of cars. The engineers have been compelled to exercise extreme caution in passing over it for a long time; and although being condemned by architects and others experienced in railroading, the Directors and the managing Superintendent have permitted people to be conveyed over it until it has become demolished, and caused the loss of many valuable human lives."

RAIN AND HAIL.—The Springfield Republican states that there was a very severe rain and hail storm between Northampton and Hatfield, Wednesday afternoon.—The rain fell in torrents and hail stones as large as hens' eggs are reported as falling at Northampton. The flood washed sand upon the track to the depth of several inches, through a cut about two miles north of Northampton, and this caused the locomotive, tender and baggage and first passenger car to run off the track.

☞ A mass meeting of the friends of temperance in Worcester county, Mass., was held at Sterling Junction Wednesday, under the auspices of the various divisions of the Sons of Temperance. In the afternoon the company organized. J. C. Lane of Leominster presided, and addresses were made by Dr. J. S. Andrews, David Prescott, Rev. H. J. Boardman, Rev. Samuel Kelly, Rev. J. W. Cross, Rev. Edwin Thompson, Wm. Macomey, Rev. George Trask, and others. A series of resolutions, offered by Judson S. Brown of Fitchburg, requesting our senators and representatives to oppose any change in the liquor law, expressing entire confidence in the law as it now stands, and pledging themselves to see that it was enforced as far as possible in their respective towns were adopted unanimously.

☞ A correspondent writing from Niagara Falls says that where the Suspension Bridge crigically sagged only two or three inches under the weight of a train, it now sags nearly twenty inches. The general impression in the neighborhood is that this great work of art will one of these days give way and fall into the river. Visitors now walk over the bridge, instead of crossing in the trains as formerly.

☞ The Providence Journal says that an organ of the Democratic party should be published daily, with three editions, and every faithful Democrat should destroy the paper as soon as he reads it, lest what he sees to-day may interfere with what is expounded to him to-morrow.

☞ Notwithstanding all that has been said about improvements in rifle cannon and war projectiles generally, the contest between France and Austria has, according to the most authentic accounts, been decided by the bayonet—the improved sword bayonet. All the letters of those who have gone over the battle fields describe the damage from cannot shot as very small.

☞ Yale College has changed the hour of prayer in the morning, from before to after breakfast, and a certain professor gives as a reason that the corporation had concluded that man was not a free moral agent before breakfast. There is certainly a sensible recognition of human nature in the change.

☞ A good test of the real prosperity of a place, is the condition and occupancy of the houses. It is a rare thing for a good tenement to be vacant in Portsmouth; and rents are always up to at least a fair mark, for middling quality houses. We notice quite a large number of new tenements, about town, which have been constructed or re-constructed this season, in spite of the tiresome cry of "hard times."

☞ The South American Tract Society, of New York, have established a New England Branch of their business in Boston—of which Rev. Geo. Punchard is agent, and Rev. Nehemiah Adams, D. D., one of the managers.

The North American Tract Society, of Boston, had previously set up a branch in New York.

THE AUSTRIAN PRESS.—The language of the Vienna journals on the late war and the treaty of peace is dignified, without either boasting or despondency. They frankly accept the new situation made for Austria, and express, with a certain degree of energy, a hope that the hard lessons of experience will make her abandon the old principles of government.

☞ At a late communion season, in Thornton, N. H., members of Congregational, Methodist, Baptist and Freewill Baptist Churches sat down together—and the services were performed by Rev. William Clark, Congregational Missionary, and by Rev. Oliver Barron, Baptist,—both formerly pastors in Wells, Me.

PATENTS.—The following Patents were issued from the United States Patent Office during the week ending Aug. 2, 1859, each bearing that date.

Jonas Bradley Aiken of Manchester, N. H., for improvement in knitting machines.

Charles F. Greeley of East Kingston, N. H., for improved cloth holder for washing crockery, &c.

☞ A young man by the name of W. D. Hoyt, of Newburyport, on Monday hired a horse and buggy of Mr. Lucy to go to Ipswich; proceeded directly to Beverly put, up his team and took cars for Lynn: there hired another team and drove into Boston, where he sold the horse and carriage. The purchaser feeling a little uneasiness after his purchase, notified the police, who took the party into custody.

SCRIPTURAL.—Lot M. Morrill is the republican candidate for Governor in Maine, and Mannasseh H. Smith is the democratic candidate; while Noah Smith is Secretary of State.

☞ The Manchester American of the 28th July, publishes a notice offering $200 reward, $100 for sufficient proof to exonerate Rev. B. M. Tillotson from writing anonymous letters to Hon. Daniel Clark and three other gentlemen, and $100 for sufficient evidence to acquit Mr. Tillotson of all knowledge of the anonymous letters last written. The offer is signed by 34 gentlemen.

☞ A member of the North Carolina legislature made a decidedly good hit a short time ago. A bill was pending which imposed a fine for selling liquor to free negroes, to which he objected on the ground that "such a law would make them more decent than the whites."

☞ Oscar, King of Sweden, was a very warm devotee of Freemasonry, and for many years Past Grand Patron of the order in his own dominions. The attachment he felt for the institution may be in some sort estimated by the fact that he was elected in 1851 an honorary member of the Grand Lodge of Scotland.

DISTURBANCES AT LEGHORN.—The Florence correspondent of the London Illustrated News, writes:—

"July 16th.—Since writing the above, news has reached Florence of the outbreak of an insurrection in Leghorn. Troops left for that town this morning by railway, though Florence could but ill afford them, being at present almost without armed forces. A National Guard is in course of formation. Reports have reached us of a manifestation at Arezzo, in which the effigies of the Emperor and Napoleon and Victor Emanuel were burned in the public square. So much for fame! Demigods to-day—to-morrow scarecrows and objects of derision."

FREE NEGROES.—We take the following extract from the Helena (Arkansas) Democrat:—

"The free negroes of Arkansas, who are required by law to leave the State before 1860, seem generally to have selected Kansas for their future home, and contemplate removing there at an early day." The Democrat thinks it would be much wiser in selecting future homes, to adopt the course of the free blacks in Louisiana, and emigrate to Hayti, the Paradise for colored persons. This course is especially advisable since Kansas has decided not to allow negroes to vote or hold hold office.

☞ The Hon. Gerrit Smith, upon reading Hon. Daniel E. Sickles' late letter in regard to his resumption of his "maternal" relations with his wife, as a Vermont paper styles it, immediately wrote, says the Oswego Times, that gentleman a letter approving the condonation of his wife's offence, and has invited him and his wife to visit Peterboro.

LATEST FROM KOSSUTH.—Mr. John M'Adam, of Glasgow, writes to the North British Daily Mail:

"This morning I have received very late and trustworthy intelligence from M. Kossuth. Particulars I am not yet at liberty to communicate; however, for the satisfaction of his numerous friends I may state, that after his betrayal he remained only long enough to save as many of his revolted countrymen from harm as he could, and to prevent any further present hopeless insurrection. He then retired into Switzerland, where he was joined by Madame Kossuth three days ago; and it is uncertain whether he may not be obliged to remain for some weeks before he returns to England."

EXCHANGE.—The Bath Times learns that Rev. Dr. Sheldon will preach in the Universalist church in that city Sabbath afternoon, and that Rev. Mr. Hanson will supply his pulpit in Summer street church in the evening of the same day. Dr. Sheldon was lately a baptist;—now a unitarian.

☞ A little boy, son of Patrick Dixon, Newburyport, between two and three years old, went into a neighbor's house on Saturday, where his clothes took fire, and he was burned so badly that he died on Sunday. The inmates of the house where he burned are reported to have been drunk at the time.

RECEIPTS OF WHEAT AT CHICAGO.—The wheat statistics, published 4th inst. in the Commercial Express, show the receipts of the year ending August 1st to be 5,031,000 bushels, against 13,956,000 in previous year. The shipments were in about the same proportion.

☞ The New York Herald suggests that the Cincinnati platform be laid down anew at Charlestown, because it can be interpreted in as many different ways as the needs of the party require. Like the almanac, it is calculated for a particular meridian, but will answer for any other.

☞ A Pennsylvania correspondent of the Washington States inquires, "What means the attack of the Pennsylvanian upon Vice President Breckenridge? This journal is known to be in the confidence of Mr. Buchanan. Can he tolerate such a proceeding?"

☞ Talking of one's own ails and grievances is bad enough, but not so bad as insulting the person you talk with by remarking on his ill looks, or appearing to notice any of his personal peculiarities.

☞ Emerson says that when a public man claims more consideration than his faculties entitle him to, he is a politician.

HOW TO PROCLAIM PEACE.—The following extract from the journal of proceedings of the old Colonial Assembly of Rhode Island, for May, 1749, shows the "good old way" of proclaiming a peace in the olden time:

"It is voted and resolved that the Sheriff of the county of Newport provide liquor, to the amount of £50, to entertain those gentlemen that shall attend the solemnity of proclaiming peace. God save the King."

☞ More camels, says the Civilian of Galveston, are coming to Texas. The importation now expected is to be made from the valleys of the upper Mongolia. They are stronger than any other kind of camels, and are accustomed to the severest hardships. They are to enter the United States via San Francisco.

DENTAL CONVENTION.—The fifth annual convention of the American Dental Association, met at Niagara Falls on Tuesday. L. W. Rollins of Utica was chosen President, and Frank Fuller of this city, Secretary. The Convention would remain in session three days.

☞ Uncle Toby is grateful to the publishers of Life Illustrated, New York, for extra numbers of their paper to complete a file. That it is kept, to be bound, is sufficient evidence of its being a valuable paper, worth preserving.

GOOD PEDESTRIANISM.—A young man about 18 years of age, a member of the High School in Hartford, Conn., recently walked from Hartford to Worcester, a distance of about sixty-five miles, between 3 o'clock in the morning and half past 9 the same night, averaging about four miles an hour.

☞ Over 400 bushels of berries have been forwarded to the Boston market the present season by Nathan H. George of Amherst, N. H. The crop is very large.

☞ The travel at the White Mountains is in full flow. All the hotels and resorts are thickly populated.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1837.

76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay (here, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
BOSTON, February 5, 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, Jan. 1, 1859. R. H. EDDY.

Jaundice.

This yellow coloration of the skin is characteristic of an increased secretion of bile, or of a passage into the blood, in consequence of an obstruction in the circulation of the liver. Being itself but a symptom, the cause must be sought in the central diseased organ; and ample experience proves that the PERFECT SAFE STYRIC is a wonderful remedy in stimulating the liver to a proper performance of its duty.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful as true as life itself, at

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (ebrotypes, are taken at this establishment, with the double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontitorum nos.

☞ Mrs. Winslow, an experienced nurse and female physician, has a Soothing Syrup for children teething, which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay all pain, and is sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants. Perfectly safe in all cases. See advertisement in another column.

Common Sense rules the mass of the people, whatever the misnamed and misanthrope philosophers may say to the contrary. Show them a good thing: let its merits be clearly demonstrated, and they will not hesitate to give it the most cordial patronage. The masses have already settled the judgment of a physician, concerning the virtues of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, as may be seen in the immense quantities of this medicine that are annually sold in every section of the land. It is now recognized as greatly superior to all other remedies yet devised for the cases of the digestive organs, such as diarrhœa, dysentery, dyspepsia, and for the various fevers that arise from derangement of those portions of the system. Hostetter's name is rapidly becoming a household word, from Maine to Texas, from the shores of the Atlantic to the Pacific. Try the article and be satisfied.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Dyspepsia.

Considering the various forms in which this disease developes itself, it may well be called hydra-headed. In its train follow Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, Heartburn, Water Brash, Costiveness, Piles, Acidity, Oppression after Eating, Jaundice, Flatulency, Torpor of the Liver, Dizziness, Debility, Female Complaints, &c. Some of the first men in our land have given their written certificates relative to the cures effected in their own persons by the OXYGENATED BITTERS; while testimonials from other sources, editorial notices and voluntary expressions from persons averse to see their names in print, are perfectly overwhelming.

EAST TAUNTON, Mass., Feb. 9, '58.

To the Editor of the Portland Mirror.—Sir:—OXYGENATED BITTERS.—For more than twenty five years I have been a sufferer from the dyspepsia. Besides trying the patience of my family physicians in the almost useless trial of their various prescriptions, I have tried a great variety of patent medicines with a similar result. Through the kindness of my physician, I received in March, half a dozen bottles of the OXYGENATED BITTERS. I began to use them without any hope of deriving help from them. Being determined to give them a fair trial, I continued their use, but without any perceptible benefit till June.

Since then I have gradually improved in health till I am entirely free from acidity of the stomach, and from the consequent flatulency, and the awful and almost distracting sick headache, which often, for days together, has wholly unfitted me for study and for all other ministerial duties, and rendered life a burden.

I feel that I owe it, as an expression of gratitude to Messrs. Fowle & Co., and also a duty to the public, to recommend their Oxygenated Bitters, as, in my estimation, a sure remedy for that most trying, most vexing, and cruel of all diseases, to which poor human flesh is heir, the dyspepsia. Having suffered so much, and tried so many different remedies with no good result, I can recommend the Oxygenated Bitters with a confidence few others can. If any of the readers of the Mirror are suffering, I beg of them to make trial of these Bitters without delay.

TO THE CITIZENS OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

This Gin, distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a bouquet of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., which the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has met with."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st.; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Pecker, 20 Elm st.; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. Smith & Co., 20 Exchange st.; Gilbert, Abbott & Co., 78 Broad st.; Deland & Snow, 34 Elm st. and others. In Portland, Me., of H. H. Hay & Co., C. W. Atwell, and C. J. Mitchell & Son.

The flesh (or fish) looks like beef, and is almost as solid. A gentleman who has eaten some such, says it is good food, tasting somewhat like beef and somewhat like fish, but not exactly like either.

A CARD.

The subscribers hereby tender their sincere and heartfelt thanks to the Fire Department of the city for the promptness and energy displayed in arresting the flames at the fire on Wednesday morning last, on the corner of North and Dennett streets, and to the neighbors who so kindly gave their timely aid in the early stages of the fire. And too much praise cannot be bestowed upon the Firemen of Piscataqua, No. 4, for their early arrival on the spot and untiring exertions in subduing the flames. GALE & DOW.

AN OFFSET.—Tales of scandal are as plenty as blackberries just now. The famous Sickles case seems to have broken up the great deep of lechery, and a flood of equally obscene but less tragic occurrences has deluged the land. The very latest affair is that of a wealthy New York merchant, who found a deficit of $10,000 in the account of one of his clerks. He called the defaulter to account, and told him that if the money was not at once returned he would arrest and expose him. The clerk mildly informed his employer that he reckoned that he should not return the cash, and that he further concluded that he had a sufficient offset. "Offset" said the merchant, "what do you mean by offset?" "I mean my wife," returned the clerk. Not another word was spoken about the $10,000. —N. Y. Tribune.

THE SALEM POST OFFICE PETITION.—A letter from the first assistant Postmaster General, in answer to an enquiry, says, two special agents of the Department have investigated the genuineness of the signatures to this petition, which has before been referred to, acting independently of each other and at different times; one of whom visiting in person those whose names appeared upon the petition, verified the signatures of a large majority of the signers, and placed the real character of the document beyond a reasonable doubt.

Both gentlemen were led to the conclusion that the charges of fraud were utterly groundless, and so reported to the Department.—Traveller.

Considering how unimportant is the greater part of the information communicated by the departments to the newspaper correspondents, and how generally any items that are considered worth telegraphing are contradicted, we think the administration should be very lenient to the officers who make the disclosures complained of.—Certainly nobody ought to be punished for giving out Mexican "news."—Prov. Jour.

On Wednesday the New York police were informed that a family in Forty-fourth street were living in entire destitution On investigation four children, three girls and a boy, were found with no clothing but shirts, and these black with dirt. The condition of the mother was no better; the father could not be found. Both of the parents were intemperate.

It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spiritous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, Bladder and Kidney Complaints, &c. &c.

UDOLPHO WOLFE,
SOLE MANUFACTURER AND IMPORTER,
DEPOT 22 BEAVER SREET, NEW YORK.

TO THE PUBLIC.

I beg leave to call the attention of the American Public to the following Certificate from the Government Chemist for the Island of Cuba and the Spanish West Indies, and who is known to the Scientific men of London, Paris, Madrid, Cuba and America to be the first Chemist in the world.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHEMICAL TESTIMONY.

D. Jose Luis Casabeca, Corresponding Member of the Royal Academies of Madrid and Munich, a Graduate in Sciences of the Faculty of Paris, formerly Professor of Chemistry, as applied to the Arts, of the Royal Conservatorio of Madrid, and of Physic and Chemistry, as applied to the Industry and Agriculture of the country, in the Royal University of this Island, at present H. M.'s Director of the Institute of Chemical Investigation, &c., &c.

Do hereby certify, that at the request of the house of Gottig & Will, of this place, I have made an analytical examination of U. Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, with the object of ascertaining if it contained any substance noxious to health, and to inform them as to its true composition and relative quality with the other gins that are offered in the market, and the results of my observations and experiments are as follows:—

Udolpho Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps is a spirituous liquid, of a very agreeable aromatic odor, completely transparent and almost colorless, having only a very slight tint of yellowish gray; its flavor is strong and very agreeable to the palate. It marks 20 degrees in Cartier's alcohol weigher or 52 degrees 5 hundredth in Gay Lussac's alcohometre. By the distillation in a balalum maria, with an apparatus consisting of a glass retort and a recipient surrounded with ice, I have collected in this recipient an alcoholic liquid with a very agreeable aroma completely colorless and transparent, which marked 90 degrees in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, or 70 degrees 5 hundredth on Gay Lussac's alcohometre; and which represented as a whole 57 per cent. of aromatic Schiedam schnapps subject to distillation in the retort. This liquid did not soil the transparency of the distilled water in mixing it with the same, and its agreeable aroma is doubtless due to a very trifling amount of an essential oil inseparable from alcohol.

From the remainder of the distillation which was left in the retort, I have obtained, through evaporation in a vapor bath, a substance of a yellowish brown color, clear, and having a bitter taste, which is not disagreeable, and which afterwards becomes aromatic and leaves the mouth perfumed with that fragrance peculiar to the vanilla. I am inclined to believe that to this bitter and aromatic extractive substance, soluble in water and alcohol, the medicinal properties which are attributed to this gin are due. I have not found in Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps any mineral or organic substance other than the extractive one already named and the aromatic one obtained by distillation. Finally, Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps consists simply of an aromatic alcohol of 20 degrees of graduation in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, and of an extractive bitter aromatic substance, which perhaps, is medicinal; and, on account of its not containing any matter injurious to the health, as well as for its odor and good flavor—a fact which no doubt arises from the choice substances employed in its manufacture, and from the peculiar manner of its distillation, it should in my opinion, be preferred to all the Holland, Belgic and German gins which are found in this Island which it has been my business to examine. These gins as I have often proved it, exhale a disagreeable odor, and have a more or less disagreeable flavor, some of them having left as was the case with the superior gin from the distillery of Mr. Henry Deetjen (of Bremen,) as residum after evaporation by steam, a substance almost insipid and very trifilingly aromatic, with flavor of vanilla, but in no wise with the delicious bitter and aromatic flavor of that of Udolpho Wolfe; and others, such as that labelled "Genuine Samaritan," "Extra Superior." Messrs Trueser have furnished me with a very small quantity of a greenish substance, of harsh metalic taste and very disagreeable, which extractive organic matter was mixed with a salt of copper, with signs of iron, owing perhaps, to a bad system of distillation.

I certify that all that is here stated is the truth and agrees with the experiments I have made with the greatest care, and I authorize the house of Gottig & Will, of this city, to give publicity to this certificate, in Spanish and in foreign languages, in all countries where it may suit their interest to do so. UDOLPHO WOLFE,

From the Journal.

A correspondent who pays a heavy tax, wishes to know whether the allowance to the Street Commissioner is not sufficient to pay for his valuable services; and whether he duly accounts to the city the sums he charges to individuals for overseeing work for which his salary was intended to pay. He also wishes to know whether the compensation to one of the Aldermen for overseeing street repairs is paid by the Street Commissioner?

The law is plain on this latter subject, which says that the Street Commissioner shall maintain in good order and repair all the streets, lanes and alleys in the compact part of the city, under direction of the Mayor and Aldermen. It is also provided that no member of the Common Council shall receive any compensation for his services.—So if any respect is paid to the law, the expense o overseeing all such work must be borne by the Street Commissioner. If he employs any man as overseer, it is at his own expense.

Whatever favoritism may be shown to partisans, there is no excuse whatever for putting a man in an office for which he has no experience nor the least scientific knowledge. To put in a man as Street Commissioner who will not be convinced by any argument that water will run down hill, unless he actually sees it, or some political friend tells him it is as an actual fact, is not merely the loss to the city of the salary paid, but it is the means of turning our streets into such confusion, that it will take half a dozen years to put them on the proper grade again.

There should be an amendment made to our city charter, which will allow of the election of a Street Commissioner but once in ten years. And also requiring of any street commissioner elected a certificate of a board of scientific civil engineers that he is competent for the duties of his office.—Had Mr. Haines, who is an experienced man, been continued in office to the present time, such grading would have been made as would not have required half the present expense to keep the streets in repair, and our roads would be in much better order.

If political partisans must be rewarded, it is better to give them a pension outright, than to do the public injury by inefficient services.

☞Rev. Dr. Peabody resumed his labors in the Stone Church on Sunday last, after a vacation of five weeks. On the occasion, the members of the Choir, of which Mr. Wm. R. Preston is leader, beautifully adorned the altar and pulpit of his church with over fifty boquets, and an original ode of welcome was sung by them.

During his absence, Dr. Peabody visited the Mammoth Cave in Kentucky, and, with his lady, walked one day twenty-two miles through its windings. His journey afforded an interesting subject for the morning discourse of last Sabbath.

The oldest inhabitant of this region must be Mr Daniel Fernald of this city, who is stated to us to be one hundred and three years old. He is quite smart for an old gentleman, being in full possession of all his faculties, and usually in good health and spirits. He attended church but a couple of weeks since.—Chronicle.

Mr. Fernald, whose recollection is good, says that he was born in 1767, and that he is now in his 92d year. Various circumstances he relates, such as being a little boy and receiving coppers from Gov. Wentworth just before he was driven away at the time of the Revolution, show that he is not far from right.

AN OLD TRADER RETIRED.—For about thirty years Mr. William Simes has carred on the Grocery business at the corner of High street and Market square. He has witnessed the departure of a Court House and that of a Meeting House in succession, from before his door, and also the passing away of many who have been regularly supplied by him. He has given close personal attention to his business, his word has always been found true, and every one has had full confidence in his honest dealings. He now retires; but however able he may be to live without further labor, his is not the disposition to seek happiness in repose.

May the like character be the aim, and the like success attend those who succeed him in the old stand.

KOHL RABI.—Mr. H. Poyser has raised some good specimens of this to us new vegetable, at his farm near the Woodbury place. The following are the directions for cooking it. First trim the leaves from the bulb, which is to be pealed and sliced. Cut off and throw away the stems, and boil the slices with the green leaves and a piece of pork for two hours. Following these directions it makes an excellent dish.

"A company of young men from Boston, who style themselves the H. O. J.'s, have been enjoying themselves hugely during the past two weeks in camping out at the different watering places between the Bluff and the Laurel Grounds. On Thursday evening last, while encamped in a little cove just above the Laurel Ground, and when the company were busily engaged in preparing a chowder at a short distance from the tent, they were much surprised to find their tent enveloped in flames. There was considerable hay in the tent, which had become ignited, probably from a lighted cigar, and the entire bedding and wardrobe of the company was completely destroyed."

DANGEROUS ACQUAINTANCE.—Last week as two daughters of Dea. E. Smith at Centre Strafford were crossing a marshy piece of ground in a foot path leading to a neighbor's house, their walk was interrupted by a large water snake which suddenly sprung upon one of them and coiling itself around her waist, resisted all her efforts to free herself from his uncivil hugging, which was such a one as no lover would dare to give on first acquaintance. The sister who was forward sprang back to her assistance, and with a presence of mind worthy of a General in the hour of battle took the monster on the flank with a sharp stick and beat him off, after a hard contest, leaving the field to the young ladies, who escaped without injury.—Dover Inquirer.

BODY RECOVERED.—The body of Mr. Trefethen the pilot who was knocked overboard a month ago while in the act of boarding a vessel for the purpose of piloting her up the river to Portsmouth, was recovered at the Shoals on Sunday morning, much disfigured. Funeral services were performed in the afternoon at his late residence at New Castle by Rev. Thomas Holmes of Portsmouth.

Originally discovered and prescribed by him as a Specific Remedy for CONSUMPTION!

The use of the Hypophosphites in CONSUMPTION, Scrofula, Nervous Debility, Asthma, Bronchitis, Dyspepsia, Female Complaints, and all other diseases depending upon a DEFICIENT VITALITY IN THE ELEMENTS OF NUTRITION, have proved their INVARIABLE EFFICACY in thousands of cases in Europe and America and established the claim of the discoverer, that they are a SUE PREVENTATIVE, and a

SPECIFIC REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION.

Dr. Churchill says: "In no single instance have I found the remedy fail to produce everything that could be reasonably expected from it. In most instances the benefit derived from it has FAR EXCEEDED what could at first have been hoped for, when taking into account the degree and extent of the injury sustained by the lungs previously to the use of the remedy. * * * Out of twenty-two cases in the third or last stage, treated at my Dispensary during the past year, EIGHT are COMPLETELY RECOVERED, eight have died, and six are still under treatment. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

A compound remedy in which we have labored to produce the most efficacious alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, of combined with other substances of still greater alterative power to be afforded by effective extracts for the disease Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will a complete their cure must be of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do this, has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the encumbrance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed or sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when you find it foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood pure, and health will follow; for this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life be disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the thing made by this name in the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts have contained but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or anything else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative virtue whatever. These frauds, in connection with them, of which there are ten every week. Two Moot Courts are also holden in each week, at each of which a case previously given out is argued by four students and an opinion delivered by the Presiding Instructor. Rooms and other facilities are also provided for the Club Courts; and an Academy is held weekly for practice in debate, and acquiring a knowledge of parliamentary law and proceedings.

THE ONLY ARTICLE
UNRIVALLED IN THE MARKET,
WITH IMMENSE
HOME AND EUROPEAN DEMAND.

The reason why, is that by Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluid, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, itching, and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nervous, and is the most pleasant one headache, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling out, and it will soft, glossy, healthy and beautiful, and if used by the young two or three times a week' it will never fall or become gray; then, reader, read the following and judge for yourselves:

NEW YORK, Jan. 8, 1858.

MESSRS. O. J. WOOD & CO.,

Gentlemen: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudices which I, in common with a great many people, had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was but who having my prejudice without my experience, may be deterred from willingly to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof, and the best proof being occular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing establishment every day.

My hair is now nearly as black and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking. I am, yours respectfully, HENRY DENKING.

Cor. Columbia and Carroll Sts., Brooklyn.

LIVINGSTON, Ala., Feb. 14, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country. My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, &c. S. W. MIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering, now is filling up. I have used only one half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours, respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D.,
No. 464 Vine Street.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for one dollar; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

SPIKENARD & BONESET,
A remedy unsurpassed for Liver Complaints, such as Costiveness, Dizziness and Pain in the Head, Stomach and Side, Universal Debility, and the whole family of Consumptive Complaints.

(From Mrs. Daniel H. Williams.)
Dr. SWETT—Dear Sir:—I presume you recollect that when I saw you, about a year since, I was very low, and had been for a long time, with dyspeptic complaints, being very weak, with no appetite, and pain in my head, stomach and side; but now my health is comparatively good, and I consider this great deliverance attributable, mainly, to the two bottles of your "Compound Cordial or Dandelion," which you left for me. I consider this the best medicine I ever found for the complaints for which you recommend it on the labels.

Last spring and Summer I was troubled with the Liver Complaint, which caused my food to distress me badly; and I do not know what cured me, but one thing I do know, and that is, I took one bottle of Dr. S. Swett's Cordial of Dandelion, and the disease left me, and has not returned.

Seven Octave Piano---New Scale.
The Subscriber having just received a superior SEVEN OCTAVE PIANO-FORTE, made according to his order by the celebrated firm of HALLET, DAVIS & CO., would offer it for the inspection of persons desirous of purchasing. H. D. & Co. have recently made great improvements in the manufacture of Pianos, the most important of which is the New Scale, which, while obviating the weakness which has hitherto been found in the upper part of Square Seven Octave Pianos, gives it a power of tone nearly equal to that of the Parlor Grand.
Having been for several years Agent for the sale of Pianos of the above make, Mr. P. is prepared to state that the instruments which they are now making, far excel any of their former manufacture.
Purchasers will find it greatly to their advantage to call and examine the above mentioned Piano, as it is the only one in Portsmouth which contains the NEW SCALE.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, AUGUST 8, 1859.

DENTAL CONVENTION, NIAGARA.

INTERNATIONAL HOTEL,
NIAGARA FALLS, Aug. 3, 1859.

Editors Chronicle:—Again my promise to write for your columns some hasty record of my journeyings, comes up before me. It is not altogether an easy matter to escape the crowd of friends by whom I am surrounded, and in the privacy of my own room, to make the journey over again, in fulfilment of that promise. But the knowledge that whatever I may say will possess an interest for my personal friends at least, encourages me to proceed.

I left Portsmouth for Saco on the evening of Thursday, July 28, and committed myself unhesitatingly to the care of the traveller's attentive friend, Mr. Akerman. At Saco I was met by Dr. Mason of that place, who, by arrangement, was to accompany me to Niagara. Enjoying the hospitalities of his house for the night, the next day we set out on our journey. An hour or two was spent in Portland, and at 1 o'clock we were on board the cars of the Grand Trunk Railroad, en route for Montreal. At 5 P. M. we halted for ten minutes at the Alpine House in Gorham, and were introduced to its good-natured and rotund proprietor, Mr. Jno. R. Hitchcock, late of the Pearl St. House, Boston, from whose hospitalities we were only enabled to escape, by promising to tarry a day or two with him on our return. Here, too, we took our first view of Mt. Washington, from the eastern side.

At dusk we reached Island Pond, at which point the train stopped for the night, and our day's journey terminated. The excellent hotel here, the "Island Pond House," is kept by Mr. G. G. Waterhouse, whose family originated in Portsmouth.—The house is pleasantly situated, in full view of the lake, and is certainly a most delightful resting place. The proprietor is ably seconded in his efforts for the comfort of his numerous guests, by his two brothers, to one of whom, Mr. A. P. Waterhouse, we were indebted for many polite attentions.

After a night of refreshing sleep, and a breakfast—to which the lake contributed its delicate trout, and the woods their savory game—we set out at 7 1-2 A. M. on Saturday, for Canada. At the depot, we were waited upon by an oily little Englishman, of ruby countenance, who, without removing from his mouth a pipe, the hue of which would have entranced a genuine "meerschaum colorer" — enquired if our trunks contained our personal wardrobe. We assured him that his guess at their contents would have done honor even to a Yankee; which answer was deemed entirely satisfactory to him, and he shuffled away from us, puffing huge volumes of smoke, and looking far all the world as if his pipe was the motive power which propelled him onward.

We passed along the banks of the St. Francis river, and reached Richmond—the junction of the Quebec & Montreal Railroad, at 10 o'clock. Here we were detained for half an hour, in waiting for the train of Quebec. Everything animate here presented the most Frenchy aspect: horses had dwindled to shaggy-looking ponies, while men, women and children jabbered their unendurable patois excitedly. At this station we took on board a little French priest, wearing a closely-fitting gown of bombazine, its long skirt dragging about his heels; a crape band tied about his waist, his head shaved far more closely than the existing mode. He was a mere youth, not more than five feet in height, and was altogether a most singular looking specimen. I called the attention of my companion to the nondescript, who remarked that he looked very much like "something the cat brought in.' With all respect for the cloth, I am compelled to subscribe to the accuracy of the description.

Here too an army of pedlers assailed us, crackers and clay pipes being the principal commodities—and both being mingled confusedly in the same basket.

Off again by rail, we reached Montreal at 1 P. M., crossing the St. Lawrence by steam ferry from Longueil. The principal passenger on board was a horse—celebrated in turf annals as the "Irishman," and owned by Gen. Williams of Montreal, to whom the noble animal was presented by the Emperor Louis Napoleon. He is is an English thorough-bred, weighs nearly 2000 lbs., and is really a most magnificent creature.

The arrangement of the trains rendered it necessary for us to remain in the city until 7 1-2 o'clock; so after receiving the most satisfactory assurances that our baggage would be transferred from the ferry landing to Pouit St. Charles, the depot of the Great Western Road, distant about two miles, we went to our dinner.

After dinner we wandered about the city. Perhaps we took as much interest in criticising the appearance of the people, and gaping in at the store windows, as in viewing the edifices and public grounds. Of pedestrians we met but few save servants, nuns and priests; but the narrow streets were filled with pleasure carriages, from the ill-shaped caleche to the elegant barouche, with driver and footman in brilliant livery. We saw ladies holding the reins of their little spans—their whip-stocks serving as handles to their parasols, through the centres of which they were passed.

Tobacconists abounded; and in the windows of nearly every third store we encountered a display of pipes, of magnitude and variety sufficient to startle any one not accustomed to the sight. Smoking appears to be an almost universal custom in the portions of Canada which we visited; yet we saw few segars—but pipes were everywhere. I was curious to enquire the price of segars and tobacco, and learned that the duty upon these articles of luxury, rendered it necessary for dealers to demand nearly double the usual retail rates. But for all this, the consumption is enormous.

We called upon a dentist, Dr. Webster, who has lately been subjected to the expense and ignominy of a suit brought against him for an alleged assault upon a lady, while she was under the influence of chloroform for the purpose of having some teeth extracted—a case somewhat similar to that of Dr. Beal, which occurred in Philadelphia a few years since. The history of the case, which he related with great minuteness, convinced us of his entire innocence; yet his safe deliverance from misguided persecution, has not been sufficient to re-establish his previous good character; and the publicity given to the disgusting details of the case, must have essentially impaired his standing in society, lessened his influence, and diminished his practice. It affords another argument against the use of the subtle vapor, which while it confers immunity to physical suffering, leaves the mind free to wander in forbidden realms.

Towards sunset we visited the magnificent French cathedral located on Notre Dame street. A notice posted in the vestibule, informed us that no persons were permitted to enter the building with hats on, or to engage in conversation within the walls; so we entered with uncovered heads.

I think the injunction could hardly be deemed necessary. For myself, I doubt if I could have been induced to stand beneath the groined arches of that beautiful structure, with the sacred emblems of the crucifixion, in gold and silver, in sculpture and on canvass, everywhere surrounding me, without a feeling of deepest reverence.—There were perhaps a hundred persons engaged in their silent devotions in various parts of the building, and the number was constantly augmented by new comers.

Many advanced only to one of the iron fonts near the door, dipped a finger in the holy water, crossed their foreheads, and departed. Occasionally one would leave a companion near the door, advance and moisten the finger, then touch it to the finger of the other, when both would devoutly cross their foreheads. F. F.

☞ Crinoline was originally the name of a Parisian modiste—one Madame Crinoline, who kept a set of dress-making rooms. It eventually came into use to denote the article most in repute at her establishment.—She it was who, by the invention of horse-hair woven into a sort of cloth and manufactured into petticoats, enabled the fair sex to dispense with that clumsy abomination which always placed them, if not in a headlong hurry, certainly in—a bustle, the name of the petticoat was given from that of the inventor, as has frequently happened; the crinoline, the petticoat, was derived from Crinoline, the dressmaker.

☞ A cabinet shop in Philadelphia took fire on Tuesday, while one of the workmen was taking an afternoon nap, and the flames reached his clothing without his being conscious of his peril. A little terrier, seeing his master's danger, inserted its teeth in his coat collar and shook him lustily. The man, who slept heavily, pushed the little brute aside, and again sank to slumber.—The dog, not to be rebuffed, made a second effort, and this time succeeded in arousing his somnolent master, who, seizing the dog in his arms, made his exit from the burning building just in season to escape an auto 'da fe.

LIGHTNING AND LIGHTNING RODS.—The Boston Traveller says:—"The accounts of buildings struck by lightning, for the protection of which lightning rods have been erected, still continue to come to us after almost every severe thunder storm. We apprehend that all these cases are not owing to the defective character of the fastening of the rods, and are led to believe that when a heavy rain is falling, the roof of a building is quite as good a conductor as any rod which can be erected.

☞ The family coach of Mr. Singer, the sewing machine manufacturer, takes down everything heretofore produced in that line. It is two or three times the size of an ordinary coach, and will contain thirty-four persons. It will be drawn by six horses.—Its length is seventeen feet, weight 3750 lbs., and cost $3,000.

MAINE MATTERS.—The Portland, Me. Journal of the 2d inst. says, "the liquor dealers, since the passage of the new Maine Law by the people, have been carrying up their cases from the Municipal Court and from the Supreme Court to that of the full bench, on exceptions and demurrer. On Friday last, Chief Justice Tenney announced the decision of the court, which was that the exceptions are overruled, and all the cases are remanded to the other courts for judgment!"

This looks like business. Nine-tenths of all the demurrers and exceptions in these and other criminal cases, are mere quibbles, designed to defeat the ends of justice, and to put a little money into the pockets of lawyers who defend the case.

The Portland Argus of Aug. 4, contains a report of the Supreme Court, with these items:—

Solomon Elder of Gorham, pleaded guilty to two indictments, one charging him with keeping a drinking house and tippling shop, the other with being a common seller of intoxicating liquors. Under advices from the Selectmen of Windham and upon the payment of costs by the defendant, the County Attorney continued the cases, for sentence, to the next term—the defendant having given up the business.

John Bailey of Windham, pleaded guilty to an indictment, charging him with being a common seller of intoxicating liquors. Upon payment of costs, the case was continued for sentence, to the next term.

Not long ago, a paper in Maine, spoke of prohibition there, as only a shadow. Be it so,—it is "a shadow of good things to come,"—and a dark shadow now to those who break it.

It is the people's law, in Maine now.—They confirmed it by their own votes,—and it is working well.

☞ A brave lad, only twelve years, old son of C. A. Champlin of Higgenum, Ct., saw a boy of six years, son of R. Bailey, fall into the water from the steamboat wharf.—He rushed to the spot, plunged in without hesitation, and rescued the child just as he was sinking. On a former occasion this same brave fellow rescued a larger boy from the danger of drowning.

DISSOLUTION.—Two married couples in Newburyport have recently dissolved copartnership. Spiritual dissipation is the cause assigned. One couple had hardly passed the honey moon, before they became twain; the other had a family of young children. It is difficult enough to maintain harmony in a family where woman's rights have made such progress that the wife claims equal power in the domestic government, when people manage affairs by their own reason; and how much worse must it be when they put themselves under the guidance of vagrant spirits that come from unknown regions, whence nobody can tell, rapping and whispering in the ears of weak-minned women and base men all kinds of devilitry.—Newburyport Herald.

☞ Col. James Glover, of the California Overland Mail Company, informs the Gallatin (Tenn.) Examiner of the existence of a remarkable spring 280 miles east of the El Paso, on the road leading to San Antonio. It is fully 150 feet in diameter, and has been sounded to the depth of 8000 feet without finding bottom.

There is a very interesting fight in the Democratic party of Massachusetts this year, the contest being between the democrats in and the democrats out of office, on a candidate for Governor, and between the Buchanan and Douglas wings on the choice of delegates to the national convention. Charlestown claiming precedent as the possessor of Bunker Hill, opened the ball on Thursday night, when five hundred voters assembled to elect delegates to the State Convention. The caucus was uproarious; but the entire delegation chosen is for Butler for Governor, and the majority for Douglas for President.—Newburyport Herald.

GERMAN DIET—The following is the commencement of an "interesting" letter from Germany, in the Mobile Advertiser:

CARLSRUHE, Grand Duchy Baden,
July 2d, 1859.

I cannot think what ails the Fleas,
I have never done them harm,
They used to come by twos and threes,
But now they come in swarms!

My goodness! wouldn't sister M. run crazy if she were here. I caught 31 fleas last night! Poor Mrs. A. is in misery.

Rev. Mr. Van Meter, of the Five Points Mission, who has done much for the poor creatures in that locality, has concluded to open a similar house in the Fourth Ward, which is quite as degraded. This is the locality of O. Gardner's Reading and Coffee Room, which is doing great good. Mr. Gardener has proved himself a competent man for the place. Many a poor creature has been rescued, and many an outcast has found a good home within those walls; and the support given to the place makes it certain of success.

A GOOD ARGUMENT.—In a time of much religious excitment and consequent discussion, an honest Dutch farmer on the Mohawk was asked his opinion as to which denomination of Christians was on the right way to Heaven. "Vell, den," said he, "ven we ride our wheat to Albany, some say this road is the best, and some say dat—but it don't make much difference which road we take, for ven we git dere dey never ask us vich way we come—and it's none of their puiness—if our wheat is good."

Villains seldom train vines over cottage doorz.

☞ The accounts from Pike's Peak continue favorable. Six hundred dollars in dust have been received at Leavenworth by express, and passengers from the mines have brought considerable gold with them.

NORTH CAROLINA ELECTION.—Raleigh, Aug. 4.—In this city Brannon, dem., for Congress, in the 14th district, gains largely, and partial returns from other places indicate his election by a heavy majority. In five precincts of the first district, Shaw is only 39 ahead, and the result was doubtful.

☞ Commodore Hudson, who assisted in laying the Atlantic telegraph, believes that the break is near Trinity Bay, and that it will be underlaid and eventually made to work.

FROM CALIFORNIA.—New Orleans, Aug. 5.—The steamship Habana is below, from Minatitlan 2d inst., with San Francisco dates of July 20. The steamships Golden Age and Uncle Sam brought down $1-700,000 in treasure and 700 passengers.—The news is unimportant. Business was dull, and prices declining.

☞ The Burlington (Vt.) Times states that Mrs. Brackman of Huntington, who about seventeen months since gave birth to four children, has recently given birth to three more, all doing well.

THE NORTHERN RAILROAD ACCIDENT. Albany, Aug. 5.—The Albany coroner's jury in the Schagticoke bridge slaughter returned this afternoon, that the timbers of the bridge were rotten, unsafe, and known to be so, and that the Superintendent and Directors should be held responsible.

TENNESSEE ELECTION.—Nashville Aug. 4.—The opposition net gain in eight counties, partially heard from, is 1300 on the vote of 1857.

Aug. 5.—In 16 counties Netherland's net gain is about 2,300. Messrs. Quarles and Hatton, opposition, are elected to Congress in the eighth and fifth districts; and Messrs. Avery, dem., Etheridge, opp., and Brabson, opp., are probably chosen in the 10th, 9th and 3d districts. The two latter are opposition gains.

☞ Isn't it odd that the majority of persons who commit suicide should adopt the hanging process, when that is considered the most odious form of death, and as inflicting additional disgrace on all who suffer legally by it?

The great lesson for politicians as well as for legislators and judges to learn is, that the people are superior to all law, to all legislatures and to all judicial tribunals, for they are sovereign, and have power to make or unmake at will.—Bath Times.

☞ Elias Howe, Jr., who has purchased P. T. Barnum's famous place in Bridgeport, Conn., is the inventor of the sewing machine needle, which, it is said, yields the patentee the snug income of one thousand dollars a day.

LOCOMOTIVE EXPLOSION. — Augusta, Ga., Aug. 5.—A locomotive of the South Carolina Railroad exploded yesterday, killing five hands. There was no train attached to it.

☞ A French regiment at the battle of Spires, had orders to give no quarter. A German officer being taken, begged for his life. "Sir," replied the polite Frenchman, "you may ask me any other favor; but as for your life, it is impossible for me to grant it."

☞ Rarey has tamed a vicious horse named the "King of Oude." This was done in London. Why do not the English send him over to Paris, and have him tame the Emperor of the French?

FROM TEXAS.—New Orleans, Aug. 5.—The steamer Orizaba has arrived here with Galveston dates of the 3d inst. Gen. Samuel Houston was ahead in the race for the Governorship, so far as heard from.

☞ A letter from Utah states that the Mormons have nominated Horace S. Eldridge for delegate to Congress, in place of Bernhisel, present member.

FROM MEXICO.—Charleston, Aug. 5.—The Courier has a dispatch from New Orleans, saying that the latest advices from Yucatan state that the war of races had ceased there, and that peace was restored.

☞ Gen. Wheat denies the statement that he has been invited by President Juarez to take command of an army in aid of the Liberal cause in Mexico.

A pretty girl attended a ball out West, recently, decked off in short dress and pants. The other ladies were shocked. She quietly remarked that if they would pull up their dresses about the neck, as they ought to be, their skirts would be as short as hers!

Wm. B. Oliver, Esq., P. M., of Drayton, Dodge county, Ga., cured a girl, who had been the number of years afflicted with Scrofula. She was covered from head to foot with sores; there was not sound flesh enough on her whole body to be a twenty-five cent piece on.

SHE FELT HER CONDITION IMPROVE ON THE SECOND DAY.

The fourth day she was much better. On the 20th of April, 1858, she commenced the Resolvent, on the 20th of May, twenty-one days after she commenced its use.

SHE WAS SOUND.

Not a sore or blemish was upon her skin—nor was there any disease lingering in her system.

Mr. Oliver has cured many people in Drayton of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Fever and Ague, Swellings, Stiffness and Pains of various kinds, with Radway's Ready Relief; and many of his friends have been cured of Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Indigestion, &c., by Radway's Regulators.

R. R. Remedies are sold by Druggists generally.

Jaundice.

This yellow coloration of the skin is characteristic of an increased secretion of bile, or of a passage into the blood, in consequence of some obstruction in the circulation of the liver. Being itself but a symptom, the cause must be attacked in the centrical diseased organ; and simple experience proves that the PERUVIAN SYRUP works a wonderful manner in stimulating the liver to the proper performance of its duty.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at ☞ Mrs. Winslows an experienced nurse and female physician, has a Soothing Syrup for children teething, which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay all pain, and is sure to regulate the bowels. Common Sense rules the mass of the people, whatever the misnamed and misanthrope philosophers may say to the contrary. Show them a good thing; let its merits be clearly demonstrated, and they will not hesitate to give it the most cordial patronage. The masses have already ratified the judgment of a physician, concerning the virtues of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, as may be seen in the immense quantities of the medicine that are annually sold in every section of the land. It is now recognized as greatly superior to all other remedies yet devised for diseases of the digestive organs, such as diarrhea, dysentery, dyspepsia, and the thousand ills that arise from derangement of those portions of the system. Hostetter's name is rapidly becoming a household word, from Maine to Texas; from the shores of the Atlantic to the Pacific. Try the article and be satisfied.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Dyspepsia.

Considering the various forms in which this disease developes itself, it may well be called hydra-headed. In its train follow Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, Heartburn, Water Brash, Costiveness, Piles, Acidity, Oppression after Eating, Jaundice, Flatulency, Torpor of the Liver, Dizziness, Debility, Female Complaints, &c. Some of the first men in our land have given their written testimonials relative to the cures effected in their own persons by the OXYGENATED BITTERS; while testimonials from other sources, editorial opinions, and voluntary expressions from persons averse to see their names in print, are perfectly overwhelming.

EAST TAUNTON, MASS., Feb. 9, '58.

To the Editor of the Portland Mirror:—Sir:—

OXYGENATED BITTERS—For more than twenty five years I have been a sufferer from the dyspepsia. Besides trying the patience of my family physicians in the almost useless trial. For further particulars, address Dr. J. HENRY WARNER, corner 12th Street & Broadway, New York City, enclosing one postage stamp. june24d&w3mos

March, half a dozen bottles of the OXYGENATED BITTERS. I began to use them without any hope of derriving help from them, being determined to give them a fair trial, I continued their use, but without any perceptible benefit till June.

Since then I have gradually improved in health till I am entirely free from acidity of the stomach, and from the consequent flatulency, and the awful and almost distracting sick headache which often, for days together, has wholly unfitted me for study and for all other ministerial duties, and rendered life a burden.

I feel that I owe it, as an expression of gratitude to Messrs. Fowle & Co., and also a duty to the public, to recommend their Oxygenated Bitters, as, in my opinion, a sure remedy for the most trying, most vexing, and cruel of all diseases, to which poor human flesh is heir, the dyspepsia. Having suffered so long, and tried so many different remedies with no good result, I can recommend the Oxygenated Bitters with a confidence few others can. If any of the readers of the Mirror are suffering, I beg of them to make trial of these Bitters without delay.

Prepared by S. W. FOWLE & CO., Boston, and for sale by Wm. R. Preston, David Kimball, Nathan F. Thacher, J. H. Thacher, and B. Hutchins, Portsmouth; J. F. Shores, Greenland; and dealers everywhere. spnot 4wd&w

TO THE CITIZENS OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED

This Gin, distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with the fragrance of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in nature.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, traiteers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st.; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Pecker, 20 Elm st.; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. LOCAL.

Is the money appropriated by the City for repairing the Highway, properly expended?

Messrs. Editors:—I was pondering over the above problem when I observed the complaints of "Voter," in your paper of the 29th July, and have been waiting a week to see if Mr. Voter was seconded in laudable efforts to bring the city surveyors to a sense of their duty; but as no one has yet had courage to face the powers of our city officers by coming to his assistance, I have thought best to propound my said problem, and if no one else will enlighten the community on its solution, I will endeavor to do so myself hereafter.

Mr. Voter must not expect to have everything his own way; I am interested in having another road repaired, namely, the road leading from the Creek Bridge to the Town Farm. I mention this especially, because after a good deal of entreaty, remonstrance and expostulation, the Surveyor did attempt some repairs on the Hill by filling the holes with gravel.

Do you suppose, Messrs. Editors, that it ever occurred to the surveyor to enquire into the cause of said holes, so as to obviate any similar damage? No! the gully was filled and the hill made smooth, and an exulting enquiry was made of the complainants, are you satisfied? Wait till it rains. The rain came and washed away all the gravel, and made the gully worse than before, and so it remains to this hour!

This is only one instance of many similar cases of wasting the city money. I wish that some of those curious persons who criticize the price of snuff and tobacco for the poor creatures in the alms-house, would put on their microscopic spectacles, and do some good in finding out some of the large leaks in the public purse.

ANOTHER VOTER.

☞ It appears to us, both from observation and experience, and from the complaints we are daily hearing from others, that our streets and roads are this season in an unusually bad condition. There are bad gullies all about the outskirts of the city, and not a few even in the more compact portions of it; and loose stones and uncovered ledges abound everywhere. Add to this the intolerable nuisance of pavements across streets, sticking up from two to four inches, with no paving stones at the sides; and if all together do not tend to render a ride about our city agreeable, they may have another advantage of preventing dyspepsia.

☞ Rev. E. H. Chapin, D. D. is to deliver a Lecture on Temperance in this city on Wednesday evening next, by request of the Ministers of the city. The reputation of the lecturer will doubtless secure a good audience. A collection will be taken.

☞ The hail storm in Sanbornton a few days since, was a very severe one. The Laconia Democrat says, corn in some fields was cut down to within six inches of the ground—the hail was drifted three feet deep at the sides of some buildings—on the day succeeding the shower masses of frozen hail as large as a quart measure are said to have been picked up. Glass, and even sash, suffered extensively.

The "quarrel" in the Government of Bowdoin College, which has for some time served but to reveal the imperfections of even good men, has been so far overcome as to elect Rev. Mr. Tenney, of Ellsworth, to fill the vacancy in the Board of Trustees. He being of the "orthodox" school, gives a majority in both Boards to that denomination. The "liberals" were not united on a candidate. We are informed that this result was brought about by Judge Weston, who had voted with the "liberals," having changed his vote and given it on the "orthodox" side.—Bath Times.

SEWING MACHINE COMPANY,
No. 18 Summer Street, Boston,
MACHINES FROM $50 TO $125.

TESTIMONIALS.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.
Several months have now elapsed since one of these machines was first introduced for our family use. For several weeks those who attempted to operate it having had no instruction, it was regarded as of little value, although some work could be done. But no sooner had one of experience taken hold of it, giving the proper tension to the cotton, proper oiling, &c. to the machinery, than it worked admirably—and now for months it goes on like clock work, doing handsomely all the work submitted to it, and accomplishing as much work in an hour as could be done by hand in a long summer's day. These machines are decidedly popular. We have never heard of one being sold to procure another from a different maker,—while we have known others to be laid aside to give place to Grover & Baker's. Any one can operate them after an hour's instruction from an experienced hand.

If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whittemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.

CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.
We have seen one of Grover & Baker's $100 Sewing Machines used to do the Sewing of two families, for the past year or more, to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned—without once getting out of order, or requiring the least repair.—We would as soon try to dispense with a Cooking Stove in a family, as to attempt to get along without a Sewing Machine. Money invested in a good Machine pays much more than legal dividend, in actual cash savings—to say nothing of the higher consideration, of comfort and convenience, nay, even luxury, it affords to the ladies of a household. Whatever may be the experience with other Machines, we never knew a Grover & Baker to be discarded or found wanting.

FRANK W. MILLER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.
Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

TO THE PUBLIC.
I beg leave to call the attention of the American Public to the following Certificate from the Government Chemist for the Island of Cuba and the Spanish West Indies, and who is known to the Scientific men of London, Paris, Madrid, Cuba and America to be the first Chemist in the world.
UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHEMICAL TESTIMONY.
D. José Luis Casaseca, Corresponding Member of the Royal Academies of Madrid and Munich, a Graduate in Sciences of the Faculty of Paris, formerly Professor of Chemistry, as applied to the Arts, of the Royal Conservatorio of Madrid, and of Physics and Chemistry, as applied to the Industry and Agriculture of the country, in the Royal University of this Island, at present H. M.'s Director of the Institute of Chemical Investigation, &c., &c.
Do hereby certify, that at the request of the house of Gottig & Will, of this place, I have made an analytical examination of U. Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, with the object of ascertaining if it contained any substance noxious to health, and to inform them as to its true composition and relative quality with the other gins that are offered in the market, and the results of my observations and experiments are as follows:—
Udolpho Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps is a spirituous liquid, of a very agreeable aromatic odor, completely transparent and almost colorless, having only a very slight tint of yellowish gray; its flavor is strong and very agreeable to the palate. It marks 20 degrees in Cartier's alcohol weigher or 52 degrees 5 hundredth in Gay Lussac's alcohometre. By the distillation in a balsium maria, with an apparatus consisting of a glass retort and a recipient surrounded with ice, I have collected in this recipient an alcoholic liquid with a very agreeable aroma completely colorless and transparent, which marked 90 degrees in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, or 70 degrees 5 hundredth on Gay Lussac's alcohometre; and which represented as a whole 57 per cent. of aromatic Schiedam schnapps subject to distillation in the retort. This liquid did not soil the transparency of the distilled water in mixing it with the same, and its agreeable aroma is doubtless due to a very trifling amount of an essential oil inseparable from alcohol.
From the remainder of the distillation which was left in the retort, I have obtained, through evaporation in a vapor bath, a substance of a yellowish brown color, clear, and having a bitter taste, which is not disagreeable, and which afterwards becomes aromatic and leaves the mouth perfumed with that fragrance peculiar to the vanilla. I am inclined to believe that to this bitter and aromatic extractive substance, soluble in water and alcohol, the medicinal properties which are attributed to this gin are due. I have not found in Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps any mineral or organic substance other than the extractive one already named and the aromatic one obtained by distillation. Finally, Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps consists simply of an aromatic alcohol of 20 degrees of graduation in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, and of an extractive bitter aromatic substance, which perhaps, is medicinal; and, on account of its not containing any matter injurious to the health, as well as for its odor and good flavor—a fact which no doubt arises from the choice substances employed in its manufacture, and from the peculiar manner of its distillation, it should in my opinion, be preferred to all the Holland, Belgic and German gins which are found in this Island which it has been my business to examine. These gins as I have often proved it, exhale a disagreeable odor, and have a more or less disagreeable flavor, some of them having left as was the case with the superior gin from the distillery of Mr. Henry Deetjen (of Bremen,) as residum after evaporation by steam, a substance almost insipid and very trifingly aromatic, with flavor of vanilla, but in no wise with the delicious bitter and aromatic flavor of that of Udolpho Wolfe; and others, such as that labelled "Genuine Samaritan," "Extra Superior." Messrs. Tracner have furnished me with a very small quantity of a greenish substance, of harsh metallic taste and very disagreeable, which extractive organic matter was mixed with a salt of copper, with signs of iron, owing perhaps, to a bad system of distillation.
I certify that all that is here stated is the truth and agrees with the experiments I have made with the greatest care, and I authorize the house of Gottig & Will, of this city, to give publicity to this certificate, in Spanish and in foreign languages, in all countries where it may suit their interest to do so. JOSE LUIS CASASECA.

Originally discovered and prescribed by him as a Specific Remedy for

CONSUMPTION!

The use of the Hypophosphites in CONSUMPTION, Scrofula, Nervous Debility, Asthma, Bronchitis, Dyspepsia, Female Complaints, and all other diseases depending upon a DEFICIENT VITALITY IN THE ELEMENTS OF THE BLOOD, have proved their INVARIABLE EFFICACY in thousands of cases in Europe and America and established the claim of the discoverer, that they are a SURE PREVENTATIVE, and a

SPECIFIC REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION.

Dr. Churchill says: "In no single instance have I found the remedy fail to produce everything that could be reasonably expected from it. In most instances the benefit derived from it has FAR EXCEEDED what could at first have been hoped for, when taking into account the degree and extent of the injury sustained by the lungs previously to the use of the remedy. In one of the most severe cases in the third or last stage, treated at my Dispensary during the past year, EIGHT WAVE COMPLETELY RECOVERED, eight have died, and six are still under treatment. LAW SCHOOL OF THE UNIVERSITY AT CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

The Instructors in this School are:

Hon. JOEL PARKER, LL. D., Royall Professor.
Hon. THEOPHILUS PARSONS, LL. D., Dane Prof.
Hon. EMORY WASHBURN, LL.D., University Prof.

THE COURSE OF INSTRUCTION embraces the various branches of the Common Law; and of Equity, Admiralty, Commercial, Ecclesiastical, and Constitutional Law; and the Jurisprudence of the United States. The Law Library consists of about 14,000 volumes, to which the students have free access, and they are added, and every effort is made to render it complete.

Instruction is given by oral lectures and expositions, and by reciting and examination (in connection with them,) of which there are ten every week. Two Moot Courts are also holden in each week, at each of which a case is argued, and opinion delivered by the Presiding Instructor. Rooms and other facilities are also provided for the Club Courts; and an Association is established for practice in debate, and acquiring a knowledge of parliamentary law and proceedings.

Students may enter the School in any stage of their professional studies or mercantile pursuits, and at the commencement of either term, or in the middle, or other part of the term.

They are at liberty to elect what studies they will pursue, according to their views of their own wants and attainments.

The Academical year, which commences on Thursday, six weeks after the third Wednesday in July, is divided into two terms of twenty weeks each, with a vacation of six weeks at the end of each term.

The exercises of the next term will commence on MONDAY, September 5th, 1859.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, HAS BEEN ESTD. 1857.

76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on the most reasonable terms. Research made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters relating thereto. Models of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the agency named, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has almost every advantage of every other agency, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessary of a journey to Washington to secure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. THOS. EWBANK,
Commissioner of Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more desirous of putting their application in a form to secure to them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. CHARLES MAGRUDER BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and he now applies for the fourteenth, unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to prepare their papers, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.

From Sept 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY one of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

A compound remedy in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from obstrumous complaints, and that one which will a complish their cure must be of immense service to this large class of our fellow citizens. Cases of the most obstinate character of this compound will do it, has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEADS, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, DISEASES OF THE BOWELS, ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

The compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud.—Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the onset of foul eruptions and obscure complaints, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions or sores;—cleanse it when it is foul, for disease lurks in disguise in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no positive disease is lurking, the system enjoy better health, and live living longer, for disease in the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with the pabulum of life disordered, there can be no health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or anything else.

During years the public have been imposed by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been made upon Rose Water, and not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which have flooded the market, until the name itself is justly cpised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall recure the name from the load of obloquy which opeds upon it. And we think we have grounds for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the patient should be patient, closely taken according to directions on the bottle.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been used. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more tean assure the people that its virtues are still the same that has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

HOME AND EUROPEAN DEMAND.

The reason why, is that by Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, itching, and scurf from the scalp, gives it tone and vigor, and thus cures all nervous headache, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the hair, whether it will grow and keep it from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy and beautiful, and if used by the young two or three times a week it will never fall or become gray; then, readers, read the following and judge for yourselves:

NEW YORK, Jan. 8, 1858.

MESSRS. O. J. WOOD & CO.

Gentlemen: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudices which I, in common with a great many persons, had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your style, which I procured for my wife.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was but who having my prejudice without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof, and the best proof being ocular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further information, if they think and say, of the N. Y. Wire Railing establishment every day.

My hair is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and much more healthy looking than it was, I am, yours respectfully, HENRY JENKINS.

Cor. Columbia and Carroll Sts., Brooklyn.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country. My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, and was quite gray. I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudices which I, in common with a great many persons, had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your style, which I procured for my wife. The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was but who having my prejudice without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof, and the best proof being ocular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further information, if they think and say, of the N. Y. Wire Railing establishment every day.

My hair is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and much more healthy looking than it was, I am, yours respectfully, HENRY JENKINS.

Cor. Columbia and Carroll Sts., Brooklyn.

MOBILE, (Ala.,) Feb. 14, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost bare of covering—was in fact BALD. I have used but 2 half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well covered with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal commendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours, respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D.,
No. 604 Vine Street.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $5 a bottle.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrounding their lives to the institution broads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consequently, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease of the Sexual Organs, properly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are known to have been made by his cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RINGS AGAINST PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some fashionable female name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the art of compounding medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. j2 d1y

DR. SWEETT—Dear Sir:—I presume you recollect that when I saw you, about a year since, I was very low, and had been for a long time, with dyspeptic complaints, being very weak, with no appetite, and pain in my head, stomach and side; but now my health is comparatively good, and I consider this great deliverance attributable, mainly, to the two bottles of your "Compound Cordial of Dandelion," which you left for me. I consider this the best medicine I ever found for the complaints for which you recommend it on the labels.

Seven Octave Piano --- New Scale.

The Subscriber having just received a superior SEVEN OCTAVE PIANO-FORTE, made according to his order by the celebrated firm of HALLET, DAVIS & CO., would offer it for the inspection of persons desirous of purchasing. H. D. & Co. have recently made great improvements in the manufacture of Pianos, the most important of which is the New Scale, which, while obviating the weakness which has hitherto been found in the upper part of Square Seven Octave Pianos, gives it a power of tone nearly equal to that of the Parlor Grand.

Having been for several years Agent for the sale of Pianos of the above make, Mr. P. is prepared to state that the instruments which they are now making, far excel any of their former manufacture.

Purchasers will find it greatly to their advantage to call and examine the above mentioned Piano, as it is the only one in Portsmouth which contains the NEW SCALE.

Oleine Diamond Oil.
GREATEST ILLUMINATOR OF THE AGE.

This Oil is entirely free from treachery, so that a lamp may be left burning any length of time desired, without filling a room with lamp-black or soot.

It burns in the common oil lamp, with or without a chimney.

The light is far more pleasant than gas, as it is free from the disagreeable flickerings always attending a gas light, and is cheaper. We claim for this Oil:

1. That it is cheaper than any other artificial light.
2. That it has no odor.
3. That it will not smoke
4. That it will burn with or without a chimney, hence it is portable.
5. That it will stand a lower degree of temperature than any other Oil.
6. That it is free from each of the objections that are brought against every other article heretofore or now being offered to the public for illuminating purposes.

Price $1.25 per gallon.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 9, 1859.

DENTAL CONVENTION, NIAGARA.

INTERNATIONAL HOTEL, NIAGARA FALLS, Aug. 3, 1859. (Concluded.)

The hour of our intended departure arrived, and we took a cab to the depot. We enquired for our baggage, produced our checks, and made a thorough search; but all was unavailing. Then the pleasant baggage master informed us that our luggage was probably at the ferry landing, two miles distant. It wanted but twenty minutes of the departure of the train, and so far as we were aware, it was our only opportunity of proceeding on our journey till Monday.

We were unwilling to suffer a two days' delay at this point, and accordingly determined to make a strong effort to procure our trunks from the opposite side of the city, in the brief space yet at our disposal. We chartered a cab, and managed to make the little Frenchman who held the reins understand our wishes—though he confessed that all the English he could pronounce or comprehend were the three words—"You speak French?"—and were presently rattling over the pavement at a rapid rate.

We found the baggage, but on our return we discovered that our rapid journey between the stations had been unavailing; the train had departed, and we were left behind.

Regrets were useless, yet all hope of our reaching Niagara before noon of Tuesday, had departed,—and the Convention was to meet at 10 o'clock in the morning of that day! Truly, we were unfortunate.

Contrary to usual custom, as far as our experience goes, we received the sympathy of the railroad officials. The ticket master, Mr. Samuel Hough, informed us that an extra train, with a couple of car-loads of emigrants, would leave for Toronto at 10 P. M., and after considering upon the subject for a time, decided to put on a first-class car for our especial accommodation, and run the risk of the arrival of other passengers by the boat. It was an unusual exhibition of courtesy, and we were glad to find that the arrival of about twenty first-class passengers, to go by the car provided for us, saved the Company from actual loss.

It was past noon on Sunday when we arrived at Toronto; and after a night and part of a day of railroad jolting, we were glad enough to avail ourselves of a cool bath, a complete change of raiment, and an excellent dinner at the Rossin House.

It had been our intention to attend service at the new Unitarian Church, but the Directory informed us that the only service held, occurred at the hour of eleven. This project abandoned, we sought for the residence of the pastor of this church, the Rev. John Scott, to whom I had a letter of introduction, but we were unable to find his residence.

We left Toronto at 7 o'clock on the morning of Monday, and reached Niagara at noon, and were soon duly installed in our parlor at the "International," the leading hotel of the place. The house was completely filled with visitors, and we discovered that we had acted wisely in engaging excellent rooms some weeks in advance.—Many members of the Convention who had neglected to take like precautions, were compelled to take up their abode at inferior establishments.

This magnificent hotel, situated but a short distance from Goat Island, and not far from the American Falls, is conducted by R. B. Coleman, Esq. & Son—the former late of the firm of Coleman & Stetson, Astor House, New York. The name is a sufficient guaranty of the ability with which the extensive establishment is conducted, but the novelty of some of its features seem to demand more than a passing notice.

A band of music is attached to the house, and the principal meal of the day—the 3 o'clock dinner—is despatched to the enlivening strains of trumpets, violins and clarionets. The dishes for the second course are laid with marked precision, in exact time to the music, by an army of colored waiters; and the immense dining hall, with its five hundred guests, presents a most singular and animated spectacle. Every evening a hop takes place in the spacious parlor, in which all guests are at liberty to participate. The utmost order and regularity characterizes the establishment, and shows conclusively that a superior mind directs and controls the whole.

Many members of the Convention had already arrived, and with them we spent the afternoon of Monday, in viewing once more the many objects of interest which here abound. No hush had fallen upon the mighty cataract, nor had the rainbow lifted its glorious arch from the everlasting flood. Again were we drenched by the uprising mist, and again did we walk behind the foaming sheet, where human utterance is stilled by the thunderings of the mighty torrent.

Every train brought large accessions to our party, and before noon of Tuesday, the American Dental Convention was called to order at the sound of the gavel, in the hand of the President, Dr. Isaiah Forbes. The election for officers resulted in the choice of Dr. Rogers of Utica, N. Y., as President; Prof. George Watt of Cincinnati, as Vice President; Frank Fuller of Portsmouth, as Recording Secretary; Dr. Lewis of Florida, as Corresponding Secretary; and Dr. D. S. Chase of Georgia, as Treasurer.

The speech of the retiring President was a chaste and beautiful production, and elicited the warmest applause. The newly elected officers took their places upon the platform this morning, after an interesting address by the incoming President, and the discussions have been conducted with much ability.

This afternoon I witnessed the astounding feat by Mr. Blondin, of crossing the Niagara river on a single rope two and a half inches in diameter—extending a distance of one-fourth of a mile, from bank to bank, and elevated at its lowest point to the height of 192 feet. Of this wonderful performance I shall speak more in detail in my next.

F. F.

SOUTHERN ELECTIONS.—It seems to be the present impression in Texas that Sam Houston is elected Governor. Not certain, yet, by any means.

From Louisville, Aug. 6, it appears that the Opposition have gained two more members of Congress in Kentucky—in the 9th and 6th districts.

The Opposition have made large gains on the Democratic majority in Tennessee, but have not carried the State. They have probably gained two members of Congress.

In North Carolina the Opposition have gained one member of Congress, in the 1st district.

The returns from North Carolina are nearly all reported. Three Opposition and one Independent Democrat are elected.—Three Districts not yet heard from. Two Democrats are elected.

☞ The latest news from Europe is by the Nova Scotian, from Liverpool, August 27th. She brings advices four days later from Europe. There is but little of interest concerning the projected peace conference. It is vaguely hinted that England has expressed satisfaction in regard to the action of Napoleon, and will take part in the Congress on condition of a general disarmament, and that this is likely to take place. It is not known whether Sardinia will take part in it. The French army and navy are leaving Italy.

LAST HOURS OF HORACE MANN.—According to the Cleveland Herald, Mr. Mann had long been suffering from general debility, and was confined to his chamber several weeks. A note from Yellow Springs, Aug. 2, three P. M., briefly describes his last parting with his family and friends:—"Horace Mann is dying. He knows he is going, and knows the hour is near. He is conscious of everything going on around him, and feels perfectly resigned to his doom.—He has called his family, his students and his friends to his bedside, and has given them all fatherly advice and a dying blessing. He is sinking rapidly, and will, no doubt, be in the Land of Shadows ere the setting of the sun."

DEPOT BURNT AT SALMON FALLS.—On Saturday a fire broke out at half-past four in the afternoon, in the depot of South Berwick Branch Railroad Company, which was totally destroyed. A strong westerly wind prevailing at the time, the flames communicated across the river to Berwick, Me., and destroyed about thirteen buildings. Loss estimated at about $20,000; insurance about $5000, in the Cocheco, Saco and York county offices. Engines arrived from Dover and Great Falls. It was with difficulty that the large railroad bridge belonging to the Boston & Maine Company, crossing Salmon Falls river, was saved.

☞ Noticing the acerbity with which the elections in the Western States are being conducted, the New Orleans Picayune finds one notable fact developed by the canvass, viz., that the extreme ground taken on the question of slavery, "is rapidly forming a division in the South. We are in danger of a divided household from the new movements inaugurated by Southern extremists."

☞ The Episcopal Church in Lynchburg, Virginia, was opened on a late occasion, to the admission of a Presbyterian clergyman, who actually preached in it without "gowns or prayer-books." The Banner of the Cross informs us through a correspondent, that "the old pulpit cushion" of said church, "fairly blushed with shame, and what little blood it had, boiled within it, when it thought of the impropriety, if not the sin, of thus desecrating God's house."

☞ The running of steam engines on common roads, though new in this country, has been tested in England. An engine runs daily from Manchester to a colliery, eight miles distant. The road is undulating, and has several sharp curves, yet the engine draws five four-wheeled wagons, containing thirty tons' weight.

☞ We are sorry (says the Bath Times) that so good a paper as the Washington States should give place approvingly to such an item as the following:

Senator Davis, the master spirit of the conservative administration of Gen. Pierce, has solemnly announced to the citizens of his State, in convention assembled, what his line of action will be in case of the election of a black republican; and that announcement was met with enthusiastic cheers by his auditory. Numerous other distinguished Union preservers upon equitable, constitutional principles, have expressed themselves similarly. The mind must be a fanciful one that can perceive an existing union of the non-slaveholding States and the slaveholding States beyond the victory of Seward, if such victory be won.

The Times remarks:

We should deplore as much as any one the accession of Mr. Seward or any other "black republican" to power; but if, in a constitutional way, he or any other man succeeds, we trust "Senator Davis" and all other "master spirits" will find a cord sufficiently strong to bind them loyally to the Union, or to bind them by the neck to a gallows high as that on which Haman swung in olden time.

Don't be frightened, says Uncle Toby,—there's no certainty yet, of a black republican President, though there does seem to be a fair chance for it. And if such a thing should happen, those loud barking dogs will not bite anybody. They'll be glad to eat crumbs or gnaw bones under the table.

GEN. JONATHAN MOULTON.

In the Transcript of July 29th, I observed an extract from the Portsmouth (N. H.) Chronicle, relative to General Jonathan Moulton of Hampton, N. H., a man of great celebrity at the time in which he lived—the reminiscences of whose life have furnished the foundation of more gossiping stories and floating anecdotes than any other person in this region with the exception of the venerable Lord Timothy Dexter. It is to be regretted that the character of so remarkable a man as General Moulton should not have a correct delineation, and that some impartial biographer should not set forth amid the numerous faults, the corresponding virtues which he no doubt possessed. The result would, probably, show that the world was better from the part he enacted while he was in it.

General Moulton was a man having qualities of Character properly described under the present comprehensive phrase of "go-aheadativeness," he and acted in advance of his age. His success in the acquisition of property was so far in amount beyond that of his compeers, that they could only account for it by charging him with being in league with the "Evil One," and that ubiquitous individual about here at the present day, called "The Oldest Inhabitant," is hard to be persuaded to the contrary opinion.

There is scarcely a doubt that had General Moulton lived at this time, his far seeing shrewdness and persevering industry would have secured to him both riches and popular distinction. His name is perpetuated in that of the town of Moultonborough, the site of which he owned and laid out for settlement. He lived and died at Hampton, N. H., where his remains were buried upon a part of his homestead, with suitable memorials placed on the graves of himself, wife, and other friends and connections of the family.

These were kept in a good state of preservation for a very long series of years, (the farm passing through many ownerships) until the present time, when, through either carelessness or want of reverence toward the ashes of the dead, the ploughshare has passed over the green mounds of the graves, the stones are ruthlessly broken and the land is planted with potatoes. Thus, in the language of the poet,

"The spade, the plough, disturb our ancestors,
From human mould we reap our daily bread."

What a subject for reflection to those who place their hopes of earthly distinction upon material acquisitions and "call their lands after their own names."

FROM CALIFORNIA—OVERLAND.—St. Louis, August 7.—The overland mail of the 15th ult., has reached this city.

A fire at Crescent City, Cal., on the 9th, caused a loss of $30,000.

New gold and silver mines had been discovered in the Washo Valley, which promise to pay well.

There had been three arrivals from Victoria within a week, bringing upwards of $130,000 in gold and 300 passengers. The latest dates are to the 12th.

Frazer River had fallen sufficiently to permit the resumption of mining on the bars.

The Victoria Gazette says the yield of the mines within a year has been threemillions.

An arrival from Oregon on the morning of the departure of the mail brought advices indicating the election of Logan, rep., to Congress by 20 to 30 majority.

Salt Lake advices are to the 13th ult. A man named Brewer had been arrested at Camp Floyd for having in his possession $80,000 in counterfeit government checks on the Sub Treasury at St. Louis, most of which were ready for issue, excepting the signature.

Col. Crossman, an engraver, has also been arrested in Salt Lake City, in whose shop was found all the implements and materials used in preparing the checks, together with large bundles of unfilled checks.

Horace Greeley had arrived at Salt Lake City.

The Indians were committing depredations in Humboldt Co., and the Mormons were implicated.

☞ Capt. Dahlgreen, U. S. A., has proved one of his boat guns, and states that it does good execution at the distance of 2000 yards, which is the distance at which such effect is reported of the rifled guns at the battle of Solferino. The boat gun carries an oblong twelve-pound ball, and is of the same calibre probably as the French field guns.

A COUNTRY HOME.

O, give me a home in the country wide;
And a seat by the farmer's wood fireside;
Where the fire burns bright,
On a frosty night,
Where the jest, the song, the laugh are free,—
O, the farmer's home is the home for me!

O, give me a home in the country wide,
When the earth comes out as a blushing bride,
With her buds and flowers,
In the bright spring hours;
Her birds sing ringing from fresh leaved trees,
And melody floats on the perfumed breeze.

In Summer, a seat in a shady nook,
And close by the side of a purling brook,
Where the violet grows,
Or the pale swamp rose,
Fainting, sick, 'neath the sun's scorching beam,
Dips her pale petals in the cooling stream.

O, give me a home in the country wide,
In the golden days of a farmer's pride,
When the fields are filled
From the fields be tilled;
And he feels that his yearly task is done,
And smiling at Winter, he beckons him on.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—Patrick Noonan murdered his wife Catherine at Brooklyn last evening, by kicking and choking. He is under arrest.

During the storm yesterday afternoon the lightning struck several buildings in this vicinity, and two or three vessels. The ship Wild Pigeon was badly damaged. An unknown man walking in the Central Park was struck and instantly killed.

The boiler in the paper mill of Randolph & Van Drew, at Bloomfield, N. J., exploded yesterday, badly injuring three men one fatally, and doing great damage to the building.

Then again, the whole of their doings are to pass in review before the legislature. It is not at all certain that the law will be greatly changed. SPECIAL NOTICES.

R. R. R.
Wm. B. Oliver, Esq., F. M., of Drayton, Dodge county, Ga., cured a girl, who had been the number of years afflicted with Scrofula. She was covered from head to foot with sores; that she not sound flesh enough on her whole body to a twenty-five cent piece on.
SHE FELT HER CONDITION IMPROVE ON THE SECOND DAY.
The fourth day she was much better. On the 15th of April, 1858, she commenced the Resolvent, on the 30th of May, twenty-one days after she commenced its use.
SHE WAS SOUND.
Not a sore or blemish was upon her skin—was there any disease lingering in her system.
Mr. Oliver has cured many people in Dropsy, of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Fever and Ague, Swellings, Stiffness and Pains of various kinds with Radway's Ready Relief; and many of his friends have been cured of Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Indigestion, &c., by Radway's Regulators.

Jaundice.
This yellow coloration of the skin is characteristic of an increased secretion of bile, or of a passage into the blood, in consequence of an obstruction in the circulation of the liver. It itself but a symptom, the cause must be attacked in the central diseased organ; and ample experience proves that the PERUVIAN SYRUP is a wonderful manner in invigorating the liver to proper performance of its duty.

Common Sense rules the mass of the people whatever the misnamed and misanthrope philosophers may say to the contrary. Show them good thing: let its merits be clearly demonstrated, and they will not hesitate to give it the most cordial patronage. The masses have already ratified the judgment of a physician, concerning the virtues of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS as may be seen in the immense quantities of medicine that are annually sold in every section of the land. It is now recognized as greatly superior to all other remedies yet devised for the cases of the digestive organs, such as dyspepsia, dysentery, dyspepsia, and for the various forms that arise from derangement of those portions of the system. Hostetter's name is rapidly becoming a household word, from Maine to Texas; from the shores of the Atlantic to the Pacific. Read the article and be satisfied.

Dyspepsia.
Considering the various forms in which this disease develops itself, it may well be called a dra-headed. In its train follow Indigestion, Costiveness, Want of Stomach, Water Brash, Costiveness, Piles, Acidity, Oppression after Eating, Jaundice, Flatulency, Torpor of the Liver, Dizziness, Debility, Female Complaints, &c. Some of the first men in our land have given their written certificates positive to the cures effected in their own persons by the OXYGENATED BITTERS; and testimonials from other sources, editorial opinions and voluntary expressions from persons averse to see their names in print, are perfectly overwhelming.
Read the following from a highly respectable Clergyman:
EAST TAUNTON, Mass., Feb. 9, '59.
To the Editor of the Portland Mirror,—Sir—
OXYGENATED BITTERS—For more than two five years I have been a sufferer from the dyspepsia. Besides trying the patience of my friends physicians in the almost useless trial of their various prescriptions, I have tried a great variety of patent medicines with a similar result. Through the kindness of my physician, I received in March, half a dozen bottles of the OXYGENATED BITTERS. I began to use them without any hope of derriving help from them. Being determined to give them a fair trial, I continued their use, but without any perceptible benefit till June.
Since then I have gradually improved in health till I am entirely free from acidity of the stomach, and from the oppressive fullness of food, and awful and almost distracting sick headache which often, for days together, has wholly unfitted me for study and for all other ministerial duties, and rendered life a burden.
I feel that I owe it, as an expression of gratitude to Messrs. Fowle & Co., and also a duty to the public, to recommend their Oxygenated Bitters, as, in my estimation, a sure remedy for the most trying, most vexing, and cruel of all diseases, to which poor human flesh is heir—the dyspepsia. Having suffered so long, and tried so many different remedies with no good result, I can recommend the Oxygenated Bitters with confidence few others can. If any of the readers of the Mirror are suffering, I beg of them to make trial of these Bitters without delay.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.
THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.
This Gin, distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the supervision of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restorative of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in nature.
It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.
Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.
Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin "not only superior to any other, but the sole article of the kind he has ever seen."
It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.
For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.
May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; E. Peeker, 20 Elm st; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. "BUILD NOT YOUR HOUSE TOO HIGH"—For several reason. It will save expense, save labor, render you more safe, more healthy, and prolong life—important considerations, all will admit—but what is the application? We wish, Messrs. Editors, to apply it to the school house about to be built on Cabot street, for the accommodation of two hundred small children, in the forming period of life physically, as well as mentally and morally; where they are to spend six hours a day each, for from two to five years; and it becomes a question of no small importance what kind of a building this shall be. Three different sets of plans have been submitted to the City Government, for their approval and adoption. The first, for an ornamental building, to be of brick and stone, designed well for show—equally well for expense; estimated to cost $10,000—would probably cost when completed, $15,000. This the Common Council immediately rejected, and ordered another. The second, somewhat more moderate, a wooden building, two stories high, at an estimated cost of $5800—at a probable cost of $8000. This plan they voted to lay on the table, and ordered another for a one-story house, arranged for the accommodation of two schools on the same floor; to be plain, but substantial, with no particular aim at the ornamental, and yet beautiful from its adaptation to the purpose for which it is to be used, viz: a house for small children. This plan was procured, and the estimated cost of the architect was $4430. Competent judges are of the opinion, that at the present time, when business is dull, and our mechanics have but little to do, that a house according to this plan can be built for less than $4000. The Common Council, without a dissenting voice, adopted this plan, after a careful consideration of all the plans—believing it to be the best;—best because it will give to the district what they have asked through the school committee unanimously, as I understand, a one-story house; more convenient, as it will be easier of access to small children and invalid teachers, there being no clambering up or tumbling down stairs; more safe from accidents of fire and lightning; more healthy, since the rooms will necessarily be higher and more airy; and while it will possess these and other advantages when completed, over a two-story house, it can be built much cheaper.

Now what is urged against it? I understand these are the objections of the Mayor and Aldermen—for I have not heard that anybody else have any. They think the lot insufficient in size; that the great length of the building will give it the appearance of a "rope-walk;" that it will be no ornament to the city, and bring into question the reputation of the city fathers as gentlemen of good taste in architecture. Weighty objections: but let us examine them a little in detail. The school house lot is 136 feet by 68, and by bringing out the fence on State street where it was intended to be, and so as to range with the fence of Joshua Brooks, Esq.,—four feet will be added to its width, making it 72 feet wide, and giving a superficial area of 9,792 feet. The plan of the one-story house, 63 feet by 45, covers an area of 4185 feet, leaving a surplus of 5607 feet. If it be urged that this is not enough for out-buildings and to give a sufficient play ground, I grant it; and the same objection will hold good with every other school house in the city,—for there is not a school that does not more or less, play in the streets—and particularly is this so of the High School, where the grounds are handsomely grassed over, as they should be, and the pupils forbidden to play upon them.

The appearance of the building will not be very unlike the Catholic Church near by—and I never heard that any one was ever offended at the proportions of that building, while I have heard the Priest commended for his economy in building it, and the question asked, why cannot the city build a school house as economically?

A Roman lady once being asked by a fashionable acquaintance to show her her ornaments, brought in her boys, just returned from school—well educated, well trained and well behaved, and said, "Madam, these are my ornaments." It is not by school houses, primarily, that we should seek to ornament the city, but rather by the children—well developed, healthy, well educated and well behaved—that have been schooled in these houses. To such a school, even if kept in the present uncouth and uncomfortable house on Cabot street, we would first lead the stranger who would see in the city what we most prided ourselves in as its chief ornament. But these objections I think all invalid: and as a one-story house has been asked for unanimously by the committee, and as they approve of the plan procured—as the Common Council, with whom the people by their city charter, have placed the power of voting what sums of money shall be raised by taxes, and how it shall be spent, have by four several and distinct votes, limited the sum to be spent on this school house to $4500, and as they have unanimously adopted the plan of a one-story house, some better reasons than those already given, will be required to justify the Mayor and Aldermen in building a house differing in plan and greatly exceeding in cost the sum appropriated.

DISTRICT NO. 2.

NEW HAMPSHIRE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.—The annual meeting of this association was held in Concord, on the 2d, 3d and 4th insts. The usual amount and kind of business was transacted. During the sessions, the association listened to an address by Rev. Wm. T. Savage of Franklin. The leading idea of the discourse related to a development of the true mission of the family, the state, the church and the school, in the civilization and culture of the race. The following is the board of officers for the ensuing year:

President—David Crosby, Nashua.

Vice Presidents—John P. Payson, Rockingham Co.; Wm. C. Fox, Carroll; John Fullerton, Belknap; H. E. Sawyer, Merrimack; B. F. Wallace, Hillsborough; S. H. McCollester, Cheshire; James W. Patterson, Grafton.

Secretaries—George W. Gardner, New London; Wm. A. Webster, Manchester.

Treasurer—E. Knight, New London.

Councillors—E. A. Rowe, Meriden; Peltiah Brown, Concord; Dyer H. Sanborn, Hopkinton; N. F. Carter, Exeter; Harry Brickett, Hillsborough.

☞ Rev. E. H. Chapin, D. D. is to deliver a Lecture on Temperance in this city on Wednesday evening next, by request of the Ministers of the city. The reputation of the lecturer will doubtless secure a good audience. A collection will be taken.

☞ We understand that Prof. Kirbye is en route for this city, and will shortly make his appearance before a Portsmouth audience—so "look out for fun when Kirbye comes."

☞ On Saturday afternoon the detective police of Boston, assisted by City Marshal Rugg and the police of Chelsea, succeeded in arresting Harrison T. Wheeler and Geo. W. Marshall in that city, on a charge of passing forged checks in a large number of stores in Boston at various times within two months. Their operations have been on a very extensive scale, and about fifteen mercantile firms have been victimized by them for various amounts.

Wheeler was the proprietor of a fancy goods and shoe store, and Marshall of a shoemaker's shop. About 4 o'clock in the afternoon, Marshall was found in the street, drunk, and was arrested and locked up.—Subsequently the officers went to Wheeler's place, but Wheeler resisted, and was taken into custody with much difficulty. He had a knife in his hand at the time, but says he had no intention of using it on the officer. Both men were finally taken to the Tombs, their identity being positively established.

Wheeler has already served two years in the State Prison for forgeries. He has not lived in Chelsea for several years, until recently, when he returned there, and purchased his place of Marshall. He is about 40 years old, has a wife and children, and is respectably connected. Mrs. W. says that both she and her husband belong to the Baptist church, and that he is a member of a Division of Sons of Temperance. Marshall also has a wife and family.

Much of the property obtained by Wheeler was found in his store, and identified. It has been removed to the City Hall. The whole extent of the operation is not known, but it will probably amount to several thousand dollars.

Mr. Spurgeon, when at Burton, said, if the devil's cook sent him up for breakfast a grilled Unitarian and an infidel, that they were so much alike, his satanic majesty would not be able to say which was which. —English Paper.

Either the English paper belies Mr. Spurgeon, or else that distinguished man has added one to the "four unapproachable clowns."

The city of St. Louis took a vote last week upon allowing the sale of spirituous liquors on Sunday, and the returns foot up 5,298 in favor of selling on Sunday, and 7,413 opposed; it is therefore probable that this vile traffic will there cease for one day in seven. We should like to see the question submitted to the people of Newburyport, when no officers were to be elected, whether the existing law in this State should be enforced and all the unauthorized venders be called to an account. We should then get a clear expression of opinion.—Newburyport Herald.

They have taken such a question in Maine, and the result is, that the people of that State have established the law.

☞ A deputation from the British and Foreign Anti-Slavery Society, headed by Lord Brougham, had an interview with the Duke of Newcastle, in regard to the Coolie emigration to the West Indies. They urged the appointment of a Committee of inquiry; but the Duke said that time would not permit at this session, but an official inquiry should be instituted in the Colonies.

☞ The city of Columbia, S. C., recently passed an ordinance in regard to bread. The bakers did not relish the ordinance—and so resolved on nullifying it, by stopping the supply of that staff of life. But as flour is cheap in South Carolina, the people threw themselves on their reserved rights, and brought into fashion the old family ovens. The result of the conflict has not yet transpired.

TO THE PUBLIC.

I beg leave to call the attention of the American Public to the following Certificate from the Government Chemist for the Island of Cuba and the Spanish West Indies, and who is known to the Scientific men of London, Paris, Madrid, Cuba and America to be the first Chemist in the world.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHEMICAL TESTIMONY.

D. Jose Luis Casabeca, Corresponding Member of the Royal Academies of Madrid and Munich, a Graduate in Sciences of the Faculty of Paris, formerly Professor of Chemistry, as applied to the Arts, of the Royal Conservatorio of Madrid, and of Physics and Chemistry, as applied to the Industry and Agriculture of the country, in the Royal University of this Island, at present H. M.'s Director of the Institute of Chemical Investigation, &c., &c.

Do hereby certify, that at the request of the house of Gottig & Will, of this place, I have made an analytical examination of U. Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, with the object of ascertaining if it contained any substance noxious to health, and to inform them as to its true composition and relative quality with the other gins that are offered in the market, and the results of my observations and experiments are as follows:—

Udolpho Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps is a spirituous liquid, of a very agreeable aromatic odor, completely transparent and almost colorless, having only a very slight tint of yellowish gray; its flavor is strong and very agreeable to the palate. It marks 20 degrees in Cartier's alcohol weigher or 52 degrees 5 hundredth in Gay Lussac's alcohometre. By the distillation in a balsium maria, with an apparatus consisting of a glass retort and a recipient surrounded with ice, I have collected in this recipient an alcoholic liquid with a very agreeable aroma, completely colorless and transparent, which marked 90 degrees in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, or 70 degrees 5 hundredth on Gay Lussac's alcohometre; and which represented as a whole 57 per cent. of aromatic Schiedam schnapps subject to distillation in the retort. This liquid did not soil the transparency of the distilled water in mixing it with the same, and its agreeable aroma is doubtless due to a very trifling amount of an essential oil inseparable from alcohol.

From the remainder of the distillation which was left in the retort, I have obtained, through evaporation in a vapor bath, a substance of a yellowish brown color, clear, and having a bitter taste, which is not disagreeable, and which afterwards becomes aromatic and leaves the mouth perfumed with that fragrance peculiar to the vanilla. I am inclined to believe that to this bitter and aromatic extractive substance, soluble in water and alcohol, the medicinal properties which are attributed to this gin are due. I have not found in Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps any mineral or organic substance other than the extractive one already named and the aromatic one obtained by distillation. Finally, Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps consists simply of an aromatic alcohol of 20 degrees of graduation in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, and of an extractive bitter aromatic substance, which perhaps, is medicinal; and, on account of its not containing any matter injurious to the health, as well as for its odor and good flavor—a fact which no doubt arises from the choice substances employed in its manufacture, and from the peculiar manner of its distillation, it should, in my opinion, be preferred to all the Holland, Belgic and German gins which are found in this Island which it has been my business to examine. These gins as I have often proved it, exhale a disagreeable odor, and have a more or less disagreeable flavor, some of them having left as was the case with the superior gin from the distillery of Mr. Henry Deetjen (of Bremen,) as residum after evaporation by steam, a substance almost insipid and very trifringly aromatic, with flavor of vanilla, but in no wise with the delicious bitter and aromatic flavor of that of Udolpho Wolfe; and others, such as that labelled "Genuine Samaritan," "Extra Superior." Messrs. Tracher have furnished me with a very small quantity of a greenish substance, of harsh metalic taste and very disagreeable, which extractive organic matter was mixed with a salt of copper, with signs of iron, owing perhaps, to a bad system of distillation.

I certify that all that is here stated is the truth and agrees with the experiments I have made with the greatest care, and I authorize the house of Gottig & Will, of this city, to give publicity to this certificate, in Spanish and in foreign languages, in all countries where it may suit their interest to do so. CONSUMPTION IS CURABLE!

BY THE USE OF

Winchester's Genuine Preparation of Dr. J. F. Churchill's Compound of the

HYPOPHOSPHITES

OF LIME, SODA AND POTASH,

Originally discovered and prescribed by him as a Specific Remedy for

CONSUMPTION!

The use of the Hypophosphites in CONSUMPTION, Scrofula, Nervous Debility, Asthma, Bronchitis, Dyspepsia, Chronic Complaints, and all other diseases depending upon a DEFICIENT VITALITY IN THE ELEMENTS OF THE BLOOD, have proved their INVARIABLE EFFICACY in thousands of cases in Europe and America and established the claim of the discoverer, that they are a SUB PRERVENTATIVE, and a

SPECIFIC REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION.

Dr. Churchill says: "In no single instance have I found the remedy fail to produce everything that could be reasonably expected from it. In most instances the benefit derived from it has FAR EXCEEDED what could at first have been hoped for, when taking into account the degree and extent of the injury sustained by the lungs previously to the use of the remedy; and in the two cases in the third or last stage, treated at my Dispensary during the past year, EIGHT HAVE completely recovered, eight more died, and six are still under treatment. SUCH A RESULT IS ALTOGETHER UNPARALLELED IN THE ANNALS OF MEDICINE!"

BE SURE TO PURCHASE WINCHESTER'S GENUINE PREPARATION,

which is certified by Dr. James R. Chilton to be "PROPERLY MADE and chemically pure. My fac-simile signature is upon each bottle."

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, REMOVED TO 1:37.

76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any other which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE, and the best proof of his SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey of Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure to them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and those granted have been such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

A compound remedy in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Sarsaparilla, combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the disease Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will a complish their cure must be of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it, has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TETTER, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY AND LASSITUDE AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed all the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which then lurk in the system in season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves the occurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions or sores—cleanse it when you find it is obstructed or sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no morbid disorder is to be expelled, to keep health, and live live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with its pollution all the elements of decay are in a lasting exalt. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Such a remedy is need, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, and partly by those by preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or anything else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been made of Rosin, Soap and Water, and contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but contain no curative properties whatever. Aence bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we believe the compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall recuse the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have accomplished it, believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, we think it should be persiously taken according to directions on the bottle.

Has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people that its virtues are still the same it has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

HOME AND EUROPEAN DEMAND.

The reason why, is that by Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, itching, and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headaches, and prevents fits; cures all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy and beautiful, and if used by the young two or three times a month will never fall to prevent gray; then, reader, read the following and judge for yourselves:

NEW YORK, Jan. 3, 1858.

MESSRS. O. J. WOOD & CO.

Gentlemen: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to laid aside the prejudices which I, in common with a great many persons, had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be gray as I was but who having my prejudice without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial (if they only for further proof, and the best proof being occular demonstration), I write you this letter, which you may use as you think best and I will be happy to give further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing establishment every day.

My hair is now its natural color and much improved both in appearance, it is now glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking. I am, yours respectfully, HENRY JENKINS.

Cor. Columbia and Carroll Sts., Brooklyn.

LIVINGSTON, Ala., Feb. 13, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country. My hair had been gradually thinning for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, &c., S. W. MIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beyond all doubt, in my case, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—was in fact BALD. I have used but 2 half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit, and recommend the public generally. Book at the Franklin House.

Yours, respectfully,
D. R. THOMAS, M. D.,
No. 464 Vine Street.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, the large, containing a pint, and retails for half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance one has to know their condition, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may desire them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empirics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of the number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in sending Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by unprincipled persons who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicine.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with the kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate.

DR. SWETT'S
CORDIAL OF DANDELION,
SPIKENARD & BONESET,
A remedy unsurpassed for Liver Complaints, such as Costiveness, Dizziness and Pain in the Head, Stomach and Side, Universal Debility, and the whole family of Consumptive Complaints.
Hundreds of testimonials might be added, proving the many cures by this pleasant and effectual medicine, especially of people advanced in life, whose debilitated constitutions have been greatly recruited by it. A trial of it is warranted to well pay the aged and dyspeptic. Price 75 cents.
[From Mrs. Daniel H. Williams.]
DR. SWETT—Dear Sir:—I presume you recollect that when I saw you, about a year since, I was very low, and had been for a long time, with dyspeptic complaints, being very weak, with no appetite, and pain in my head, stomach and side; but now my health is comparatively good, and I consider this great deliverance attributable, mainly, to the two bottles of your "Compound Cordial of Dandelion," which you left for me. I consider this the best medicine I ever found for the complaints for which you recommend it on the labels.
MARY E. WILLIAMS.
Concord, N. H., May 28, 1858.
ENFIELD, Sept. 8, 1859.
Last spring and Summer I was troubled with the Liver Complaint, which caused my food to distress me badly; and I do not know what cured me, but one thing I do know, and that is, I took one bottle of Dr. S. Swett's Cordial of Dandelion, and the disease left me, and has not returned.
A. K. CURRIER.
This unequalled medicine, together with others carefully prepared by Dr. SIMEON SWETT, from innocent but effectual vegetables, are for sale by him at No. 12 CABOT ST., Portsmouth, N. H.

Seven Octave Piano --- New Scale.
The Subscriber having just received a superior SEVEN OCTAVE PIANO-FORTE, made according to his order by the celebrated firm of HALLET, DAVIS & CO., would offer it for the inspection of persons desirous of purchasing. H. D. & Co. have recently made great improvements in the manufacture of Pianos, the most important of which is the New Scale, which, while obviating the weakness which has hitherto been found in the upper part of Square Seven Octave Pianos, gives it a power of tone nearly equal to that of the Parlor Grand.
Having been for several years Agent for the sale of Pianos of the above make, Mr. P. is prepared to state that the instruments which they are now making, far excel any of their former manufacture.
Purchasers will find it greatly to their advantage to call and examine the above mentioned Piano, as it is the only one in Portsmouth which contains the NEW SCALE.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 10, 1859.

KENTUCKY.

The Boston Courier tells us that,—

Mr. Beriah Magoffin, the Democratic candidate, has been elected Governor of Kentucky, and the same party have carried both branches of the Legislature, and will have the honor of sending an administration man to the Senate in place of Mr. Crittenden, whose term expires next March.

The New York Journal of Commerce takes it for granted that the Kentucky legislators will honor themselves by sending Vice President Breckinridge as Senator.—And some other paper suggests that Mr. B. thinks his chances better to get into the White House some day from the floor of the Senate, than from the Vice Presidency.

The Concord Democratic Standard tells us what kind of a democrat Gov. Magoffin is, by saying he "not only repudiates the doctrine of squatter sovereignty, but stands substantially on the ground advocated by the Democratic Standard, as the true and just ground for the settlement of this question—that is, the equal right of the slaveholder to take his slave property into the Territory, and protection of that property by Congress if necessary, until the Territory becomes a State. In relation to the position of Mr. Magoffin, the Louisville Courier, the leading and ablest of the democratic presses of Kentucky, says:—

"Mr. Magoffin is for the protection of slavery in the Territories, and claims both the power and the duty of Congress to protect whenever it may be necessary. This is all that we have claimed, and it is wonderful to us how any Democrat, with the opinion of the Supreme Court in the Dred Scott case, and the resolution of our Democratic State platform adopting that opinion, before him, could assert any other doctrine in the name of Democracy."

The Standard adds:

The position taken by the Standard is the one which will be endorsed and maintained by the National Democratic Convention to assemble at Charleston in 1860. It will be the position of the Democracy of the country, and it will be the only just, true, and constitutional position that can be taken and maintained. It commits no man to the advocacy or support of slavery in the abstract. It only requires that we should recognize and protect the just rights of that portion of our fellow citizens who do support the institution, as secured to them by the common constitution of our country.

A recent article in the London Critic admits that the orthography of Webster's Dictionary is all but universal in the United States.

Ay, ay: sure enough it is all but! Before Webster unabridged had been pushed into the market by tens of thousands, there was something like uniformity among good writers and decent printers in this country—but since that great standard has been set up, almost every compositor "spells with a perfect looseness,"—and the proof readers "let it slide," thinking it is no great matter how the word is spelt, if people guess what it means.

☞ A curious resurrection case occurred last week at Rome, Franklin county, Ohio. Mr. Peters, wife of a German of that name, after a short illness, was supposed to have died. On placing her body in the coffin, a general perspiration was observed throughout the skin, which was reported to the husband with the suggestion that the burial be deferred, in the hope of reanimation. To this the husband objected, and had her interred the same day. After the burial services were over, some relatives of the supposed deceased arrived at Rome to attend the funeral, which had already taken place, and hearing of the circumstances, caused the body, which had been four hours in the grave, to be disinterred, when to their surprise and joy they found signs of life still remaining. Restoratives being administered, Mrs. Peters gradually recovered, was taken by her friends, and is now well. She refuses to live again with her husband. The circumstances connected with this affair are strange indeed.

ANOTHER AFRICAN REPUBLIC.—Advices from Mogadore, Africa, state that the inhabitants had risen in rebellion against the constituted authorities, and established a republic. Mogadore is a fortified city, and the principal seaport of the Emperor of Morocco on the Atlantic. The population is estimated at 17,000, including 4000 Jews. It stands on a rocky promontory, surrounded by a barren and sandy region. It was founded in 1760, on the site of an old Portuguese fort, and exports gum, wool, wax, hides, skins, almonds, feathers, gold dust, wrought iron, hardware and cotton goods. It is defended from the sea by several strong batteries.

☞ At the Cape of Good Hope, the Anglo-African says the small pox has increased so much in Graham's Town among the, colored people in the location near the burial ground, that the magistrate has deemed it prudent to proclaim the act relating to contagious diseases.

☞ Nathaniel Washington, the colored boy who upset a boat in a pond at Elmwood, R. I., in which were five boys besides himself, has been held for manslaughter.

A SINGULAR ERROR.

The Boston Courier of August 4, in noticing the death of Hon. Horace Mann, indulges in this language:

Upon the death of John Quincy Adams, he then living at Dedham, Mr. Mann was chosen his successor as Representive in Congress, where he distinguished himself as the exponent of the anti-slavery sentiment of Massachusetts. He would probably have been continued in Congress many years if he had not assailed the course of Daniel Webster, and aspersed his character with a pertinacious virulence which knew no rest, and was scarcely reconcileable with the possession of a sound heart or sound mind. After his attack upon Mr. Webster he was nominated for Congress, but his election was defeated by the Webster Whigs, who had begun to take the form of a distinct party.

We happened to be travelling in Mr. Mann's district when Mr. Webster made his speech, and also when the next election took place; and so far from Mr. Mann's being defeated, it was Mr. Walley, the candidate of the Webster Whigs, who was defeated, having 2500 votes less than Mr. Mann.

Mr. M. was not defeated at all—but went to Congress till he declined to be a candidate.

"The Man recovered from the bite."

The Traveller says—

It is true Mr. Mann denounced Mr. Webster's 7th of March speech, and Mr. Webster and his retainers demanded his defeat by the Whigs of the Eighth District. The Whig District Convention, in obedience to the decree, refused to nominate Mr. Mann, but he at once appealed to the people, took the stump, denounced Mr. Webster's course and defied his power; and instead of being "defeated by Webster Whigs," he was elected by 260 majority over "Webster Whigs" and Democrats—beating the Webster candidate, a man personally popular, by 2530 votes. The people of the Eighth District sustained Mr. Mann and rebuked Mr. Webster.

☞ They had a terrific hail storm in some parts of Bennington county, Vermont, on the 26th ult. The Bennington Banner says:—"Some eighteen hours after the storm, Mr. J. N. Harbour, who resides in the north part of Woodford, brought to the Banner office a half bushel of hail stones that fell in that locality, varying all the way in size from a bullet to a hen's egg. They must have been, at the time of falling, as large as oranges! Mr. H. informs us that on Wednesday morning he could shovel it up by the bushel! Of course the damage done is immense. Mr. H. had fifteen acres of nice oats, and some fine patches of potatoes, that were entirely cut to pieces. Cabbages and vines are also entirely ruined.—Window lights could afford no resistance, and were broken without mercy."

POLITICAL.—Further returns from Kentucky give the Opposition four members of the Thirty-Fifth Congress in lieu of two.—In the Fourth District, the official count gives a tie vote, which will render another election in that district necessary. The Governor and other State officers are democrats, chosen by majorities varying from 7000 to 10,000.

In Tennessee, the Opposition have gained two, probably three, and possibly four members of Congress. The Fourth District, in which Emerson Etheridge was a candidate, is still in doubt. Gov. Isham G. Harris (dem.) is re-elected by about 6000 majority.

TENNESSEE ELECTION.—Nashville, Aug. 8.—In 30 counties, more than half the State, Netherland, opp., for Governor gains 1600, indicating a democratic majority of about 8000.

The opposition elect their Congressmen in the 8th and 9th districts.

The State Senate is certainly one, and probably three democratic majority.

In the House there is certainly three, and probably five democratic majority.

☞ The Albany Evening Journal says that the people at Schaghticoke are very indignant, and threaten bodily harm to Mr. White, the Superintendent, if he shows himself in that vicinity. A party have burned an old freight car belonging to the road, and will continue the work if they attempt to run the road again. The bridge at Schaghticoke is said to be in a very dangerous condition; also several other bridges along the line of the road. The villagers seem disposed to prevent the resumption of business on the road.

☞ The Boston Atlas, speaking of the sleek hypocrite at Chelsea, who has lately got into jail for swindling the Boston traders, says:—

Wheeler, who has acted as the principal in these operations, is a member of the Baptist Church and a Son of Temperance in good standing, and has respectable connections. He has twice been in the State Prison for forgery.

☞ Keene seems to be thriving and increasing rapidly. The Sentinel says about forty new buildings are already erected this season, or in process of construction, and that over $100,000 will be invested in these.

STEAM FIRE ENGINE FOR BOSTON.—The Amoskeag Manufacturing Company of Manchester, N. H., have received an order for an engine for Boston, to be delivered the last of September.

"STEPHEN'S OLD CLOTHES."—In a room at the Girard College, in Philadelphia, is kept a large portion of Mr. Girard's antiquated wardrobe, which is shown to visitors, and is generally viewed with much interest. With this explanation the following "good one" from the Philadelphia North American, alleged to be true, will be understood and appreciated:

"A few days since a party of Friends, comprising eight persons, male and female, made their first visit to the city. They inspected the Mint, Fairmount Park, and other places, at once, devoting the last day of their stay to a leisurely tour through the Girard College. They first went over the grounds, and then saw the pupils, the school rooms, the dormitories and play-rooms.—They then asked to be shown 'the room where Stephen's old clothing was kept.'—Their escort was a recently engaged female domestic, rather fresh from the sod, who professed to know 'how to do everything, an' a dale besides.' Milesian female listened to the request to be shown 'Stephen's old clothing,' and remarked that 'nothing was aysier.' She conducted the party to the fourth story of the building occupied by Professor Stephens. She brought seats for her guests, and then spread before them several pairs of pants, a good deal the worse for wear, a number of vests in like condition, and two coats, one with a claw hammer tail, and the other a dress coat that had been converted into a 'bob.'

The visitors handled the garments with great veneration, expressed themselves freely as to Friend Stephen's taste in personal apparel, commented upon the stitching of the button holes, the cut of the unmentionables, and finally retired, greatly gratified at having ocularly examined 'Friend Stephen's wardrobe.' As they descended the stairs the party passed the open door of a sleeping room, in which Mrs. Professor Stephens was taking a siesta. Mrs. Stephens saw one, two, three, and finally eight people coming down the stairs of her own private dwelling, and wondered what was meant by the intrusion. The servant girl, however, saw them to the door, received their thanks for her politeness in exhibiting Stephen's wearing apparel, and then returned to her mistress.

'Who were those people, Biddy?' asked Mrs. Stephens.

'Mighty nice people, indade, ma'am.—They're jather lookin' at Mr. Stephens' ould clothes.'

'Mr. Stephens' old clothes?'

'Yis, ma'am; sure, they axed to see 'em, an' I tuk 'em up garret and showed 'em Mr. Stephens' ould breeches an' the like o' thim.'

Mrs. Stephens saw how matters stood, and laughed until the tears came. The worthy Friends, we doubt not, will do the same thing when they learn that the blundering Irish girl, instead of gratifying their desire to behold the garments worn by Stephen Girard, had treated them to a view of Professor Stephens' cast-off clothing."

"I'VE GOT ORDERS NOT TO GO."—"I've got orders, positive orders, not to go there; orders that I dare not disobey," said a youth, who was being tempted to a smoking and gambling saloon.

"Come, don't be so womanish — come along like a man," shouted the youths.

"No, I can't break orders," said John.

"What special orders have you got? come, show 'em to us, if you can; show us your orders."

John took out a neat wallet from his pocket, and pulling out a neatly folded paper, "It's here," he said, unfolding the paper, and showing it to the boys. They looked, and one of them read, aloud: "Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of wicked men. Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away."

"Now," said John, "you see my orders forbid me going with you; they are God's orders, and by His help I don't mean to break them."

"HAD FITS."—The Burlington (Vt.) Times tells the following:—

"Dr. Cox, of the Methodist denomination in Portland, Me., is a very apt manager, especially at prayer meeting. It sometimes happens, Sabbath evenings, that his meetings draw together a few rowdies, who do not go there to pray or to be prayed for.—A few evenings ago some young fellows, forgetting their good manners, were rather noisy, and not so attentive to the services as they ought to be. Dr. Cox thus addressed them: 'Young gentlemen,' said he. Then stopping a few moments, he continued, 'I don't know as I ought to call you gentlemen, for your conduct here this evening does not merit that title. And yet I may be doing you injustice, as another clergyman did on another occasion. Having reprimanded a young man for disturbing his meeting, he met the father of the young man the next day, who told the pastor that he did wrong in reprimanding his son.—'Why so?' said the pastor. 'My son has fits,' replied the father. 'And now,' said Dr. Cox, 'I don't know, young gentlemen, but you may be troubled with fits. If so, I will not reprimand you, but ask you to leave.' The young men took their hats and departed with fleas in their ears."

☞ The journeymen bakers of New York held a meeting on Saturday, to deliberate upon the condition of their trade.—They adopted a resolution to solicit the master bakers of the city to reduce their hours of daily labor from twenty to twelve hours, and to stop the delivery of bread on Sunday altogether.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—A cargo of six hundred Africans has been landed on the coast of Florida, near Tampa. As soon as the landing was effected, the vessel was fired and abandoned. This statement is made on the authority of U. S. Marshal Blackburn.

LATER FROM HAYTI.—New York, Aug. 8.—Advices from Hayti to the 23d, state that the Haytien Legislature had offered to Geffrard the office and title of Dictator, which he had declined.

FROM THE KANSAS GOLD MINES.—St. Louis, Aug. 8.—A special dispatch to the Bulletin says that the overland express arrived last night at Leavenworth with Denver City dates of the 24th ult. Great excitement prevails at the mines in consequence of the discovery of rich diggings at the head waters of the Colorado. Hundreds were leaving daily for the digging.—Another express due to-day, will probably by bring the particulars of the new discoveries.

The Leavenworth Times of to-day says that a recent Vigilance Committee was organized during the past week for the purpose of breaking up the extensive gangs of horse thieves and robbers which invest the Territory. One or two victims had suffered the death penalty, and others were punished until they confessed their crimes and exposed their associates. The Committee disbanded after gaining sufficient knowledge to effect the detection of the different gangs.

☞ A correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat writing from "Egypt," Illinois, recommends Gov. Bissell as the Republican candidate for the Presidency. He says:

The various names presented to the voters of the United States for the highest and most responsible office that was ever committed to man's keeping, namely, for President of the United States in 1860, has induced the writer in Lower Egypt, Ill., to present the name of her distinguished Executive, William H. Bissell. The Republican party of the United States, with Gov. Bissell as their standard bearer for President, can carry the considered doubtful State of Illinois, even over the head of the Prince of Demagogues Stephen A. Douglas.

Then if it is indispensably necessary to the success of the Republican party, that they carry Illinois in 1860, and Gov. Bissell can succeed in so desirable an object, is not his name entitled to the highest consideration in the coming canvass?

SPECIAL NOTICES.

R. R. R.

Wm. B. Oliver, Esq., P. M., of Drayton, Dooly county, Ga., cured a girl, who had been for a number of years afflicted with Scrofula. The disease covered from head to foot with sores; there was not sound flesh enough on her whole body to lay a twenty-five cent piece on.

SHE FELT HER CONDITION IMPROVE ON THE SECOND DAY.

The fourth day she was much better. On the 29th of April, 1853, she commenced the Resolvent; on the 30th of May, twenty-one days after she commenced its use.

SHE WAS SOUND.

Not a sore or blemish was upon her skin—nor was there any disease lingering in her system.

Mr. Oliver has cured many people in Dryden of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Fever and Ague, Swellings, Stiffness and Pains of various kinds, with Radway's Ready Relief; and many of his friends have been cured of Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Indigestion, &c., by Radway's Regulators.

R. R. Remedies are sold by Druggists generally.

W. R PRESTON agent for Portsmouth.

Jaundice.

This yellow coloration of the skin is characteristic of an increased secretion of bile, or of its passage into the blood, in consequence of some obstruction in the circulation of the liver. Being itself but a symptom, the cause must be attacked in the central diseased organ; and ample experience proves that the PERUVIAN SYRUP acts in a wonderful manner in stimulating the liver to the proper performance of its duty.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

☞ Mrs. Winslow, an experienced nurse and female physician, has a Soothing Syrup for children teething, which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay all pain, and is sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants. Perfectly safe in all cases. See advertisement in another column.

Common Sense rules the mass of the people, whatever the misnamed and misanthrope philosophers may say to the contrary. Show these good thing: let its merits be clearly demonstrated, and they will not hesitate to give it their most cordial patronage. The masses have already ratified the judgment of a physician, concerning the virtues of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, as may be seen in the immense quantities of this medicine that are annually sold in every section of the land. It is now recognized as greatly superior to all other remedies yet devised for diseases of the digestive organs, such as dyspepsia, dysentery, dyspepsia, and for the various fevers that arise from derangement of those portions of the system. Its name is rapidly becoming a household word, from Maine to Texas; from the shores of the Atlantic to the Pacific. Try the article and be satisfied.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Dyspepsia.

Considering the various forms in which this disease developes itself, it may well be called hydra-headed. In its train follow Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, Heartburn, Water Brash, Costiveness, Piles, Acidity, Oppression after Eating, Jaundice, Flatulency, Torpor of the Liver, Dizziness, Debility, Female Complaints, &c. Some of the first men in our land have given their written certificates relative to the cures effected in their own persons by the OXYGENATED BITTERS; which testimonials from other sources, editorial opinions and voluntary expressions from persons averse to see their names in print, are perfectly overwhelming.

EAST TAUNTON, Mass., Feb. 9, '58.

To the Editor of the Portland Mirror,—Sir:—

OXYGENATED BITTERS—For about the past two or three years I have been a sufferer from Dyspepsia. Besides trying the patience of my family physicians in the almost useless trial of their various prescriptions, I have tried a great variety of patent medicines with a similar result. Through the kindness of my physician, I received in March, half a dozen bottles of the OXYGENATED BITTERS. I began to use them without any hope of deriving help from them. Being determined to give them a fair trial, I continued their use, but without any perceptible benefit. In June

Since then I have gradually improved in health till I am entirely free from acidity of the stomach, and from the oppression which I had so long and so awful and almost distracting sick headaches which often, for days together, has wholly unfitted me for study and for all other ministerial duties, and rendered life a burden.

I feel that I owe it, as an expression of gratitude to Messrs. Fowle & Co., and also to the public, to be to recommend their Oxygenated Bitters, as, in my estimation, a sure remedy for the most trying, most vexing, and cruel of all diseases, to which poor human nature is heir, the dyspepsia. Having suffered so long, and tried so many different remedies with no good result, I can recommend the Oxygenated Bitters with confidence few others can. If any of the readers of the Mirror are suffering, I beg of them to make trial of these Bitters without delay.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

This Gin, distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable medicinal properties of the Berry, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious cordial, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders every article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing sympathetic ailments frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE GENUINE BUT IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st.; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; E. Fecker, 20 Elm st.; J. Moran, 110 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. LOCAL.

Messrs. Editors:—I beg to state to your friend "Another Voter," that I thought I designated very clearly the hill near the Creek Bridge, as needing repairs. The strong party of indignants that are following my lead, extend to him the hand of welcome, giving also their hearty approbation to the writers of the Chronicle and Journal, whose pointed articles cannot fail to meet approval.

You are right, "Voter," in the facts of the imperfect and indifferent mode of executing this work, which shows a total negligence in its management. The offices connected with it ought to be re-filled by men perfectly conversant with the art of forming and repairing roads. It is not enough for them to know the theory or general principles—they must be practical men. What a misfortune to see the degeneracy in our politicians, that now-a-days it is not whether the man suits the place, but whether the place suits the man.

We would not complain were we assessed by some equitable ratio, whereby we would pay only in proportion to the benefits received; but the rates of taxation to which we are subjected, with not one city advantage, have moved us to this call for redress. And although I seldom leave the handling of the plough for the handling of the pen, yet when justice calls, I shall always be ready to yield all to her summons. VOTER.

☞ All are invited to attend this (Wednesday) Evening, at the Temple, at half past 7 o'clock, when Rev. E. H. Chapin, D. D. is to deliver a Lecture on Temperance by request of the Ministers of the city. The reputation of the lecturer will doubtless secure a good audience. A collection will be taken.

☞ The Eastern Railroad is carrying a very large amount of pleasure travel to the various watering places along its line.—Quite a large proportion of the White Mountain travel at this season, is going over this road via Portland and Gorham, towards the Glen House. The scenery on the Glen side of the mountains is claimed to be more grand and sublime than that viewed from any other point.

☞ See auction column, for a chance to buy (this, Wednesday morning) a new and desirable residence in Anthony street—well built and finely located.

FROM EUROPE.

TREATY OF VILLAFRANCA.—New York, Aug. 9.—Steamer Hammonia, from Southampton 26th ult., has arrived.

The 2d edition of the London Times of Tuesday gives the preliminaries of the Peace of Villafranca, as follows:

The two sovereigns will favor the creation of an Italian confederation—that confederation shall be under the honorary Presidency of the Holy Father.

The Emperor of Austria cedes to the Emperor of France his rights in Lombardy, excepting the fortresses of Mantua and Peschiera, which rights the Emperor of France will hand over to the King of Sardinia; Venetia forms part of the Italian Confederation, but remains under the crown of Austria. The Dukes of Tuscany and Modena return under the condition of granting a general amnesty. Both Emperors will ask the Pope to introduce indispensable reforms. Full and complete amnesty is to be granted to all people.

FRANCE.—The London Post says: We have heard on high authority, that the Emperor Napoleon will, ere long, reduce the naval and military force of the Empire.

Baron Mauneval has arrived at Rome with a letter from the Emperor Napoleon to the Pope. His Majesty is said, in his letter, to urge the Sovereign Pontiff to favor conciliatory reforms in the Italian States.

The Papal authority has been restored at Ancona.

The Riflemen of the Alps are 12,000 strong, and men continue to be enrolled.

The seat of the Confederation will be at Rome, and there seems to be no doubt that the Pope will accept the Presidency.

ITALY. — Already at Parma, Modena, Florence and Bologna, the people are assembling for moral resistance, while the cry of "To arms!" rises all over the country.

☞ A party at the White Mountains, on the 3d inst., found a man in Tuckerman's Ravine with his leg broken. He was alone, had fallen, and was in a fair way to perish if he had not been discovered. His name is not given.

From the names of the Clergymen who have held the pastorate of the Unitarian Church in Baltimore, a conflagration might not unreasonably be expected. They are Sparks, Greenwood, Bellows, Cole and Burnap. Furness, also, was a neighbor.

☞ The correspondent of the Philadelphia Press says that there is a serious difference between the President and the Postmaster General in regard to Postmaster Cook of Chicago. The Postmaster General demands his removal; the President insists upon retaining him.

☞ A writer in the Traveller says truly: Horace Mann consecrated his life to the advocacy of the causes of Education, Temperance and Freedom; and the influences of his unwearied labors for the elevation and improvement of the people of Massachusetts will not die with him.

☞ Lancet and Brown Dick had a trial of speed on Thursday, mile heats, the latter being the winner in three straight heats.—Time: 2.34, 5.39 1-2, 2.37 1-2.

HUSBAND, WIFE AND CHILD KILLED SIMULTANEOUSLY.—A letter from Utica, Miss., to the Petersburg Express, dated July 19, says:—

"Mr. Wm. L. Fairchild (a most estimable citizen in all the relations of life,) was returning from the house of a neighbor to his own residence in a buggy, accompanied by his accomplished young wife and an only child, day before yesterday, and when within one mile of home a large tree fell across the road and killed them all. The tree fell so as to strike the head of each one, and mash them in such a terrible manner as to cause the brain of each to escape from the skull. It may be mentioned as a remarkable fact that a little negro boy, who occupied a position in the seat of the buggy, escaped with only a few scratches."

☞ It is stated that efforts are being made to gather in the copies of the celebrated letter of the President to the Hon. Robert J. Walker while Governor of Kansas, which were given to some of his friends by the latter. Hundreds have heard the letter read, and some of the copies are said to be beyond the reach of Mr. Walker himself.

THE MOUNTAINS.—The public houses at the White Mountains are now well filled. It is stated there were two hundred and fifty at the Profile House one day last week. The Crawford and other Houses are said to be full. More than one thousand visitors are now on and about the Mountains.—Laconia Gazette.

☞ Mr. Hillard, of the Boston Courier, writes from London that "Mr. Sumner is there, in better health than I have seen him in at any time since the outrage upon him."

GROVER & BAKER
SEWING MACHINE COMPANY,
No. 18 Summer Street, Boston,
MACHINES FROM $50 TO $125.
HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.
TESTIMONIALS.
PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.
Several months have now elapsed since one of these machines was first introduced for our family use. For several weeks those who attempted to operate it having had no instruction, it was regarded as of little value, although some work could be done. But no sooner had one of experience taken hold of it, giving the proper tension to the cotton, proper oiling, &c. to the machinery, than it worked admirably—and now for months it goes on like clock work, doing handsomely all the work submitted to it, and accomplishing as much work in an hour as could be done by hand in a long summer's day. These machines are decidedly popular. We have never heard of one being sold to procure another from a different maker,—while we have known others to be laid aside to give place to Grover & Baker's. Any one can operate them after an hour's instruction from an experienced hand.
If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whittemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.
CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.
We have seen one of Grover & Baker's $100 Sewing Machines used to do the Sewing of two families, for the past year or more, to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned—without once getting out of order, or requiring the least repair.—We would as soon try to dispense with a Cooking Stove in a family, as to attempt to get along without a Sewing Machine. Money invested in a good Machine pays much more than legal dividend, in actual cash savings—to say nothing of the higher consideration, of comfort and convenience, nay, even luxury, it affords to the ladies of a household. Whatever may be the experience with other Machines, we never knew a Grover & Baker to be discarded or found wanting.
FRANK W. MILLER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.
Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spiritous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, Bladder and Kidney Complaints, &c. &c.

TO THE PUBLIC.
I beg leave to call the attention of the American Public to the following Certificate from the Government Chemist for the Island of Cuba and the Spanish West Indies, and who is known to the Scientific men of London, Paris, Madrid, Cuba and America to be the first Chemist in the world.
UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHEMICAL TESTIMONY.
D. Jose Luis Casabeca, Corresponding Member of the Royal Academies of Madrid and Munich, a Graduate in Sciences of the Faculty of Paris, formerly Professor of Chemistry, as applied to the Arts, of the Royal Conservatorio of Madrid, and of Physics and Chemistry, as applied to the Industry and Agriculture of the country, in the Royal University of this Island, at present H. M.'s Director of the Institute of Chemical Investigation, &c., &c.
Do hereby certify, that at the request of the house of Gottig & Will, of this place, I have made an analytical examination of U. Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, with the object of ascertaining if it contained any substance noxious to health, and to inform them as to its true composition and relative quality with the other gins that are offered in the market, and the results of my observations and experiments are as follows:—
Udolpho Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps is a spirituous liquid, of a very agreeable aromatic odor, completely transparent and almost colorless, having only a very slight tint of yellowish gray; its flavor is strong and very agreeable to the palate. It marks 20 degrees in Cartier's alcohol weigher or 52 degrees 5 hundredth in Gay Lussac's alcohometre. By the distillation in a balaium maria, with an apparatus consisting of a glass retort and a recipient surrounded with ice, I have collected in this recipient an alcoholic liquid with a very agreeable aroma completely colorless and transparent, which marked 90 degrees in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, or 70 degrees 5 hundredth on Gay Lussac's alcohometre; and which represented as a whole 57 per cent. of aromatic Schiedam schnapps subject to distillation in the retort. This liquid did not soil the transparency of the distilled water in mixing it with the same, and its agreeable aroma is doubtless due to a very trifling amount of an essential oil inseparable from alcohol.
From the remainder of the distillation which was left in the retort, I have obtained, through evaporation in a vapor bath, a substance of a yellowish brown color, clear, and having a bitter taste, which is not disagreeable, and which afterwards becomes aromatic and leaves the mouth perfumed with that fragrance peculiar to the vanilla. I am inclined to believe that to this bitter and aromatic extractive substance, soluble in water and alcohol, the medicinal properties which are attributed to this gin are due. I have not found in Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps any mineral or organic substance other than the extractive one already named and the aromatic one obtained by distillation. Finally, Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps consists simply of an aromatic alcohol of 20 degrees of graduation in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, and of an extractive bitter aromatic substance, which perhaps, is medicinal; and, on account of its not containing any matter injurious to the health, as well as for its odor and good flavor—a fact which no doubt arises from the choice substances employed in its manufacture, and from the peculiar manner of its distillation, it should in my opinion, be preferred to all the Holland, Belgic and German gins which are found in this Island which it has been my business to examine. These gins as I have often proved it, exhale a disagreeable odor, and have a more or less disagreeable flavor, some of them having left as was the case with the superior gin from the distillery of Mr. Henry Deetjen (of Bremen,) as residum after evaporation by steam, a substance almost insipid and very trifingly aromatic, with flavor of vanilla, but in no wise with the delicious bitter and aromatic flavor of that of Udolpho Wolfe; and others, such as that labelled "Genuine Samaritan," "Extra Superior." Messrs. Tracner have furnished me with a very small quantity of a greenish substance, of harsh metalic taste and very disagreeable, which extractive organic matter was mixed with a salt of copper, with signs of iron, owing perhaps, to a bad system of distillation.
I certify that all that is here stated is the truth and agrees with the experiments I have made with the greatest care, and I authorize the house of Gottig & Will, of this city, to give publicity to this certificate, in Spanish and in foreign languages, in all countries where it may suit their interest to do so. JOSE LUIS CASASECA.

EXTENSIVE ROBBERIES FOR A SERIES OF YEARS.—The Atlas is informed that an employee in the Boston and Worcester railroad corporation has been detected in robberies at the freight depot in Boston.—These have been carried on for a series of years, enabling the man to accumulate, as a result of his long practiced knavery, a property of some $80,000. He owns two houses in Boston, a large number of bank shares, and has made investment generally with a free hand. His salary has been not more than enough to sustain him comfortably, and he could not have laid up $1000. In his operations, as an assistant, he had a woman in disguise. The goods stolen have been taken to a store in Boston and there sold. The affair is to be legally investigated, when its details will doubtless be made public. At present, parties knowing to the transaction are not particularly communicative.

THE ACTRESS AND THE SKULL.—The following anecdote is extracted from "An Essay on the Science of Acting." In the town of North Waltham, Norfolk, 1778, "The Fair Penitent" was performed. In the last act, where Calista lays her hand on the skull, a Mrs. Berry, who played the part, was seized with an involuntary shuddering, and fell on the stage. During the night her illness continued. On the following day, when sufficiently recovered to converse, she sent to the stagekeeper, and anxiously inquired whence he procured the skull. He replied, "From the sexton, who said 'it was the skull of one Morris, a player, who, twelve years before, was buried in the churchyard.'" That same Norris was her first husband. She died in six weeks.

☞ A fire at Liverpool, on the 26th, destroyed the extensive North Shore Flour and Rice Mills. Four lives were lost, and many were injured. The loss was from £50,000 to £60,000, including a large quantity of grain. A fire occurred the same day in the brandy vaults, London docks, at which the damage was large, and a number of lives are reported lost.

"There goes a turncoat," cried a politician not long ago, from inside a store, to a farmer who was passing at the time in a loaded wagon. "What would you have?" replied the farmer; "would you have a man wear his coat the wrong side out all day because he happened to put it on so in the morning?"

☞ The British Government pays to the various steamship lines which ply between England and the United States and Canada, an aggregate bounty of $1,600,000, in the shape of mail contracts. This seems to be the only way in which ocean steamship navigation can be maintained.

☞ Hon. J. R. Giddings has addressed a long and caustic letter to Hon. Thos. Corwin, reviewing his Xenia speech, and criticising his position in severe language. This may be indicative of a serious division in Ohio in the Opposition party.

The serfs in Russia are slaves attached to the soil, and are not allowed familiarity even with the men. The surfs at Newport, it is said, are free, are found only in the water, and take the utmost liberties even with fashionable ladies.—Bath Times.

☞ A passenger on the Friday afternoon train from New London to Providence, was struck by lightning while standing on the platform of a car as the train approached Stonington. It was believed that he would recover.

☞ Esteban St. Cruz Ovieda, of Cuba, is about to marry Miss Fanny Bartlett, daughter of Capt. Bartlett of Me., late of the U.S. Navy. The gentleman is one of the richest residents of the sunny island, reputed to be worth about $4,000,000.

☞ The Brockville Recorder says that flour is now brought from France, and potatoes from Ireland, to Canada, and sold in the Brockville market for less than they can be purchased for from our own farmers!

THE NAIL HIT.—A correspondent of the Providence Journal, we presume the Rev. Dr. Hall, in alluding to the recent discussion about the "Broad Church," truly says "the world needs common sense more than a common creed."—Boston Trans.

☞ A correspondent, noticing the flourishing accounts given of the fashionable quadrupeds at Saratoga and elsewhere, suggests that some of them are of better pedigree than their owners!

Either there is dignity in intellectual rank, or there is not; if there is, no other rank is needed; if there is not, no other rank can give it; for dignity is not an accident, but a quality.

☞ Two trains arrived at Kansas City, last week, from New Mexico, one of them bringing 39,000 and the other 59,000 lbs. of wool.

ANSWERING A FOOL ACCORDING TO HIS FOLLY.—"I tell you, Susan, that I will commit suicide, if you don't have me." "Well, Thomas, as soon as you have given me that proof of your affection, I will believe that you love me."

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—Jacob Ottinger, a German, was shot dead last evening, in Spruce street, by a policeman, named Dorke, who had fired at a sick horse.

LAW SCHOOL OF THE UNIVERSITY AT CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

The Instructors in this School are:

Hon. JOEL PARKER, LL. D., Royale Professor.
Hon. THEOPHILUS PARSONS, LL. D., Dane Prof.
Hon. EMORY WASHBURN, LL.D., University Prof.

THE COURSE OF INSTRUCTION embraces the various branches of the Common Law; and of Equity, Admiralty, Commercial, International, and Constitutional Law; and the Jurisprudence of the United States. The Law Library consists of about 14,000 volumes, and as new works appear they are added, and every effort is made to render it complete.

Instruction is given by oral lectures and expositions, (and by recitations and examinations in connection with text-books) at least twice a day every week. Two Moot Courts are also holden in each week, at each of which a case previously given out is argued by four students and an opinion delivered by the Presiding Instructor. Rooms and other facilities are also provided for the Club Courts, and an assembly is held weekly for practice in debate, and acquiring a knowledge of parliamentary law and proceedings.

Students may enter the School in any stage of their professional studies or mercantile pursuits, and at the commencement of either term, or in the middle, or other part of the term.

They are at liberty to elect what studies they will pursue, according to their views of their own wants and attainments.

The Academical year, which commences on Thursday, the last Wednesday after the third Wednesday in July, is divided into two terms of twenty weeks each, with a vacation of six weeks at the end of each term.

The exercises of the next term will commence on MONDAY, September 5th, 1859.

Applications for admission, or for catalogues, or any other information, may be made to either of the Professors at Cambridge.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington.

BROWN'S BLOCK, NO. 32,

76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign Patents, to determine the validity of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by return mail. One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through its invariable success in securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of Specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full access to Patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure to them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unanimity of success, and such talent and skill as his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in his hands, the large practice, using in TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

HOME AND EUROPEAN DEMAND.

The reason why, is that the Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, itching, and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headache, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy and beautiful, and if used by the young two or three times a week it will never fall or become gray; then, reader, read the following and judge for yourselves:

NEW YORK, Jan. 8, 1858.

MESSRS. O. J. WOOD & CO.,

Gentlemen: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudices which I, in common with a great many persons, had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your Hair Restorative, to test it for myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who wish to be gray as I was but who having my prejudice without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof than mine, I, of my own free demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further proof, if they care to call at my place of business, N. Y. Wire Railing establishment every day.

My hair is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking. I am, yours respectfully, HENRY JENKINS.

Cor. Columbia and Carroll Sts., Brooklyn.

LIVERSON, Ala., Feb. 14, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country. My hair has been quite gray, diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, &c., S. W. MILTON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost bald, is coming—was in fact BALD. I have used but 2 half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is covered with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours, respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D.,
No. 464 West Sixth St.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons who are immediately after the sexual, rendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the mistaken notion that they can pass their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of these complaints have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicine sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

The medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicine.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, and better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. SWETT'S
CORDIAL OF DANDELION,
SPIKENARD & BONESET,

A remedy unsurpassed for Liver Complaints, such as Costiveness, Dizziness and Pain in the Head, Stomach and Side, Universal Debility, and the whole family of Consumptive Complaints.

Hundreds of testimonials might be added, proving the many cures by this pleasant and effectual medicine, especially of people advanced in life, whose debilitated constitutions have been greatly recruited by it. A trial of it is warranted to well pay the aged and dyspeptic. Price 75 cents.

[From Mrs. Daniel H. Williams.]

Dr. Swett—Dear Sir.—I presume you recollect that when I saw you, about a year since, I was very low, and had been for a long time, with dyspeptic complaints, being very weak, with no appetite, and pain in my head, stomach and side; but now my health is comparatively good, and I consider this great deliverance attributable, mainly, to the two bottles of your "Compound Cordial of Dandelion," which you left for me. I consider this the best medicine I ever found for the complaints for which you recommend it on the labels.

MARY E. WILLIAMS.

Concord, N. H., May 28, 1858.

ENFIELD, Sept. 8, 1859.

Last spring and Summer I was troubled with the Liver Complaint, which caused my food to distress me badly; and I do not know what cured me, but one thing I do know, and that is, I took one bottle of Dr. S. Swett's Cordial of Dandelion, and the disease left me, and has not returned.

Seven Octave Piano --- New Scale.

The Subscriber having just received a superior SEVEN OCTAVE PIANO-FORTE, made according to his order by the celebrated firm of HALLET, DAVIS & CO., would offer it for the inspection of persons desirous of purchasing. H. D. & Co. have recently made great improvements in the manufacture of Pianos, the most important of which is the New Scale, which, while obviating the weakness which has hitherto been found in the upper part of Square Seven Octave Pianos, gives it a power of tone nearly equal to that of the Parlor Grand.

Having been for several years Agent for the sale of Pianos of the above make, Mr. P. is prepared to state that the instruments which they are now making, far excel any of their former manufacture.

Purchasers will find it greatly to their advantage to call and examine the above mentioned Piano, as it is the only one in Portsmouth which contains the NEW SCALE.

Oleine Diamond Oil.
GREATEST ILLUMINATOR OF THE AGE.

This Oil is entirely free from trenchery, so that a lamp may be left burning any length of time desired, without filling a room with lamp-black or soot.

It burns in the common oil lamp, with or without a chimney.

The light is far more pleasant than gas, as it is free from the disagreeable flickerings always attending a gas light, and is cheaper. We claim for this Oil:

1. That it is cheaper than any other artificial light.
2. That it has no odor.
3. That it will not smoke
4. That it will burn with or without a chimney, hence it is portable.
5. That it will stand a lower degree of temperature than any other Oil.
6. That it is free from each of the objections that are brought against every other article heretofore or now being offered to the public for illuminating purposes.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 11, 1859.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

ISLAND POND HOUSE, Aug. 8, 1859.

Editors Chronicle:—My last letter was dated Niagara, and I closed with an intimation that I would, on a future occasion, endeavor to describe the successful accomplishment of the perilous undertaking of M. Blondin to cross the boiling and surging Niagara River, on a single rope. Now that I am at last for a brief hour or two at rest in this delightful spot, with the everlasting hills looming majestically around me, with the silvery lake at my very feet, mirroring mountain and forest and sky—I will try to go back to the afternoon of the memorable third day of August.

It was a great day for Niagara, for besides the usual multitude of visitors at the different hotels, there were nearly two hundred members of the dental profession in attendance upon the Convention, and the whole region round about sent up its inhabitants—old and young—to witness the daring feat. The streets were filled with carriages, and over the different railroads there came nearly a hundred heavily laden cars. The banks of the river were lined with the anxious and expectant thousands, and the steamer "Maid of the Mist," upon which I took passage, was crowded to its utmost capacity. The steamer was chartered for this occasion by Mr. Blondin, and the price for the brief passage, and the opportunity to witness the performance from the upper deck, was fixed at one dollar. At the termination of the rope on either side, was erected a large amphitheatre, to which the admission fee was fifty cents. This was Blondin's remuneration for the performance of his perilous feat.

I had inferred that the rope upon which this man walked was only a single cord, stretched from bank to bank; I was somewhat surprised therefore to find that the principal rope was firmly held in position by innumerable guys of half-inch cord, fastened at regular intervals of a few feet, and extending diagonally to the banks.—The large rope was thus prevented from swinging, and so tightly was it drawn that his cat-like tread occasioned very little flexion or depression.

At half past four o'clock Blondin made his appearance on the American end, and walked slowly down the rope. He carried in his hands a large pole, forty feet long, and weighing fifty pounds. For a number of rods he seemed to be much annoyed by the entanglement of the balancing-pole among the guy-ropes, and the necessity of repeated pauses to extricate it, giving him the appearance of moving with caution and hesitation. Once fairly under way, however, he moved with considerable rapidity.—For half the way or more, he passed along at a moderate trot, making few pauses, and evincing little fatigue until near the end of the ascent upon the Canada side—for in spite of the great force which had been exerted to tighten the rope, it was apparently twenty feet lower immediately over the channel than at the banks.

It was precisely five and a half minutes from the time of his starting to his disappearance within the amphitheatre. The roar of the cataract could not drown the repeated cheers which went up from the enthusiastic spectators. The man who could walk—or more properly, run—a quarter of a mile upon a single cord, suspended at height of 190 feet over a river the depths of which have never yet been sounded, was indeed a hero; at least this seemed to be the opinion of my fellow passengers, for the men rent the air with their shouts, and the ladies waved their handkerchiefs and parasols, in token of their appreciation of the remarkable feat.

Ten minutes elapsed, and Blondin again appeared. He walked merrily onward until he had nearly reached the channel, where for a considerable space there were no guys, then balancing his pole upon the ropes, he lowered himself down quickly and propelled himself with his hands alone, for several yards, his body meanwhile hanging over the fathomless abyss. Then he proceeded to go through with the usual tight-rope performances,—hanging by a single bent arm, locking his feet around the rope, and thus suspending his body; turning summersets, and indulging in a hundred other antics of this description. At last he concluded his somewhat prolonged exhibition, and walked rapidly home, much to my relief, I confess. But it was an astounding performance, and completely eclipses all previous efforts in this line, beyond a doubt.

The Dental Convention adjourned on Friday, to meet next year at Saratoga.—That afternoon we paid a visit to Buffalo, for the purpose of making a few friendly calls. The next morning, in company with my new travelling companion, Dr. Forbes of St. Louis, the late President of the Convention, I took a swim in Lake Erie, and afterwards a survey of the city.

When I passed through Buffalo in 1850, a resident of the place was boasting to me of its rapid growth, and triumphantly informed me it contained forty thousand inhabitants. Now the Buffaloes insist that the number of the herd is not less than one hundred thousand.

We took the steamer "Arrow" down the river to Chippewa, and from thence were conveyed by rail to Lewiston, where we took steamer "Zimmerman" for Toronto.—At Toronto we embarken on board the "Banshee" for Montreal, and at sunset on Sunday evening, after a delightful day on the St. Lawrence—among the "Thousand Islands" basking in the sunshine, or shooting the roaring rapids—we reached Montreal. Here again we stopped with a Coleman, one of the great family of hotel-keepers in this country, and one well worthy the name; for he has the tact and ability to render the "Montreal House" a truly desirable stopping place.

This morning we started for Island Pond, where we have promised to await a party of professional gentlemen on the morrow.—To-morrow we shall proceed to the Alpine House in Gorham, and on Wednesday we propose to make the ascent of Mt. Washington. Our party will number from fifteen to twenty—not one of whom have ever set eyes upon the mountain except myself.

This afternoon we have enjoyed ourselves hugely. We have sailed upon the bosom of the sparkling lake, and drawn the shining pickerel from its depths. We have feasted upon the good things of the land, and have inwardly rejoiced at our good fortune in discovering this delightful spot.

We shall see old Portsmouth again, as we fondly hope, before Saturday night. F.F.

LEGACY TO A BANK.—The New Orleans Delta says that a rich old farmer of Mississippi named Mathews, desirous of spiteing his relatives, left his property, exceeding $150,000 in value, to his illegitimate children by a colored woman, and in the event of their disability to inherit, to the Louisiana State Bank. The will contained a few small legacies to his brothers and sisters. Under the law of Mississippi, the colored children cannot inherit, and the Bank seems to have a pretty clear prospect for this property. His white relatives, however have commenced to contest it, and the Bank has employed counsel to maintain its rights. The Bank is already over-burdened with riches, having three millions and a half in specie in its vaults. Its stock is quoted at $180.

☞ Some persons who were fishing in the pond at Sawyer's mills in West Boylston, Mass., Friday last, discovered the dead body of a man floating in the water. It was the corpse of a young man, and was much decayed. His clothing was marked with the name, Amasa Rosebrook. He was five feet nine inches in height, and about twenty-seven years of age. In his pocket were tickets from Littleton, N. H., with the checks from New York to Worcester torn off, a check, No. 367, for his baggage, $6.31 cents money, and memoranda showing that he had recently been in Littleton, and in Brooklyn, N. Y. A person answering the description stopped a night at the house of D. Lovell, in West Boylston, some weeks ago, and at that time acted strangely, and was thought to be insane.

There is a family named Rosebrook in the mountain region, to which the deceased no doubt belongs.

In France, the Moniteur of July 28, announces that the Emperor has decided that the army and navy shall be restored to a peace footing without delay.

In Austria, by command of the Emperor, all the provincial councils are to be assembled, and to propose such local reforms as they need.

U. S. sloop-of-war Plymouth left Plymouth, Eng., 25th ult., for Brest.

The date of the Zurich conference is not fixed, but was expected to meet in a few days.

UNFORTUNATE.—The Rev. J. L. Hatch was not long since deserted by his pretty young wife, Cora L. V., and has now been expelled from the Church, as will be seen by the following:

Rev. J. L. Hatch, of Brooklyn, N. Y., was on Wednesday of last week, expelled from Dr. Cheever's Church for heresy. The offences specified were disbelief in the divine appointment of the first day of the week as the Sabbath, and persistent efforts against the enforcement of the Sunday laws in New York and Brooklyn.

We find the above in a very respectable southern paper,—which mismates the parties entirely. Mrs. Cora V. Hatch's husband is or was a doctor, not a preacher.—Rev. J. L. Hatch is quite another person.

☞ The London Post recently announced the safe arrival of Rufus Choate at Liverpool, with many complimentary words. It knew that the steamer in which he sailed from Boston had arrived, and took for granted that he had completed the voyage.

☞ The Pacific Railroad is now finished to Syracuse, 168 miles from St. Louis, and 90 miles from Kansas City.

ORDINATION OF MR. GEORGE HOWELL. A letter from Nantucket states that Mr. George Howell was ordained and settled as pastor of the Baptist Church in Nantucket last week, notwithstanding the majority of the council voted not to ordain him. It will probably be remembered that an effort was made to ordain him in Boston, some months since, but the council were not satisfied with his views in regard to baptism, and declined to ordain him. After the action of the council at Nantucket the letter states that the church called a meeting of its entire membership, and unanimously voted to have him ordained by the members of the council who were in his favor. The Methodist and Congregationalist ministers took part in the ordination services. The sermon was preached by Rev. C. H. Malcolm of Newport. It is also stated that a letter has been received from England, requesting Mr. Howell, if ordination was again denied him here, to go there, where he would be ordained.

Mr. Howell's heresy, which threw him out in Boston, and which ordained him at Nantucket by a coalition of sects—was this, if we remember right, viz.:

That as the New Testament nowhere says that any man must be baptized before he eats the Lord's supper, nor that one of these ordinances depends in any way upon the other—therefore he does not require baptism in any particular form, or in any form, as a sine qua non to communion.

His ordination is a token that he is not the only heretic of that kind in his own denomination or some others.

Universalist and Unitarian Churches have generally taken this ground—and so have some others.

A CLEAR ATMOSPHERE.—The air was so very clear Sunday forenoon, says the Transcript, that the mountains in Cheshire County, N. H., were plainly seen from the hills of Winchester and Lexington, Mass. The grand Monadnock stood out in bold relief against the Western sky, and the eye took in a view extending between seventy and eighty miles.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Philadelphia, Aug. 9.—A small boats containing six persons, was run down opposite Poplar Street, this afternoon. Four of the inmates were drowned, and others were severely injured.

☞ Napoleon has determined upon the erection of a new arch of triumph at Paris, in honor of his Italian victories. It will cost several millions, and will ostensibly be erected by subscription. The bas reliefs are already distributed for execution among the best sculptors in Paris.

A RACE.—New York, Aug. 9.—The trot to-day, between Flora Temple and Princess, was won by Flora Temple in three straight heats. Time—2.23 1-2; 2.22; 2.23 1-2—the quickest on record.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—As the 5 P. M. train from Portland, on the Boston & Maine Railroad, was passing through East Kingston, Monday, it run over and killed a man who was walking on the track. The train was stopped, and the body, which was cut into several pieces, was picked up and taken to Boston. Two bottles, one of them full of spirituous liquors, were found with the body.

THE ELECTIONS, &c.—New York, Aug. 9.—A private dispatch from Houston, Texas, via New Orleans 8th, says that Gen. Houston is certainly elected Governor.

A private dispatch from Memphis 9th, says that Emerson Etheridge is elected, sure, making seven opposition members of Congress from Tennessee.

☞ Mr. Merriam, the new and junior editor of the Concord, N. H. Patriot, after a two years' editorial career, has sold out his half to his partner, Mr. Butterfield, who is now to conduct the paper as usual. Mr. B. states that $12,000 are due to the Patriot from subscribers, advertisers, &c.

HEAVY RAINS.—Augusta, Ga., Aug. 9. The continued rains induce fears of injury to the growing cotton.

☞ On Monday, a man in New York., hailed an omnibus, and handed a package to the driver. As the latter leaned forward to take it, a revolver fell from his pocket and exploded, the charge entering one of the horse's legs. What the driver carried the pistol for is not stated.

An epicure once asserted that two were required to make a meal of a chicken—himself and the chicken.

☞ A serious riot occurred in the 16th ward in New York, Monday. A general fight resulted between the police and the mob; clubs, brickbats, and stones were freely used. An unknown man was killed.

UTAH.—Horace S. Eldridge, said to have been once a resident of Northampton, Ms., has been nominated for delegate, in place of Dr. Bernheisel. The doctor, we believe, has served six years—is a very quiet, blue-eyed, bald-headed gentleman, with seven wives, it is said. A lady, looking down upon him from the gallery one day, dryly observed it was no wonder he had lost his hair. —Lowell News.

Gov. Banks never went to College—knows nothing of the classics. The same was true of Henry Clay, Andrew Jackson and Millard Fillmore. Stephen A. Douglas knows nothing of Latin. Senator Wilson was a shoemaker and Senator Broderick was a mason. Neither Horace Greeley, Dr. Chapin nor Starr King have been to College. Elihu Burritt, Robert Fulton, Hugh Miller and James Watt were neither of them "finished" in a university.—Bath Times.

☞ It is said that McDonald, who murdered Virginia Stewart, is at large in the streets of New York, by the connivance of parties having charge of the jail.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

R. R. R.

Wm. B. Oliver, Esq., P. M., of Drayton, Dodge county, Ga., cured a girl, who had been for number of years afflicted with Scrofula. She was covered from head to foot with sores; there was not sound flesh enough on her whole body to lay a twenty-five cent piece on.

SHE FELT HER CONDITION IMPROVE ON THE SECOND DAY.

The fourth day she was much better. On the 28th of April, 1853, she commenced the Resolvent; on the 20th of May, twenty-one days after she commenced its use,

SHE WAS SOUND.

Not a sore or blemish was upon her skin—not was there any disease lingering in her system.

Mr. Oliver has cured many people in Drayton of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Fever and Ague, Swellings, Stiffness and Pains of various kinds, with Radway's Ready Relief; and many of his friends have been cured of Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Indigestion, &c., by Radway's Regulators.

Jaundice.

This yellow coloration of the skin is characteristic of an increased secretion of bile, or of a passage into the blood, in consequence of some obstruction in the circulation of the liver. Being itself but a symptom, the cause must be attacked in the central diseased organ; and simple experience proves that the PERUVIAN SYRUP acts in a wonderful manner in stimulating the liver to the proper performance of its duty.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

☞ Mrs. Winslow. an experienced nurse and female physician, has a Soothing Syrup for children teething, which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay all pain, and is sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants. Perfectly safe in all cases. See advertisement in another column.

Common Sense rules the mass of the people, whatever the misnamed and misanthrope philosophers may say to the contrary. Show them a good thing: let its merits be clearly demonstrated, and they will not hesitate to give it their most cordial patronage. The masses have already ratified the judgment of a physician, concerning the virtues of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, as may be seen in the immense quantities of this medicine that are annually sold in every section of the land. It is now recognized as greatly superior to all other remedies yet devised for diseases of the digestive organs, such as diarrhœa, dysentery, dyspepsia, and for the various fevers that arise from derangement of those portions of the system. Hostetter's name is rapidly becoming a household word, from Maine to Texas; from the shores of the Atlantic to the Pacific. Try the article and be satisfied.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Dyspepsia.

Considering the various forms in which this disease developes itself, it may well be called hydra-headed. Its train follow Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, Heartburn, Water Brash, Costiveness, Piles, Acidity, Oppression after Eating, Jaundice, Flatulency, Torpor of the Liver, Dizziness, Debility, Female Complaints, &c. Some of the first men in our land have given their written certificates relative to the cures effected in their own persons by the OXYGENATED BITTERS; while testimonials from other sources, editorial opinions and voluntary expressions from persons averse to see their names in print, are perfectly overwhelming.

EAST TAUNTON, Mass., Feb. 9, '58.

To the Editor of the Portland Mirror.—Sir:—OXYGENATED BITTERS.—For more than twenty five years I have been a sufferer from the dyspepsia. Besides trying the patience of my family physicians in the almost useless trial of their various prescriptions, I have tried a great variety of patent medicines with a similar result. Through the kindness of my physician, I received last March, half a dozen bottles of the OXYGENATED BITTERS. I began to use them without any hope of deriving help from them. Being determined to give them a fair trial, I continued their use, but without any perceptible benefit till June.

Since then I have gradually improved in health till I am entirely free from acidity of the stomach, and from the consequent flatulency, and the awful and almost distracting sick headache, which often, for days together, has wholly unfitted me for study, and for all other ministerial duties, and rendered life a burden.

I feel that I owe it, as an expression of gratitude to Messrs. Fowle & Co., and also a duty to the public, to recommend their Oxygenated Bitters, as, in my estimation, a sure remedy for that most trying, most vexing, and cruel of all diseases, to which poor human flesh is heir, the dyspepsia. Having suffered so long, and tried so many different remedies with no good result, I can recommend the Oxygenated Bitters with a confidence few others can. If any of the readers of the Mirror are suffering, I beg of them to make trial of these Bitters without delay.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

This Gin, distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, GRAVEL, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

LOCAL.

PUBLIC DRINKING FOUNTAINS.

Messrs. Editors:—One of the good movements of the day now being carried to perfection in many large cities of the world, is the introduction of public drinking fountains of pure water, central, convenient, accessible to all. Rich and poor, bond and free, the temperate and the inebriate, can each find at any moment a draught of God's pure, sparkling water, without money and without price.

On the Continent, throughout the British Isles, and in a few of our largest cities, the movement is hailed with unbounded satisfaction, by all who value the richest treasure of the earth in its freest sense. The leading statesmen of England have, after mature discretion, as one man, predicted that this measure carried out in its fullest sense will tend to restrain the masses to a great extent from drinking the vile poisons at present sold under a thousand alluring names, and carrying death and destruction far into generations yet unborn.

While the philanthropist and christian have for many years past used strenuous endeavors to stem the mighty current of strong drink, they seem to have almost ignored the fact that the pure drink of the Universe has been gradually concealed from the sight of those they would save from the drunkard's grave.

Any one who will take the trouble to investigate the matter can see that to-day in nearly every city the masses of the people in their daily walks, the laborer, the traveller, the transient man of business, have as few public opportunities of refreshing the weary frame by a cooling draught of water as if they were in a desert. True you have have your Croton, your Cochituate, your pure aqueduct water, costing vast sums of money to bring it to your doors, but where is it? Out of sight, and therefore almost out of mind to those who need it handy and convenient at any moment. So it shall be bought and mixed in some vile concoction to steal away the brains.

It was a sad day when any community allowed those old public pumps to be put away to benefit a few stockholders in an Aqueduct Company, or to make a fancied improvement in the look of a street.

How is it in our own quiet, old-fashioned town? Not many years since, the farmer as he came to market, the laborer as he passed to his daily toils, the man of business in his daily walks, could, in almost a score of places, find that same old-fashioned landmark, year after year pouring forth its life-giving properties. To-day it is quite a different thing.

Who will move in this matter, and give us at no great expense, free public drinking fountains? A score of them should be erected in various parts of the city for the convenience of man and beast, for the preservation of life, to place before the thirsty, sinking, unfortunate man in his temptation, a beverage better than any other,—pure water.

C.

For the Chronicle.

Messrs. Editors:—I know that it is very easy to find fault with those who administer the affairs of our city, for doing or not doing many things. The difficulty of satisfying every unreasonable want is great, and only truly appreciable by those who have attempted the task.

But while this is true, and while we would not be too unreasonable as to demand or expect our City Government to do in one year what may require years of well directed, economical and energetic efforts to accomplish in grading and improving our streets, and in making suitable sewers and crossings, yet we may reasonably ask that in addition to the yearly improvements, the general safety of the streets should be strictly attended to.

Every citizen, every casual visitor, and especially every tax payer, has a right to demand that the streets shall be safe for travel, as well for those who are obliged to go on foot as for those who use carriages.

Every person, whose business leads him to visit the different parts of the city, knows that there are altogether too many traps for feet and legs.

The hill near Mr. Bunning's late conservatory, on Creek road, is unsafe for carriages—and the city is liable to be called upon any day for damages either to person or property, arising from this defect.

There is also a dangerous place in the sidewalk near Mr. Hart's residence on Daniel street, which even one good load of gravel might temporarily relieve.

How often is our worthy Mayor to be annoyed by suggestions on this subject?—Surely the Street Commissioner ought to relieve him of this tax upon his patience.

PEDESTRIAN.

☞ There is to be a Grand Huckleberry Picnic at Candia, on Friday, Aug. 12. Cars leave C. & P. Depot at half-past 8. Tickets 40 cents. This is a rare opportunity for a fine ride of about thirty miles into the country, at about one-fifth of the regular fare; and the sunny weather the past week has ripened up the berries nicely. For tickets, apply to JOHN M. DAVIS.

☞ Our publication of the marriage of Mr. J. B. Knowlton was premature—and Joe is among the bachelors yet, the more's the pity. The notice was furnished in such a way that we deemed it authentic; but it is almost vexatious enough for the printers, in such cases, to wish for a funeral, when there is no wedding.

☞ We learn that Atlantic Engine Company, No. 6, of this city,—Albert Foye, Foreman,—have voted to attend the Firemen's Muster at Manchester, in September, the Board of Engineers consenting; and will be accompanied on the occasion by the Portsmouth Cornet Band.

☞ At Mr. Shores' bookstore, may be seen a rara avis, (not the beautiful stuffed bird, in the window, but) in the shape of a triple dahlia, from the garden of Gov. Goodwin. It is of a buff or straw color, with darker edge, and very full or double. Three distinct dahlias, evidently originally growing on separate stems, have grown into one—the stems adhering to each other, and the flowers also uniting at their backs, turning the faces outward—forming the most superb and curious specimen of the dahlia we ever have seen.

☞ Elder Himes will preach in the Second Advent Chapel, Hanover street, at half past 7 o'clock, this evening.

☞ We are pleased to learn that the old hulk on the southwest corner of State and Pleasant streets, is to be removed, and a handsome modern store erected there, forthwith.

☞ It is said that the late Horace Mann, before his death, suggested Rev. Dr. Bellows, of New York, as his successor in the Presidency of Antioch College, Ohio.

GROVER & BAKER
SEWING MACHINE COMPANY,
No. 18 Summer Street, Boston,

MACHINES FROM $50 TO $125.
HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

TESTIMONIALS.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

Several months have now elapsed since one of these machines was first introduced for our family use. For several weeks those who attempted to operate it having had no instruction, it was regarded as of little value, although some work could be done. But no sooner had one of experience taken hold of it, giving the proper tension to the cotton, proper oiling, &c. to the machinery, than it worked admirably—and now for months it goes on like clock work, doing handsomely all the work submitted to it, and accomplishing as much work in an hour as could be done by hand in a long summer's day. These machines are decidedly popular. We have never heard of one being sold to procure another from a different maker,—while we have known others to be laid aside to give place to Grover & Baker's. Any one can operate them after an hour's instruction from an experienced hand.

If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whittemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.

CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

We have seen one of Grover & Baker's $100 Sewing Machines used to do the Sewing of two families, for the past year or more, to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned—without once getting out of order, or requiring the least repair.—We would as soon try to dispense with a Cooking Stove in a family, as to attempt to get along without a Sewing Machine. Money invested in a good Machine pays much more than legal dividend, in actual cash savings—to say nothing of the higher consideration, of comfort and convenience, nay, even luxury, it affords to the ladies of a household. Whatever may be the experience with other Machines, we never knew a Grover & Baker to be discarded or found wanting.

FRANK W. MILLER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others.

and as a Beverage it has no superior in the world. It is manufactured by the proprietor, at Schiedam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use, by a process peculiar to his own Factory. It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spirituous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, Bladder and Kidney Complaints, &c. &c.

Put up in quart and pint bottles, in Cases of one dozen quarts, and two dozen pints, with the proprietor's name on the bottle, cork and label. For sale by all the respectable Country Merchants and Druggists. Look out for counterfeits and imitations, as the whole country is flooded with them

TO THE PUBLIC.

I beg leave to call the attention of the American Public to the following Certificate from the Government Chemist for the Island of Cuba and the Spanish West Indies, and who is known to the Scientific men of London, Paris, Madrid, Cuba and America to be the first Chemist in the world.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHEMICAL TESTIMONY.

D. Jose Luis Casaseca, Corresponding Member of the Royal Academies of Madrid and Munich, a Graduate in Sciences of the Faculty of Paris, formerly Professor of Chemistry, as applied to the Arts, of the Royal Conservatorio of Madrid, and of Physics and Chemistry, as applied to the Industry and Agriculture of the country, in the Royal University of this Island, at present H. M.'s Director of the Institute of Chemical Investigation, &c., &c.

Do hereby certify, that at the request of the house of Gottig & Will, of this place, I have made an analytical examination of U. Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, with the object of ascertaining if it contained any substance noxious to health, and to inform them as to its true composition and relative quality with the other gins that are offered in the market, and the results of my observations and experiments are as follows:—

Udolpho Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps is a spirituous liquid, of a very agreeable aromatic odor, completely transparent and almost colorless, having only a very slight tint of yellowish gray; its flavor is strong and very agreeable to the palate. It marks 20 degrees in Cartier's alcohol weigher or 52 degrees 5 hundredth in Gay Lussac's alcohometre. By the distillation in a balaium maria, with an apparatus consisting of a glass retort and a recipient surrounded with ice, I have collected in this recipient an alcoholic liquid with a very agreeable aroma completely colorless and transparent, which marked 90 degrees in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, or 70 degrees 5 hundredth on Gay Lussac's alcohometre; and which represented as a whole 57 per cent. of aromatic Schiedam schnapps subject to distillation in the retort. This liquid did not soil the transparency of the distilled water in mixing it with the same, and the agreeable aroma is doubtless due to a very trifling amount of an essential oil inseparable from alcohol.

From the remainder of the distillation which was left in the retort, I have obtained, through evaporation in a vapor bath, a substance of a yellowish brown color, clear, and having a bitter taste, which is not disagreeable, and which afterwards becomes aromatic and leaves the mouth perfumed with that fragrance peculiar to the vanilla. I am inclined to believe that to this bitter and aromatic extractive substance, soluble in water and alcohol, the medicinal properties which are attributed to this gin are due. I have not found in Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps any mineral or organic substance other than the extractive one already named and the aromatic one obtained by distillation. Finally, Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps consists simply of an aromatic alcohol of 20 degrees of graduation in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, and of an extractive bitter aromatic substance, which perhaps, is medicinal; and, on account of its not containing any matter injurious to the health, as well as for its odor and good flavor—a fact which no doubt arises from the choice substances employed in its manufacture, and from the peculiar manner of its distillation, it should in my opinion, be preferred to all the Holland, Belgic and German gins which are found in this Island which it has been my business to examine. These gins as I have often proved it, exhale a disagreeable odor, and have a more or less disagreeable flavor, some of them having left as was the case with the superior gin from the distillery of Mr. Henry Deetjen (of Bremen,) as residum after evaporation by steam, a substance almost insipid and very trifingly aromatic, with flavor of vanilla, but in no wise with the delicious bitter and aromatic flavor of that of Udolpho Wolfe; and others, such as that labelled "Genuine Samaritan," "Extra Superior." Messrs. Tracner have furnished me with a very small quantity of a greenish substance, of harsh metalic taste and very disagreeable, which extractive organic matter was mixed with a salt of copper, with signs of iron, owing perhaps, to a bad system of distillation.

I certify that all that is here stated is the truth and agrees with the experiments I have made with the greatest care, and I authorize the house of Gottig & Will, of this city, to give publicity to this certificate, in Spanish and in foreign languages, in all countries where it may suit their interest to do so. JOSE LUIS CASASECA.

Morning Chronicle.

☞ The New York Tablet, a Roman Catholic paper, agrees exactly with Uncle Toby, in saying that Gen. Cass did right, in his caution about our adopted citizens going back to their former country. The Tablet says:—

The whole matter resolves itself into this: We may interpret international law as we like, but other powers are at liberty to do so also, and if they do not choose to see with our spectacles, our only resource is the sword's point—a resource which in the present question it would be scarcely wise to employ—seeing that we might have all the powers of Europe to fight one after the other. The Queen of Great Britain has the right to summon back any of her subjects from foreign countries, but we have the right not to listen to her, and there is not much fear of her coming to compel us. She cannot interfere with our municipal arrangements. In like manner we look upon such of her subjects as have transferred their allegiance to our government as citizens of the United States, but we cannot go into Victoria's dominions and compel her to regard them as such. As we have said before in these columns, the settlement of this question can only be effected by negotiation.

It would also appear, from the following extract, that Gen. Cass' policy is the only policy now in practice, though some papers have been humbugging the foreigner with the idea that Gen. Cass' policy is discarded by the President and Cabinet.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune says, as the Constitution would convey the idea that Gen. Cass' first letter upon the expatriation question asserted no view or opinion of the government, it is proper to state that thousands of such letters have been sent from the State Department, informing naturalized citizens who were going abroad of their liability to perform military duty, if claimed by governments of countries of which they were natives. No other opinion was obtained at the Department, nor were letters of any other description written upon the subject. The first letter of Gen. Cass that was published, was the stereotyped reply of the Department.

DR. DOY'S DISCOVERIES.—A Lawrence, Kansas, correspondent of the Boston Transcript says:—

"That Dr. Doy, who was delivered from St. Joseph jail last Sunday morning, is here in Lawrence, is no secret. He walks the streets openly, and is quite a lion. During the five months of his incarceration he has gathered some instructive and horrible facts in the economy of the peculiar institution. I cannot now give you the detail of his narrative. It only confirms that of which we have before had ample testimony, but which by its depth of barbarity has tasked and staggered our belief. There is beyond all doubt a regular business of kidnapping carried on in Western Missouri. Men, women and children, in whom any taint of African blood is visible, are seized and put to a torture, enough to shame the diabolical ingenuity of the Spanish inquisition, until forced to confess themselves the property of their tormentors. The jails of Western Missouri are made the "barracoons" of this slave trade, more lucrative and not less inhuman than that of transatlantic shores.

The wretched captives are taken to these dens, stripped, tied across chairs and mangled with scourges made of strips of tin tied in bunches to the ends of heavy billets of wood. I know of free born citizens of the United States tortured in this way, until half dead or mad with agony, they purchased deliverance from the torture by disowning their freedom, and doomed themselves to life-long bondage. In one instance the victim, an intelligent young man, who was in my service last winter, and who was kidnapped from Kansas by a party led on by U. S. officials of Lawrence and Lecompton, who was so enslaved and sold to go South, for one thousand dollars, by a citizen of Kansas.

BETSY BAKER'S BONNET.—The collection in the rooms of the Rhode Island Society for the Encouragement of Domestic Industry has received an interesting addition—a bonnet braided by Mrs. Betsey Baker, in exact imitation, braid, shape and trimming, of the first straw bonnet ever braided in this country. Sixty-one years ago, when this venerable lady was a blooming maiden, she determined to have a straw bonnet. Not knowing any other way to get it than to braid it herself, Miss Betsey Metcalf, that was her maiden name, saw an imported Dunstable straw bonnet in Col. Whipple's store, and being a true Yankee girl, she set herself to work to imitate it.—With no instruction, without the opportunity of unbraiding a specimen of the work to see how it was done, she persevered till she made a bonnet that was the envy of the other girls. Thence sprung a business which to-day employs 10,000 people, and turns out 6,000,000 bonnets and hats annually in the single State of Massachusetts.

The public attention was first directed to the subject, and to the service which one young lady's ingenuity had rendered to the country, by the memoir of Judge Staples, the Secretary of the Society. Her portrait, painted by Lincoln, and presented to the Society by Gov. Dyer, hangs upon the wall of the Secretary's office. A few days since she presented to the Society a fac simile of the first bonnet that she braided, and it will be preserved as a memorial of a most interesting incident, connected with a large and important branch of domestic production. The bonnet, it may be supposed, differs materially from those now in use.—Providence Journal.

"The amusements of the people of Boston consist in attending lectures, temperance meetings and fugitive slave law conventions, and at these they become at times very much excited. There lecturers are generally schoolmasters and professors (the people are nearly all professors.)"

The use of the Hypophosphites in CONSUMPTION, Scrofula, Nervous Debility, Asthma, Bronchitis, Dyspepsia, Female Complaints, and all other diseases depending upon a DEFICIENT VITALITY IN THE ELEMENTS OF THE BLOOD, have proved their INVARIABLE EFFICACY in thousands of cases in Europe and America, and established the claim of the discoverer, that they are a SUE PRESERVATIVE, and a

SPECIFIC REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION.

Dr. Churchill says: "In no single instance have I found the remedy fail to produce everything that could be reasonably expected from it. In most instances the benefit derived from it has FAR EXCEEDED what could at first have been hoped for, when taking into account the degree and extent of the injury sustained by the lungs previously to the use of the remedy. * * * * * Out of twenty-two cases in the third or last stage, treated at my Dispensary during the past year, EIGHT HAVE COMPLETELY RECOVERED, eight have died, and six are still under treatment. AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST, BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Research made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as a SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, in all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

THE ONLY ARTICLE
UNRIVALLED IN THE MARKET,
WITH IMMENSE
HOME AND EUROPEAN DEMAND.

The reason why, is that by Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, itching, and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nervous system, and thus cures all nervous headache, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy and beautiful, and if used by the young two or three times a week it will never fall or become gray; then, reader, read the following and judge for yourselves:

NEW YORK, Jan. 8, 1858.

MESSRS. O. J. WOOD & Co.

Gentlemen: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudices which I, in common with a great many persons, had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was but who having my prejudice without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof, and the best proof being occular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing establishment every day.

My hair is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking. I am, yours respectfully, HENRY JENKINS.

Cor. Columbia and Carroll Sts., Brooklyn.

LIVINGSTON, Ala., Feb. 14, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country. My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extent, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, &c. S. W. MIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—was in fact nearly bald. I have used but 2 half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. Judge from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours, respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D.,
No. 464 Vine Street.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

The Sagamore House, Frost's Point,
IS NOW OPEN.

This beautiful Summer resort, having been thoroughly repaired and re-furnished, is now open for permanent and transient boarders. It is pleasantly situated on Frost's Point, only three miles from the City of Portsmouth, and commanding one of the best views of the ocean of any place on the seaboard.

The subscriber, having leased this hotel for a number of years, flatters himself that, with his experience in the business, he will be able to make it a first class House, and patrons may be assured that no pains will be spared on the part of the proprietor, in point of order and moral tone, to make it compare with any hotel in New England.

S. B. FITTS, Proprietor,
au25w formerly of City Hotel, Newark, N. J.

Appledore House,
ISLES OF SHOALS.

This well known establishment, having been much enlarged and improved, is now open for the reception of boarders.

The "Celia Sibyl" will run daily from Pier Wharf, Portsmouth, immediately after the arrival of the morning train of cars from Boston, and return in the afternoon.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secresy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying that is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE REGULATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are not to be taken by the female in jest.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. j2 dly

DR. SWETT'S
CORDIAL OF DANDELION,
SPIKENARD & BONESET,
A remedy unsurpassed for Liver Complaints, such as Costiveness, Dizziness and Pain in the Head, Stomach and Side, Universal Debility, and the whole family of Consumptive Complaints.
Hundreds of testimonials might be added, proving the many cures by this pleasant and effectual medicine, especially of people advanced in life, whose debilitated constitutions have been greatly recruited by it. A trial of it is warranted to well pay the aged and dyspeptic. Price 75 cents.
[From Mrs. Daniel H. Williams.]
DR. SWETT—Dear Sir:—I presume you recollect that when I saw you, about a year since, I was very low, and had been for a long time, with dyspeptic complaints, being very weak, with no appetite, and pain in my head, stomach and side; but now my health is comparatively good, and I consider this great deliverance attributable, mainly, to the two bottles of your "Compound Cordial of Dandelion," which you left for me. I consider this the best medicine I ever found for the complaints for which you recommend it on the labels.
MARY E. WILLIAMS.
Concord, N. H., May 28, 1858.
ENFIELD, Sept. 8, 1859.
Last spring and Summer I was troubled with the Liver Complaint, which caused my food to distress me badly; and I do not know what cured me, but one thing I do know, and that is, I took one bottle of Dr. S. Swett's Cordial of Dandelion, and the disease left me, and has not returned.
A. K. CURRIER.
This unequalled medicine, together with others carefully prepared by Dr. SIMEON SWETT, from innocent but effectual vegetables, are for sale by him at No. 12 CABOT ST., Portsmouth, N. H.

Seven Octave Piano --- New Scale.
The Subscriber having just received a superior SEVEN OCTAVE PIANO-FORTE, made according to his order by the celebrated firm of HALLET, DAVIS & CO., would offer it for the inspection of persons desirous of purchasing. H. D. & Co. have recently made great improvements in the manufacture of Pianos; the most important of which is the New Scale, which, while obviating the weakness which has hitherto been found in the upper part of Square Seven Octave Pianos, gives it a power of tone nearly equal to that of the Parlor Grand.
Having been for several years Agent for the sale of Pianos of the above make, Mr. F. is prepared to state that the instruments which they are now making, far excel any of their former manufacture.
Purchasers will find it greatly to their advantage to call and examine the above mentioned Piano, as it is the only one in Portsmouth which contains the NEW SCALE.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 12, 1859.

BANNER OF TRUTH.

This is the name of a new weekly paper, just started in New York city, by Messrs. John W. Major & Co., 130 Nassau street. The editors are Rev. John W. Major and Rev. Geo. Hewlings. The principal feature of the paper is that each number will contain four or five sermons by distinguished clergymen of the Episcopal, Presbyterian, Baptist, Methodist Episcopal, Congregational, or Reformed Dutch Churches.

The number before us contains two sermons by Rev. Mr. Spurgeon of London; the famous anti-universalist sermon of the colored preacher, Lemuel Haynes; one by Rev. Dr. McClintock of New York city, and one by Rev. Dr. Bethune of Brooklyn.

In place of all comment, and to show the quality of the sermons, we make two extracts: the first from Mr. Spurgeon's sermon on the Lord's Prayer.

"Our Father which art in heaven."

I think there is room for very great doubt whether our Saviour intended the prayer of which our text forms a part, to be used in the manner in which it is commonly employed among professing Christians. It is the custom of many persons to repeat it as their morning prayer, and they think that when they have repeated these sacred words they have done enough. I believe that this prayer was never intended for universal use. Jesus Christ taught it not to all men, but to his disciples, and it is a prayer adapted only to those who are the possessors of grace, and are truly converted. In the lips of an ungodly man it is entirely out of place. Doth not one say, "ye are of your father, the devil, for his works ye do?" Why then, should ye mock God by saying, "Our Father which art in heaven?" For how can he be your Father? Have ye two Fathers? And if he be a Father, where is his honor? Where is his love? You neither honor nor love him, and yet you presumptuously and blasphemously approach him and say, "Our Father," when your heart is attached still to sin, and your life is opposed to his law, and you therefore prove yourself to be an heir of wrath, and not a child of grace.

The second extract is from Dr. Bethune's sermon on "O death, where is thy sting," &c.

Here is the sharpness of death's sting. It is the evidence and punishment of sin. It is the lowering darkness of the storm of wrath which is eternal. It is the hand of God tearing the sinner's shrieking spirit out of the world, and dragging him to judgment, thence to be cast down into pangs everlasting; while the grave holds the body in its unyielding grasp, till the Son of man comes in the clouds to execute his final vengeance upon each guilty soul, and its guilty instrument, the polluted flesh. O my hearers, it is the bitterness of death, that pleasant as sins may now be, death will soon and surely come; and after death the judgment, when every sin shall find us out, and the sinner have no excuse, nor plea, nor refuge from the flashing terrors of the inexorable law; and after the judgment, eternal woe for all condemned, and a prison-house, whose doors allow no escape, where remorse preys upon the soul like a venomous worm that never dies, and the wrath of God burns in fire unquenchable. O my God, what a strange lethargy must that sinner be in, who feels not the sting of death, but sleeps stupidly on, dreaming of lust, and gain, and pride, till death wakens him with eternal agony!

☞ The great wool sale at Cleveland, Ohio, on the 4th and 5th inst., was very successful. The Cleveland Herald of Saturday says: "So far as we can learn, the sale passed off to the satisfaction of all parties. Most of the sales were made direct to Eastern manufacturers, or their accredited agents. Buyers had to pay higher prices than the limits they set themselves when they came out, and the effect of the sale has been to sustain the rates paid at the opening of the season. In nearly every instance the lots went at an advance on the prices estimated by wool judges who were not in the market. The average quality of the wool sold was very good. One lot of 5000 lbs., sold at 75c. was pronounced by good judges to be of as good quality as any in America, and a lot of 800 lbs., at 72 c. was also of excellent quality. The quantity of wool sold did not fall short of 600,000 lbs., and the value must have amounted to over a quarter of a million dollars.

Great Grass Land.—Speaking of a Mowing Machine and its work, a cotemporary in the rural districts says:—

The place selected for the performance was a spongy meadow, the grass fine and thin—one of those fields so common among us, which the plow would render fertile, but which their owners are content to mow year after year for a crop of fifty tons to the acre.

We think anybody ought to be content with 50 tons to the acre, without plowing to make it more fertile.

Not Heard From.—There has been no news as yet received of the safety of Captain Frank Dale, (with his wife and son,) who lost his ship by a collision with an iceberg at night, May 4th, in lat. 50 S., lon. 71 W., and was supposed by Mr. Babson, the mate, to have left the ship in a boat with sixteen men, and steered for Falkland Islands.

☞ The Cleveland Leader thus notices a visit of Elizur Wright, of Boston, to the West:—

"The Rev. Elizur Wright, a boy raised in Talmadge, Summit county, educated at Yale, and Professor of the Western Reserve College in its early stages, is now at the Weddell House with his wife and eleven children, having been to Talmadge to visit his relations, several brothers and sisters, and their children. Seven children of Mrs. Wright, who is now 48, are deceased; the youngest living, twin boys, are six years old. Professor Wright has been prominent in the anti-slavery movement in Boston, where he resides. Elizur Wright, senior, and the Rev. Mr. Bacon, of New Haven, were among the first settlers of Talmadge, and gave enduring expressions to the township, by their devotion to learning, morality, and religion."

Uncle Toby is much gratified to be so minutely informed of the welfare of his old friends and housemates, the Wrights; but the prefix "Rev." looks rather droll on Elizur's name, and we fancy a good humored twinkle of his eye took place when he read it, and then a shortening of his phiz and something like a laugh, as he passed the paper to his wife. We don't believe he has ever taken priest's orders.

Maine Grand Division S. of T.—The Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance, met in Bangor Wednesday, July 27th. Notwithstanding the busy season of the year, an unusually large number of members was in attendance.

The Grand Scribe reported about 1200 members, with about the same number of visitors, admitted during the quarter, and 15 new Divisions; with a total of 117 Divisions, and about 4000 members and 3000 visitors.

The report of the Committee on the state of the Order elicited a debate, portions of which, especially the speeches of Bros. Crosby, Hoben, Colby and Jackson, were spirited and interesting.

The discussion was on the single point, of the expediency of the Sons of Temperance enforcing the law as an Order—indeed no one expressed an anti-prohibition sentiment.

It was not deemed expedient, on the whole, that the Order should do it directly,—and so the following report was adopted.

Your Committee are convinced that humanity and intelligence, morality and religion, and the eternal principle of right and justice demand that the traffic or sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage must be prohibited by a law thoroughly devised and rigidly enforced:—and—

That the true mission and leading purpose of the Order of the Sons of Temperance is to create and sustain such a moral sentiment in the community, with reference to the traffic in and use of strong drinks as a beverage, as will secure practical obedience to the great principle of total abstinence from all that can intoxicate, in every member of the community, and the entire suppression of such traffic.

☞ It is said that forty thousand people lately attended a prayer meeting at Belfast, Ireland. The footways were literally thronged with well-dressed and respectable looking people from the country—not passing along with the negligent and easy-going air of pleasure-seeking excursionists, but staid and solemn in demeanor—the younger as well as the elder; and the majority with Bibles or hymn books in their hands, as if proceeding to Sabbath service. On they passed towards the place of meeting, passed the glittering rows of gorgeous shops, and through the fashionable thoroughfares. The Rev. John Johnson, of Tullilish, Moderator of the General Assembly of the Irish Presbyterian Church, presided, and he was supported by the ministers of the different Protestant denominations in and around Belfast.

☞ A writer in the Pays speaks of the immense pride which the honest French rustics in the Provinces take in the bravery of their Emperor. They are all, he says, familiar with the story of the epaulette carried away by a ball. The simple truth about the epaulette is, that the Emperor, who wears the epaulettes of a General of Division, took one off to give to Brigadier General Auger, in token of his promotion, while he was lying wounded on the field.

Which shows that he was more devoted to the spirit than the letter of the law—more fond of wine-bibbing than biblical researches—more fond of libations than libraries.—Proc. Post.

St. Louis, Aug. 10.—One of the counterfeit checks on the Sub Treasury of St. Louis was received here yesterday. It is an admirable imitation of the genuine, and well calculated to deceive. The tools and materials seized by the U. S. Marshal were found in the church tithing office of Brigham & Young. The parties arrested are said to be Mormons of the highest standing. It is understood that the profits arrising from the transaction were to accrue to the benefit of the church.

☞ The capital employed in the St. Louis beer breweries, is nearly $20,000,000. The number of breweries in the city is 35. They produced last year 115,000 barrels of lager, and 74,000 barrels of common beer, which, at $8 per barrel for the former, and $6 for the latter, amounts to $1,336,406.

Religious Liberty in Lombardy.—The Press says:—"The Governor of Milan, representing Victor Emmanuel, has proclaimed liberty of worship, reading and printing. This is no ordinary privilege. It will do more to prevent the reflux of Austrian domination and sacerdotal intolerance than treaty or army or battlements. It will give the people a taste of enjoyment which it will be almost impossible entirely to eradicate at any future time, because the longer it lasts, the more extensively and firmly it will interlace and incorporate itself with the very life of the people. What is worthy of remark is the fact that this is not a Protestant insurrection against a Roman Catholic institution, resting its right on sacred Scripture, and deriving its growth from the overthrow of Roman dogmas, but a purely civil right exacted by Roman Catholics for the use of Roman Catholics. These have demanded and vindicated it as a political necessity of national existence."

Freemen at the Polls.—The dignity of Republicanism and beauties of free suffrage are illustrated in the following item, which we take from the Columbus (Ga.) Sun:

"Penning Voters.—We understand penning voters was extensively practiced in the recent election, by both political parties in the neighboring county of Russell, over in Alabama; and we have heard one instance related where some voters escaped, and were tracked up by dogs and made to come back and perform. There are said to be about three hundred floaters in that county who have to be cared for this way at every election."

☞ The Pope has addressed an autograph letter to the Cardinal Bishop of Albano, requesting him to invite all the faithful to Rome to join in a solemn thanksgiving for the cessation of war. The following is the principal passage of this document:

To thank God for the restoration of peace between the two great Catholic belligerent powers, is our duty; but to continue our prayers is a necessity, inasmuch as divers provinces of the States of the Church are still a prey to the men who are intent upon demolishing the established order of things, and it is with this view that in our days a foreign usurping power proclaims that God hath made man free as regardeth his political and religious opinions, thus denying the authorities established by God upon earth, and to whom obedience and respect are due, forgetting at the same time the immortality of the soul, which, when it passeth from this transitory world to the eternal one, shall have to answer unto the all powerful and inexorable Judge for those religious opinions; then learning too late that there is but one God and one faith, and that whoever quitteth the ark of unity shall be submerged in the deluge of eternal punishment.

Gov. Wise.—The Richmond Inquirer publishes a letter from Gov. Wise acknowledging the letter to Bernard Donnelly of New York, and also a letter from the latter, stating that it was published by a breach of trust.

☞ A correspondent of the New York Herald says:—"The party to whom the alleged Gov. Wise letter was written is said to be Mr. Bernard Donnelly, who is in the auction and commission business in William street, New York. He is represented to be a trustworthy Democrat and sincere friend of Gov. Wise. I can inform you with confidence that Gov. Wise is about to publish a letter some twenty or thirty columns long about this business, in which he will give a history of the Albany Regency."

☞ John Mitchell, before leaving Washington, made merry over the idea of his past interference in our politics, he not being, and not intending to be, an American citizen. He thinks that Europe affords a better field for revolutionists than this country. Movements there are spiced with danger. John is a humbug, and our naturalization laws are something worse.

☞ At Touraine, France, the announcement of peace was hailed with enthusiasm by all the farmers in that district. The want of hands to make up the harvest is so great that in some cases 10f. a day are given to reapers. There is a depot of Austrian prisoners at Blois, and the people requested the Mayor to permit the prisoners to assist in saving the crops. The Mayor complied with their request, and the farmers received them into their houses; they feed and lodge them, and provide them with a light dress to work in the fields. After their day's work, the prisoners, who are mostly Italians, and musical, delight the families with their singing.

☞ Last week a lady started from Albany for Geneva to make a visit. She took with her a favorite "cat" as a companion. The animal becoming somewhat troublesome was ejected from the cars at Fonda. Some days after, pussy walked into the house of the lady at Albany, to the utter astonishment of the family. The cat had returned home, a distance of over thirty miles.

Baltimore, Aug. 10.—This afternoon a gravel Train on the Alexandria, Hampshire & London Railroad was thrown off the track by running over a cow. The bridge over the four-mile-run was broken down. Two persons were killed and twelve injured, three of them it is feared fatally.

The Democracy of the North.—Senator Iverson, a fire-eating Georgian, in a recent speech, says:

"Whatever others may say—whatever delusive hopes may be entertained to the contrary—I consider all lost at the North. The constitutional, sound Democracy of the free States, if not dead and buried, are paralyzed and powerless. Even the bold, gallant, and once sound and unflinching Douglas, once the able and manly defender of Southern rights, has yielded to the storm, and bowed his thick and stubborn neck to the yoke. He has not, it is true, gone over 'bag and baggage' to the enemy, and announced his allegiance to them, but he stands to-day with one foot in our ranks and one in the ranks of our mortal foes, and he is surrounded by the very flower of the northern Democracy, who are ready to follow him, body and soul, 'horse, foot and dragoons,' into the enemy's camp, whenever his honest convictions or his selfish interests may speak the word of command."

The Manchester Union Democrat hereupon remarks:

"We entertain no affection for Douglas, but we do not like to see him assailed from that quarter. Six years ago the negro question was at rest, and the Democracy held, apparently by a very secure tenure, nearly every Northern State. In an evil hour, Mr. Douglas thrust his Kansas-Nebraska bill upon us, and doomed us to inevitable defeat. Mr. Iverson and his sympathisers spurred him on, but we have never learned that they realized any great advantage from our disasters. The presidential election of 1856 was barely saved by the fidelity of a few Northern States; and with such a warning, Mr. Iverson should generously allow Mr. Douglas to coquette a little for Northern strength. Upon questions of principle, we suppose he stands now where he stood in 1854, when the cotton fields and the sugar plantations were redolent with his praises. We found no fault with him then, nor have we since, upon matters of principle; but we condemned him then, as we have done since, as an unnecessary agitator of a dangerous question. The pretence that he is unfaithful to the South, is ridiculous, and would never be urged except as a part of a disunion programme, which is to be played out by dividing the Northern and the Southern Democracy.

We offer no comments; we only mark a few words in italic, for the attention of Northern Democrats.

Interesting to Lovers of Peaches. At a recent meeting of peach growers in Mercer county (says the Camden West Jerseyman), it was ascertained that in a space of country three miles square, there would be at least 20,000 baskets of peaches for shipment. In this space there are over 92,000 trees planted, 22,000 of which are bearing. The peach crop in the upper part of Mercer county, and in Hunterdon, promises a large yield. Of late years the region formerly celebrated for this delicious fruit has been abandoned, it being found that peach orchards will succeed but once on the same ground—at least an interval of several years' cultivation with other crops is necessary before a second orchard can be expected to succeed.

☞ Abraham Hinchman, a wealthy citizen residing in New York, came to his death on Sunday afternoon in a singular manner. The family, excepting himself, had gone to church, and, on their return, missed Mr. Hinchman. Supposing he had gone out to pay a visit, nothing was thought of his absence for some time. Towards evening, however, some one went to the out-house, and to his horror, found that the floor had fallen in, and that Hinchman's body was in the sink. The police were immediately summoned, and with some assistance, secured the body, but life was entirely extinct. Deceased was a single man, about 35 years of age, and is said to be worth some $70,000.

Fatal Accident.—At Charleston, last Monday afternoon, about 5 o clock, a convict at the State Prison, who was engaged in sweeping one of the corridors in the Prison, missed his footing and fell to the granite floor below, a distance of about 50 feet, killing him instantly. His name was Francis Ponce, 22 years of age, a Spaniard, and a native of Port Mahon. Deceased was serving out a sentence for robbing a Catholic Church, and had but a few months to stay.

☞ The Louisville Democrat gives an account of the spontaneous bursting of a barrel of whisky in that city, in which the cask was riven to fragments. Other similar explosions have occurred in Cincinnati. It is very common not only for whisky but for kindred liquors to explode in these diggings, generally after being put up in skin bottles not of the goat but of the calf; and the fragments are found scattered in the gutters and among the filth generally. —Bath Times.

Columbus, O., Aug. 10.—The Convention of the Clergymen of Ohio assembled today, and organized permanently by the choice of A. A. Guthrie, of Zanesville, as President, and ten Vice Presidents. All parts of the State are well represented.—A committee was appointed to report resolutions in opposition to slavery, and an address to the people of the State and Nation. At the submission of a series of resolutions the Convention adjourned till 9 o'clock tomorrow morniug.

☞ Rev. J. H. Garman of Scarborough, Me., has received a unanimous call from the Congregational church in Colebrook, N. H., to become their pastor.

There are three companions with whom you should keep on good terms: Your wife, your stomach, your conscience.

☞ Mr. Jeremiah Paul, of Newark, N. J., ran a rusty nail into his foot about a week since, and died on the 7th inst. from lockjaw.

☞ Profound silence in a public assemblage has been thus neatly described: "One might have heard the stealing of a pocket handkerchief."

☞ Valuable saltpetre beds have been discovered in Southern California.

The purify, heal, strengthen, build up and keep in order "the house you live in."

Doctors' prescriptions, clothed in Latin verbs,
Now yield the palm to Langley's Roots and Herbs;
Forsake vile drugs and cull from Nature's store,
As did the Patriarchs in days of yore.
Roots, Herbs and Barks, the best in Nature's store,
From broad Atlantic to Pacific's shore,
From North to South, their healing virtues lend,
And in these Bitters prove the people's friend.
They'll strengthen, warm, your bodies vigorous make,
Rouse drooping spirits and new blood create.

So if you wish to feel well, act well, do well and keep well, use this standard valuable medicine.

Orders addressed to J. O. LANGLEY, or to GEO. C. GOODWIN & CO., Boston.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

R. R. R.

Wm. B. Oliver, Esq., P. M., of Drayton, Dooly county, Ga., cured a girl, who had been for a number of years afflicted with Scrofula. She was covered from head to foot with sores; there was not sound flesh enough on her whole body to hold a twenty-five cent piece on.

SHE FELT HER CONDITION IMPROVE ON THE SECOND DAY.

The fourth day she was much better. On the 20th of April, 1853, she commenced the Resolvent, on the 20th of May, twenty-one days after she commenced its use.

SHE WAS SOUND.

Not a sore or blemish was upon her skin—nor was there any disease lingering in her system.

Mr. Oliver has cured many people in Drayton of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Fever and Ague, Swellings, Stiffness and Pains of various kinds, with Radway's Ready Relief; and many of his friends have been cured of Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Indigestion, &c., by Radway's Regulators.

R. R. Remedies are sold by Druggists generally.

Jaundice.

This yellow coloration of the skin is characteristic of an increased secretion of bile, or of its passage into the blood, in consequence of some obstruction in the circulation of the liver. Being itself but a symptom, the cause must be attacked in the central diseased organ; and ample experience proves that the PERUVIAN SYRUP acts in a wonderful manner in stimulating the liver to the proper performance of its duty.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (chess pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontitorumnos.

☞ Mrs. Winslow. an experienced nurse and female physician, has a Soothing Syrup for children teething, which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay all pain, and is sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants. Perfectly safe in all cases. See advertisement in another column.

Common Sense rules the mass of the people, whatever the misnamed and misanthrope philosophers may say to the contrary. Show them a good thing: let its merits be clearly demonstrated, and they will not hesitate to give it the most cordial patronage. The masses have already ratified the judgment of a physician, concerning the virtues of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, as may be seen in the immense quantities of this medicine that are annually sold in every section of the land. It is now recognized as greatly superior to all other remedies yet devised for diseases of the digestive organs, such as diarrhœa, dysentery, dyspepsia, and for the various fevers that arise from derangement of those portions of the system. Hostetter's name is rapidly becoming a household word, from Maine to Texas; from the shores of the Atlantic to the Pacific. Try the article and be satisfied.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Dyspepsia.

Considering the various forms in which this disease developes itself, it may well be called hydra-headed. In the train follow Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, Heartburn, Water Brash, Costiveness, Piles, Acidity, Oppression after Eating, Jaundice, Flatulency, Torpor of the Liver, Dizziness, Debility, Female Complaints, &c. Some of the first men in our land have given their written certificates relative to the cures effected in their own persons by the Oxygenated Bitters; while testimonials from other sources, editorial opinions and voluntary expressions from persons averse to see their names in print, are perfectly overwhelming.

East Taunton, Mass., Feb. 9, '58.

To the Editor of the Portland Mirror,—Sir:—

Oxygenated Bitters.—For more than twenty five years I have been a sufferer from the dyspepsia. Besides trying the patience of my family physicians in the almost useless trial of their various prescriptions, I have tried a great variety of patent medicines with a similar result. Through the kindness of my physician, I received last March, half a dozen bottles of the OXYGENATED BITTERS. I began to use them without any hope of deriving help from them. Being determined to give them a fair trial, I continued their use, but without any perceptible benefit till June.

Since then I have gradually improved in health till I am entirely free from acidity of the stomach, and from the consequent flatulency, and the awful and almost distracting sick headache, which often, for days together, has wholly unfitted me for study and for all other ministerial duties, and rendered life a burden.

I feel that I owe it, as an expression of gratitude to Messrs. Fowle & Co., and also a duty to the public, to recommend their Oxygenated Bitters, as, in my estimation, a sure remedy for the most trying, most vexing, and cruel of all diseases, to which poor human flesh is heir, the dyspepsia. Having suffered so long, and tried so many different remedies with no good result, I can recommend the Oxygenated Bitters with a confidence few others can. If any of the readers of the Mirror are suffering, I beg of them to make trial of these Bitters without delay.

TO THE CITIZENS OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

The Original and only London Gin Imported.

This Gin, distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—None other is Imported.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st.; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Pecker, 20 Elm st.; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. There are exactly 2000 rateable polls. [Last year 1880. The gain (?) is chiefly Irish voters naturalized before election.]

[The rate of taxation in Newburyport this year, is $9.60 on $1000.]

☞ Rev. Dr. E. H. Chapin, of New York, delivered a Lecture on Temperance to a crowded audience at the Temple on Wednesday evening. The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. Moses Howe, who was many years a minister here, and for many years since a seamen's chaplain and minister at large at New Bedford.

Mr. Chapin's address was one of his best and most successful efforts, abounding in argument, entreaty and persuasion; advocating total abstinence as a duty which the moderate drinker owes to himself and his own safety, if he finds it hard to leave his cups—and as a duty which he owes to others who are weaker, if he can leave off as well as not.

Mr. Chapin's grand idea is moral effort—but he is willing and desirous that the wholesome law should be enforced, and does what he can to make a public sentiment strong enough to enforce it on the traffickers, while in all kindness he would save their victims "from the fowler's snare."

The exercises were closed by a collection, the singing of a doxology by the congregation, and the benediction, pronounced by Rev. Mr. Holmes.

☞ The Rockingham Association of Universalists will hold their annual meeting in this city, on Wednesday and Thursday next, at the Universalist Church, beginning at half past 10 o'clock on Wednesday.

Should the weather be favorable, a large meeting is expected. A special train will be run over the Eastern Railroad on Wednesday, leaving Malden Centre Depot at 8 o'clock in the morning, and stopping at intermediate stations, getting here at half-past 10. Returning same evening, will leave this city at half past 4.

☞ There is to be a Grand Huckleberry Picnic at Candia, on Friday, Aug. 12. Cars leave C. & P. Depot at half-past 8. Tickets 40 cents. This is a rare opportunity for a fine ride of about thirty miles into the country, at about one-fifth of the regular fare; and the sunny weather the past week has ripened up the berries nicely. For tickets, apply to JOHN M. DAVIS.

DEATHS IN PORTSMOUTH.—The record of mortality for the month of July, embraces nine persons.

Males three—aged 32, 42, 64.

Females six—aged 5 months, 18 months, 17 years, 37, 42, 73.

☞ The grounds of Mr. John Rogers, Kittery, are looking finely; and there is no more delightful ride or walk than from Portsmouth (through Love Lane) to Mr. Rogers' gardens. His pinks, verbenas and dahlias are now out in brilliant array; at least 500 dahlias of all varieties being in full bloom, among which are some splendid specimens. Don't fail to go over and see his display, and get a boquet.

☞ Mr. Diman's Highland Cottage, at Stratham, is deservedly coming to be more and more popular. He has all the boarders he can accommodate, and a large number of daily visitors. He displays great taste in arranging his grounds, and spares no efforts to please callers. If you go out there, don't fail to come home through the woods—he'll tell you the way, and we know of no ten mile ride so pleasant.

PICNIC AT RYE.—The ladies of the Congregational Society at Rye, for the purpose of obtaining funds to improve the interior of their Church, will give a pic-nic in a pleasant Pine Grove near Rye Centre—on the road leading to Jenness' and Philbrick's beaches—on Wednesday afternoon, Aug. 17th (if the weather should be unfavorable, on the next pleasant day.) Entertainment abundant—cold meats, pastry, lemonade, ice cream, &c. &c. A band of music will be in attendance. Admission to the grounds free. **

☞ Mrs. Partington's Knitting Work, the Web of Many Textures, has just been published by Brown, Taggard & Chase of Boston—for sale by J. H. Foster and J. F. Shores. It is a neat volume of 408 pages, illustrated by Hoppin, and contains many of Mr. Shillaber's best papers, which have amused thousands of readers, without injuring or corrupting one. He is one of the very few writers whose genial humor reaches the common heart without losing its hold on the most cultivated and refined. The book will undoubtedly have a very extensive sale.

☞ The Christian Society of Kittery, Navy Yard Village, held a picnic in the woods near Love Lane, on Thursday.—Quite a large number of members of the Christian Society in this city, accepted the invitation to go over.

☞ See our auction column, for a variety of sales on Saturday—among them, a chance to buy a good horse and wagon at Wendell's; also varieties at Adams' Sales Room; a desirable residence in Anthony street; and a good house for removal, in Cabot street.

MORE KANSAS AGITATION THREATENED.—The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Journal of Commerce, one of the most devoted adherents which the Administration can boast, alludes thus to the anticipated application of Kansas for admission into the Union under the Constitution just framed at Wyandotte:

"It is doubted whether Kansas is to come into the Union at this session. The Senate may object to some irregularity in the proceedings, which are not in strict conformity with the provisions of the English Bill."

We observe that similar ground is taken by the New Orleans Picayune, Mississippi Southron, and other organs of Democracy in the South. Indeed the Democratic papers in that region are taking a bold position against admitting the State under any circumstances, with a constitution expressly interdicting slavery. That their objections will be seconded by the Doughfaces of the North, there can be little doubt, and it is therefore in a high degree probable that the "Kansas agitation" will be renewed at the next session with all its ancient bitterness. The country, however, will understand in this case who it is that originates the angry war, as well as the motive that prompts it. If the Democracy can stand it, we "guess" the Republicans will manage to "worry" it out without loss of votes or honor.—Portland Adv.

It is stated that Judge Douglas has written a letter defining his position on the naturalization question, and the African slave trade. He maintains that the Constitution recognizes no difference in the degrees of protection accorded by the Government to native and naturalized citizens. Touching the slave trade, he says that in the Convention which framed the Constitution, South Carolina and Georgia wished to continue the slave trade; Virginia, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York wished it terminated; New England was passive in the matter. South Carolina and Georgia finally carried their point of continuance till the year 1808, with the understanding that it should then end. It therefore became the vital compromise of the instrument and must be held as sacred as the instrument itself. In this view, Judge Douglas declares himself to be irrevocably opposed to the re-opening of the African slave trade. It will be seen, by a despatch from Washington, that a cargo of six hundred Africans has just been landed on the coast of Florida, notwithstanding the "compromise."—Boston Courier.

TAN BARK FOR POTATOES.—This subject is brought before the farmers of England by a communication in the Mark Lane Express. Mr. R. B. Bamford claims thirty-five years' practice and experience in this matter; and has issued a pamphlet giving his method of using it, which is in brief the following: He does not cut his potatoes for setting, but sets them whole, and the largest he can select. The rows are thirty inches apart, and the potatoes are put nine inches from each other in the row. The land is plowed eight inches deep, treads the manure firmly in the furrows, puts in the tubers, and covers them in with tan refuse, nine inches deep, instead of earthing up.—In this way he reports that in 1857 he raised 675 bushels of potatoes—not a rotten one among them—to the acre, with nothing but waste tan as a covering. This is of great importance, the tan refuse being of little or no value, and if it can be put to so important and advantageous a use as in this case, it should be widely known and practiced.

☞ A letter from Honolulu of June 17, says the eruption of the volcano is still active. A party who left San Francisco touched the lava stream at several points, roasting their pigs and chickens over its glowing fissures. They speak of one cataract of lava as indescribably beautiful and grand. It was sixty feet high, and about the same in width.

☞ On Tuesday the Jews commemorated the destruction of Jerusalem by a solemn fast—the devout Israelite not allowing food or drink to pass his lips from the preceding sunset to the close of the day. The day is known as Tisho Berov (the ninth day of Ab.)

☞ Rev. S. P. Fay, formerly of Hampton, N. H., and late of Dayton, O., has been dismissed from the Congregational Church in that place.

A GREAT TEMPERANCE MOVEMENT.—On the morning of the 4th of July we saw a number of men employed in tapping the hydrants in Broadway, N. Y., from the Battery to Fourteenth street (about three miles,) and attaching a tin cup by a chain, so that the multitudes who crowded to see the military procession might slake their thirst with pure Croton water, instead of being forced into grog-shops and bar-rooms to obtain a cooling beverage of doubtful liquor. This might well be done to all the hydrants, and if water fountains were well distributed in the more depraved parts of our city, much crime and debauchery would cease. The 4th of July movement was the inauguration of a great temperance reform, one likely to be of more practical value than forming temperance societies. Pure water, pure air, and whitewash are wonderful reformers, and we wish that the value of the three was more highly estimated by our city authorities than they are.—Scientific American.

A thick-headed squire, being worsted by Sidney Smith in an argument, took his revenge by exclaiming, "If I had a son who was an idiot, by Jove, I'd make him a parson." "Very probably," replied Sidney, "but I see your father was of a different mind."

It is remarked, as an evidence of the yet unsettled state of Italy, that since the Spanish war of succession (1701) Austria has lost and regained Lombardy no fewer than twelve times. On the 11th of July, 1859, she lost it for the thirteenth time.

GOOD FOR FEVER & AGUE.
GOOD FOR KIDNEY AND BLADDER COMPLAINTS,

and as a Beverage it has no superior in the world. It is manufactured by the proprietor, at Schiedam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use, by a process peculiar to his own Factory. It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spiritous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, Bladder and Kidney Complaints, &c. &c.

Put up in quart and pint bottles, in Cases of one dozen quarts, and two dozen pints, with the proprietor's name on the bottle, cork and label. For sale by all the respectable Country Merchants and Druggists. Look out for counterfeits and imitations, as the whole country is flooded with them
UDOLPHO WOLFE,
SOLE MANUFACTURER AND IMPORTER,
DEPOT 22 BEAVER STREET, NEW YORK.

TO THE PUBLIC.

I beg leave to call the attention of the American Public to the following Certificate from the Government Chemist for the Island of Cuba and the Spanish West Indies, and who is known to the Scientific men of London, Paris, Madrid, Cuba and America to be the first Chemist in the world.
UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHEMICAL TESTIMONY.

D. Jose Luis Casabeca, Corresponding Member of the Royal Academies of Madrid and Munich, a Graduate in Sciences of the Faculty of Paris, formerly Professor of Chemistry, as applied to the Arts, of the Royal Conservatorio of Madrid, and of Physic and Chemistry, as applied to the Industry and Agriculture of the country, in the Royal University of this Island, at present H. M.'s Director of the Institute of Chemical Investigation, &c., &c.

Do hereby certify, that at the request of the house of Gottig & Will, of this place, I have made an analytical examination of U. Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, with the object of ascertaining if it contained any substance noxious to health, and to inform them as to its true composition and relative quality with the other gins that are offered in the market, and the results of my observations and experiments are as follows:—

Udolpho Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps is a spirituous liquid, of a very agreeable aromatic odor, completely transparent and almost colorless, having only a very slight tint of yellowish gray; its flavor is strong and very agreeable to the palate. It marks 20 degrees in Cartier's alcohol weigher or 52 degrees 5 hundredth in Gay Lussac's alcohometre. By the distillation in a balnium maria, with an apparatus consisting of a glass retort and a recipient surrounded with ice, I have collected in this recipient an alcoholic liquid with a very agreeable aroma completely colorless and transparent, which marked 90 degrees in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, or 70 degrees 5 hundredth on Gay Lussac's alcohometre; and which represented as a whole 57 per cent. of aromatic Schiedam schnapps subject to distillation in the retort. This liquid did not soil the transparency of the distilled water in mixing it with the same, and its agreeable aroma is doubtless due to a very trifling amount of an essential oil inseparable from alcohol.

From the remainder of the distillation which was left in the retort, I have obtained, through evaporation in a vapor bath, a substance of a yellowish brown color, clear, and having a bitter taste, which is not disagreeable, and which afterwards becomes aromatic and leaves the mouth perfumed with that fragrance peculiar to the vanilla. I am inclined to believe that to this bitter and aromatic extractive substance, soluble in water and alcohol, the medicinal properties which are attributed to this gin are due. I have not found in Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps any mineral or organic substance other than the extractive one already named and the aromatic one obtained by distillation. Finally, Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps consists simply of an aromatic alcohol of 20 degrees of graduation in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, and of an extractive bitter aromatic substance, which perhaps, is medicinal; and, on account of its not containing any matter injurious to the health, as well as for its odor and good flavor—a fact which no doubt arises from the choice substances employed in its manufacture, and from the peculiar manner of its distillation, it should, in my opinion, be preferred to all the Holland, Belgic and German gins which are found in the Island which it has been my business to examine. These gins as I have often proved it, exhale a disagreeable odor, and have a more or less disagreeable flavor, some of them having left as was the case with the superior gin from the distillery of Mr. Henry Deetjen (of Bremen,) as residum after evaporation by steam, a substance almost insipid and very tringly aromatic, with flavor of vanilla, but in no wise with the delicious bitter and aromatic flavor of that of Udolpho Wolfe; and others, such as that labelled "Genuine Samaritan," "Extra Superior." Messrs. Tracher have furnished me with a very small quantity of a greenish substance, of harsh metalic taste and very disagreeable, which extractive organic matter was mixed with a salt of copper, with signs of iron, owing perhaps, to a bad system of distillation.

I certify that all that is here stated is the truth and agrees with the experiments I have made with the greatest care, and I authorize the house of Gottig & Will, of this city, to give publicity to this certificate, in Spanish and in foreign languages, in all countries where it may suit their interest to do so. JOSE LUIS CASASECA.
